

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction to the Handbook on the Geographies of Corruption Barney Warf	1
PART I THEMES FOR UNDERSTANDING CORRUPTION
2 Causes and effects of corruption: new developments in empirical research Sufyan Dabbous and Eugen Dimant	15
3 Effects of corruption on human capital and economic growth in developing countries Asma Sghaier and Asma Guizani	31
4 Gender and corruption: institutions and mechanisms of accountability Helena Olofsdotter Stensöta and Lena Wängnerud	46
5 World regional geographies of corruption Barney Warf	67
6 The consequences of corruption Dominik H. Enste and Christina Heldman	106
7 E-government and corruption: a review Nasr G. Elbahnasawy	120
PART II NATIONAL CASE STUDIES
8 Corruption in Mexico: continuity amid change Stephen Morris	132
9 Persistent malfeasance despite institutional innovations and public outcry: a survey of corruption in Brazil Kelly Senters and Matthew S. Winters	154

vi	Handbook on the geographies of corruption
10	Corruption in East Central Europe: has EU membership helped? Agnes Batory	169
11	Corruption in Ukraine: Soviet legacy, failed reforms and political risks Johannes Leitner and Hannes Meissner	183
12	Corruption in Russia Günther G. Schulze and Nikita Zakharov	195
13	Turkey's fight against corruption: current state and the road ahead Alfredo Jiménez, Secil Bayraktar and Mesut Eren	213
14	Wasta in the Arab world: an overview Marcus Marktanner and Maureen Wilson	228
15	Corruption and state capture in South Africa: will the institutions hold? Karl Z. Meyer and John M. Luiz	247
16	Drugs and corruption in former Soviet Central Asia Filippo De Danieli	263
17	Pakistan: a study in corruption Feisal Khan	274
18	Corruption in Bangladesh: insights from the financial sector Mohammad Nurunnabi	300
19	Corruption in China Vanesa Pesqué-Cela	313
20	An ambivalent state: the crossover of corruption and violence in the Philippines Cleo Calimbahin	331
21	Indonesia: why democratization has not reduced corruption Marcus Mietzner	350
	Index	365