

Contents

Contributors	vii
Foreword by Herbert C. Kelman	x
Preface	xii

PART I CONCEPTUAL APPROACHES TO DIALOGUE

- 1 A new approach to an old conflict – identifying the problem and imagining a solution 3
Michális S. Michael and Yücel Vural
- 2 Locating the Cyprus problem within conflict resolution 20
Michális S. Michael and Maria Hadjipavlou

PART II REVIEW OF GREEK, TURKISH AND CYPRIOT POLICIES AND POLITICS

- 3 What does Turkey want from Cyprus? 47
Altuğ Günal
- 4 Turkey's geopolitical vision of Cyprus 64
Nikos Moudouros
- 5 The Turkish Cypriot dilemma: between Ankara and Lefkosia 79
Yücel Vural, Sertaç Sonan and Michális S. Michael
- 6 Greece and the Cyprus peace process: perceptions and misperceptions 100
Alexis Heraclides

PART III NEW ROLES AND ENGAGEMENTS

- 7 Refugees, settlers and diasporas in the Cyprus conflict 119
Başak Ekenoğlu and Neophytos Loizides
- 8 Re-engaging the United Nations in Cyprus 135
Ahmet Sözen

9	Greek Cypriot perceptions of the United Nations Constantinos Adamides and Michalis Kontos	145
10	The limits of the EU in the Cyprus conflict: the Greek Cypriot perspective George Christou	155
11	The EU's role in the Cyprus conflict: a Turkish perspective Erhan İçener	173
PART IV CONSTRUCTING TWO BINARY STRATEGY POSITIONS
12	Greek Cypriot approaches to the Cyprus problem Michális S. Michael	187
13	Turkish Cypriot approaches to key aspects of the Cyprus problem Yücel Vural and İbrahim Özejder	203
PART V MOVING FORWARD DIALOGICALLY: CROSSOVER REFLECTIONS AND DEBATES
14	Reflections on the Cyprus peace process George Vassiliou	221
15	Reflections on the Greek Cypriot approaches: 'virgin birth' solution Mehmet Ali Talat	226
16	Between the 'feasible' and the 'desirable' Dimitris Christofias	233
17	'Zero risk' solution Derviş Eroğlu	240
18	Reflections on the Turkish Cypriot approaches Yiannakis Omerou	244
19	Reflections on the Greek Cypriots' basic approach to the Cyprus problem Aysu Basri Akter	248
	Index	255