

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Preface	x
PART I CONCEPTUALIZING LABOUR AND HUMAN RIGHTS LAW
1 Perspectives on labour and human rights Janice R. Bellace and Beryl ter Haar	2
PART II SOURCES IN NATIONAL LAW
SECTION A CIVIL LAW AND CONSTITUTIONAL SOURCES
2 Fundamental rights and German labor law Manfred Weiss	17
3 (The right to) work as foundational value: Italy and the very notion of a constitutional promise Edoardo Ales	34
4 Fundamental labour rights in Brazil: challenges and developments Ana Virginia Moreira Gomes	50
5 Business, labor law and human rights in Japan Takashi Yonezu	69
6 Fundamental rights and Swedish labour law Mia Rönnmar	84
SECTION B COMMON LAW
7 Worker rights as human rights: regenerative reconception or rhetorical refuge? Matthew W. Finkin	102
8 Business and labour, and human rights in New Zealand Amanda Reilly and Jonathan Barrett	130
9 The architecture of human rights at work in Israeli law Guy Mundlak	149
10 Human rights in the evolution of South African labour law Darcy du Toit and Mariam Sirkhotte	170
SECTION C TRANSITION ECONOMIES
11 Labor disputes in China from a fundamental labor rights perspective Piotr Grzebyk	191

12	Trying to balance economic and labour rights: the case of Russia Nikita Lyutov and Elena Gerasimova	207
----	---	-----

PART III FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

SECTION A CONCEPTS

13	Freedom of association: its emergence and the case for prevention of its decline Tonia Novitz	231
14	Freedom from child labour: a fundamental right Constance Thomas	253
15	Workplace gender equality as a human right: the ILO approach Jane Aeberhard-Hodges	274

SECTION B SUPRANATIONAL INFLUENCES

16	How the ILO embraced human rights Lee Swepston	295
17	The European Convention on Human Rights as a fountain of labour rights Filip Dorsssemont	314
18	Labor human rights and the jurisprudence of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights Miguel F. Canessa Montejo	334

SECTION C SCOPE AND COVERAGE

19	Fundamental labour rights, platform work and human rights protection of non-standard workers Valerio De Stefano and Antonio Aloisi	359
20	Decent work challenges for atypical workers in Korea Christina Hiessl and Jaewook Nahm	380

PART IV BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS

21	From workers' rights to human rights at work Janice R. Bellace	402
22	Multinational enterprises and labour rights: concepts and implementation Nicolas Bueno	421
23	The EU's CSR policy in a global and national context Beryl ter Haar and Attila Kun	439
24	State extraterritorial regulation and decent work in the Asia Pacific Ingrid Landau and John Howe	466
	Index	493