Contributors

Ricardo Figueiredo Belchior is a teaching assistant at ISEG, Universidade de Lisboa, Portugal and a PhD student at Instituto Universitário de Lisboa (ISCTE-IUL), Portugal, who has been granted financial support by FCT – Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia with a PhD scholarship (SFRH/BD/73520/2010).

Roberto Carlos Bernardes is Professor of Business Administration and Innovation at Centro Universitário FEI, São Paulo, Brazil. His work revolves around innovation. His work has been published by Brazilian journals and international journals. Dr Bernardes earned a doctorate in social sciences from Universidade de São Paulo, Brazil.

António Caetano is a Full Professor of Organizational Behaviour and Human Resources at Instituto Universitário de Lisboa (ISCTE-IUL), Portugal. He holds a PhD in Social and Organizational Psychology. He is author or co-author of several books. His work has been published in peer-review journals, such as Leadership Quarterly, Group Dynamics: Theory, Research, and Practice, Journal of Managerial Psychology, Journal of Change Management, Group Organization Management, Journal of Small Business and Entrepreneurship, Social Indicators Research, Journal of Applied Social Psychology, Journal of Business Research and Career Development International Journal, among others. His main research areas include entrepreneurship, change and training evaluation, organizational social exchange processes, and subjective well-being at work.

Sílvia Fernandes Costa is an Assistant Professor of Entrepreneurship at the University of Groningen Centre for Entrepreneurship, the Netherlands. Sílvia holds a PhD in Human Resources and Organizational Behaviour from Instituto Universitário de Lisboa (ISCTE-IUL), Portugal and has been a Postdoctoral Research Associate at the Entrepreneurship and Innovation Group at the D’Amore–McKim School of Business at Northeastern University, USA. She has visited the Netherlands Institute for Knowledge Intensive Entrepreneurship (NIKOS) at the University of Twente on behalf of a European PhD programme, and the University of Dresden as an Erasmus Researcher Exchange. Sílvia’s main research interests are the cognitive and psychosocial processes of entrepreneurial
The emergence of entrepreneurial behaviour activity. Sílvia is co-author of a book and several book chapters, and has published her work in the Journal of Entrepreneurship, Creativity and Innovation Management and the International Journal of Entrepreneurship and Innovation, among others.

Alain Fayolle is a Professor of Entrepreneurship and the founder and Director of the Entrepreneurship Research Centre at EMLYON Business School, France. His research interests cover a range of topics in the field of entrepreneurship. He has been (or still is) acting as an expert for different governments and international institutions (OECD, EC, UNIDO). Alain has published 30 books and over 150 articles in leading international and French-speaking journals. Among his editorial positions, he is notably an Associate Editor of the Journal of Small Business Management and an Editor of two leading French-speaking journals. In 2013, Alain Fayolle received the 2013 European Entrepreneurship Education Award and has been elected officer of the Academy of Management Entrepreneurship Division (a five-year commitment culminating with position as Chair of Division in 2016). In 2015, he was awarded Wilford L. White Fellow by the ICSB.

Arjan J. Frederiks is an Assistant Professor of Entrepreneurship at the University of Groningen Centre for Entrepreneurship, the Netherlands. Previously, he was a Visiting Professor of Entrepreneurship and Innovation in the D’Amore–McKim School of Business at Northeastern University, USA. He was awarded his PhD in Entrepreneurship cum laude (with distinction) from the University of Twente, the Netherlands. In his research Arjan examines the cognitive aspects of entrepreneurship.

Antonella Garofano holds a PhD in the Analysis of Economic and Social Systems from the University of Sannio, Italy and is Research Fellow in Management at the same university. Her main research interests deal with corporate and international entrepreneurship, business longevity, and territorial and wine marketing. She has several publications in national and international journals.

Gustav Hägg is a PhD candidate at the Sten K. Johnson Centre for Entrepreneurship (SKJCE), Lund University School of Economics and Management, Sweden. His doctoral thesis has its focus on experiential learning within entrepreneurship education settings, especially focusing on pedagogy and learning theory. Research interests cover philosophy of learning, educational theory, educational policy, and critical perspectives in education.

Inmaculada Jaén has a PhD in Economics (2014) from the University of Seville, Spain, with international mention. Inmaculada is a Lecturer in Economics at the Department of Applied Economics at the University of Seville and a member of the research group ‘SMEs and Economic Development’. She has participated in several research projects, funded by the regional and national administrations. Dr Jaén is taking part in the ELITE project (Ref.: ECO2016-75655-P) financed by the Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness in Spain.

Inna Kozlinska is a fifth-year doctoral student completing the joint supervision PhD programme of the University of Tartu, Estonia and the University of Turku, Finland. In 2012–13 Inna was involved in the implementation of the Central Balticum Entrepreneurship Interaction project as a research fellow. Her research is currently focused on entrepreneurial learning.

Hans Landström holds the Chair in Entrepreneurship at Lund University, Sweden. He is co-founder of two large research centres at Lund University: Centre for Innovation, Research and Competence in the Learning Economy (CIRCLE), which is a research centre on innovation research, and Sten K. Johnson Centre for Entrepreneurship (SKJCE), focusing on entrepreneurship research and education. His research interests include entrepreneurial finance, venture capital and business angels, entrepreneurial education, and the history of entrepreneurship as a research field. He is the author of 15 books and edited books, and his articles have been published in journals such as Research Policy, Journal of Business Venturing, Small Business Economics, Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice, Entrepreneurship and Regional Development and Journal of Small Business Management.

Francisco Liñán is Associate Professor at the University of Seville, Spain. He holds a PhD in Economics from this university (2004). Professor Liñán is a researcher in the field of entrepreneurship, entrepreneurial intentions and entrepreneurship education. He is the Head of the Master in Entrepreneurship Development. He has participated in several projects funded by the Spanish national government, EU and OECD, and is the Main Researcher in the ELITE Project (Ref.: ECO2016-75655-P). Professor Liñán is Regional Editor at the Journal of Organizational Change Management and Editorial Board Member at the International Entrepreneurship and Management Journal, Journal of Global Entrepreneurship Research and the International Journal of Management Science and Information Technology.

Theodore Lynn is Associate Dean (Industry Engagement and Innovation) at DCU Business School, Republic of Ireland, where he lectures at postgraduate level on digital marketing and strategic thinking. He is the Principal Investigator of the Irish Centre for Cloud Computing and Commerce, an industry-led multidisciplinary applied research centre. Professor Lynn has founded a number of technology companies and is an advisor to a number of domestic and international companies.
The emergence of entrepreneurial behaviour

Roisin Lyons is a Lecturer and PhD scholar at DCU Business School, Republic of Ireland. Her PhD studies the effects of entrepreneurship education on the student and student team. She has taught at both post-primary and university level, specializing in the areas of management communications and innovation. She has lectured in Dublin City University, Dublin and Princess Nora University, Riyadh and has won teaching awards for both posts. She holds a BSc in Chemistry, an HDip in Education and an MSc in Business Management.

Ciarán Mac an Bhaird is Lecturer of Business and Management at Fiontar (Enterprise), Dublin City University, Republic of Ireland and founder of USTART, the DCU Student Start-up Accelerator. His research interests include capital structure and financial management in medium sized enterprises; serial entrepreneurship; angel investing; financing young high-tech firms, regional development, and public policy related to provision of support to SMEs. He is a board member of the Institute for Small Business and Entrepreneurship and he advises start-ups on a continuous basis.

Tõnis Mets is the Marie Curie Research Fellow in the Australian Centre for Entrepreneurship Research at the Queensland University of Technology and Professor of Entrepreneurship at the University of Tartu, Estonia. Professor Mets has authored or co-authored over 50 book chapters and papers published in the internationally renowned periodicals. His main research interests cover the fields of technology entrepreneurship and intellectual property as well as knowledge and innovation management.

Craig Mitchell is a PhD candidate and teacher at the Sten K. Johnson Centre for Entrepreneurship (SKJCE) at the School of Economics and Management, Lund University, Sweden. His research interests include ethnic minority entrepreneurship, firm growth and entrepreneurial marketing.

Xaver Neumeyer is currently an Assistant Professor of Entrepreneurship at the School of Entrepreneurship, University of North Dakota, USA. He has worked on a variety of topics such as material fatigue, micro-manufacturing, and team-based pedagogies in engineering, before transitioning to study innovation and entrepreneurship. His current research interests include entrepreneurial ecosystems (formation, interaction effects and measurement), as well as how these ecosystems are shaped by or shape entrepreneurs. He received his PhD in Mechanical Engineering from Northwestern University in 2014 and his MSc in Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering from the Illinois Institute of Technology in 2006. He also completed the Post-Doctoral Bridge Program at the University of Florida in 2015.

Antonio Benedito de Oliveira Jr is a Doctor of Business Administration at Centro Universitário FEI, São Paulo, Brazil. His work revolves around entrepreneurship, strategic alliances and consumer behaviour and has been published in Brazilian journals. Professor Oliveira Jr earned a Master's in Administration from Fundação Getúlio Vargas, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Mauro José de Oliveira earned a Master's and doctorate in Administration from Centro Universitário FEI, São Paulo, Brazil. His work revolves around social media, integrated marketing communications, consumer behaviour and technical analyses using PLS. His work has been published in Brazilian and UK journals.

Diamanto Politis is an Associate Professor of Entrepreneurship at the Sten K. Johnson Centre for Entrepreneurship (SKJCE), Lund University School of Economics and Management, Sweden. Her research interests include entrepreneurial learning and entrepreneurship education, academic entrepreneurship and early-stage technology commercialization. She is also currently involved in research on the role and importance of external (or surrogate) entrepreneurs for promoting the commercialization of public research and development (R&D).

Mohd Rashan Shah Robuan is currently a Lecturer in the Faculty of Economics and Management at the Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. He is about to complete his PhD at the University of Seville, Spain, researching in the area of entrepreneurship education and evaluation of entrepreneurship education programmes. He was granted a scholarship by the Malaysian public administration to carry out his dissertation under the supervision of Professor Liñán.

Angelo Riviezzo is Assistant Professor of Business Strategy and Business Planning at the University of Sannio, Italy. He holds a PhD in Management and his main research interests include competitive strategies, with particular focus on SMEs and entrepreneurship, targeting corporate and academic entrepreneurship. He has authored several publications on these topics, including articles in peer-reviewed journals, books, book chapters and conference proceedings.

Kärt Rõigas is a third-year doctoral student at the University of Tartu, Estonia. In 2008 she obtained a Master’s degree in Economics. Since 2013, Kärt has held the position of Research Fellow in the Chair of Economic
The emergence of entrepreneurial behaviour

Modelling. Her research activities are mainly focused on different channels of knowledge transfer, including university–industry cooperation, as well as labour mobility.

Susana C. Santos is a Postdoctoral Research Fellow at the Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation at Warrington College of Business at the University of Florida, USA. She holds a PhD in Human Resources Management and Organizational Behaviour from Instituto Universitário de Lisboa (ISCTE-IUL), Portugal, and she was a researcher at the Business Research Unit (BRU-UNIDE) at ISCTE-IUL, Instituto Universitário de Lisboa. Her main research interests are on the cognitive and psychosocial processes of entrepreneurship, at individual and team levels. Susana has published in the Journal of Business Research; International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behavior and Research; Journal of Entrepreneurship; Journal of Small Business and Entrepreneurship; and International Journal of Entrepreneurship and Innovation. 