
Contents

About the authors	viii
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction: the politics of higher education Brendan Cantwell, Hamish Coates and Roger King	1
PART I THE UNIVERSITY, STATE AND SOCIETY
1 The state and the civil society in the scholarship of higher education Brian Pusser	11
2 Trust, universities and the state Gwilym Croucher and Glyn Davis	30
3 The politics of university governance and United Kingdom devolution Andrew M. Boggs and Robin Middlehurst	46
4 Transformations of higher education institutions in the Chinese tradition Rui Yang	66
5 The social dimension of higher education: reproductive and transformative John Brennan	79
PART II POLITICAL ECONOMY AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE
6 Global higher education governance Dirk Van Damme and Marijk Van der Wende	91
7 Global higher education and variegated regionalisms Susan L. Robertson	114
8 The geopolitics of academic science Brendan Cantwell and Adam Grimm	130
9 Scientific nationalism in a globalizing world Creso Sá and Emma Sabzalieva	149
10 Soft power projection: the political return on investment in international higher education Christopher Ziguras	167
11 The geopolitics of higher education: pursuing success in an uncertain global environment Angel Calderon	187

PART III PLANNING AND RESOURCE ALLOCATION

- 12 National resource allocation decisions in higher education: objectives and dilemmas 211
Benedetto Lepori and Ben Jongbloed
- 13 Higher education funding in the context of competing demands for government expenditure 229
Dieter Dohmen
- 14 The political economy of the Higher Education Contribution Scheme 248
Bruce Chapman and Timothy Hicks
- 15 The political economy of Thailand's Income Contingent and Allowance Loan (TICAL) Scheme: a personal account 265
Medhi Krongkaew
- 16 Using workforce data to plan higher education degree programs 280
Charles A. Goldman and Diana G. Carew
- 17 The politics of funding for research and development 298
Alan Pettigrew and Åsa Olsson

PART IV REGULATION AND QUALITY

- 18 Risk-based regulation in higher education: why, how, when, and what else? 319
Roger King
- 19 Regulating diversity: the challenges of regulation in pluralistic higher education systems, a UK case study 338
Elizabeth Halford
- 20 Tertiary regulation in Asia: emerging models 354
Dorte Kristoffersen, Susanna Lee and Rob Fearnside
- 21 Regulating higher education: national audit explosions in international markets 379
Martin Lodge
- 22 Transparency is the lynchpin for higher education success 392
Hamish Coates, S. Umesh Weerakkody, Emeline Jerez, Michael Wells and Stefan Popenici

PART V THE POLITICS OF STAKEHOLDER INTERESTS

- 23 Stakeholder organizations and multi-level governance of higher education 413
Martina Vukasovic
- 24 The gender politics of higher education 431
Rosemary Deem

25	Neoliberalism and faculty roles: the politics of academic work Adrianna Kezar and Tom DePaola	449
26	Student politics: between representation and activism Manja Klemenčič and Bo Yun Park	468
27	University–industry collaboration Peter Rohan and Kenneth Moore	487
28	Skills and learning gain(s) in twenty-first-century higher education: politics or policy? Robert Wagenaar	504
	Index	523