Contributors

Bankes, Nigel: Professor and Chair of Natural Resources Law, Faculty of Law, University of Calgary, and Adjunct Professor, University of Tromsø, Faculty of Law and KG Jebsen Centre for the Law of Sea. nd.bankes@ucalgary.ca

Belinskij, Antti: Professor of Environmental Law, Law School, University of Eastern Finland, and Research Professor, Finnish Environment Institute SYKE. Specialised in water, natural resources and nature conservation law, he heads legal research in the Winland project funded by the Finnish Strategic Research Council. He is Editor-in-chief of the leading environmental law journal in Finland (Finnish Environmental Law Review) and a member of the Board of the Finnish Society for Environmental Law. antti.belinskij@uef.fi

Coetzee, Hennie: Lecturer in the Department of Public, Constitutional and International Law at the University of South Africa (UNISA). B.Iuris, LLB (PU for CHE), PGDip Compliance and Risk Management (University of Johannesburg), LLM (NWU). His research focuses on aspects of environmental regulation and governance within sustainable development, with a specific focus on the regulatory and governance framework(s) of the nexus between energy security, water security and climate change. coetzjh@unisa.ac.za

Couzens, Ed: Associate Professor, University of Sydney Law School, Australia. BA Hons LLB (Wits) LLM Environmental Law (Natal & Nottingham) PhD (KZN). Attorney of the High Court, South Africa. He has participated in the research project ‘Legal Framework to Promote Water Security’ (WATSEC), financed by the Academy of Finland (268151). Main area of study and research: international and national environmental law: biodiversity and wildlife law specifically. Author of Whales and Elephants in International Conservation Law and Politics. couzens.ed@gmail.com

Couzens, Meda: Honorary Research Fellow, School of Law, University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban, South Africa. Law (Babes-Bolyai) MA (Bucharest) LLM (London) MChPr (UKZN). Doctoral candidate:
University of Leiden. Main area of study and research: international law relating to the protection of children. meda.couzens@gmail.com

Curran, Deborah: Associate Professor, University of Victoria Faculty of Law and School of Environmental Studies, Acting Executive Director Environmental Law Centre. Her research focuses on subjects of water law, regional sustainability and the pedagogy of field courses and clinical learning. She supervises Environmental Law Centre students working on environmental law projects for community organization and First Nation clients. Professor Curran was named the 2016 Land Champion by the Real Estate Foundation of British Columbia. dlc@uvic.ca

Dai, Liping: Associate professor (Hubei Water Affairs Research Centre, Hubei University of Economics), postdoctoral researcher (Utrecht Centre for Water, Oceans and Sustainability Law, Utrecht University). Doctoral degree in Water Law (Utrecht University 2015). Visiting researcher at the China International Water Law Programme of Xiamen University (China) in 2013, and at the Research Institute of Environment Law of Wuhan University (China) in 2016. Her research interests include water governance, urban resilience, and climate change adaptation. L.Dai@uu.nl

Fisher, Douglas: Emeritus Professor of Law at the Queensland University of Technology in Australia. He holds the degrees of MA, LLB and PhD of the University of Edinburgh. His involvement in natural resources law began in 1970 and he has pursued both academic and professional careers since then in Scotland, New Zealand and Australia. fishers74@icloud.com

Hollo, Erkki J.: Professor Emeritus of Environmental Law at the University of Helsinki. LLD (Helsinki Law Faculty), dr. iur. (University of Tübingen). Formerly Justice at the Finnish Supreme Administrative Court. Member of the Board of the Finnish Academy of Sciences and Humanities. Founder and chair of the Finnish Society for Environmental Law. Président d’honneur of the European Council for Agricultural Law (CEDR). About 300 publications on environmental and property law, legal sciences and comparative law. erkki.hollo@helsinki.fi

Kornfeld, Itzchak E.: Researcher (PhD) Faculty of Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem. kornfeld.itzchak@mail.huji.ac.il

Kotzé, Louis J.: Research Professor of Law at the Faculty of Law, North-West University (Potchefstroom Campus), South Africa and Visiting Professor of Environmental Law at the University of Lincoln (UK). B.Com, LLB, LLM (cum laude), LLD (North-West University), PhD
Contributors

(Tilburg University). Author, co-author, and co-editor of over 100 publications on South African and global environmental law. His research focuses on the Anthropocene, environmental constitutionalism, human rights, and global environmental governance. Louis.Kotze@nwu.ac.za

Kuokkanen, Tuomas; Docent of International Environmental Law, University of Eastern Finland, Docent of International Law, University of Helsinki. Doctor of Laws (University of Helsinki). Currently, Justice at the Supreme Administrative Court of Finland. Previously, he has worked as a Ministerial Adviser with the Ministry of Environment of Finland and as a part-time Professor of International Law at the University of Eastern Finland. He has published a number of articles on international environmental law. tuomas.kuokkanen@oikeus.fi

Mascher, Sharon; University of Calgary Faculty of Law, Professor. Professor Mascher’s research focuses on the subjects of climate change law, environmental law and indigenous land governance. She teaches and supervises graduate students working in the areas of climate change regulation, environmental law and property law. Professor Mascher is the co-editor of the Journal of Environmental Law and Practice and an Honorary Fellow in the University of Western Australia Faculty of Law. smascher@ucalgary.ca

Nyanchaga, Ezekiel Nyangeri; Professor, Department of Civil and Construction Engineering, University of Nairobi. He is a qualified licensed practicing consulting engineer with over 37 years of professional experience in planning, design and supervision of water supply and wastewater engineering projects, irrigation and drainage, water resources engineering, contract management, technical audit, monitoring and evaluation. He has authored several books, e.g. History of Water Supply and Governance in Kenya (1895–2005). enyangeri@uanbi.ac.ke

Onestini, Maria; Director, Centro de Estudios Ambientales (CEDEA)/Centre for Environmental Studies in Buenos Aires, Argentina. She has been an invited lecturer at several universities in different countries and is a consultant to various agencies of the United Nations and of other international and regional institutions. She has published widely in environment and development issues. rponesti@criba.edu.ar

Paloniitty, Tiina; LLM (University of Helsinki), doctoral candidate. Paloniitty’s doctoral thesis deals with agricultural runoff governance and the regulation of adaptive water management in the EU. Previously Paloniitty’s work has been published in, for example, the Journal of...
Enviromental Law and Journal of Human Rights and the Environment. tiina.palonitty@helsinki.fi

Reese, Moritz; Senior researcher (Dr. iur.) at the Department for Environmental and Planning Law of the Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research in Leipzig, Germany. Core fields of research are water law and governance as well as climate adaptation. Chair of the Governance Division of the Center for Advanced Water Research (CAWR) and German rapporteur to the European Water Law Network. He is also chairman of the European Environmental Law Forum (EELF) and editor in chief of the Journal for European Environmental & Planning Law. moritz.reese@ufz.de Schmidt, Bram; Environmental lawyer at Stibbe, the Netherlands, with research experience in environmental law, sustainability and law and water law. BramSchmidt@live.nl

van Rijswick, Marleen; Professor (Dr./PhD) of European and Dutch Water Law at Utrecht University (The Netherlands) and Visiting Professor of European Environmental Law at Université Panthéon-Assas, Paris (France). She leads the Utrecht Centre for Water, Oceans and Sustainability law. In 2015 she was Visiting Professor of International and European Environmental Law at Wuhan University (China). h.f.m.w.vanrijswick@uu.nl

Vihervuori, Pekka; LL.D. President of the Supreme Administrative Court of Finland from 2012. Previously justice of the said court, professor of environmental law or land law in four Finnish universities, and ministerial legislative counsellor. About 180 publications on the various fields of environmental law in a broad sense, and on procedural law. pekka.vihervuori@oikeus.fi