

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction to Leadership, Popular Culture and Social Change Kristin M.S. Bezio	1
PART I WRITTEN LEADERSHIP
1 Marlowe's violent reformation: religion, government and rebellion on the Elizabethan stage Kristin M.S. Bezio	11
2 Abdullah Munsyi's nineteenth-century travelogue and its continued influence on Malaysian Literature in English Kavitha Ganesan	27
3 Totalizing tyranny: Mario Vargas Llosa's The Feast of the Goat Mark A. Menaldo	39
4 Harry Potter and the leadership of resistance Kimberly Yost	53
PART II AURAL LEADERSHIP
5 Women troubadours, horizontal leadership and the Mississippi Summer Project of 1964: a missing chapter in Civil Rights Movement history Susan J. Erenrich	71
6 El Chapo for presidente : an examination of leadership through Mexico's narcoculture Patricia D. Catoira and Virginia K. Bratton	91
7 An idol leader: David Bowie, self-representation, otherness and sexual identity Shawna Guenther	107

PART III VISUAL LEADERSHIP

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 8 | A two-way street: the leader-follower dynamic in Glory and Twelve O'Clock High
Nicholas O. Warner | 125 |
| 9 | Becoming Other: self-transformation and social change in Neill Blomkamp films
Kimberly Yost | 146 |
| 10 | Ready, aim, feel: empathy, identification and leadership in video games
Kristin M.S. Bezio | 157 |
| 11 | “War. War never changes”: using popular culture to teach traumatic events
Kimberly Klimek | 168 |

PART IV DIGITAL LEADERSHIP

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 12 | Between artifice and emotion: the “sad girls” of Instagram
Eileen Mary Holowka | 183 |
| 13 | How light painters lead change through popular culture
Laura DelPrato | 196 |
| 14 | Beyond bans and beyond the classroom: Wikipedia, leadership and social change in higher education
Holly Connell Schaaf | 214 |
| | Epilogue
Kimberly Yost | 233 |
| | Index | 237 |