

Index

---

- actor-centred perspective on
  - institutional change
    - bricolage mechanism 35–7
    - importance and relevance 34–5
    - integrating insights from 12, 37
- aid-based economies 21, 24
- Akayev, Askar 26, 30
- Akbar, Y.H. 240–41
- Andreu, R. 212–13, 224
- ‘Anglo-Saxonization’ pressure 174
- antiquarianism 47–8
- Armenia
  - as captured state 23
  - designation as “Caucasian Tiger” 122–3
  - EBRD transition indicators 28–9
  - entrepreneurial activity 134, 136
  - FDI and international trade 128–32
  - importance of diaspora 139–42
  - importance of institutions 132–9
  - institutional environment indicators 27
  - macroeconomics and labour market evolution 122–8
  - risks 130–32, 138, 143
  - showing progress and resilience 143
  - as structurally and institutionally different from Georgia 143–4
- Arslan, A. 210–12, 214–17, 220–22
- Åslund, A. 130, 189, 209
- authoritarianism
  - Azerbaijan 154
  - Belarus 188, 204
  - establishment across Central Asia 190
  - infant mortality and 104
  - rise in international system 110
  - Uzbekistan 46–8
- automotive industry 50–54
- Azerbaijan
  - as captured state 23
  - characterized by powerful social ties 178
  - close ties with Turkey 148–9, 169–70
  - Constitution 153–4, 161–2
  - corruption 250
  - developments
    - in economic and political structure 150, 152–6
    - in industrial relations 160–64, 166
  - EBRD transition indicators 29
  - Georgia benefiting from integration with economy of 130
  - industrial relations
    - change and transformation 164–9
    - developments in 160–64
    - need for cooperation in 169–70
  - institutional environment indicators 27
  - Labour Code 160, 163
  - labour laws 163, 169
  - Law on Collective Bargaining and Agreements 162–3
  - Law on Trade Unions 162
  - liberalization 153–4, 156, 165
  - media independence 239–40
- Belarus
  - corruption 194–6
  - decision-making 196–7, 199
  - emphasizing need for stability 188
  - equity commitment handling 215–16
  - in EU transitional periphery 217
  - FDIs made in 218
  - informal connections 187, 196, 201–4
  - investment decisions 187–8, 190, 199, 203–4
  - konserns* 188, 195, 198–201, 204
  - as lagging reformer 22–3, 26
  - privatization 194–6

- 'pseudo-market' system 191, 196, 204
- research approach
  - measurements 197–8
  - methods 198
  - problems 196
  - sample 197
- state–business relations
  - leading to two disparate economies 204
  - measuring 197–8
  - model developed in 191
  - preservation of Soviet-style 203–4
  - in study aims and objectives 187–9
- state-owned and quasi-privatized enterprises 188, 192, 194–9, 204
- study discussion 203–4
- study findings 199–203
- suitability for FDI 210
- theory and research questions 188–96
- weaknesses of international indices 193–6
- blat* (informal networks) 80, 85, 187
- Bosnia
  - in EU transitional periphery 217
  - FDIs made in 218, 224
  - as intermediate regime 23
- bribery 50–52, 113, 193, 240, 243–7
- bricolage 35–7
- Bush, George W. 103
- Business Environment Risk Intelligence (BERI) 98–9, 101
- business indices, weaknesses 193–6
- Campbell, J.L. 12, 34–7
- capitalism
  - Azerbaijan struggling with 153
  - clan-based 113, 116
  - patrimonial state 188
  - transition from socialism to 63
  - varieties of 20–21, 24, 133–4
- captured states 21, 23
- Carney, M. 34–6
- CAST project 104–5
- CC see comparative capitalism (CC)
- Central Asian periphery
  - countries comprising 27–9
  - ethnic-clan neopatrimonialism 190
  - GDP growth in 113
  - legacy of Russian colonial rule 47
  - new archetype for 2–3
  - political risk assessments 112–13
  - post-Soviet power 30
  - SMEs suffering from widespread corruption 190–91
  - uncertainty and unpredictability 116
  - see also* Eastern Europe and Central Asia (EECA)
- civil strife 97–8, 100, 102, 104, 108–9, 112
- clan-based capitalism 113, 116
- clientelistic capitalist economies 21, 24
- Closson, S. 187, 189–90
- collective bargaining
  - in Azerbaijan 160–67, 169
  - in Turkey 156–9, 165–7, 169
- Collins, K. 2–3, 30, 44, 113
- Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS)
  - FDI 53, 129–30
  - natural resources 23
  - research focus 177
  - types of capitalism 24
- comparative capitalism (CC)
  - as applied to transition economies 21
  - early literature 1–2
  - integrating insights from 12, 37
  - new archetype 2–3
  - resource windfalls 3–4
  - VoC as dominant approach to 20
- comparative institutionalism approach 25
- compliance with rules/laws
  - in EECA transitional periphery 246–9
  - importance of strategy 242
  - rewards offered to EU-11 countries 238–9
  - tax rules in Tajikistan 32
- compound annual growth rate (CAGR) 122–3
- conditionality 238–9
- constituency-based strategies 236, 241–2, 244, 251
- construction
  - Armenia 122, 129–30, 135
  - Uzbekistan 49–50, 54

- coordinated market economies (CMEs)
2, 176–80
- corruption
in Armenia and Georgia 137
in Azerbaijan 154
in Belarus 194–6
in Central Asian states 113–14, 190
in EECA countries 240, 243–5, 247, 249–50
in Russia 190
in telecommunications 51–2
in Uzbekistan 45, 49, 54–5
Worldwide Governance Indicators
105–6
- Corruption Perception Index (CPI)
193–7, 202, 240
- country-specificity
host investment experience 215–16, 225 need for approach 143–4
for understanding EEFSU 133–4
- credit availability
in Armenia and Georgia 127–8, 132, 135
in Belarus 193–4, 197
- Croatia
in EU transitional periphery 217
FDIs made in 218
high degrees of uncertainty 220
large MNEs setting up minority control subsidiaries 221
as liberal society 23
reforms and removal of restrictions 224 state-led capitalism 22
- Croucher, R. 188, 191, 196, 201–2, 211
- culture
in Armenia and Georgia 141
local business 139
traditional nomadic 81–2, 87–8
- Dabrowski, M. 26, 191–2
- Danilovich, H. 188, 191, 195–6, 201–2
- Deeg, R. 18, 20, 25, 81, 85, 133, 174
- Demirbag, M. 1–2, 5–8, 18, 50–52, 112–13, 181, 213–14
- democracy
crisis of Western 110, 116
discrediting 45–7
- indices 105, 113, 239–40, 247
Kyrgyzstan's push towards 30
Law on Trade Unions 157
Mongolian 59–60, 63
as variable in risk assessment models
99, 103, 108
- diaspora
in Armenia and Georgia 139–42
benefits of 139–40
business 144
dispersion effect 140–43
index of effectiveness 142 size related to money inflows 45
- Diez, J.R. 210–11, 224
- Dikova, D. 210–12, 215–17, 221
- dispersion effect 140–43
- Doing Business (DB) dynamics for Belarus 193–4
indicators 27–8
ratings/rankings 134–5, 193
weaknesses 136, 191, 193–4, 197
- Drahokoupil, J. 12, 21, 23–6, 84, 211, 224
- early institutionalist approach 13–14
- Eastern Europe and Central Asia
(EECA) countries comprising 251
definition 233
nonmarket environment research gap 233–4
nonmarket strategies avenues for further research 250–51 conceptual challenges in study of 234–6
implications of 248–50
in transitional periphery 244–9
transitional periphery
Hillman–Hitt model in 241–4
institutional context 236–41, 248
nonmarket strategic focus in 244–9
- Eastern Europe and former Soviet Union (EEFSU)
1990s economic collapse and social crisis 122, 132
CAGR annual GDP purchasing power parity growth rates
122–3

- changes in domestic credit to private sector 127
- FDI inflows 129
- GDP per capita 124
- improving living standards 124–5
- magnitude of credit growth 127
- shadow economy in 136–7
- social and labour market indicators 126
- unending social evolution in 134
- economic distress 106
- economic structure
  - developments in Azerbaijan 150, 152–6
  - developments in Turkey 150–52
  - influence on industrial relations 164, 169, 180
  - transitions in Mongolia 59–62
- Economist Intelligence Unit (EIU) 98–9, 101, 106–8
- EECA see Eastern Europe and Central Asia (EECA)
- EEFSU see Eastern Europe and former Soviet Union (EEFSU)
- employees, delegation to 177–9
- employer–employee interdependence 179–80
- entrepreneurship research
  - bricolage theory in 36
  - survey on Armenia and Georgia 134–6
  - utility of NIE in research on transition economies 17–20
- in Uzbekistan 190–91
- equity commitment
  - aim of study 211
  - avenues for further research 226
  - correlation with MNEs 219–26
  - relationship with company resources
    - FDIs 223
    - full sample 220
    - strength of 226
    - in Ukraine sub-sample 222
  - statistical analysis technique 219
  - study limitations and implications 224–6
  - theory and hypotheses 212–16
- Estrin, S. 18–19, 209, 211, 220
- ethnic-clan neopatrimonialism 189–90
- EU-11 countries 237–41, 247, 249
- EU conditionality 238–9
- EU transitional periphery
  - characteristics of 209–12
  - Nordic MNEs in 212–26
  - as under-researched 224
- European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)
  - fact-based, data-driven policy-making 243
  - indicators for countries in transitional periphery 29
  - reports
    - on Armenia and Georgia 134
    - on EEFSU region 124–5, 128
    - on Tajikistan 26, 30
    - on Uzbekistan 49
  - transition indicators 28–9, 134
- Export Development Canada (EDC) 98, 100
- factionalism 106–7
- failed state
  - concept 102–3
  - index 101
  - indicators 104–5
- FDI see foreign direct investment (FDI)
- financial strategies 236, 241–4, 251
- firm behaviour 12–13, 17, 25–6, 31, 34, 37
- “five forces” model (FFM) 121, 143–4
- foreign direct investment (FDI)
  - in EU-11 countries 238, 240
  - FDI-based market economies 21, 24
  - as force of socio-economic change 121, 143
  - in Georgia and Armenia 128–32
  - in Kazakhstan 210
  - in Mongolia 58, 60–61, 83–4
  - and Nordic MNEs 213–14, 216, 218–20
  - relevance for institutional transition 128–32
  - Tajikistan’s efforts to attract 28
  - in Uzbekistan 51–5
- former Soviet republics see former Soviet Union (FSU)
- former Soviet Union (FSU)
  - Armenia’s and Georgia’s shares 129

- diaspora investors 140 emerging corporate culture in 138 exchange rates 131–2
 first two decades of transition 187 gaining independence 44 gradual transformation 143 institutional diversity among 21 process of transition 21–34, 38
see also Eastern Europe and former Soviet Union (EEFSU)
- Fragile State Index 113, 115
 Freedom House 115, 239, 246–7
 Freedom Index 105, 113, 115
 Frynas, G. 2–3, 138
 FSU see Eastern Europe and former Soviet Union (EEFSU); former Soviet Union (FSU)
- Furubotn, E.G. 14–16, 34
- geopolitical risk concept of 109
 factors exacerbating 109–10 global developments enhancing 110–11
 as type of political risk 98
- Georgia
 comparison with Tajikistan 30–31
 EBRD transition indicators 28–9
 entrepreneurial activity 134, 136
 FDI inflows comparison with Armenia 128–30, 132
 by foreign MNEs 210
 by Nordic MNEs 217–18, 224
 importance of diaspora 139–42
 importance of institutions 132–9
 institutional environment indicators 27
 as intermediate regime 23
 international trade 128–32
 macroeconomics and labour market evolution 122–8
 risks 130–32, 138, 143
 showing progress and resilience 143
 as structurally and institutionally different from Armenia 143–4
 type of capitalism 22
- Gerber, T.P. 45–6, 125
 German Agency for International Cooperation (GIZ) 130, 138–41
- Gevorkyan, A.V. 121, 123, 125, 128, 130–32, 139–42
 Gore, Al 102–3
 ‘gradualism’ 23, 122, 143, 237
- Hall, P.A. 1, 16, 20, 25, 85, 132–3
 “happiness convergence” 124–5
 Harzing, A.-W. 174–5, 217
 Havrylyshyn, O. 12, 21, 23
 Heath, P.S. 16–17, 35
 Hennart, J.F. 211, 217, 224
 ‘heritage’ in management 240–41
 hierarchical market economies (HMEs) 138
- Hillman, A.J. 7–8, 177, 234–6, 247–8
 Hillman–Hitt framework 234–6, 241–2, 244–6, 251
 Hitt, M.A. 7–8, 18, 25, 234–6, 247–8
see also Hillman–Hitt framework
- hotels and hospitality sector in Georgia 130
 HRM in 175–6
 in Mongolia 62
 US HotelMNC aim and objectives of study 173–4 delegation to employees 177–9
 employer–employee interdependence 179–80
 future research avenues 181–2
 host country factors re HRM practices in subsidiaries 176–7
 institutional context 174–5
 research evidence 176–80
 research implications 180–81
- household consumption 125, 127
 Howell, L.D. 97–9, 101
 HRM see human resource management (HRM)
- human development indexes 125 human resource management (HRM)
 future research avenues 181–2
 in hospitality sector 175–6
 HotelMNC chain subsidiaries employee viewpoint 178–9
 host-country factors determining application in 176–7
 literature 173
 research evidence 176–80

- study findings
  - application of policies
    - encountering pressures 181
    - investment in infrastructure 180
  - study limitations 181
  - study objectives 174
- hybrid state/market uncoordinated capitalism 21–2
- Ilkhamov, A. 45, 47, 187
- industrial relations
  - Azerbaijan and Turkey
    - close ties 149
    - need for cooperation 169–70
  - change and transformation 164–9
  - crisis in Turkey leaving negative mark on 152
  - development
    - in Azerbaijan 160–64, 166
    - in Turkey 156–9, 166
  - economic and political structures
    - born as subsystem of 148
    - decisive dominance of 180
    - influence on 164, 169
  - questions pertaining to 148
- informal connections
  - Belarus 187, 196, 201–4
  - Uzbekistan 191
- informational strategies 236, 241–5, 251
- institutional change
  - actor-centred perspective on 34–7
  - diaspora becoming important harbinger of 140
  - as difficult to capture 134
  - non-linear shape of 12, 21
  - path-dependent evolutionary 35–6
  - relevance of FDI and trade 128–32
  - transition economies
    - subject to continuous 21
    - undergoing radical 17
- institutional complementarity 20–21, 31
- institutional divergence 12–13, 20–34, 38
- institutional environment
  - bricolage reconfiguring macro 36
  - broader conceptualization of 16
  - changes in corporate governance depending on 138
  - differences in developed, emerging and transition economies 18
  - lack of emphasis on emerging variations in 12
  - as mix of economic, political and social structures 17
  - of transition economies
    - Belarus 193, 196
    - CC literature silent on 21
    - Georgia and Kyrgyzstan 30–31
    - indicators of 27
    - Kyrgyzstan and Tajikistan 26, 28–9, 31–3
    - as weak and informal 19
    - uncertainty in 15–16
    - unstable 12, 37, 190
  - institutional legacy
    - Soviet 190, 204
    - systems of 121–2
  - institutional theory
    - allowing research into transition economies 12
    - distinctive streams 13–14
    - importance and relevance 13
    - North's contributions to 17
    - role of government-established institutions 85
    - 'second movement in' 34
- institutions
  - in Armenia and Georgia
    - diaspora 141–2
    - importance of 132–9
  - avenues for further research 38
  - in Azerbaijan 160–64
  - capitalist 35
  - characteristics in Central Asian states 113, 116
  - of communism 240–41
  - democratic 46, 108
  - distinction with organizations 14, 16
  - economic actors' influence on 36–7
  - formal and informal 16–17, 31, 34–5, 187
  - government, in Belarus 188, 197, 200–201, 203–4
  - independent 239
  - in Mongolia
    - changes in economic 60–61
    - evolving financial and political 85–6, 89

- of non-EU EECA and EU-11 countries 240
- political risk assessment 99–100
- post-Soviet 46
- research focus on 17–18
- as ‘rules of the game’ 14–15
- uncertainty and transactions costs 15–16
- US MNCs 174–5
- Western 237–8, 245–6, 250
- intermediate regimes 21, 23
- international business (IB)
  - Armenia and Georgia in literature framework 138, 143–4
  - distinguishing between ‘big bang’ versus gradual model of transition 25
  - EU transitional periphery as under-researched 224
  - market entry studies 211
  - MNE literature 213–15, 222, 224
  - rising importance of nonmarket strategy 234
  - studies ignoring transitional periphery economies 210
  - utility of NIE in research on transition economies 17–20
  - waiting versus acting dilemma 121
- International Country Risk Guide (ICRG) 98–9, 101
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 26, 59–60, 111, 131, 152–3
- Invest in Georgia 59–60
- Jackson, G. 18, 20, 25, 81, 85, 133, 174
- Jeenbekov, Sooronbay 30
- Karimov, Islam 44–5
- Karimova, Gulnara 45, 51–2
- Kazakhstan
  - as captured state 23
  - EBRD transition indicators 29
  - equity commitment handling 215–16
  - FDIs made in 218
  - high degrees of uncertainty 220
  - institutional environment indicators 27–8
  - large MNEs setting up minority control subsidiaries 221
  - political risk assessment 112–15
  - reforms and removal of restrictions 224
  - resource-rich economy 210
  - type of capitalism 22
- Kisilowski, M. 240–41
- kontserns* (industrial ministries) 188, 195, 198–201, 204
- Kostova, T. 13–14, 138, 235
- Kyrgyzstan
  - changes in political landscape 26, 28, 30
  - comparison with Tajikistan 26–34
  - EBRD transition indicators 29
  - institutional environment indicators 27–8
  - as intermediate regime 23
  - membership of WTO 26
  - perceptions of national institutional environment 31–4
  - political risk assessment 113–15
  - radical transition programme 26
  - rule of law and regulatory quality 112, 114
  - transition comparable to Georgia 30–31
  - whistleblowing 178
- labour market dynamics
  - in Armenia and Georgia 122–8, 130, 143
  - in Azerbaijan 160–64
  - EEFSU region 124, 126
- Labour, Social Security and Employment Agreement 149
- lagging reformers 21, 23, 26
- Lane, C. 1–2, 20
- Lane, D. 2, 12, 21–2, 132–3
- Larimo, J. 210–12, 214–15, 217, 219, 221–2
- Laruelle, M. 45, 174, 187
- legacy state involvement 138–9
- liberal market economies (LMEs) 2, 175–80
- liberal societies 21, 23
- liberalization reforms 139
- Luo, Y. 213–14, 221
- Macedonia
  - antiquarianism 47–8
  - as intermediate regime 23

- Makhmadshoev, D. 12–13, 16, 18–19, 21, 25–6, 28, 33
- MAN scandal 50–51
- management in Mongolia
- implications
    - for managers 87–9
    - for political authorities 89
  - influences on
    - evolving financial and political institutions 85–6
    - socialist legacy 82–3
    - traditional nomadic culture 81–2
    - Western management knowledge and ‘market forces’ ideology 83–5
  - knowledge gaps 58–9
  - nature of
    - managers’ views of managerial roles 78–81
    - understanding of notion of ‘management’ 77–8
    - understanding of notion of ‘manager’ 67, 77
    - ‘non-native Mongolian managers’ 65–6, 69–70, 73, 77–80, 83, 86, 88–9
  - research methods 64–7
  - ‘socialist era managers’ 64–6, 72, 77–9, 81, 83, 88
  - socialist legacy influencing 82–3
  - ‘transitional era managers’ 65–6, 74, 77, 83–4, 88
  - understanding 86–7
- manufacturing
- Belarus 192, 197, 204
  - Georgia and Armenia 130–31
  - Nordic MNEs 216–17
  - Uzbekistan 50–51, 53–4
- market entry
- equity commitment decisions at
    - stage of 211–17, 219–22, 224
    - studies 210
- media independence 105, 239–40, 243
- Meyer, K.E. 17–18, 175, 179, 211, 215, 220–22, 224
- Mintzberg, H. 67, 77–8, 80, 235
- MNC HR policies see hotels and hospitality sector
- MNEs see multinational enterprises (MNEs)
- Mongolia
- business environment background
    - business sector 58, 62
    - moving forward 63–4
    - political and economic transitions 59–62
    - social and educational developments 63
  - economic characteristics 58
  - interview quotes 68–76
  - management
    - implications of 87–9
    - influences on 81–6
    - knowledge gaps 58–9
    - practitioners’ perspectives on 67–81
    - understanding 86–7
  - nomadic culture
    - influence of traditional 81–2, 87–8
    - as one of last remaining nomadic countries 58
  - as one of newest emerging nations 58
  - research methods 64–7
  - socialist legacy 74, 82–3, 87, 89
  - see also* management in Mongolia
- multinational enterprises (MNEs)
- equity commitment made by 211–16, 219–26
  - equity ownership at time of entry 218
  - equity share 216, 223
  - establishment mode 217–20, 225
  - Hillman’s application 235–6
  - host country
    - investment experience 215–23, 225
    - number of FDIs in 218–19, 223–5
  - international investment experience 214–15, 217–23, 225
  - investing 218, 225
    - home countries of 217–18
  - Kazakhstan attracting 210
  - Nordic
    - results 219–24
    - sample description 217–19
    - statistical analysis technique 219
  - product diversity 213–14, 217, 219–23
  - size 213, 217, 219–20, 222, 223, 225
  - Western 18, 210–11, 249

- ‘multiplier effect’ contribution of tourism 175
- Myant, M. 2, 12, 21, 23–6, 84, 132–3
- National Statistical Office (Mongolia) 58, 62–3, 89
- natural resources
  - Azerbaijan 153–5
  - countries with vast reserves of 23
  - limited endowments of 238
  - Mongolia 58, 62
  - Uzbekistan 48–9, 54
- neo-institutionalist approach
  - further research benefits 37
  - main limitation 34–5
  - rules of the game metaphor 14–17
  - schools of thought dominating 14
  - as strand of institutional theory 13–14
- neoliberal reforms 46
- networking
  - and bribery 245
  - in EECA transitional periphery 242, 245
  - in Mongolia 63, 78–80, 86
  - see also blat* (informal networks)
- new institutional economics (NIE)
  - argument on perfect market information 16
  - economists associated with 14
  - as major school of thought in neo-institutionalist approach 14
  - overlapping with sociological perspectives on network theory 16–17
  - transaction costs 15
  - utility in research on transition economies 17–20
- nonmarket strategies
  - avenues for further research 250–51
  - categories in Hillman–Hitt model
    - constituency-based 236, 241–2, 244, 251
    - financial 236, 241–4, 251
    - informational 236, 241–5, 251
  - conceptual challenges in study of 234–6
  - focus on corruption 233, 250
  - implications of 248–50
  - important types of
    - procedural strategies 234, 242, 246–8, 250–51
    - relational strategies 234, 242, 244–6, 248, 250
    - in transitional periphery 244–9
- Nordic MNEs
  - implications, limitations and future research directions 224–6
  - research methodology 216–19
  - results 219–24
  - theory and hypotheses 212–16
- North, D.C. 13–17, 31, 34–5, 81, 85, 132, 138
- North-inspired new institutional economics lens 16–20, 37
- Northrop, D. 2–3, 44
- OECD’s Country Risk Classification 112–13, 115
- oligarchic capitalist economies 21, 24
- order state capitalism 21, 24
- ‘organizational institutionalism’ 14
- organizations
  - criminal 102, 189–90
  - distinction with institutions 14, 16
  - institutional theory as dominant approach to understanding 13
  - Mongolian 63, 66, 82–3, 86, 88–9
  - as players in the game 14, 16
  - political risk assessment 98–101
- path-dependence 35
- ‘patrimonial state capitalism’ 188
- Peng, M.W. 16–18, 35, 211, 222, 224
- People’s Democratic Party of Uzbekistan (PDPRU) 44–5
- peripheral market economies 21, 24
- Phillips, N. 35–7
- political instability
  - CAST project 104–5
  - EIU Index (likelihood of political unrest) 106–8
  - in Georgia and Armenia 131
  - and political risk assessment 100–102
  - relation with political risk 97, 107–8
  - task forces 102–4
  - Worldwide Governance Indicators 105–6, 114

- Political Instability Task Force (PITF) 104, 106–7
- political risk
 as ambiguous concept 96 categories/types of 97–8 existence of ‘veto players’ curbing 108
 geopolitical 109–11
 in global uncertainty and transitional periphery 111–16 minimalist and maximalist definition of 97–9 multidisciplinary 95–6
 political instability
 forecasting with 106–7 relation with 97, 107–8
 reasons for neglect of 96
- political risk assessment agenda in age of uncertainty 116 connected to concept of political risk 98–9
 organizations 101
 and political instability 100–102 stages of 98
 in transitional periphery 112–15
 variables 99
- political structure
 developments in Azerbaijan 150, 152–6
 developments in Turkey 150–52
 influence on industrial relations 164, 169, 180
 transitions in Mongolia 59–62
- Pomfret, R. 44, 49, 190
- Popov, V. 44, 123–4, 130, 138
- post-communist states
 types of transition prevailing in 21, 23 typology of emerging capitalisms in 21–2 unchanged study curricula 177
 varieties of capitalism in 20–21
- post-socialist reform 240–41
- Prisoner’s Dilemma 239
- procedural strategies 234, 242, 246–8, 250–51
- PRS Group 98–9, 101
- ‘pseudo-market’ system 191, 196, 204
- Puffer, S.M. 18, 34, 134
- Qasimov, A.M. 160, 162–3
- relational strategies 234, 242, 244–6, 248, 250
- remittance-based economies 21, 24
- remittances inflows 125–7, 132, 140
- Republic of Armenia see Armenia
- Republic of Georgia see Georgia
- resource-based view (RBV) 17, 212–14, 224, 235
- resource curse 154–5
- resource stealing 246, 248
- resource windfalls 3–4
- Richter, R. 14–16, 34
- Rose revolution 30
- Roth, K. 13–14, 138
- Rubin, J.Z. 7, 187, 201
- rules of the game metaphor 14–17, 132, 187–9
- Russia
 architect of economic transformation in 133
 Armenia’s dependency on 125, 131
 ‘big bang’ model of transition 25
 as captured state 23
 corruption 190
 FDI inflows to Armenia 130
 Federation 210–11, 239 few constraints on executive 108 increased effectiveness 153 invasion and annexation of Crimea 110 language of non-native Mongolian managers 66 as main host country of Armenian and Georgian diaspora 139 major change in 187–8
 Mongolia as buffer zone 61
 networking practices 19, 80
 oligarchic state-capture 189, 191
 ownership of industrial enterprises 187 reclaiming bargaining power 190
 Social Democratic Party 160
 ‘socialist era managers’ trained in 65
 as transition economy 18
 type of capitalism 22
 Uzbekistan’s relationship with 46–7, 52–3

- Scott, W.R. 13–14, 81, 85
- segmented business systems (SBSs) 138
- Serafini, G.O. 175
- Serbia
- in EU transitional periphery 217
  - FDIs made in 218
  - high degrees of uncertainty 220
  - as intermediate regime 23
  - large MNEs setting up minority control subsidiaries 221
  - reforms and removal of restrictions 224
- shadow economies
- in EEFSU 132, 136–8
  - in Russia 190
- Shevarnadze regime 30
- 'shock-therapy' 23, 55, 60, 123, 237
- Single Window project 28
- Slangen, A.H. 211, 213, 224
- small and medium enterprises (SMEs)
- Belarusian 193
  - in Central Asia and Caucasus 190–91
  - in Kyrgyzstan and Tajikistan 31–3
  - Mongolian 83, 89
  - Russian 190
  - utility of NIE in research on transition economies 17–20
- Smallbone, D. 18–19, 25, 34–5
- SMEs see small and medium enterprises (SMEs)
- social and educational development 63
- social underdevelopment 124–5, 128, 132
- socialist legacy 74, 82–3, 87, 89
- Soskice, D. 1, 16, 20, 25, 85, 133
- state–business relations
- in Belarus
    - aims and objectives of study 187–9
    - leading to two disparate economies 204
    - measuring 197–8
    - model developed in 191
    - preservation of Soviet-style 203–4
    - reality of differing across region 203
  - enterprise management the weaker party in 198
  - new type of negotiation-based 190
  - power of informality in 188
  - three main models of 189
  - 'state-disengaged' strategies 248–9
  - state failure
    - literature 102, 117
    - task force in response to 102–3
    - variables 103–4
  - State Failure Task Force (SFTF) 102–4, 106
  - state-led capitalism 21–2
  - statist economies 21–2
  - 'STINGS' 105
  - Szamosi, L.T. 175, 177
- Tajikistan
- as captured state 23
  - comparison with Kyrgyzstan 26–34
  - EBRD transition indicators 29
  - government role in transition 30
  - institutional environment indicators 27
  - membership of WTO 28
  - perceptions of national institutional environment 31–4
  - political risk assessment 113–15
  - political upheaval 26
  - as slow reformer 26
  - unfavourable business regulations 26
- Taylor, A. 102–3, 105–6
- telecommunications
- Armenian investment in 130
  - corruption and FDI in 51–5
- Tracey, P. 35–7
- trade
- in Armenia and Georgia 128–32
  - Hillman–Hitt framework 244–5, 248
  - liberalization of foreign, in Kyrgyzstan 26–7
  - openness 103–4
  - participation in 16
  - in Turkey 150–51
- trade unions
- in Azerbaijan 160–69
  - in Turkey 156–9, 165–9
- transaction costs 15–17, 31
- transition
- 'big bang' versus more gradual model 25
  - current issues 209
  - divergent paths of 21, 25, 28, 31

- diversity of 25
- indicators 28–9
- more advanced versus less advanced market reforms 25
- political and economic in Mongolia 59–62
- problem of 1990s policies 133
- process of 12, 21–31, 38
- types of 21, 23
- see also* varieties of transition (VoT) approach
- transition economies
  - current thinking on institutions in context of 12–13, 17
  - EBRD indicators 28–9, 134
  - FDI net inflows in non-EU 129
  - first use of term 236
  - institutional divergence among 20, 25, 38
  - poverty rates and diaspora 139
  - predictability crucial for reinvestment decisions of MNCs in 115
  - relevance and applicability of CC frameworks 21
  - role of economic actors in shaping institutional change in 34–7
  - as subject to continuous institutional change and uncertainty 21
  - utility of NIE in research on 14, 17–20
  - varieties of capitalism in 21, 24, 38, 133–4
- transition laggards 21–2
- transitional periphery
  - firm behaviour in 12–13, 17, 25–6, 31, 34, 37
  - hotels study 176–82
  - non-linear transition 21
  - political risk in 111–16
  - role of shadow economies in 136–8
  - term 209–10
  - utility of VoT for 25–34
- transitional periphery countries
  - in close proximity to European Union
    - characteristics of 209–12
    - Nordic MNEs in 212–26
    - as under-researched 224
  - differences in institutional contexts 32–3
  - divergent paths of transition 20
  - EBRD transition indicators 28–9 of EECA
    - avenues for further research 250–51
    - Hillman–Hitt model in 241–4
    - institutional context 236–41, 248
    - nonmarket strategic focus in 244–9
  - institutional environment indicators 26–8
  - moving to institutional divergence 31
  - post-socialist Eastern European and former Soviet Union 121, 125, 133–4, 143
  - Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan 26–34
  - varieties of capitalism in 24–5
- transitional periphery economy (TPE)
  - clanism and clientelism 174, 178, 181
  - dearth of education and training of employees 177, 179
  - fluid and weak regulation capacities of 181
  - formal communication breakdowns 178
  - future research in relation to MNC influence 181–2
  - HRM implementation 174
  - job loss ratio 180
  - late introduction of employment agreements 177
  - limited mobility opportunities for employees 177–8
  - in luxury hotel and hospitality market 173
  - new archetype of Caucasus and Central Asia 2–3
  - non-renewal of fixed-term contracts 179
  - opportunity to develop organizationally centric employees 179
  - opposing homogenization forces exerted by HotelMNC 180–81
  - subsidiaries suffering rigid and inflexible labour cost 179
  - suffering from low flexibility 180
  - unofficial forms of labour 177

- Transparency International Corruption Perception Index 193–7, 202, 240
- Turkey close ties with Azerbaijan 148–9, 169–70
 Constitution of 1982 151, 158
 developments
   in economic and political structure 150–52
   in industrial relations 156–9, 166
 First Industrial Plan 156
 Georgia benefiting from integration with economy of 130
 industrial relations
   change and transformation 164–9
   developments in 156–9
   need for cooperation in 169–70
 labour laws 156–7, 163
 Law of Associations 157
 Law on Collective Bargaining Agreement, Strike and Lockout 157–8
 Law on Collective Labour Agreements, Strike and Lockout 167
 Law on Trade Unions 157–8, 167
 National Security Council 151, 170 state economic enterprises (SEEs) 152
 Trade Unions Act 1947 157
- Turkmenistan
 corruption 249–50
 EBRD transition indicators 29
 institutional environment indicators 27
 as lagging reformer 23, 26
 political risk assessment 112–15
 as transition laggard or statist economy 22
- Ukraine
 Carlsberg MNE 220–21, 223
 in EU transitional periphery 217
 FDI made in 218, 222–3
 high degrees of uncertainty 220
 as intermediate regime 23
 oligarchic state-capture 189
 post-2005 190
 recent civil war 209–10
- reforms and removal of restrictions 224
 type of capitalism 22
- uncertainty
 dimension in study of institutions 15–16 high degrees of 220–21, 225 lack of formal rules leading to 17 political 61, 80, 86, 210, 213 political risk in era of global 109–16 transition economies subject to continuous 21 type of capitalism characterized by 22
- unions see trade unions
- United Nations 61, 110, 116
- Usul, A.R. 110
- Uzbekistan
 antiquarianism 47–8
 authoritarianism 46–8
 autocracy 45–7, 54–5
 automotive industry 50–54
 characterized by strong clan networks 44, 47 corruption and FDI in telecommunications 51–5 cotton 52–3
 discrediting of democracy and market 45–7
 EBRD transition indicators 29
 economic characteristics 44
 entrepreneurship in 190–91
 equity commitment handling 215–16
 in EU transitional periphery 217
 FDI made in 218
 growth regimes
   construction 49–50, 54
   natural resources 48–9, 54
 institutional environment indicators 27
 as lagging reformer 22–3, 26
 manufacturing 50–51, 53–4
 political context 44–5
 political risk assessment 112–15
 state mediation of markets for 55
- van Witteloostuijn, A. 210–11, 215
- varieties of capitalism (VoC)
 origins 20
 recent discussions 133–4

- typology in transition economies
  - 21, 24
- varieties of transition (VoT) approach
  - as alternative to comparative capitalism 12
  - identifying emerging models of capitalism 21
  - and institutional divergence 20–34
  - origins 20
  - utility for transitional periphery 25–34
- Welter, F. 18–19, 25, 34–5
- whistleblowing 45, 178
- Wood, G. 1–2, 18, 20, 112, 138, 181–2
- World Bank
  - designation of “Caucasian Tiger” to Armenia 122–3
- Enterprise Surveys 136–7
- fact-based, data-driven policy-making 243
- institutional environment indicators 26–7
- Kyrgyzstan transition programme 26
- Mongolian economic updates 61
- political stability indicators 101, 112
- trade deficit data 131
- see also* Doing Business (DB)
- Worldwide Governance Indicators (WGIs) 101, 104–6
- Yan, A. 213–15, 221
- Yorgun, S. 158–9, 165, 167
- Zartman, I.W. 7, 102, 187, 201
- Zengin, E. 153–5