

Index

---

- Abe, S. 5, 156, 157, 161–2, 167–9, 173–4
- Abenomics
- achievements 5, 173–4
  - economic performance 167–9
  - first presentation of 156, 161
  - fiscal policy 163–5
  - growth strategy 165–7
  - labour market 169–73
  - main goals 161–2
  - monetary policy 162–3
  - prospects of success 156, 173–4
  - as three arrows strategy 156, 161–2
- accelerator 19, 21, 75–6, 84–5, 93
- age and labour force participation
- in Canada 117–18, 137
  - in Japan 169–70
  - in US 13–14
- aggregate demand
- ability of monetary policy to manage 22–9, 30, 131
  - importance for full employment and rising living standards 1–8
  - links to productivity growth 18–20
  - as still driving unemployment 11–16, 29
- agriculture
- in Africa 109
  - British wages (historical) 35
  - in Canada 134
  - in India 143–4, 145–7, 148
  - in Japan 166
- anti-hysteresis 21
- anti-inflationism 5, 6
- Asian Miracle 82, 92
- Aso, T. 160, 175
- asset holdings, heterogeneous 27
- austerity
- aggregate demand deficiency as related to 148
  - colonial origins 104–11
- developing countries
- colonial origins 98
  - hindering effect 3–4
  - impacts 112
  - implementation 99
  - interventionist strategy 101
  - neoliberal model 100
- and ECB 64
- EMU's fiscal policy agenda 62–3
- in euro area 65, 68, 73
- in India 148–9, 150–51, 153
- in Japan 159, 164, 165
- in Latin America 76, 81, 91
- balance of payments constraint 3
- Bandung Conference/Bandung Project 106, 108, 110
- Bank of Canada
- avoidance of unemployment rate discussions 129–30
  - Coyne Affair 116
  - full employment commitment 7
  - inflation targeting 120, 121, 124, 131, 135
  - renewal of monetary policy framework 7
- Bank of Japan (BoJ)
- efforts to increase economic growth 158
  - monetary policy 159, 162–3, 174
  - quantitative easing 5, 159–60, 162–3
  - yield curve control 164
- basic income
- as add-on to employment income 41
  - guaranteed 2, 37–8, 49
  - income supplement to 40
  - and Karl Polanyi 43–9
  - minimum 41, 48
  - universal 37–8, 41, 43–4, 49
  - see also* unconditional basic income (UBI)

- Beveridge curve 12
- BIS (Bank for International Settlements) 149, 151
- Blanchard, O. 7, 16, 20–21, 23, 25
- Bougrine, H. 98, 104, 110, 112
- Canada
- anxiety about future job availability 128–9
  - debt crisis 131–2
  - full employment in
    - intellectual context 119–24
    - labour force characteristics 117–19
    - political economy context 124–9
    - possible impacts of 129–31
    - possible paths to achieving 131–3
    - unemployment rate 4, 116–19, 123–4, 129–30, 133–4, 135, 137
    - variation in ways of working 133–4
  - future growth forecasts 127–8
  - labour force participation 117–18, 129, 137
  - living standards 129
  - oil prices 126–7, 136
  - real average hourly labour compensation 125
  - unemployment rate 4, 116–19, 123–4, 129–30, 133–4, 135, 137
  - see also* Bank of Canada
- capital-intensive production 19, 147
- capitalism
- cause of slump conditions in 59
  - global, and Africa 108–9
  - Golden Age of 2, 3, 77–9, 87, 97
  - market, mass unemployment as defect of 120
  - and Say's law 52
  - thirty glorious years 97–8
- central banks
- credibility at fighting inflation 173
  - decision making under uncertainty 124
  - delegation of macroeconomic policy to 21
  - demand management 28, 29
  - empirical forecasts 122
  - growth in India as low priority for 153
  - macroeconomic role 22–3, 24–5, 27–9
  - maintaining debt ratio 16, 132–3
  - quantitative easing policies 132
  - reassuring image 121, 123
  - and stabilization policy 1–2, 30
  - use of tight credit policies 149–50
  - see also* Bank of Canada; Bank of Japan; European Central Bank (ECB); Federal Reserve; Reserve Bank of India
- Chicago Boys 80
- classical dual economy 35–7
- colonialism
- in developing countries 98–9
  - Latin America 92
  - origins of austerity 104–11
  - SAPs' aim to ensure continuation of 111–12
- commodity boom 81, 86–90
- compensation effect 45, 46–7
- confidence fairy 67
- consumption tax increase (Japan) 164–5, 174
- Coyne Affair, The 116
- cumulative causation 85
- debt crisis
- in Canada 131–2
  - China and India avoiding 111
  - in Latin America 3, 79, 80–81, 86–8, 91
- debt ratios see government debt-to-GDP ratio
- deficit rules 63
- deflation see economic deflation
- deindustrialization
- as beginning in Japan 101
  - as downside of commodity booms 90
  - of Korea
    - and Egypt 107–8
    - Japan and US 101–2, 104
  - meaning of 100
  - premature
    - in developing countries 104–11, 112
    - in Egypt 107–8
    - in sub-Saharan Africa 108–9
  - preoccupation with, in advanced economies 81
- demand-constrained economy 1, 29

- demand-constrained labour market 45, 46 demographic change 4, 15, 18, 29, 118–19
 deregulation of finance
     Canada 125
     India 4, 150, 153
     Latin America 80
   of product and labour markets 67
 developing countries
   austerity
     colonial origins 98, 104–11
     hindering effect 3–4
     impacts 112
     implementation 99
     interventionist strategy 101
     neoliberal model 100
   colonial pattern of trade and investment 98–9
   deindustrialization 81, 90, 100–102, 104–11, 112 development, blocked 104–11 government spending and rise of welfare state 97–8 impossible trilemma faced by 149
   industrial policy 99–104
   Japan signing trade agreements with 173 structural adjustment programmes 104–12
   structural transformation 99–104
 developmentalism 77–81
 divine coincidence 25, 26
 dual economies 2, 34, 35–7, 44, 45–6, 49
 Dutch disease 89–90
 Dynamic Stochastic General Equilibrium (DSGE) 120–21
 ECB see European Central Bank (ECB)
 Economic and Monetary Union (EMU)
   deficit rules 63
   fiscal compact 68–73
   fiscal policy agenda
     features promoting austerity 62–3 main attributes of approach to 65–7 not conducive to attaining full employment 3, 68, 73 significant changes 64–5 fiscal rules evolution 62–7
   Maastricht Treaty 62, 63
   Treaty on Stability, Coordination and Governance 65–7
 Economic Commission for Latin America (ECLA) 79 economic deflation 5, 156, 158–9, 160, 163, 173
 economic growth
   in Canada 127, 134
   capacity utilization as determinant of 75–6, 85
   in India 4, 142–3, 144–5
   in Japan
     2003–2007 period 159–60
     exchange rate fluctuating with 168 impact of aggressive monetary policy 169 impact of consumption tax hike 164 interpretations of drop in 157–8 strategy 156, 161, 165–7, 168, 173
   in Latin America 3, 75, 85–91
   relation with productivity and investment 75, 81–91 role of public investment 76, 90 slowdown during neoliberal era 81
 economic performance fiscal policies of euro area unconcerned with 73
   in Japan
     Abenomics 167–9
     characterized by deflation and stagnation 4–5
     during first lost decade 157–8
     during second lost decade 159–61
 economic recovery
   fall in real wages 55 higher investment or fiscal stimulus 2 economic slumps
   under-investment as cause of 2, 59 stability in wage share during 55 economically meaningful long run 17–22, 29–30 economics of happiness 128 education levels
   in Canada 117–18, 125–6
   in Japan 167
   in US 14

- elasticity
  - employment 144–5, 146
  - interest, of output 24
  - of labour supply and productivity 20
- employment
  - aggregate demand still driving 11–16, 29
  - austerity policies leading to loss of 100, 104, 112
  - and GI programmes 38–41, 43, 46, 47, 48, 49
  - and hysteresis 21
  - importance to wellbeing 128
  - in India
    - data, magnitude and patterns 144–8
    - dismal state of 153
    - and GDP 142–4
    - structural shifts in pattern of 148–53
  - industrial/manufacturing 34–5, 101–4, 106–8
  - in Japan
    - decline in total 160
    - rates of 169–71
    - of women 167, 168
  - negative demand gaps 20
  - precarious 4
  - pseudo 18–19
  - shifts in 19, 148–53
  - slow or weak growth 11–12, 13, 29–30
  - and wages 52–4, 55, 58, 59
  - Washington Consensus for generating 110
  - see also* full employment
- EMU see Economic and Monetary Union
- euro area
  - austerity regime, attributes at heart of 65–7
  - budget deficits
    - record on 63–4
    - rules-based approach to 62
  - budget positions of member states 63–4
  - common interest rate policy 63
  - conditions for joining 63–4
  - problems brought about by fiscal compact 68–73
  - structural reforms 3, 67, 73
  - suffering high unemployment 3, 73
- European Central Bank (ECB) 63, 64
- excessive deficit procedure (EDP) 65–6, 67, 68, 73
- expansionary policy 5, 20–21, 23, 89, 169
- fallacy of composition 59
- Federal Reserve
  - full employment and inflation control, balancing objectives of 120
  - full employment and price stability, commitment to promote 135
  - housing market interventions 26
  - inflation target 25
  - lending facilities during financial 28–9
  - policy rates during financial crisis 24
  - Romer on 22
  - Yellen as Chair 122, 130
- financial crisis see global financial crisis
- financial inaction 35–7, 44–5
- FINREBS (Finance, Real Estate and Business Services) 147–8, 150, 153
- fiscal compact
  - budget deficit requirements tightened in 62
  - central assumption 73
  - critique 68–73
  - excessive deficit procedure 65–6, 68, 73
  - formalisation 65
- fiscal conservatism 5, 6–7
- fiscal discipline 62, 109–10
- fiscal multipliers 15–16
- fiscal policy
  - in Canada
    - 1980s period 120
    - current importance 131, 133
    - role in realizing full employment 4, 134
  - and debt ratios 16, 62, 64–6
  - economists changing position on 6–7
  - EMU's agenda
    - attributes of approach within euro area 65–6
    - German legalistic doctrine applied to 66–7
    - implications for operation of 64
    - model-induced pro-cyclical bias 71
    - as not conducive to attaining full employment 3, 73

- significant and related changes 64–5
  - two central features of 62–3
- expansionary
  - financial crisis recovery 15
  - interest rates and debt 16
  - in Japan 158, 163, 164–5, 168–9, 174
  - measures 6–7
  - post-war period 97
- in India
  - austerity measures as guiding principle behind 149
  - effect of borrowings 150
  - producing poor record of job creation 4
  - tight 4, 149
- in Japan
  - Abenomics 163–5
  - Abe's intentions 156, 161, 175
  - expansionary 158, 163, 164–5, 168–9, 174
  - under Koizumi administration 159
  - quantitative easing (QE) 168
- Latin America's return to conventional 3
- 'new view' of 16
- 'one size fits all' approach to 63, 68, 72, 73
- in US 11, 15–16
- Fiscal Responsibility and Budget
  - Management Act (FRBMA) 150
- foreign direct investment (FDI) 79, 90
- formal (organised) sector, India 144–7
- forward guidance 27–8, 163
- free-market ideology 4, 98–9, 110
- Friedman, M. 5, 38, 42, 45, 46, 47, 121
- full employment
  - in Canada
    - intellectual context 119–24
    - labour force characteristics 117–19
    - political economy context 124–9
    - possible impacts of 129–31
    - possible paths to achieving 131–3
    - unemployment rate 4, 116–19, 123–4, 129–30, 133–4, 135, 137
    - variation in ways of working 133–4
  - commitment 2, 7, 36, 48–9, 135
  - EMU's fiscal policy agenda 3, 68, 73
  - and GI programmes 48–9
- importance of aggregate demand 1–8
- Kaleckian view 52, 56
- in US
  - confronting question of 11
  - as different from Canada's 130
  - and 'divine coincidence' 25
  - and expected reduction of policy rates 23
  - and secular stagnation 27
- Furtado, C. 34
- Galbraith, J.K. 38, 111
- GI see guaranteed income (GI)
- global financial crisis
  - Canada's resource boom offsetting impact of 126–7
  - depressing aggregate demand 13
  - failure of macroeconomic models to predict 120, 122
  - Federal Reserve measures 24, 28–9
  - issues arising from 1, 11
  - large real shocks to output and prices 123
  - lessons to be drawn from 23, 27
  - and monetary policy 27
  - oil prices 136
  - recovery from 15, 88, 122
- global value chains (GVCs) 90
- Golden Age of Capitalism 2, 3, 77–9, 87, 97
- government debt-to-GDP ratio
  - in EMU's fiscal policy agenda 3, 62–3
  - euro area 62, 63–6
  - fiscal conservative arguments 6–7
  - in Japan 156, 160, 163, 164–5, 168
  - in US 16, 26
- Great Recession (1930s) 14, 17–18
- Great Recession (2008–2009) see global financial crisis
- Growth Accounting 82–3, 84, 85–6, 92
- growth strategy (Japan) 156, 161–2, 165–7, 168, 173
- guaranteed income (GI)
  - bringing economies to new golden age 37–43
  - guaranteed annual income-cum negative income tax (GAI-NIT) 2, 38–42, 46–7, 49

- guaranteed earnings supplementation
    - scheme (hypothetical) 2, 39–42
  - programmes possibly creating greater
    - income polarisation and wage deflation 43–9
  - research question 37, 49
  - as social policy scheme 35
  - unconditional basic income 2, 37, 38–9, 41, 46–7, 49
- Hamada, K. 156
- heterodox macroeconomics 14–15, 30, 43
- heterodox writers 16, 18–19, 20, 22, 43
- ‘high-pressure economy’ 13
- higher wages 2, 19, 58, 59, 173
- Hobson, J.A. 2, 59
- Hodrick-Prescott filter 17
- housing 26, 127
- hysteresis 17–18, 20–21, 23, 26
- IMF (International Monetary Fund) 84, 93, 99, 108–9, 112, 122, 149, 166, 168–9, 175
- imperfect competition 54
- import substitution industrialization (ISI) 3, 77
- income polarisation 34, 37, 43–9
- increasing returns 20
- India
  - agriculture 143–4, 145–7, 148
  - deregulation of finance 4, 150, 153
  - employment
    - data, magnitude and patterns 144–8
    - dismal state of 153
    - and GDP 142–5, 150
    - structural shifts in pattern of 145, 146–7, 148–53
  - FINREBS 147–8, 150, 153
  - formal (organised) sector 144–7
  - fiscal policy 4, 149, 150
  - GDP
    - and employment 142–5, 150
    - fiscal and primary deficits as percentages of 150–51
    - sector-wise contribution 142–4
    - and services 143–4, 147–8
    - sharp uptrend in 142–3
  - as high-growth economy 4, 142–3, 144–5
  - industry 111, 143–4, 145–7, 148
  - informal (unorganised) sector 4, 144–7
  - job creation, poor record of 4, 145–8, 153
  - monetarism 149–50, 153
  - monetary policy 4, 149, 150, 151–2, 153
  - Reserve Bank 149–51, 153
  - services (tertiary) sector 143–4, 145–7, 148
  - SME sector 151
  - state provision of social benefits, lack of 142, 145, 149, 150–52
  - structural transformation of economy 144, 148–9, 153
- industrial policy
  - in developing countries 101–4, 110
  - rejection due to state capacity 98–9
  - in Western economies 99–101, 105
- industry
  - in Africa 106
  - British wages (historical) 35
  - in China 111
  - employment shifts towards 19
  - in India 111, 143–4, 145–7, 148
  - in Japan 165, 173
  - and wage share 56, 57
- informal (unorganised) sector, India 4, 144–7
- innovation
  - discouragement of productivity-boosting 15
  - of fourth industrial revolution 166
  - in response to demand and costs 19
  - state involvement extending to 98, 99–100
  - technological
    - and productivity 85, 93
    - slowdown of 15, 83
- investment
  - accelerator principle 19, 21, 84
  - colonial pattern of 98, 104–6, 108, 109, 112
  - determinants of 75–6
  - as essential for economic growth 75
  - under-investment
    - as cause of economic slumps 2, 59
    - as cause of inequality 58
  - in Japan 156, 159, 162, 163, 166, 168

- Kalecki on 54, 55–6, 57, 58
 Keynes on 55
 in Latin America 85–91
 private 6, 27, 36, 57, 58, 68–9, 76, 156, 159 productivity and output growth 81–5 public 27, 36, 63, 65, 68, 76, 90, 98 theories on 81–5
- Japan
 consumption tax increase 164–5, 174
 economic deflation 5, 156, 158–9, 160, 163, 173
 economic performance
 current situation 167–9
 first lost decade 157–8
 second lost decade 159–61
 economic stagnation 5, 156, 166, 174
 fiscal policy 156, 158, 159, 163–5, 168, 174
 government debt-to-GDP ratio 156, 160, 163, 164–5, 168
 growth strategy 156, 161–2, 165–7, 168, 173
 labour force participation 169–70, 171, 173, 176
 labour market 169–73
 macroeconomic policy
 first lost decade 157–8
 during second lost decade 159–61
 monetary policy 156, 159, 161, 162–3, 164, 165, 168–9, 174 nominal GDP growth target 161 potential growth rate 157–8, 174
 Society 5.0 166–7
 unemployment rate in 160, 165, 169–71, 173
see also Abenomics; Bank of Japan
- job creation in India 4, 145–8, 153
- Kaldor-Verdoorn's law 18, 75, 84–5
 Kalecki, M. 2, 52, 54, 55–6, 57–8, 59, 199
 Kelton, S. 7
 Keynes, J.M. 1, 2, 6, 24, 29, 48, 54–5, 56, 59, 97, 105, 119
- Keynesianism
 and Abenomics 164
- calls for expansionary fiscal policy
 measures 6
- consensus
 demise in advanced economies 81, 100 replacement in Canada 120
- Keynesian theory of wages 53–5, 56, 58–9
 'old' 5, 156
 shift to models of long-run growth 30, 56–8 success of SAPs in dismantling 110
- traditional independence of long rates from short rates 24 and Phillips curve analysis 5
 welfare state 36–7, 80
- Kuroda, H. 156, 162, 163
- Kuznets' structural transformation 144, 148
- labour force growth 13, 17
- labour force participation
 in Canada 117–18, 129, 137
 effect of large demand shifts 17–18
 in Japan 169–70, 171, 173, 176
 and low unemployment periods 18 relation to age
 in Canada 117–18, 137
 in Japan 169–70
 in US 13–14
 relation to education 118
 in US 13–14, 17–18
 weak labour market discouraging 15
 of women 14, 118, 129, 137, 171
- labour markets
 in Canada 116–17, 122, 123, 126, 129, 133–4
 and guaranteed income policy 38–43, 45–9 hysteresis in 17–18
 in Japan 4–5, 169–73, 174
 and migration 21
 poverty and inequality in 58
 structural reforms of 3, 67, 73
 in US 12–13
- labour productivity
 accelerator, and Okun's and Kaldor-Verdoorn's laws 84, 85 changes in capital stock per worker 19

- growth
  - during commodity boom phase 88–9
  - enabling faster growth of real wages 134
  - and GDP growth 87–8
  - per hour worked 86–7
  - relation to demand 17, 20
  - slow, factors 14
  - in Japan 166
  - in Latin America 86–9
  - pro-cyclicality of 93
  - technology having impact on 127
- labour share 18, 25
- labour supply 20–22, 26, 43, 45, 46
- Latin America
  - 1970s crisis 79–80, 91
  - debt crisis 3, 79, 80–81, 86–8, 91
  - economic growth 3, 75, 85–91
  - expansionary macroeconomic policy 89
  - foreign direct investment 79, 90
  - investment 85–91
  - neoliberalism
    - from developmentalism to 77–81
    - rejection of policies 91–2
    - return to power 92
  - productivity 76, 85–91
  - unemployment rate in 90–91, 92
  - Washington Consensus policies 80–81, 91
- Lewis, W. Arthur 35, 45, 144, 146, 147, 148
- living standards
  - in Canada 129
  - importance of aggregate demand 1–8
- long run
  - austerity policies crippling growth 100
  - deviation of GDP from trend 13
  - economically meaningful 17–22, 29–30
  - expectations of inflation 70
  - female labour force participation 129
  - growth as fundamentals-determined 1
  - increase in hourly real labour
    - compensation in Canada 125
  - Latin American experience 86–7
  - and NAIRU rate 121
  - Phillips curve, vertical 70
  - potential problem of debt stability 131
  - price stability consistent with
    - unemployment rate 130
    - supply-determined 17
  - uncertainty around lower growth trend 127
  - wage share analysis 56–8
- lost decades
  - Japan's first 157–8
  - Japan's second 159–61
  - Latin America 87, 91
- Maastricht Treaty 62, 63
- MacCracken, M.C. 8
- MacLean, B.K. 174, 175
- macroeconomic lessons
  - aggregate demand driving
    - (un)employment 11–16, 29
  - conventional monetary policy as
    - insufficient to manage aggregate demand 22–9
  - no economically meaningful long run 17–22, 29–30
- macroeconomic policy
  - anti-inflation stance 5, 6
  - in Canada 119–21, 123, 127, 131
  - central banks
    - clean separation of monetary policy 29
    - delegation to 21
    - divine coincidence 24–5
    - setting single short-term interest rate 30
    - stabilization policy 22–3
  - and EMU structural reforms 67
  - expansionary 3, 5, 48, 89, 156–7, 167, 173–4
  - in Japan
    - during first lost decade 157–8
    - during second lost decade 159–61
- macroeconomic tradition
  - heterodox 30
  - orthodox 29
- macroeconomic variables 21–22
- manufacturing
  - colonial impacts 98
  - comparison with services 19
  - decline in 100–104, 106–8
  - employment in 34, 100–104, 106, 108, 111
  - exports 80, 81, 90
  - in India 146, 147

- Marx, K.H. 48, 54
- Mason, J.W. 13–14, 16, 24, 26
- micro-foundations 56
- migration 13, 21, 86, 126
- Modern Monetary Theory (MMT) 7
- monetarism (India) 149–50, 153
- monetary policy
- in Canada
    - ability to manage aggregate demand 131
    - asymmetric impacts 131
    - low inflation 125–6
    - motivated by inflation avoidance 124
    - renewal of framework 7
    - role of output gap 121
    - shift to focus on inflation control 120
    - success in reaching inflation target 134
  - conventional, ability to manage aggregate demand 22–9, 30, 131
  - expansionary 15
  - and German ordo-liberalism 66–7
  - and hysteresis 20–21
  - in India
    - impossibility of autonomous 153
    - and overseas financial flows 150
    - tight 4, 149, 151–2
  - in Japan
    - Abe implementing bold 156
    - Abenomics 162–3
    - aggressive 161, 168–9
    - BoJ adopting unconventional 159, 174
    - and fiscal policy 164, 165
  - in Latin America 83
- NAIRU see non-accelerating inflation rate of unemployment (NAIRU)
- natural rate of unemployment see non-accelerating inflation rate of unemployment (NAIRU)
- negative income tax 2, 38–9
- neoliberalism
- within Abenomics 173
  - in Africa 108–9, 110
  - and austerity 100, 104
  - countries not adhering to 111
  - government funding 98
  - Latin American turn to 3, 79–81, 90, 91–2
  - newly industrialized countries (NICs) 100, 101
  - non-accelerating inflation rate of unemployment (NAIRU) 25, 65, 70, 71, 83, 118, 121, 129–30, 136
  - non-accelerating wage rate of unemployment 25
  - Occam's razor 15
  - Okun's law 12, 75, 84, 93
  - old Keynesian economists 5, 156
  - ordo-liberalism* 65, 66–7
  - orthodoxy 1, 5, 26, 27, 28, 29
  - Osberg, L. 135, 136, 137
  - output gap
    - concept of 'potential output' 70–71, 72
    - definitions 121, 168
    - economic activity measures 124
    - financial crisis period 13, 23, 24
    - as indicator of economy-wide capacity utilization 168
    - and inflation forecasts in Canada 121–2
    - inflationary effects 69–70
    - and monetary policy 20–21, 26
  - output growth
    - Abenomics producing faster 168–9
    - in European Union 71–2
    - flaw in traditional approach 17
    - in India 4
    - literature on relation with investment and productivity 85
    - relation with weak demand 15–16
    - reverse causality with productivity growth 84
    - TFP calculated as residual of 82
    - and US employment growth 11–12, 13
  - perfect competition 54
  - Phillips curve
    - flattening of short-run 5, 25, 172–3
    - gap in 122
    - long run 70
    - potential output theory 69–70
  - Piketty, T. 34
  - Polanyi, K. 2, 43–5, 49, 98
  - Post-Keynesianism
    - challenges for heterodox approaches 30

- employment in India 148–53
- Modern Monetary Theory 7
- traditional
  - calls for expansionary fiscal policy measures 6
  - and Phillips curve analysis 5
  - wage share in recent controversies 52–9
- potential growth rate (Japan) 157–8, 174
- potential output
  - fiscal constraints of EMU 65, 68–73
  - full employment in Canada 121–2, 137
  - macroeconomic lessons 13, 15, 17, 21, 25
  - macroeconomic policy during Japan's first lost decade 157
- poverty
  - Asian-African conference recognizing urgency of 106
  - assumption of choice 42
  - in developing countries 104, 110, 111
  - higher wages as remedy for 59
  - in India 142, 145, 148–9
  - as result of under-investment 58
  - Ricardian Socialist argument 53
- Principle of Effective Demand 79
- private demand 24, 72
- private investment 6, 27, 36, 57, 58, 68–9, 76, 156, 159
- productivity
  - aggregate 19
  - economic growth dependent on 75
  - gap between real wages and 35, 48
  - in Latin America 76, 85–91
  - marginal 53
  - technological advances increasing 100
  - theories on 81–5
- productivity growth
  - as basis for capital accumulation and economic growth 81–2
  - as endogenous to aggregate demand 11
  - as historically slow 12
  - in Latin America 76, 85–90
  - links to demand conditions 18–20
  - and percentage nominal wage growth 25
  - recent declines in 83, 127
  - relation with employment opportunities 128
  - reverse causality with output growth 84
- public debt 16, 63, 66, 131–3, 137
- public investment 27, 36, 63, 65, 68, 76, 90, 98
- public spending
  - 1930s Great Depression 97
  - austerity policy curtailing 98, 110
  - for expansion of output and employment 4
  - paying for itself 16
  - and sound finance principles 99, 109
  - welfare state attack through cuts in 37
- quantitative easing (QE)
  - Bank of Japan 5, 159–60, 162–3
  - and Japan's monetary policy 168
  - role in macroeconomic stabilization 27–8
  - Western central banks 132
- Reinhart, C.M. 6–7, 66
- Reserve Bank of India 149–51, 153
- Ricardian Socialists 2, 53, 59
- Rogoff, K. 6–7, 66
- Romer, C.D. 22–3
- Sawyer, M. 74
- Say's law 52–3, 78–9
- Seccareccia, M. 2, 7, 34, 37, 39, 44, 45, 98
- secular stagnation 27, 83, 127, 166
- Sen, S. 149, 153, 154
- services
  - aggregate demand for goods and 131, 132
  - comparison with manufacturing 19
  - in India 143–4, 146–8
  - public/social 58, 97, 99, 100–101, 105, 109, 112
  - and subsidised consumption 58
- short run
  - demand-determined 1, 17
  - and demand gap 29–30
  - distinction with long run 1, 11, 17, 30, 56
  - effects of demand not limited to 11, 29
  - interest rate 23

- Keynesian theory of wages 53–5
- macroeconomic policy 76–7
- Phillips curve 5
  - and public investment 76
- Smith, A. 75, 85
- social assistance programmes 2, 41, 134
- Society 5.0 166–7
- Solow paradox 83, 89
- Solow residual 81–3
- Speenhamland compensation effect (SCE) 47
- Speenhamland effect 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49
- Speenhamland relief system 44–5
- Speenhamland transfer mechanism 44–5
- Speenhamland wage supplementation scheme 44, 46
- Stability and Growth Pact (SGP) 62, 64, 68–9, 73
- stabilization policy 1–2, 22–3
- Stigler, G. 38, 42
- Stiglitz, J.E. 28, 110, 135
- structural adjustment programmes (SAPs) 109–12
- structural reforms
  - euro area 3, 67, 73
  - Japan 161, 166–7
- structural transformation
  - of developing economies 101–4
  - in India 144, 148–9, 153
  - and industrial policy 99–104
  - in Latin America 78–9
  - of Western economies 98, 99–101
- subsidised consumption 58
- supply growth 20
- supply shocks 14–15, 23
- supply-side explanations
  - for employment behaviour 29
  - for Latin American boom 78
  - for Latin American slowdown 83, 88
  - for slower growth during past decade 13, 15
- supply-side long run 11
- technological innovation 15, 83, 85, 93
- Term Asset-Backed Securities Loan Facility (TALF) 28
- theory of wages 53–5, 56, 58–9
- thirty glorious years of capitalism 97–8
- Total Factor Productivity (TFP) 82–3, 85–6
- Treaty on Stability, Coordination and Governance (TSCG) 65–7
- ‘Trente glorieuses’ 2, 36, 37
- uncertainty
  - in Canada
    - about future economic shocks 129
    - anticipation of heightened 127
    - as intellectual context for discussions of full employment 122
    - policy decisions 121
  - decision making under 124
  - depressing aggregate demand 13
  - radical 123
  - role in retarding investment 93
  - as running two ways 130
- unconditional basic income (UBI) 2, 37, 38–9, 41, 46–7, 49
- under-consumptionism 2, 53, 58, 59
- under-investment 2, 59
- unemployment
  - after Second World War 97
  - aggregate demand still driving 11–16, 29
  - attributed to under-consumption 59
  - in developing countries 110, 111
  - disguised 146, 147, 148
  - euro area suffering high 3, 73
  - in India 145–6, 147, 148, 151
  - and inflation 21, 25, 120, 137
  - insurance 38, 41, 46, 49, 134–5
  - labour supply and/or productivity growth varying with 26
  - and market wage polarising effect of GI system 47–8
  - subsidised consumption 58
  - and wage share 53
  - see also* non-accelerating wage rate of unemployment (NAIRU)
- unemployment rate
  - in Canada 4, 116–19, 123–4, 129–30, 133–4, 135, 137
  - in Japan 160, 165, 169–71, 173
  - in Latin America 90–91, 92

- in US
  - in 1930s 14, 17–18
  - demographic and educational changes 118
  - elasticity of labour supply and productivity 20–21
  - impact of life satisfaction of employed 128–9
  - reduced with New Deal programmes 97
- universal basic income 37–8, 41, 43–4, 49
- US (United States)
  - adoption of neoliberalism 79
  - attack on welfare state 37
  - deindustrialization 81, 102
  - dot-com bubble 89
  - employment-population ratio 13–14
  - fiscal policy 11, 15–16
  - full employment 11, 23, 25, 27, 130
  - influences on employment costs and inflation 122
  - and international trade 127
  - labour force participation 13–14, 17–18
  - macroeconomic policy 23
  - manufacturing employment 101–2
  - postwar 17, 36
  - quantitative easing 160
  - rhetoric of monetary policy 25–6
  - rise of ‘Trumpism’ 120
  - share of wages in national income 55
  - unemployment rate in 14, 17–18, 20–21, 97, 118, 128–9
  - see also* Federal Reserve
- vent-for-surplus theory 85
- Verdoorn’s law see Kaldor-Verdoorn’s law
- Vernengo, M. 5, 20, 81, 84, 86, 92, 93
- wage deflation 2, 43–9
- wage growth 25, 36, 125, 172
- wage share
  - classical ‘steady state’ 57
  - Kalecki on 2, 55–6, 58
  - Keynes on 54, 56
  - reaction function 25
  - recent literature 58–9
  - return of long run 56–8
  - and supply constraints 14–15
  - view/approach 52–3, 57–8
- wage theory 53–5, 56, 58–9
- Washington Consensus 3, 76, 80–81, 91, 110–11
- Wakatabe, M. 169, 170–71, 176
- welfare state 3, 67
  - Keynesian 36–7, 80
- Wilkins, C. 7
- women
  - employment rates in Japan 168
  - labour force participation 14, 118, 129, 137, 171
  - social policy impacts 134, 167
  - unemployment rates in Canada 137
- World Bank 79, 92, 99, 108–9, 110, 149
- Yellen, J.L. 121, 122, 130, 136
- zero lower bound 11, 23, 131