

Contributors

Alessandra Asteriti, Ph.D. (University of Glasgow), LL.M. (University of Glasgow), MA (University of Essex), MA (University of Rome) is Junior Professor of International Economic Law at Leuphana University in Lüneburg. She has written in the areas of investment law, international law and legal theory.

Phoebus Athanassiou, Ph.D. (King's College), LL.M. (King's College), LL.B. (Queen Mary) is Principal Legal Counsel with the Legal Services of the European Central Bank. He is the author of Hedge Fund Regulation in the EU (2009), the editor of Research Handbook on Hedge Funds, Private Equity and Alternative Investments (Edward Elgar Publishing, 2011), and the author of several refereed journal papers of relevance to financial services, capital markets regulation, public and private international law. He sits on the Editorial Board of the ECB Legal Working Papers Series and the International In-house Counsel Journal, and is a qualified Greek Lawyer and Member of the Athens Bar.

Charles N. Brower is a former Judge at the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, The Hague, and a Judge ad hoc at the International Court of Justice, The Hague. He is a member of 20 Essex Street Chambers, London and regularly sits as an arbitrator in investment disputes.

Anna De Luca holds a Ph.D. in international law (University of Milan) and is an international law scholar and practitioner specialising in international investment law and arbitration, European external economic relations and trade law. She regularly lectures on these topics at Università commerciale Luigi Bocconi, Milan. She has been practicing in the field of investment arbitration since 2007 and is a Member of the ICSID List of Conciliators.

Alexandra Goetz-Charlier is a Barrister and Solicitor of New Zealand, Avocate à la Cour. She was formerly International Arbitration Law Clerk to Judge Charles N. Brower and an Associate at St James's Place (J Rothschild).

Matthias Goldmann is Junior Professor of International Public Law and Financial Law at Goethe University in Frankfurt. After studying Law in Würzburg and Fribourg, he obtained an LL.M. from NYU and a Ph.D. from the University of Heidelberg. Prior to joining Goethe University, he was a Senior Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute of Comparative Public Law and International Law in Heidelberg.

Anastasios Gourgourinis is Lecturer in Public International Law at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Faculty of Law. He is also a Research Fellow at the Academy of Athens and an advocate with the Athens Bar in Greece.

Rainer Hofmann is Professor of Public Law, International Law, and European Law, and Co-Director of the Wilhelm Merton Centre for European Integration and International Economic Order at the University of Frankfurt/Main. He is Member of the Advisory Board on International Law of the German Ministry for Foreign Affairs and President of the German Branch of the International Law Association (ILA). He sits on the Executive and the Management Board of the EU Fundamental Rights Agency, representing the Council of Europe.

Hayk Kupelyants is the Clifford Chance Lecturer in the Conflict of Laws at the University of Cambridge. His main areas of research are conflict of laws, international arbitration, and international finance. Hayk conducted his Ph.D. research at the University of Cambridge on the topic of sovereign debt litigation. He also practiced international dispute resolution with a major US firm.

Yanying Li is an associate with Clifford Chance, London. She mainly works in the field of banking and finance and is a member of the firm's Sovereign Debt Restructuring Group. Prior to joining Clifford Chance, Yanying was an assistant legal counsel at the Permanent Court of Arbitration in The Hague. She has published extensively on inter-creditor equity in sovereign debt restructuring.

Maurice Mendelson QC is a Barrister at Blackstone Chambers, London, and Emeritus Professor of International Law in the University of London (University College London). He practises in all aspects of international law, but specialises in, among other things, international investment law. He also sits as an arbitrator.

Michael Wolfgang Müller, LL.M. (Cambridge), is a law clerk (Rechtsreferendar) at the Munich Higher Regional Court and a lecturer at LMU Munich.

Christoph Ohler holds the chair for Public Law, European Law, Public International Law and International Economic Law at the Friedrich-Schiller-University of Jena, Germany.

Martins Paparinskis is a Reader in Public International Law at UCL Faculty of Laws. He is a generalist international lawyer with a specialist interest in international investment law. He is a Member of the Panel of Arbitrators of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes.

Prabhash Ranjan is an Assistant Professor of Law, South Asian University, New Delhi. Prabhash holds a Ph.D. from King's College London. As a British Chevening scholar, he read for an LL.M. at SOAS and UCL. He has been a visiting fellow at the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge. Prabhash teaches and publishes in the area of international investment law and world trade law.

Stephan W. Schill, Dr. iur. (Frankfurt), LL.M. (NYU), LL.M. (Augsburg) is Professor of International and Economic Law and Governance at the University of Amsterdam and Principal Investigator in the ERC-project on 'Transnational Public-Private Arbitration as Global Regulatory Governance'. He is admitted to the Bar in Germany and New York and is a Member of the ICSID List of Conciliators. He is also the Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of World Investment and Trade and author/editor of several books and articles on international investment law.

Marie Sudreau is a sovereign debt expert who worked for the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development from 2010 to 2016. She contributed to the launch of the UN Principles on Responsible Sovereign Lending and Borrowing as well as other initiatives aimed at enhancing international regulation in the field of sovereign debt and financing for development. Before joining the UN, she worked with the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development and the World Trade Organisation on matters related to international trade. She holds an MPA (Sciences-Po) and is also a Ph.D. candidate in international law (University of Geneva).

Christian J. Tams is Professor of International Law at the University of Glasgow, where he directs the Law School's LL.M. in international law. He is a German lawyer (qualified in 2005) and holds an LL.M. and Ph.D. from the University of Cambridge. He is a member of Matrix Chambers, of the Scientific Advisory Board of the European Journal of International Law and of the Young Academy of Scotland.