¹ Following the Treaty of Lisbon, the term Court of Justice of the CJEU has been employed; for consistency purposes, the term CJEU is used throughout this text to refer to the Luxembourg Court, even in reference to cases heard before the Treaty entered into force in December 2009.
² For the same reason, namely consistency, the term ‘Union law’ or ‘EU law’ is employed throughout, regardless of whether the law referred to came into force prior or subsequent to the Treaty of Lisbon.
