

---

Index

---

- 'Africa Rising' see development in Africa
- Agenda 2030 see Sustainable Development Goals
- aid practices 198–200, 305
- Buen Vivir (living well) 433–50 as alternative to capitalism 240–41, 433–4, 450–51 reconstruction and vision 441–4 in the broader context 446–50 central concepts 444–6
and development, the global mandate 434–41
dichotomous visualization, adherence to 435–6 questionings and revisions 436–7
Truman's 'Point Four' 434–5
unworkability of 437–41
The Wealth of Nations 435
indigenous knowledge 296–7, 441–4, 445 recent movements 442–4 transdisciplinary consolidation 447–50
see also ecology of development; legitimization of inequality
- capitalist development 2–4
1950s and 1960s 228–9 alternative to see Buen Vivir (living well) capital-labour relations 220–21
dependency theory 53, 229–31, 358–9
and post-dependency 239–40
in ecological terms 29–31
'food security' trope 35–8
evolution of see development theory (genealogical approach)
Modernization Theory 229, 231, 294–5
- Sino-capitalism see development in China
see also development and imperialism; financialization; legitimization of inequality; microcredit as development policy
- China see development in China climate change 26, 34–5, 263–4, 376
colonial development 3, 4–6, 48–50, 358, 442
communism and anti-communism 50–51, 54
Chinese Communist Party see development in China consumerism 437–8, 448
cooperative movement 236–7
corporate responsibility see development and the private sector culture and development 291–308 culture as variously invoked 307–8 development policies and practices 299–306 partnership concept 306
and self-reflective analysis 304–6
UNESCO's conceptualization of culture 303–4
World Bank's approach to poverty 299–303
postcolonialism 298–9
poststructuralist approach to 292–9 culture as changing resource 295–7 culture's relevance 293 development as cultural construct 297–9 development literature 231, 294–5 representation 298–9
Sen's Culture Matters 293–4
see also development theory (genealogical approach)

- democracy
  - European Instrument for Democracy 117
  - regional promotion of 114–16, 123–4
  - social democracy and Keynesianism 162–5, 265
  - see also* democracy and development
- democracy and development 173–87
  - China 182, 183, 201
  - ‘Colour Revolutions’ and Arab Spring 178–9
  - European Union 178
  - global governance 187
  - the liberal order, future of 183–6
    - economically nationalist rhetoric 184–6
    - multilateralism 185–6
    - overview 186–7
    - state sovereignty 183–4
  - the (neo)liberal account of 174–7
    - active promotion of 177–8, 180–81
    - backlash to 179–80, 182–3
  - Trump presidency 173–4, 184, 377–8
  - see also* democracy
- dependency theory 53, 229–31, 358–9
- neo-dependency theory 238–40
- development alternative see Buen Vivir (living well)
- development and imperialism 44–62
  - ‘centre-periphery’ notion 45, 47
  - and dependency theory 53, 229–31, 358–9
  - structuralist approach 52–3
- colonial development 3, 4–6, 358, 442
- conceptual definitions of 46–7
- global Cold War period 50–53
  - era of US ‘empire’ 52, 164–5
  - Truman’s ‘Point Four’ 51–2, 356, 434–5
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) 44
- ‘modern’ discourse origins 47–8
- ‘progress’ 47, 60, 315
- overview 60–62
- post-Cold War: neoliberal discipline 54–6
  - US and Latin America 54
  - US and the Middle East 56
  - US monetary policies 54–5
- post-liberal development and Latin American
  - left 58–60, 425
  - ‘post-Washington Consensus’ 56–8
  - power 45, 57–8
  - theories and analyses (nineteenth–twentieth centuries) 48–50
  - see also* capitalist development
- development and inequality 355–71
  - development discourse 12–13, 297–8, 356–9
  - development processes and strategies 359–60
- Import Substitution
  - Industrialization 358–60, 370
- industrialization
  - and dependency theory 358–9
  - ‘Kuznets Curve’ and 359–60, 370
  - manufacturing 368–9
- international inequality 357–9
- neoliberal and China/rising South
  - positions 360–69
  - optimistic position 360–63
  - sceptical position 363–9
- study overview 370–71
- see also* gender equality; legitimization of inequality
- development and poverty 414–30
  - Agenda 2030 SDGs 414–16, 419, 421–2, 424, 426, 429
- development processes and ideas 416–19
  - international organizations and 418, 425–7
  - multilateral development institutions 299–300
  - neoliberal counter-revolution and 231–4
  - post-WWII 418–19
  - social protection strategy and 422–7, 429
  - structural adjustment programmes 234
  - World Bank’s cultural approach 299–303
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) 414–15, 420–22

- poverty eradication, discourses and practices 419–22
- structural poverty 416, 425–6
- sustainability science 416, 428–9
- see also* sustainable livelihoods approach
- development and regionalism 109–225
- democracy 114–16, 120, 123–4
  - European Instrument for Democracy 117
- finance 110–12, 121–2
- human rights protection 115–21
  - African Commission 118–19
  - Asia 121
  - Caribbean Court of Justice 120
  - Central American Court of Justice 120
  - Council of Europe initiatives 117–18
  - Declaration on HRs in Islam 120
  - HR-Based Approach to Development 116–17, 118, 124, 199
  - Inter-American System 119
  - overview 124–5
  - regional social rights 109
- overview 109–10
- redistributive policies 112–13, 122
- regional integration and 109–10, 111
- regional organizations
  - promotion/protection of democracy 114–16
  - and finance 110–12
  - integration organizations 111
  - regional commissions 111
  - regional development banks 110, 111, 112, 122
- Regional Social Policy (RSP) 109, 110, 112
- see also* sustainable livelihoods approach
- development and social change (Latin America) 228–44
- Buen Vivir as alternative to development 240–41
  - see also* Buen Vivir (living well)
- dependency theory 229–31
- emergence of Southern perspective 228–9
- neoliberal counter-revolution 54, 231–4
- neoliberalism with a ‘human face’ 234–5
- new approach challenges to 58–60, 237–8
- peasant and indigenous resistance to 233–4
- neostucturalism 235
  - local development, social economy, cooperatives 236–7
- overview 243–4
- socialism 241–3
- UN Economic Commission 229, 230, 235–7
- development and the private sector 69–84
  - Corporate Social Responsibility 69, 72–3, 77–8
    - as development tool 79–83
  - the developmental state and 219
  - established discourse 69–70
  - extractive industries 70, 74–8
    - Africa, subsidization 262–3
    - local community protection and initiatives 83–4
  - oil 75–6, 77
  - oil in Uganda 78–81, 82
  - local economic development and microcredit 142–5
  - private sector as development actor 70–73
    - and NGOs 73, 74
    - challenges of 81–4
    - concern relating to view of development 73–4
    - legitimacy 76
- development in Africa 248–66
  - economic sectors, restructuring 265–6
  - Foreign Direct Investment 256, 258–9
    - Africa-based sources of 260–62
  - destructive FDI and subsidies 262–3
  - explosion of debt 259–60
  - land grabs, militarization, climate change 263–4
  - natural capital depletion 263

- Illicit Financial Flows 255, 256–8
  - and licit financial flows 258
- Nordic donor agents 305
- protests
  - climate campaigning 263
  - future policies 264–6
  - major public protests (2000–2016) 248–51
  - protestors' lack of coherent ideology 251, 255
- Transnational Corporate 255–7
  - see also* labour
- development in China 269–87
  - All-China Federation of Trade Unions 283
  - Cultural Revolution and capitalist advance 269–70
  - free-market principles 277
  - industrialization 273
  - NGOs 201
  - privatization 275–6
  - reciprocal personal ties – guanxi 272, 276
  - role of the state 286–7
  - Sino-capitalism
    - Chinese Communist Party and 280–81, 283–4
    - dynamics of reproducing 278–81
    - emergence of 271–2
    - neoliberal globalization influences 277–8
    - network economy 274–6
    - overview 285
    - state-led development 273–4, 278–9
    - uniqueness of 182, 183, 280
  - socio-economic consequence of 281–5
    - class polarization 283–4
    - disappearing socialist legacies 282–3
    - Polanyian 'counter movement' 284–5
  - Township and Village Enterprises 275
- development NGOs 190–208
  - accountability in narrowing public spaces 204–8
  - managerialism and 'NGO-ization' 198–200
    - power and values questions 207
    - 'realist' policies/trade facilitation 204–5
    - representative governance and 205–6
  - activism, themes and tensions 193–4
  - 'civil society' and 191–2
    - as agents of 'global civil society' 195–8, 206
  - critiques of Eurocentrism 200–202
  - definitional dilemma and history 190–93
  - gender equality 400–405
    - 'expertise', high-profile narratives of 402–3
    - funding-led norms 401–2
    - managerialist technologies (goals/targets) 404–5
    - NGOs' role 395–6, 399–400
    - relationships and discursive landscape 400–401, 406–9
  - human rights 202–4
  - social change and 192–3
  - UN ECOSOC and 195, 196–7
  - 1992 Rio Conference 197
  - development theory (genealogical approach) 1–16
    - capitalist development 2–4, 15
    - colonial development:
      - 'underdevelopment' 3, 4–6
      - Luxemburg on 6
    - complexity 1–2, 15–16
    - development project (US-driven discourse) 6–9
      - Rostow's theory 7, 164–5, 357
  - Foucaultian perspective 1, 9, 397, 405
  - globalization project (neoliberalist) 11–13
    - income inequality and poverty 12–13
  - Locke, John 356
  - MDGs see Millennium Development Goals
  - Modernization Theory 229, 231, 294–5
  - origins and eighteenth–nineteenth century theorists 2–4
    - Comte, Auguste 2, 3

- Marxian perspective 4, 26–7, 31–2, 49
  - Smith, Adam 3, 61, 159–61, 164, 435
  - post-development 9–11
    - anti-development approach 10–11
    - subaltern social movements 10
    - post-globalization 14–16
    - structuralist thought 52–3
    - see also* culture and development; legitimation of inequality
  - Developmental State Paradigm (DSP) 211–24
    - as middle-range theory 212–18
    - demise of developmental states question 215–17
    - DSP principles, scope of 213–15
    - DSP targets and performance 212–13
  - East Asia 211, 212–13, 215–18, 222
  - financialization and 221–3
  - labour and 218–21
  - neoliberalism 211–12, 215, 217, 221–3
  - origins of, and changing purpose 211–12
  - overview 223–4
- ecology of development 21–39
    - agrarian question/food insecurity 27–8, 36–8
    - biofuel expansion 22–4
    - consumerist and predatory living and 437–8
    - ‘economic rationality’ and its alternative 24–6
    - financialization and 101
    - food sovereignty/peasant mobilization 37–8
    - modern development initiatives and 35–9
    - ‘productivist’ vision of contract farming 27–8
  - biodiversity 23, 30
  - crisis conjuncture 21–6
  - ecological crisis and capital 29–33
    - anthropocentric view of nature 21, 24, 30–33
    - Marx on 31–2
  - epistemic shift 26–9
    - Marx’s method of political economy 26–7
  - extractive industries and 74–8
  - market environmentalism facilitation 33–5
  - genetically modified organisms 438
  - ‘sustainable development’/‘green economy’ 21
  - precarious development and 35–8
  - UN High Level Panel 36–7
  - see also* Buen Vivir (living well)
  - Eurocentrism 178, 200–202, 295
  - extractive industries see development and the private sector
- financialization 89–102
    - definitions and studies on 90–92, 102, 239–40
    - conclusions on impact of 92–3
    - Developmental State Paradigm and 221–3
    - international financial market 450
    - microcredit institutions and 137
    - overview 89–90, 101–3
    - in periphery countries 93–101
      - accumulation of international reserves 96–8
      - banking/finance sectors, transformation 94–5
      - financialization of commodities 98–101
      - globalization 102
      - investment in financial assets 94
      - public debt 97–8
    - see also* capitalist development
  - food sovereignty movement 37
  - Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) 71, 75, 111, 256, 258–63, 362
  - Foucaultian perspective 1, 9, 397, 405
  - funding of NGOs 198–200, 207, 401–2, 403
- gender equality 395–410
    - ‘actor’ oriented approach 405–9
    - discourse of development and gender issues 398–400
    - governmental norms 395
    - study’s method of analysis 396–7

- using governmentality to understand 397–8
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) 404
- NGOs' development practices 400–405
  - 'expertise', high-profile narratives of 402–3
  - funding-led norms 401–2
  - managerialist technologies (goals/targets) 404–5
  - relationships and discursive landscape 400–401, 406–9
- NGOs' role 395–6, 399–400
- public-private partnerships 400–401, 403–9
  - consultancy companies 396–7, 401
- water resources 380
- Women Deliver conference (2016) 399
  - see also* development and inequality; migration–development nexus
- Geo-economics 238
- Hobbsian economics 2, 48–9
- human rights 115–21, 202–3, 204
  - gender equality see gender equality
- imperialism see development and imperialism
- inequality see development and inequality; legitimization of inequality; sustainable livelihoods approach
- Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change 34
- international financial market 450
- International Labour Organization's (ILO) 135
- International Monetary Fund 233, 234
- Keynesianism 162–5, 265
- 'Kuznets Curve' 359–60, 370
- labour
  - industrial-labour relations in China 282–4
  - militancy: by reputation among corporations 252–5
  - the Developmental State Paradigm and 218–21
  - union organizations 163, 283
    - see also* development in Africa
  - Latin America see development and social change
  - legitimation of inequality 151–67
    - 'circulation' metaphor 153
    - frugality as 'a pleasure' 161
    - Thoughts and Details on Scarcity* 160–61
    - The Wealth of Nations* 159–60
  - the economy as law-governed entity 151–5
    - natural laws and 154
    - scientific revolution and 153
  - the economy as subject to measurement 155–8
  - growth paradigm 158, 162–4
    - and growth scepticism 166–7
  - distribution 152, 156–7, 163
  - Keynesianism 162–5
  - principle of legal equality (seventeenth century) 151–67
  - 'rising tide' metaphor 151, 158–61
  - US (1950s and 60s) 163–5
    - Rostow's theory 7, 164–5, 357
    - see also* Buen Vivir (living well); capitalist development; development and inequality; development theory (genealogical approach)
- Locke, John 154, 356
- Marxian perspective 4, 26–7, 31–2, 49
- microcredit as development policy 131–47
  - commercialization and deregulation 134–5, 145–6
  - creating over-indebtedness 139–40
  - discourse supporting, debunked 137–9
  - drivers of growth 143–4
  - job creation 142
  - model founded on fallacy 141–2
  - overview 146–7
  - validity of model questioned 142–5
- historical twists and turns 132–5
  - Bangladesh (1980s) 133–4
  - Mexico (2007) 136

- new for-profit, commercialize model 134–5
  - subversion and downfall of (1990s) 136–7
  - US foreign policy (1960s) 132–3
- neoliberalism 131, 134–5, 137, 139, 145–6
  - microcredit model neoliberalized 134–5
- reckless lending 146
- rescued by financial inclusion movement 140–41
- see also* capitalist development
- migration–development nexus 313–25
  - development
    - as economic growth 324
    - as progress 315
    - as purposive intervention 313, 316
  - differentiation/inequalities and social change 321–4
  - emergence of 314–17
  - gender and migration studies 313–14, 317–21
    - caring 319, 320
    - feminist geographers 318
    - feminist theories 321–4
    - undocumented migration 319
  - gender equality 322
  - overview 324–5
  - remittances 36, 316–17, 320–21, 324
  - see also* gender equality
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) 13, 21–2, 44, 398–9, 404, 414–15, 420–22
  - see also* Sustainable Development Goals
- Modernization Theory 229, 231, 294–5
- multinational companies see development and the private sector
- natural laws of trade 154
- neoliberalism 54–6, 194
  - democracy and development 174–7
  - Developmental State Paradigm and 211–12, 215, 217, 221–3
  - globalization project 11–13
  - the inequality debate and 360–69, 370
  - influences on Sino-capitalism 277–8
  - microcredit and 131, 137, 139, 145–6
  - social change and 231–5
    - new approach challenges to 237–8
  - networked relations 71
  - NGOs see development NGOs; gender equality
- Petty, William 154–8
- post-development see Buen Vivir (living well)
- poverty see development and inequality; development and poverty; legitimization of inequality
- private sector see development and the private sector
- progress 47, 60, 315
- regionalism see development and regionalism
- religion 2, 47–8, 161
- Rostow's theory 7, 164–5, 357
- rural development studies see sustainable livelihoods approach
- Saint Simonian perspective 2–3
- Schumpeterian economics 144, 153, 166, 270, 274, 276
- Smith, Adam 3, 61, 159–61, 164, 435
- social change see Buen Vivir (living well)
- social protection strategies 422–7, 429
- socialism in Venezuela 241–2
- structural adjustment programmes 234
- Sustainable Development Goals 69, 84, 291, 395, 399
  - culture and 304
  - poverty and 414–15, 419, 421–2, 424, 426, 429
  - World Development Report* 301–2
  - water resources 387–91
  - see also* Millennium Development Goals (MDGs)
- sustainable livelihoods approach 332–53
  - Anishnabeg* of Slate Falls nation 337–42
    - dam construction, effects on 344–8
    - financial capital 342
    - human capital 338–9

- natural capital 340–41
- physical capital 341–2
- social capital 339–40
- strategies and outcomes, pre-1934 342–3
- development studies 332, 349, 351
- environmental sustainability 341, 343
- origins of 332–3
  - and decline of 351–2
- strengths of 348–9
  - and weaknesses 349–51, 353
- theory 333–7
  - application 337
  - framework 335
  - key dimensions to be addressed 336
  - proposition of 334
- World Development Report 2008* (WB 2007) 351–2
- see also* development and poverty; development and regionalism
- theories of development see culture and development; development theory (genealogical approach); sustainable livelihoods approach
- Truman's 'Point Four' 51–2, 356, 434–5
- Trump, Donald 173–4, 184, 337–8
- Uganda see development and the private sector
- union organizations 163, 283
- United Nations
  - Agenda 2030 see Sustainable Development Goals
  - ECLAC 11, 52–3, 229–30, 232, 235–7, 243
  - global civil society and NGOs 195–8
  - Global Compact 69, 71–2
  - High Level Panel 36, 420–21
  - Millennium Ecosystem Assessment 22, 28, 29
  - UNESCO's conceptualization of culture 303–4
  - water resource interventions 380–83
- United States of America
  - foreign policy and USAID 133
  - Kennedy, J. F. 164–5
  - Rostow's theory 7, 164–5, 357
  - Trump and new right politics 173–4, 184, 377–8
  - US-driven development discourse 6–9, 51–2
    - principle of growth 163–5
    - rise of finance and 54–6
    - Truman's 'Point Four' 51–2, 356, 434–5
  - Woodrow Wilson, Thomas 49–50
  - utopia see Buen Vivir (living well)
- water resources 374–91
  - climate change 376
  - international development frameworks 379–80
  - overview 391–2
  - politics of water, and crisis 374–7
    - human rights 377
    - Irish new left politics 378
    - sustainability and equitability 376
    - US new right politics 377–8
  - public-private partnership model 374
  - Sustainable Development Goals 387–91
  - World Health Organization on 390–91
- UN interventions, and developmentalism 380–83
- International Decade for Clean Water and Sanitation 382
- Millennium Declaration targets 383–5, 386–7
- policies discredited 383
- 'Water for Life' (2003) 384
- World Bank's cultural approach to poverty 299–303