
Contents

List of tables	vii
List of contributors	viii
Preface	xiii
PART I INTRODUCTION
1 Introduction: international perspectives on the death penalty Richard C. Dieter	2
PART II SUBSTANTIVE LAW
2 Deserving of death: the changing scope of capital offenses in an age of death penalty decline Delphine Lourttau	30
3 Deciding who lives and who dies: eligibility for capital punishment under national and international law Sandra L. Babcock	54
PART III PROCEDURAL LAW
4 Extradition and non-refoulement Bharat Malkani	76
5 An unfair fight for justice: legal representation of persons facing the death penalty Sandra L. Babcock	96
6 Towards a global theory of capital clemency incidence Daniel Pascoe	116
PART IV ADMINISTRATION
7 Imposing a 'mandatory' death penalty: a practice out of sync with evolving standards Parvais Jabbar	138
8 Methods of execution: the American story in comparative perspective Austin Sarat and Keshav Pant	160
9 Capital punishment at the intersections of discrimination and disadvantage: the plight of foreign nationals Carolyn Hoyle	177

10	Innocence and the global death penalty Brandon L. Garrett	201
----	---	-----

PART V INSTITUTIONS

11	International law and the abolition of the death penalty William A. Schabas	217
----	---	-----

12	The role of institutions in the norm life cycle: the United Nations and the anti-capital punishment norm Sangmin Bae	232
----	--	-----

13	Regional institutions and death penalty abolition: comparative perspectives and their discontents Evi Girling	247
----	---	-----

14	Undoing the British colonial legacy: the judicial reform of the death penalty Saul Lehrfreund	272
----	---	-----

PART VI THE FUTURE OF THE DEATH PENALTY

15	Reframing the debate on attitudes towards the death penalty Mai Sato	301
----	--	-----

16	Pulling states towards abolitionism: the power of acculturation as a socialization mechanism Michelle Miao	319
----	--	-----

17	Imagining utopia: the global abolition of the death penalty Jon Yorke and Amna Nazir	341
----	--	-----

18	After abolition: the empirical, jurisprudential and strategic legacy of transnational death penalty litigation Andrew Novak	371
----	---	-----

19	Global abolition of capital punishment: contributors, challenges and conundrums Carol S. Steiker and Jordan M. Steiker	388
----	--	-----

	Index	411
--	--------------	-----