

Tables

---

5.1	Current marital status, among respondents over age 30, by parental marital status	105
5.2	Ever experienced divorce, by parental marital status, among ever married respondents	106
5.3	'We had a loving atmosphere in our family', by parental marital status, ages 30–60	107
5.4	'There are matters from my family experience that negatively affect my ability to form close relationships', by parental marital status, ages 30–60	108
5.5	'My family relationships were confusing, inconsistent and unpredictable', by parental marital status, ages 30–60	109
5A.1	Estimates from ordinary least squares regression model predicting respondent statements about family of origin, ages 30–60	116
5A.2	Estimates from logistic regression model predicting marital status (1=currently married), ages 30–60	117
5A.3	Percent considered marital separation in past year, sorted by negative family experience during youth (among married respondents ages 30–60)	118
5A.4	Percent talked about marital separation in past year, sorted by negative family experience during youth (among married respondents ages 30–60)	119