

Index

---

- Abott, Tony (Australian PM) 21 access issues 93, 99–100 accountability mechanisms 155, 183–4, 192, 194
actor-level research 202
administrative reforms, Australia 15, 20 administrative roles 83–6 administrative state model 168 administrative state secretaries 74, 81–2
administrative systems/traditions 165, 192, 205, 210–12
see also political-administrative administrative-technical policy 43–4, 46
adversarial model 164–5, 168–71, 173–7
advisory staff
change drivers 37–9 characteristics 25–6
as coordination agents 116–20
emergence of roles 72–90 governance contribution 34–52
policy work 39–48, 203–5
see also ministerial advisers; policy advisers; political advisers;
special advisers
age factors, civil servants 172 agency bargains 149, 156–7 agency-loyalty relationships 59–60 aides see special advisers alignment function, advisory staff 47
Anglo-American tradition 1–2
see also Westminster
Aucoin, Peter 35
Australia
institutional environment 209, 212
ministerial advisers 5, 15, 211
political staff 15–33
Spiers' outburst 1
supplementary information 216
bailout programmes, Ireland 114, 122, 124
Balkenende governments, Netherlands
136–7, 140
bargains 60, 145–62, 206
see also political adviser bargains;
public service bargains
behavioural issues 94, 98–9
Belgium 27–8
benevolence 95, 102–3
Bezes, Philippe 27
biographical profiles, advisers 133
Blair, Tony (UK PM) 186
Blick, Andrew 206, 214
blind trust 104–6
'boundaries of propriety' 191
Brans, Marleen 27–8, 214
bridging function, advisory staff 40, 43–7, 49
Britain see United Kingdom case study
Brown, Gordon (UK PM) 186
buffering function, advisory staff 40, 43–8
bureaucracy
Australia 19, 23
conflict potential 168
Denmark 61
Germany 74–5, 84, 85, 87
Netherlands 141
United Kingdom 192–3
bureaucratic line organization 77–80, 81–3
bureaucratic staff, Netherlands 129

- cabinet ministers 17, 180, 182–3
- cabinet policy unit, Australia 20–21, 27
- cabinet pre-briefs 47
- cabinetization process 92
- cabinets ministériels* 129
- cabinets/cabinet systems
- Australia 24
  - Canada 36, 44–5
  - Greece 91–109
  - Ireland 111, 120, 122–3
  - Netherlands 142
- Campbell, Alastair 186
- Canada, case study 34–52, 211, 216
- caps on adviser numbers 206, 210
- ‘cardinals of the conclave’ see the ‘conclave’
- career civil servants 140, 185
- career-oriented advisers 62, 74
- ‘central’ advisers 24
- centrifugal forces
- in government 67
  - special advisers 183
- centring trends 116–17
- centripetal forces, special advisers 183
- chief of cabinet role 97
- chiefs of staff 21, 41, 114, 123
- ‘children of favouritism’ 102
- Children Overboard Affair 16, 29
- ‘chimney effect’ 74
- Christian Democratic Party, Netherlands 137
- Christiansen, Peter Munk 205
- circles of trust 94, 99–102, 104, 107
- civil service/servants
- advisers and 159, 163–79
  - Canada 36
  - Denmark 55, 56–8, 63–5
  - Germany 73–5, 84–5
  - institutional rules 206
  - laws regulating 87
  - loyalty 58–9, 64, 84
  - Netherlands 129, 134, 139–40, 142–3
  - partisan advisers and 211
  - politicization 73–5
  - Sweden 163–79
  - United Kingdom 181–2, 184–6, 190–94
  - see also* public service/servants
- ‘co-CEO’ format, PMOs 41
- coalition governments
- Australia 16, 18–19, 20–21
  - Denmark 62, 64, 66–7
  - Germany 73, 80
  - Ireland 111–13, 116, 121, 123–4
  - Netherlands 133
  - New Zealand 147
- codes of conduct
- Australia 16, 29
  - Danish advisers 59
  - Denmark 208
  - New Zealand 146, 160, 208
  - United Kingdom 180–81, 190–91
- collective responsibility 182–3
- commanding heights approach 74, 86
- committee system, Ireland 122–3
- communication issues 98–9, 188, 191
- compacts 145–62
- comparative analysis 30, 198–211, 213–14
- competence
- advisers 95, 102–3
  - as bargain dimension 150
  - definition 153
  - as PAB dimension 151, 153–4, 158
  - relational contexts 206
- competitive relationships 169–74, 176
- the ‘conclave’ 101–2, 105, 107
- concrete behaviour, trust and 94, 99
- confidentiality 103
- conflict potential 81–2, 168–9
- Connaughton, Bernadette 131, 133, 140, 205, 213
- Conservative–Liberal Democrat coalition, UK 188
- Conservative Party, UK 187
- constitutional issues 73, 181–5, 208
- constitutional theory 183
- content of policy see shaping function
- contestability 148
- contingency junctures, institutionalism 27

- contingent nature, advisers' influence 35, 47
- contracts of employment 153–5, 208
- coordination
 definitions 115–16
 theory of 119
- coordination scale 110, 115, 117–20, 122, 124, 205
- coordinator-type advisers 97, 110–28, 131, 133, 140–41, 167
- Copernicus reform, Belgium 28
- core executive
 Canada 36
 Denmark 55, 60, 67
 Greece 97, 106–7
 Ireland 117, 121, 124
 New Zealand 145–62
 trust theories 213
- core relationships, advisers 205–9
- 'corporation sole' ministers 111–12
- court politics 142
- covenants 145–62
- Craft, Jonathan 46–8, 203, 205, 213
- Credlin, Peta 21
- crisis management 121–4
- De Visscher, Christian 150
- decentring trends 116, 117
- decision instruments 45
- decision making, cabinets 24, 27
- deinstitutionalization, ministries 86–7
- delegated agency bargains 157
- 'delivering', policy work 24–5
- demand side, adviser appointment 153
- democracies, parliamentary 6–7
- democratic accountability 194
- democratic development 187, 193–4
- democratization theory 192
- Denmark, case study 53–71, 206, 208–9
- department-centric PMOs 47–8
- department directors 135
- departmental ministers 111–12
- departmental principle 85–6
- departmental roles 23, 54, 79, 124, 146
- departmental secretaries 17–18, 20
- deputy PM, Ireland 111
see also tánaiste
- development theory 192, 194
- 'dialogue model' 84
- directed agency bargains 157
- Dutch system see Netherlands, case study
- economic bailout programs 98
- Economic Management Council (EMC) 122–3
- economic policy, Ireland 122
- educational background, advisers 137
- Eichbaum, Chris 60–61, 69
- electoral law 27
- electoral systems 125, 133
- Elston, Thomas 151
- EMC (Economic Management Council) 122–3
- empire, British 182
- empirical focus, comparative research 203
- employment contracts see contracts of employment
- England see United Kingdom case study
- EU-ECB-IMF bailout, Ireland 114, 122
- European Union, ministerial advisers 6
- 'events-based' contracts 208
- exchanges
 PMO advisers 44, 47
 policy learning 49
see also transactional relationships
- executive government
 advisers and 1, 55, 160
 bargains 60, 149, 156
 centrifugal forces in 67
 constitutional provisions 73
 coordination functions 115–17
 institutional context 36, 49
 ministerial cabinets 97, 106–7
 relational contexts 206
see also core executive; political executive
- 'exempt staff' 37, 39, 42, 45, 50

- expert-type advisers 131, 133, 140–41 explicit rewards 150, 151–3, 158–60
 extrinsic rewards 151–2
- failure avoidance, policies 48–9
 favouritism, Greek politics 102 federal bureaucrats, Germany 74–5, 85 federal exempt staff, Canada 42
 federal government
   Australia 18–22
   Germany 72–5
 federal ministerial staff, Australia 15–33
 Fianna Fáil Party, Ireland 113, 120–21
 Fine Gael Party, Ireland 112–14, 121–2
 Fleischer, Julia 27
 formal-legal model 167–8
 formal rules 29, 205–9
 ‘four corners’ meetings 35, 47–8 fragmented trust 101
 framing device, research 198–203, 214
 Fraser, Malcolm (Australian PM) 19 functional approaches 3–4, 37, 39–40, 130–31, 142 functional consolidation, staff units 76–9 functional politicization 57, 84, 169, 172, 174, 177 functional village model 163–4, 167, 175 ‘funnelling’ effect 4, 148
- gender issues 136, 172
   see also women
 general trust theory 93–5
 Germanic tradition 210–11
 Germany, case study 72–90, 209–10, 212
 Gilmore, Eamon (Irish deputy PM) 122
 Gouglas, Athanassios 97–8, 205, 213, 214 governance role, advisory staff 34–52 government offices 163, 165–7, 177 Government Staffing Committee, Australia 16–17 governments/government systems
   Canada 34–52
   centrifugal forces in 67
   Denmark 54–5, 60, 62, 64, 66–7
   Germany 72–5
   Ireland 113
   party position within 66–7 political arm of 34–52 political staff and 15
   special advisers and 53
   see also coalition governments;
   executive government
 Greece, case study 91–109, 206, 208–10, 217
 Gulick, Luther 115
 Guttman scale of coordination 117
- Harper governments, Canada 43–6, 47
 Hazell, Robert 152
 ‘head of staff unit’ 76, 78–80, 82–3 heads of division 74
 Hillman, Nicholas 190
 historical institutionalism 27, 212
 history of interaction, ministers–advisers 95, 102
 homogeneity promotion 183–4
 Hood, Christopher 149–51, 153, 156, 158–9 horizontal coordination 117, 120, 121, 125
 horizontal dimension
   PAPS bargain 158
   policy 24–5, 132
 Howard, John (Australian PM) 20
 Hustedt, Thurid 124, 132, 209, 210, 212, 214
- ideal type models 163–4, 167–70
 ideational approach, political staff 28 ideology, civil servants 171, 177 impartiality 26, 184, 186, 210–11 imperial history, UK system 182 incentive structures 214 individual policy actors 25
 individual responsibility 182–3

- informal rules 29
- inner-circle advisers, Netherlands 141–2
- institutional analysis, political staff 15–33
- institutional construction of roles 83–6
- institutional context/settings
  - Canadian government 36–7, 49
  - Danish special advisers 54–9
  - German federal government 73–5
  - Irish advisers 111–12
  - ministerial advisers 3, 200–203, 209–10
  - New Zealand 145–7
  - political staff 29
  - politics–bureaucracy relationship 87
  - theoretical approaches 212
- ‘institutional emergence’ process 83–4
- institutional loyalty 78, 85, 87
- institutional role theory 72
- institutional rules 206–7
- institutionalism 27–8, 212
- instrumentation, policies 48–9
- integrity 95, 102–3
- intermediaries see bridging function
- internal government negotiators 189
- intra-departmental policy making 79
- intra-executive relationships 147–8
- intrinsic rewards 151–2
- Ireland, case study 110–28, 206, 211, 217
- James, Simon 93
- junior ministers 56, 120–21, 134–5
- Kiser, Larry 202
- Kok, Wim (Dutch PM) 136
- Labour Party
  - Australia 18–19, 20, 28
  - institutional context 212
  - Ireland 112–13, 120, 121–2, 125
  - United Kingdom 186–7
- laws see legislation
- leadership, executive government 115
- leadership staff units 76–80, 81–3, 85, 209
- leaking stories 64
- left-leaning civil servants, Sweden 174, 176–7
- legislation/legislature 16, 27, 87, 208
- legislative alliances 147
- legitimacy, institutions 83
- Leitungsstab, Germany 209, 212
- ‘line’ advisers 24
- line competencies, special advisers 56
- line organization/bureaucracy 77–80, 81–3, 85
- locational dimensions 3–4, 25
- Lodge, Martin 27, 60–61, 149–51, 153, 156, 158–9
- loyalty
  - as bargain dimension 150
  - bureaucracies 75, 77–8, 83–4
  - civil service 55, 58, 63–5, 84
  - federal bureaucrats 75
  - institutions 87
  - line bureaucracies 77–8, 83
  - ministers 68–9
  - as PAB dimension 151–2, 154–6, 158
  - relational contexts 205–6
  - special advisers 53–71, 190
  - staff units 85
  - see also* trust
- macro-level research 202, 206
- Maijenburg, Mark 135
- Maley, Maria 3–5, 11, 131–2, 209, 212, 214
- managerial staff 101–2, 107, 113–16, 120–21, 123
- MARG group 199, 200, 214
- MCs see memoranda to cabinet
- media advisers 53, 58, 79–81, 91, 189
- media logics 85
- mediatized political communication 55
- members of parliament (MPs), Australia 16
- memoranda to cabinet (MCs) 45, 47–8
- merit, recruitment on 193–4
- meso-circle of trust 101–2, 107

- meso-level research frame 202
 Metcalfe, Les 110, 117–18 micro-level research frame 202, 215 minder-type advisers 131, 133, 141
 ministerial advisers
   Anglo-American tradition 1–2 appointment of 134–5, 153–5 average age 136–7
   comparative analysis on 199–203
   conceptualizing work of 130–32 conduct 1, 20
   coordination role 110–28
   core executive and 145–62
   definitions 3
   dimensions of 3–4
   emergence 72–90, 129–44, 145–6
   evolution of 133–5
   guidelines 48
   history of 18–22
   Irish system of 112–15
   new study directions 198–217
   numbers comparisons 15, 135–6, 146, 210
   policy work 22–4, 46
   political adviser bargains 53–71
   public servant distinction 18
   researching 5–7, 132–3
   roles 5, 8, 11, 138–40, 145–7
   theoretical studies 5
   types 131
   use of term 3
   in Westminster 2, 4–5
   see also chiefs of staff; policy advisers; political advisers; programme managers; special advisers ministerial cabinets 27–8, 91–109
 ministerial offices 22, 26–7, 29, 36–8, 45–8, 97 ministerial responsibility system 182–5 ministerial staff
   Australia 15–33
   coordination role 167
   location importance 25
   see also ministerial advisers
 ministers
   adviser relationship 92–5, 102
   independence 54–5
   loyalty 68–9
   roles 60–61
   safeguarding position of 65–6 strength of 73–5
 minister's portfolio 135
 ministries, numbers of 166
 minority governments 54–5, 62, 146 mobility in circles of trust 104
 MOPS Act, Australia 19, 26
 moving function, advisory staff 40, 43–5, 47–9 MPs see members of parliament multi-party governments 146
 Napoleonic tradition 210
 nation states 200
 national administrative traditions 211
 Netherlands, case study 129–44, 205, 209
 New Zealand, case study 145–62, 211
 Niklasson, Birgitta 206, 213
 non-advisory work 39–40, 44, 203, 205
 'Northcote-Trevelyan'-type civil service 181, 184, 192–3 observations, organizing 202–11
 Öhberg, Patrik 206, 213
 operational role, advisory staff 45 organizational interests 168–9, 171, 174–5 organizational theories 115
 organizational units 76–7
 Ostrom, Elinor 202
 PABs see political adviser bargains
 Panhellenic Socialist Movement (PASOK) 96, 97–8, 106
 PAPS bargain see political adviser/public servant bargain parliamentary democracies 6–7 parliamentary state secretaries 73 parliamentary system, Netherlands 133
 partisan advisers

- Australia 19, 22–3
- Canada 35, 37, 40–41, 43–8
  - civil service and 211
  - description of 131, 133, 141
  - emergence of 86–7
  - environments 209–10
  - functions 4
  - institutionalization 212
  - use of term 50
- partisan cabinet systems 24
- partisan civil servants 169–72
- partisan policies 25, 28, 43–4
- partisan-political staff 34
- party-loyal advisers 61
- party leaders, Denmark 55
- party membership
  - ministers 65–6
  - staff units 77–8
  - state secretaries 74
- party politics 80, 116–17, 120, 125, 155, 190
- party position, strengthening 66–7
- PASOK see Panhellenic Socialist Movement
- path dependency, institutionalism 28
- patronage, recruitment on 193–4
- pay scales, cabinet system 97
- PCO see Privy Council Office
- Pearson, Lester (Canadian PM) 37
- Pelgrims, Christophe 27–8
- permanent staff
  - Denmark 56–8, 63, 64
  - New Zealand 148
  - United Kingdom 191*see also* public service/servants
- personal assistants 75
- personal loyalty 61–2, 65–9, 78, 87, 151–2, 156–7
- Peters, Guy 163–5, 167–70, 173–4, 176, 206, 213
- pillarization 129, 143
- PMOs see prime minister's offices
- PMs see prime ministers
- policy advisers 19, 22–3, 40, 43, 48, 53, 57–8, 82
- policy advisory systems 6, 97–8, 146, 165–7
  - policy content, competition over 171
  - policy coordination scale 117–18
  - policy learning, Canada 48–9
  - policy roles
    - advisory staff 39–49, 124, 131–2, 139, 147–8, 203–5
    - coordination of 116–17
    - political advisers 22–5, 163–4, 168, 170, 173
    - special advisers 112, 188–9
    - staff units 78–81
  - 'policy shop', Canada 41, 44
  - policy units 27
    - see also* cabinet policy unit
- political-administrative relations 81–3, 154, 164–5
- political-administrative systems 85, 96, 129–30, 132, 134, 205
- political adviser bargains (PABs) 53–71, 92–3, 150–59
- political adviser/public servant (PAPS) bargain 157–60
- political advisers
  - civil servants and 163–79
  - Greece 91–109
  - institutional analysis 29
  - media relations 58, 91
  - PSB typology 150
  - role 20, 22–5
  - Sweden 163–79
- political arm of governments 34–52
- 'political assistants' 134–5, 143
  - see also* ministerial advisers
- political-bureaucratic relations 23
- 'political civil servants' 74, 84
- political communications 80
- political control 25
- political coordination 110–28
- political executive 23–4
  - see also* executive government
- political liaison roles 188
- political neutrality 191
- political offices see ministerial office; prime minister's office
- political parties see party politics
- political responsiveness see 'responsiveness'
- political role construction 83–6

- political staff 15–33, 34–52, 110
  - see also* chiefs of staff; ministerial advisers; political advisers; programme managers; special advisers
- political strategists 189
- political-tactical advice 57–8
- politicization
  - civil service/servants 57, 73–5, 84, 165, 169, 174, 177
  - institutions 86–7
  - state secretaries 166
  - see also* partisan
- politico-administrative systems see political-administrative systems
- power structure in PABs 158
- press spokesperson role 78–80, 82–3
- prime minister's offices (PMOs)
  - 36–7, 39, 41–5, 47–8, 167, 177
- prime ministers (PMs)
  - Australia 16–17, 20–21, 29
  - Canada 36–7
  - Denmark 62
  - United Kingdom 183–4
  - see also* taoiseach
- Privy Council Office (PCO), Canada
  - 36–7, 45, 48
- procedural aspects, policy work
  - 39–40, 44, 48
- procedural competencies 153
- process of policy making see moving function
- professional background, advisers
  - 137–8
- programme managers 113–15, 120–21, 123
- PSBs see public service bargains
- psychology, trust and 98–9
- public relations 186
- public service bargains (PSBs) 54, 59–61, 68, 92–3
  - core executive/advisers and 145, 149–50
  - definition 158
  - ministerial advisers and 156
  - PAPS bargain and 160
- Public Service Management Act, Ireland 113–14
- public service/servants
  - Australia 17–20, 26–7, 29
  - Canada 37–8
  - German system 73
  - New Zealand 145–6, 148
  - political adviser relations 157–8
  - see also* civil service/servants
- recruitment effects/patterns 77–8, 82, 171–2, 174, 193–4
- regulations, advisers 53, 146, 151, 159, 208
- relational contexts 205–9
- relational nature, advisers' influence
  - 35, 47
- relationship-based advisory staff 26
- relationship management 138
- research framework 198–203, 214
- responsibility dimension, bargains
  - 150, 157
- 'responsiveness' 38, 84, 86
- reward dimension
  - bargains 150–53, 158–60
  - relationships 206
- risk taking 94–5
- Robson, Jennifer 45–6
- role distribution 83–6
- role expectations 84–5
- Rudd, Kevin (Australian PM) 17, 21
- rule regimes 29, 205–9
- Rutte, Mark (Dutch PM) 136–7
- safeguarding roles 65–7
- Salomonsen, Heidi Houlberg 124, 150, 205
- Scandinavian tradition 210–11
- 'second wave' of research 5–7, 49, 165, 198, 213
- secrecy 18, 103
- secretaries, permanent 63–4
  - see also* departmental secretaries; state secretaries
- secretaries-general 135
- the Senate, Australia 16
- senior advisers 122–3

- senior civil service 134, 139–40, 142–3
- seniority, civil servants 172
- serial loyalty bargain 59, 68, 156–7
- service delivery 146
- shaping function, advisory staff 40, 43–5, 47–9
- Shaw, Richard 60–61, 69
- similarity patterns, advisers 210–11
- Social Democrat Party, Denmark 66–7
- special advisers
- Canada 37
  - context/legacy 54–9
  - definition 180–81
  - Denmark 53–71
  - history of 55–7, 185–8, 192–4
  - Ireland 112, 113–14
  - loyalty 53–71
  - New Zealand 152
  - numbers of 187
  - relationships/responsibilities 57–9
  - roles 54–9, 188–9
  - United Kingdom 180–97
  - see also* ministerial advisers
- Spiers, David 1, 10–11
- spin doctors 56
- spokesperson see press spokesperson
- role
- staff functions, recruitment to 77
- staff units 72, 74–83, 85, 209
- stakeholders' roles 23–5, 58
- state administrative model 168
- state secretaries 56–7, 73–4, 166, 176
- structural consolidation, staff units 76–9
- substantive advice/advisers 39–40, 48, 133, 141–2
- substantive competencies 153–4
- supply side, adviser appointment 153
- Sweden, case study 163–79, 211
- SYRIZA party, Greece 97–8, 106
- systematic coordination 120–21
- tacit rewards 150–51, 153, 158, 160
- tánaiste (Irish deputy PM) 111, 121–2
- taoiseach (Irish PM) 111, 121–4
- 'technical managers' 101–2, 107
- temporal dimension of research 214
- temporary staff, civil servants as 185
- transactional relationships 149
- see also* exchanges
- tripartite relationships 26, 148
- Troika programme (2011–14) 114, 121–4
- Trudeau, Pierre (Canadian PM) 37, 41
- Trump, Donald (US President) 168–9
- trust 98–106
- cabinet systems 91–109
  - crisis of 86–7
  - data 93–6
  - definitions 93–4
  - importance of 95, 104–6
  - inhibitors 103–4
  - ministerial advisers 78, 84
  - party membership 77
  - perceptions of 98–9
  - relational contexts 205
  - sources of 95, 102–4
  - theories 93–6, 213
  - see also* loyalty
- trustee bargains 93–4, 149
- Turnbull, Malcolm (Australian PM) 21
- United Kingdom (UK) case study 180–97, 211
- Van den Berg, Caspar 205
- variation patterns, advisers 210–11
- vertical coordination 115, 125
- village models 163–4, 167–8, 175–7, 206
- watchdogs 72, 75–8
- Weberian system 129, 132
- welfare policies 168
- Westacott, Jennifer 21
- Westminster-type systems
- Australia 16
  - Canada 36, 38
  - Ireland 111
  - ministerial advisers in 2, 4–5
  - New Zealand 145
  - partisan advisers 35

- similarity/variations 210–11
- United Kingdom 151
- White Papers, Denmark 53, 56, 59
- Whitehall, UK 180–97
- Whitlam's government, Australia 18–19
- Wilkes, Giles 189
- Wilson, Harold (UK PM) 185–6
- Wilson, Paul 45–7
- women 166
  - see also* gender issues
- 'workers' see 'technical managers'
- Yong, Ben 152, 187–8