

Contents

---

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| List of figures and tables   | vii |
| List of contributors   | ix  |
| Preface  | xiv |
| Introduction: the importance of aggregate demand for full employment and rising living standardsBrian K. MacLean, Hassan Bougrine and Louis-Philippe Rochon  | 1   |
| PART I THEORETICAL CONSIDERATIONS   |     |
| 1 Macroeconomic lessons from the past decadeJ.W. Mason   | 11  |
| 2 Dualism and economic stagnation: can a policy of guaranteed basic income return mature market economies to les Trente glorieuses ?Mario Seccareccia | 34  |
| 3 Kaleckian reflections on the wage share in recent Post-Keynesian controversiesJan Toporowski   | 52  |
| PART II MULTI-COUNTRY PERSPECTIVES  |     |
| 4 The fiscal constraints of the Economic and Monetary UnionMalcolm Sawyer  | 62  |
| 5 The failure of development in Latin AmericaMatias Vernengo   | 75  |
| 6 Austerity, unemployment and poverty in developing countriesHassan Bougrine and Louis-Philippe Rochon   | 97  |

PART III COUNTRY STUDIES

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| 7 | Full employment in Canada in the early 21st centuryLars Osberg                     | 116 |
| 8 | Employment in India: aggregate demand and structuraltransformationsSunanda Sen | 142 |
| 9 | Abenomics and the Japanese labour marketBrian K. MacLean                           | 156 |
|   | Index  | 179 |