

Index

- accelerated courses 103, 162–3
- acceptable identity fragments (AIF) 61
- adaptive capacity 28, 92
- administration 75–8, 85–6, 90, 103, 180, 220
- adoption and diffusion 76, 79–80, 82, 85
- adult learning 183–4
 - see also* andragogy
- analyzers 76–7
- andragogy 117, 157, 183–4
- anxiety about statistics 137–9, 141–7, 150
- apprenticeship model 37, 199, 210–11
- artificial intelligence (AI) 11, 16, 20, 24–5, 29–31, 93
- Ashford, S.J. 125, 216–17
- asynchronous communication 49, 83, 145, 205, 220, 223–4
- asynchronous learning 89, 102, 142

- back-channel communication 21
- Bennis, W.G. 28, 127–9, 191
- Bierema, L.L. 88, 93, 96, 210, 212
- Blackboard 57, 61, 66, 82–4, 181
- blended learning 4
- blogs
 - benefits from 65
 - education context 64–5
 - general context 63–4
 - recommendations for use
 - discuss online personas 65–6
 - evaluation 67
 - guide comments 66
 - system limitations 66–7
- Boyer, E.L. 156–7
- breakthrough moments 64, 95

- Cambridge Analytica 30
- career development 210–12, 215–16, 219–22, 224–5

- caring communication
 - faculty–faculty 118–19
 - faculty–student 114–18
 - student–student 111–13
- caring definition 109–10
- caring groups 111, 119
- caring theory 110
- Champy, J. 14
- chat groups 194, 205–6
- cloud computing
 - as changing nature of work 16
 - leadership in 19–20
 - uses of 11
- co-constructing leadership identity 125
- co-teaching 109, 118–19
- collaboration
 - learning laboratory for virtual 194–9
 - over competition 192
 - small group 44–5, 49
 - and social media study 60–61
 - in student–student communication 111
 - synchronous tools 151
 - technology for 189, 194, 207
- communication
 - asynchronous 49, 83, 145, 205, 220, 223–4
 - back-channel 21
 - caring
 - faculty–faculty 118–19
 - faculty–student 114–18
 - student–student 111–13
 - face-to-face 4, 89, 182, 220
 - shifting landscape of 210
 - and technology 194, 199, 201, 206, 212
- communication immediacy 75, 83–4
- community building
 - creativity and empowerment for 133
 - interaction with faculty for 164
 - need for 49

- as outcome of VHRD 94, 98
- research 199–200, 202
- in statistics classroom 151
- conflict 17, 21, 26, 97–8, 197, 205
- connectivist pedagogy 91
- course development
 - doctoral leadership research
 - building course master and timeline 166–72
 - creating syllabus 161–3
 - mapping curriculum 158–9
 - research concepts 159–60
 - sourcing textbook 161
 - statistics online 139–41, 147–9
- creative leadership 36–7, 133–4
- creative thinking 36–42, 49, 99, 202
- creatively focused and technology
 - fluent (CFTF) mindset
 - cases
 - hybrid doctoral program 43–7
 - online doctoral program 47–51
 - elements of 41–2
 - fluidity of approach 42
 - in practice 50–51
- creativity
 - as approach, not product or outcome 51
 - aspects in mindset and teaching 40
 - benefits of 133–5
 - hybrid doctoral programs as potential hubs for 51
 - as mindset for teaching and learning 39–43
 - need for 36, 51
 - program's goal to highlight 47
 - in use of social media 112, 133–4
- credible research 100–102
- critical thinking 2, 155, 157, 168, 185, 200
- Cunliffe, A.L. 9
- curriculum development
 - building course master and timeline 166–72
 - internationalizing 182–3
 - mapping 158–9
 - research courses and concepts 160
 - syllabus creation 161–3
- cybernation 56
- decision-making
 - of adult learner 117
 - AI-based 20
 - evidence-based 90, 100
 - participation in 14, 26–7
- defenders 76–7
- DeRue, D.S. 125, 216–17
- design in education course 46–7
- dialogical relationship to technology 57
- digital age learning culture 179
- digital citizenship 179
- doctoral education
 - developing online statistics course 139–41, 147–9
 - e-leadership of topic of study in 12–14
 - e-mentoring in 218–24
 - expected skills 181–2, 185–6, 188
 - extending MAET's model to 44
 - frameworks 177, 180, 188
 - global and local perspectives 176–7, 179–83, 185, 187–9
 - goals 37–9
 - importance of Mayeroff's philosophy 110
 - mentoring in 210–11
 - nursing
 - caring in 109–10
 - communication in 111–19
 - pedagogical experience as necessary for 203
 - shifting practices of 37–9
 - training future educators 191–2
 - transnational 177–8, 182, 189
- doctoral educational leadership
 - programs
 - blogs 63–7
 - educating glocal leaders for 188–9
 - glocal identity 179–80
 - instructional strategies for teaching through technology integration 186–8
 - internationalization of curriculum 182–3
 - online and hybrid programs 57–9
 - outcome-based assessment 188
 - program flexibility 57–8
 - social media 60–63
 - teaching digital education leaders 184–6

- teaching through technology 180–81
- technology as growing part of 67–71
- technology-based and adult learning 183–4
- technology integration 56–7, 59–60, 186–8
- virtual worlds 67–71
- doctoral leadership research course
 - accelerated 162–3
 - adapting online
 - finding textbook 161
 - focused research courses 159–60
 - mapping process 158–9, 174
 - research courses and concepts 160
 - syllabus creation 161–3
 - benefits of online 157–8, 174
 - Boyer model applied to 156–7
 - challenges 156–7
 - continuous improvements to 173
 - critical thinking 155, 157, 168
 - curriculum development
 - building course master and timeline 166–72
 - mapping 158–9
 - research courses and concepts 159–60
 - syllabus creation 161–3
 - emergence of 157
 - expectations for faculty 172–3
 - expectations for students 158, 161–2
 - interdisciplinary 158–61, 164
 - leadership and research assignments 164–6
 - online discussions 162–7, 172–3
 - rubrics in 162–3, 168–9
 - student experiences 161, 164
 - teaching across sections
 - course directors and instructors 172
 - faculty review and development 173
 - teaching strategies 172–3
 - traditional and non-traditional paths 155–6
- doctoral studies
 - aims 36
 - collaboration over competition 192
 - emerging opportunities for 37–9
 - faculty and student perspectives 199–206
 - online or hybrid programs
 - habits of mind essential for 38
 - opportunities of 38
 - problems of creating learning experiences 39–40
 - technology for
 - acquiring 75–6, 80
 - administration 75–8, 85–6
 - adoption and diffusion 76, 79–80, 82, 85
 - aligning 78–9, 85
 - future possibilities 83–5
 - as growing part of educational leadership 71
 - implementing 79–81
 - program personality 76–8
 - scoping 76
 - selecting 75, 79, 85
 - strategic foresight 82–3
 - training 81–2
 - virtually mediated organizational leadership 87–103
- document sharing systems 194
- e-leadership 12–14
- e-mentoring
 - Bierema and Merriam's notion of 210, 212
 - in doctoral education 218–22, 225
 - personal case study 222–4
- ebooks 78–9
- emerging contexts 37–9
- enterprise resource planning (ERP) 26, 78
- Eriksen, M. 9
- experiential learning
 - faculty members designing opportunities for 91
 - as increasingly interdisciplinary 99
 - leadership and virtual teams 96–102
 - and mentoring 214–15, 217
 - online learning as 103
 - personal experience of 224
 - studying away 180
 - use of technology 184
 - in virtual doctor leadership studies 88–9
- face-to-face communication 4, 89, 182, 220

- face-to-face meeting 197–8
- face-to-face mode of delivery shifting to online 211–12
- face-to-face polysynchronous learning 89
- face-to-face synchronous hybrid courses 44–5, 57–8
- face-to-face versus online
 - course design 44
 - interaction 97, 194, 223
 - mentoring 212, 218–20, 223–4
 - practice opportunities 70
 - programs 38, 47–50, 57–8
 - self-reflection upon experiences in 128–9
 - skills 103
 - statistics course 143–7
 - teams 16, 197
 - trust 98
- Facebook 17, 28, 30, 60–63, 112, 196–7
- faculty
 - burnout 84
 - expectations for 172–3
 - knowledge of 84–5
 - presence of 75, 83–4
 - review and development 173
- faculty–faculty communication 118–19
- faculty–student communication 114–18
- faculty–student interaction 75–6, 85
- feedback
 - challenge of delayed 144–5
 - continuous, throughout course 114–15
 - flexibility 117–18
 - giving and receiving 66
 - in leadership development/social media presence 134
 - listening to students 117
 - negative 217
 - online course 158, 163, 172–3
 - online meetings 116
 - organizing online calendar 115
 - from others 66, 214–15
 - weekly announcements 117
- flexibility
 - in faculty–student communication 117–18
 - in IT implementation process 26
 - as leadership dimension 103
 - online program 57–8
- flexible mindset 36, 40, 47, 49, 51
- Gergen, K.J. 9
- global and local (glocal) perspective 176–7, 179–83, 185, 187–9
- global competence 9, 180
- global virtual teams (GVTs)
 - IB strategy course as platform to study 196–8
 - need for students to learn to work in 201, 207
 - as phenomenon in research 195–6, 203, 206
 - as research topic 194–5
 - synergies 198–9
- globalism 89
- globalization
 - competitiveness in education 192
 - complex process of 191
 - effect of 89, 176
 - evolution of globalism through 176
- group development 132
- group leadership
 - assessment of 124
 - and social media 130–33
 - for student development 113
- Group Support System (GSS) 14–16
- GVTs see global virtual teams (GVTs)
- Hosking, D.M. 9
- human resource development (HRD) 87–9, 92–3
 - see also* virtual human resource development (VHRD)
- Humans of New York (HONY) 22–3, 28
- hybrid doctoral programs
 - adopting a CFTF mindset for 36, 39–40, 51
- educational leadership 57–9
- emergence 37–9
- example
 - course about design in education 46–7
 - motivation and learning course 44–6
 - origins 43–4
 - as potential hubs for creativity 51
 - willingness to experiment 43
- hybrid learning 4, 36, 51

- iCEO 24, 29
- identity
 - acceptable identity fragments 61
 - common 18–19, 22
 - developing leadership 125–6
 - glocal 179–80
 - scholar-practitioner 100
 - social media 62–3, 127–9, 131, 135–6
 - technology-enabled 19
- incidental learning 95
- informal learning
 - forms of 95
 - promoting agility and innovation 98
 - VHRD for 94–7, 99, 102
 - in virtual doctor leadership studies 88–9
- information technology (IT)
 - and e-leadership 12–14
 - effect of leadership 25–8
 - future research on 28–31
 - effect on leadership 11–12, 14–20, 31
 - future research on 21–5
 - increasing automation of work by 11
 - leadership for assimilation and management of 27–8
 - leadership for implementing 26–7
 - leadership for initiating 25–6
 - supported meetings 16
- inspirational leadership 17, 27
- integrative leadership model 14–15
- integrative learning 95–6
- intentionality 130–31
- international business (IB)
 - communication technology enabling 194
 - core research community 193
 - course on strategy as platform to study GVTs 196–8
 - dealing with complexity 202
 - GVTs as centre of interest in research 195
 - leaders in 206–7
 - need to learn reality of being a practitioner 206
 - studies criticized for failing to move with times 191
 - teaching skills in university 204
- international instructional technology standards 178–9
- internationalization 182–3
- Johnson, M. 220–21
- Johnson, W.B. 221, 225
- Karwowski, M. 40
- Kognito 57, 70
- Kumar, S. 59, 220–21
- leader–follower relationships 14–15
- leader–learner amalgam 56
- leader–member exchange 14
- leaders
 - benefits of virtually mediated online programs 102
 - designing innovative experiences for 98–100
 - efficacy 217
 - future 13–14, 23, 42, 118–19, 128, 180, 214, 216–17
 - global and local (glocal) 188–9
 - goals for practicing and student 123
 - informal 23
 - inspirational 17, 27
 - international business 206–7
 - need for ongoing development 103
 - skills practiced in virtual learning environment 96
 - substitutes for 12, 14–15, 20
 - teaching digital education 184–6
 - transactional 16, 26
 - transformational 14, 16–17, 26–7
 - virtual experiences 96–8
- leadership
 - for assimilating and managing information technology 27–8
 - in cloud computing contexts 19–20
 - core processes 14–16, 22
 - core tenets of personal 127
 - creative 36–7, 133–4
 - developing identity 125–6
 - developing skills 213–16, 219–20, 224
 - dimensions 103
 - doctoral studies in
 - growth of 3
 - technology applied to 2
 - effect of information technology 11–12, 14–20, 31
 - future research on 21–5
 - effect on information technology 25–8
 - future research on 28–31

- effective 213
- for implementing information technology 26–7
- informal 17–18
- for initiating information technology 25–6
- integrative 14
- multidisciplinarity 3
- outcomes 14–15
- practical skills 199, 201–2, 204–7
- in practice 91–2, 96
- in same-place IT-supported meetings 16
- scholar-practitioner facets 94
- and social media
 - in age of 11–12, 17–19
 - and groups and teams 130–33
 - and organizations 133–5
 - and self 127–9
- temporal 12, 15
- top-down 15
- in virtual teams 16–17
- visionary 179
- leadership development
 - as common purpose across doctoral programs 37–8, 51
 - focus of HRD on 92
 - mentoring as 215–17, 223
 - personal 128
 - reflective practice for 99
 - social media having implications for 19
 - tenets of 213–15
- leadership education
 - becoming truly global 88
 - change in 89–92
 - social media as powerful tool for 122–3
 - technology-based and adult learning 183–4
 - technology for 180–81
- leadership identity
 - co-constructing 125
 - process of developing 125–6
 - tenets helping to define 127
- leadership studies 12–14
- leadership training 213–15, 222
- learning
 - adult 183–4
 - asynchronous 89, 102, 142
 - blended 4
 - breakthrough moments 64, 95
 - doctoral supervisor perspective 199–202
 - hybrid 4, 36, 51
 - incidental 95
 - informal 88–9, 94–9, 102
 - integrative 95–6
 - polysynchronous 89, 93, 102
 - problem-based 68–9
 - recent doctoral graduate perspective 202–6
 - self-directed 91, 95, 183
 - tacit 95
 - technology-mediated 2–4, 9
 - transferring 89, 92–3
 - virtual 88–9, 96, 98, 212
 - see also* experiential learning
- learning management system (LMS)
 - data collection and analysis 187
 - delivery of part of program through 57
 - disentangling from statistical content 150–51
 - education not limited to 99
 - enabling vicarious learning 98
 - as hindrance to statistical learning 143, 145–6, 152
 - limitations of blogs 66
 - personal experience of 166–8, 171–2, 174
 - representing VHRD 94
 - student positive experience of 59
 - student use of tools 97
- learning statistics online
 - challenges faced by students 143–7
 - recommendations for teachers 147–52
- listening to students 117
- LMS see learning management system (LMS)
- local area networks (LANs) 15
- Mayeroff, M. 109–10, 119
- meetings
 - face-to-face 197–8
 - faculty review 173
 - leadership in same-place IT-supported 16, 21
 - online 116

- mentoring
- benefits of 214–15
 - as both process and relationship 210
 - in doctoral leadership programs 211–12, 222, 225
 - doctoral supervisor perspective 199–202
 - effect on student outcomes 218–19
 - effectiveness 220–21
 - as experiential activity 214
 - face-to-face 212, 218–20, 223–4
 - as leadership development 215–17
 - new opportunities in 210
 - occurring in different contexts 221
 - psychosocial and career functions 211, 219, 221, 224–5
 - recent doctoral graduate perspective 202–6
 - student–faculty 210–11
 - see also* e-mentoring
- Merriam, S.B. 210, 212
- messaging services 17, 194, 210, 222
- Miles, R.E. 76–7
- Moore's Law 11
- motivation and learning course 44–6
- nurses in doctoral programs
- caring 109–10
 - communication for student support 111–19
- online calendar 115
- online discussions 59, 112–13, 126
- online doctoral leadership programs
- educational 57–9
 - need to build statistics course within 139–41
- online doctoral programs
- adopting a CFTF mindset for 36, 39–40, 50–51
 - caring communication
 - faculty–faculty 118–19
 - faculty–student 114–18
 - student–student 111–13
 - caring definition 109–10
 - caring theory 110
 - developing statistics course 139–41, 147–9
 - educational leadership 57–9
 - emergence 37–9
- example
- CFTF mindset in practice 50–51
 - first course taken 48–50
 - origins 47–8
- leadership research course
- adapting 158–63
 - benefits of 157–8
 - building course master 166–71
 - building course timeline 171–2
 - continuous improvements to course 173–4
 - leadership and research assignments 164–6
 - non-traditional path 155–7
 - teaching across sections 172–3
- as potential hubs for creativity 51
- willingness to experiment 43
- online meetings 116
- online personas 65–6
- OpenSimulator 69–70
- organizational leadership
- assessment of 125
 - and social media 133–5
- organizational leadership studies (OLS)
- benefits of virtually mediated 102
 - central concerns for 94–5
 - credible research as final outcome of 100–102
 - emergence of online doctoral programs 91
 - experiential learning in 96
 - faculty and students as leaders 103
 - human resource development in 92–3
 - leadership in practice in
 - fusion with leadership as discipline 96
 - nature of 91–2
 - promoting interaction skills 98
 - students working in virtual teams 97–8
 - technology intersecting with 88
 - use of web in external resources 94
- outcome-based assessment 188
- peer-assisted learning 60
- peer review 113
- personality of program 76–8
- polysynchronous learning 89, 93, 102

- practical leadership skills 199, 201–2, 204–7
- practicing leaders 123
- practitioners
- blogging for 50
 - disconnect between theory and practice 38
 - international business 202–4, 206–7
 - knowledge 100–101
 - program flexibility 58
 - scholar 90–91, 94, 96, 100–101, 140–41, 147
 - training and development of 13–14
- presence of faculty 75, 83–4
- problem-based learning (PBL) 68–9
- Procter, R. 61–2
- proctoring software 80–81
- professional practice, excellence in 179
- program design 44, 103, 139–41, 147–9, 156, 185
- prospectors 76–8
- psychosocial mentoring 210, 212, 215–17, 219–21, 224–5
- reactors 76–7
- reflective practice 99, 125–9, 135–6
- relational leadership theory 9
- relevancy
- adult learning courses 183
 - adult learning principles 3
 - creative thinking 41
 - e-leadership 13
 - global issues 176–7
 - glocal doctoral educational leadership 183
 - international business courses 191
 - leadership 23
 - mixed methods research 141
 - need for global competence 9
 - new information 93
 - skills 3, 22
 - statistics courses 147, 149
 - traditional leadership behaviors 15
 - trust development theories 97
 - VHRD 94, 98
- responsibility, accepting 127, 129
- robotic telepresence 45, 47
- robots 47
- rubrics
- co-constructing 63, 67
 - in doctoral leadership research course 162–3, 168–9
- same-place meetings 16, 21
- scoping technology 76
- Second Life (SL) 68–70
- self-awareness 76–8, 199, 215
- self-directed learning 91, 95, 183
- self-direction 95, 103, 135, 186
- self leadership
- assessment of 124
 - and social media 127–9
- skills
- consensus-building and complexity management 101
 - creativity and problem-solving 40–41
 - critical thinking 155, 157
 - doctoral-level 158–9
 - expected 178, 181–2, 185–6, 188
 - faculty–student interactive relationship 113
 - gained in formal programs 92–3
 - interaction 98
 - leadership 210, 213–16, 219–20, 224
 - metacognitive 90–91
 - practical leadership 199, 201–2, 204–7
 - scaffolding 99, 103
 - simulation and gaming for 99–100
 - statistical 141–2
 - of virtual team leaders 17, 21–2
- Snow, C.C. 76–7
- social context of glocal identity 179–80
- social interaction
- cultivating 151
 - leaders' identity development 125, 216
- social media
- about connection 132
 - academia as slow to adopt 122
 - communication immediacy 84
 - e-mentoring use 210, 220, 222
 - education context 60–61
 - evolutionary construct 122–3
 - future research on 22–3
 - general context 60
 - leadership and
 - age of 11–12, 17–19
 - groups and teams 130–33
 - organizations 133–5
 - self 127–9

- major influence on, and reflection of, society 122
- recommendations for use
 - evaluation 63
 - guide digital responsibility 62
 - promotion of work 61–2
 - responsible engagement 62–3
 - students sharing ideas and tips 62
- social features 28
- for student–student communication 112
- for teacher–student communication 206
- Social Media Identity in Leadership Education (SMILE)
 - assessment
 - of groups and teams 124, 131
 - of organizations 125
 - of self 124
 - developing leadership identity 125–6
 - leadership and social media
 - and groups and teams 130–33
 - and organizations 133–5
 - and self 127–9
 - reflective practice 125–9, 135–6
 - social media characteristics 122–3
 - for use as teaching tool 123, 125
 - for use by faculty 125–7, 131, 136
- social media identity (SMI) 127–9, 131, 135–6
- social movements 18, 22
- statistical software
 - advantages and challenges when selecting 148
 - boot camp for introducing 150
 - challenge of mastering 143, 146–7
 - disentangling 150–51
- statistics anxiety
 - addressing 150
 - personal experience of 137–9
 - primary producers of
 - delayed feedback 144–5
 - mastering LMS 145–6
 - mastering statistical software 146–7
 - technology 143
 - textbooks 144
 - ‘statisticophobia’ 141–3
- statistics class
 - developing 139–41, 147–9
 - student anxiety
 - personal experience of 137–9
 - primary producers of 143–7
 - recommendations for reducing 147–52
 - ‘statisticophobia’ 141–3
 - strategic foresight principles 82–3
 - strategic IT–business alignment 27–8
 - strategies see teaching strategies
 - student development
 - learning about e-leadership 13–14
 - relationship between technology and leadership for 21, 24, 31
 - student recruitment and retention 75, 85
 - student–student communication
 - caring groups and collaboration 111
 - challenges 112–13
 - peer review and group leadership 113
 - use of social media 112
- students
 - anxiety about statistics 137–9, 141–7, 150
 - expectations for 158, 161–2, 192–3, 197
 - listening to 117
 - and social media identity 123–36
 - supporting 109–19
 - as teachers 193, 197–9, 202–8
- Sutton, R.I. 14, 50
- synchronous collaboration tools 151, 194
- synchronous communication 83–4, 97, 151, 224
- synchronous hybrid courses 44–7, 49
- synchronous learning 89, 156
- systemic improvement 179
- Systems Change and Leadership course 48–50
- tacit learning 95
- teachers, students as 193, 197–9, 202–8
- teaching caring in online environment 118–19
- teaching digital education leaders 184–6
- teaching doctoral educational leadership

- instructional strategies for 186–8
- through technology 180–81
- teaching doctoral research online
 - recommendations and best practices for
 - address attitude and anxiety 150
 - cultivate social interaction 151
 - determine student preparation 149–50
 - developing fit for purpose course 147–9
 - statistical content, software and LMS 150–51
- statistics class
 - anxiety in 141–3, 150
 - developing 139–41
 - personal experience of 137–9
 - primary producers of anxiety in 143–7
- teaching strategies
 - doctoral educational leadership programs 186–8
 - online doctoral leadership research course 172–3
 - online statistics courses 147–52
- team leadership
 - assessment of 124
 - connection with social media and group leadership 130–33
 - virtual 12, 16–17, 21–2
- Technological Pedagogical Content Knowledge (TPACK) 42
- technology
 - acquiring 75–6, 80
 - administration 75–9, 85–6
 - adoption and diffusion 76, 79–80, 82, 85
 - aligning 78–9, 85
 - changing nature of education and work 87
 - and collaboration 207
 - and communication 194, 199, 201, 206, 212
 - dialogical relationship 57
 - in doctoral educational leadership
 - global perspective for teaching in 176–88
 - integration 56–7, 59–60
 - online and hybrid programs 57–9
 - types of 60–71
 - for experiential learning 184
 - fit with program personality 76–8
 - fluency in 37, 42–3, 47, 51
 - future possibilities 83–5
 - human resource development 87–8
 - implementing educational 79–81
 - integration
 - asset mapping 187
 - in doctoral educational leadership 56–7, 59–60, 186–8
 - effective 189
 - influence of educational leaders 184–5
 - needs assessment 187
 - strategic plans for 182, 187
 - ubiquitous aspects to 87
 - intersecting with organizational leadership studies 88
 - need to view from practice perspective 207–8
 - outcome-based assessment using 188
 - practitioners 176
 - scoping 76
 - selecting
 - resources 79
 - role of program administrators 75, 85
 - strategic foresight principles 82–3
 - teacher–student trust 206
 - teaching through 180–81, 186–8
 - training 81–2
 - technology-based glocal perspective
 - doctoral educational leadership
 - adult learning 183–4
 - instructional strategies for teaching 186–8
 - internationalizing curriculum 182–3
 - teaching through technology 180–81
 - global reality and its limitations 176–7
 - glocal leaders 188–9
 - international instructional
 - technology standards 178–9
 - outcome-based assessment 188
 - social context of glocal identity 179–80

- teaching digital education leaders 184–6
- transnational realities 178
- technology-enabled identity 19
- technology-enabled organizations 88
- technology-enabled social movements 18, 22
- technology-fluency 37, 42–3, 47, 51
- technology-mediated communication 133, 199
- technology-mediated era 87
- technology-mediated learning 2–4, 9
- technology-mediated mentoring 212
- technology standards 178–9, 184
- technology training 81–2
- temporal leadership 12, 15
- textbooks 144, 149, 161, 182
- theory
 - linking research and practice 37–9
 - relational leadership 9
 - trust development 97
 - useful 100–102
- thirdspace 59
- top-down leadership 15
- Torrance Test 40
- training
 - future educators 191–2
 - leadership 213–15, 222
 - practitioners 13–14
 - technology 81–2
- transactional leadership 16, 26
- transformation of thinking 100–102
- transformational leadership 14, 16–17, 26–7
- transnational doctoral education 177–8, 182, 189
- trust
 - development 96–8, 116
 - Mayeroff's philosophy 110, 113
 - mentors for creating 220
 - technology for teacher–student 206
- tutorials, virtual 69–70
- Twitter 17, 60–63, 65, 112, 222
- typology of firms (Miles & Snow) 76–7
- Uber 12, 19–20, 24–5
- Uhl-Bien, M. 9, 15, 22
- VHRD see virtual human resource development (VHRD)
- video conference 97, 181–2, 194
- virtual doctoral learning 88–9, 96, 98, 212
- virtual human resource development (VHRD)
 - community building as outcome of 98
 - defining 93–4
 - focus on information and experiential learning 103
 - future research avenue 102
 - informal learning characteristic 99
 - integrating online education and practice 92–6
 - learning environment 94–6
- virtual teams
 - future research on 21–2
 - global 195–9
 - internet allowing creation of 15
 - leadership in 12, 16–17
 - trust development 96–8
- virtual worlds
 - education context 68–9
 - general context 67–8
 - recommendations for use
 - consider multiple-use and support 70–71
 - evaluation 71
 - tutorials 69–70
- visionary leadership 179
- visioning 24–5
- Ward, M.H. 64
- Watson, J. 109–10, 114, 116
- West, S. 64
- Wikis 61, 64, 116, 126
- World of Warcraft (WoW) 68
- YouTube 61–2, 69, 82, 85, 88–9, 116, 201
- Zhu, Y. 61–2

