

Index

- abduction 2
- ability, benevolence and integrity (ABI) model 248, 250, 254
- Ability, Motivation and Opportunity (AMO) theory 102–4, 227–8, 311–12
 - conclusion 320–21
 - confusion over make up of dimensions of 317–18
 - defining performance 316
 - evolution of 312–14, 315
 - future development of 319–20
 - issues of application 314–16
 - limitations, possible explanations for 318
 - new model 319–20
 - ‘unpacking’ ability, motivation and opportunity 316–17
- academic debate 35–6, 47, 48, 49
- Acker, J. 90
- Ackoff, R.L. 114
- active labour market policies 175
- Adams, J. 298
- adaptability 129
- aesthetic labour 133
- Ahmed, P. 328, 329
- alienation of workers 22–3, 69, 71, 220
- anti-colonialism 16–17, 24
- Appelbaum, E. 314
- apprenticeships 190
- asymmetric information 142
- Atenzi, M. 359
- Audenaert, M. 342–3, 344
- Aust, I. 208
- Australian Bureau of Statistics 163–4
- authority 271
- autonomy of workers
 - and business systems approach 174, 175
 - in coordinated market economies (CMEs) 190
 - and human capital theory 228
 - and labour process theory (LPT) 69–70
 - in liberal market economies (LMEs) 191
 - and Neo-Human Relations School 86
 - and Scientific Management 54, 55–6, 57, 58–9, 62, 63
 - and trust 253–4, 270
- Barney, J. 223, 325–6
- Beale, D. 360
- Becker, G. 219, 223
- Beer, M. 116
- benevolence 248, 250, 254
- ‘best fit’ HRM (contingency theory) 6, 115, 116, 200, 205
- Biddle, B.J. 280, 284
- ‘black box’ of HRM 102, 103, 104
- black feminism 237
- Blau, P. 265, 268, 270
- Bloom, A. 47
- Blumberg, M. 312–13
- Bolton, S.C. 75–6
- Bos-Nehles, A. 339
- bounded rationality 326–7
- Bowen, D.E. 346
- Bowles, S. 219
- Boxall, P. 94, 101, 102, 103, 104, 206, 330, 331
- Brandl, J. 208, 209, 210–11
- Braverman, H. 23, 55, 59, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72
- Bray, M. 161–2
- Breevaart, K. 341
- Bridgewater Associates 62–3
- Brook, P. 76
- Brothers* (Cockburn) 236, 238, 241, 242
- Brown, C. 148–9
- Bruce, K. 88
- bullying and harassment 29–30, 131–2
- bundling 99
- Bunker, B.B. 249, 250
- bureaucracy 86, 282
- Burns, T. 115
- business systems approach 169–70
 - analytical focus of 171
 - conclusion 178
 - key findings of empirical work 173–7
 - limitations of 177–8
 - theoretical antecedents 171–3
- call centres 61
- Campbell, H.J. 243
- capabilities 327–8, 329, 331
- capital
 - accumulation 18–19, 69, 71
 - circuit 53–4, 56

- and labour process theory (LPT) 67, 68, 69–70, 75
- social 104, 222–3
- see also* human capital; human capital theory
- Capital* (Marx) 19, 21, 22, 219–20
- capitalism
 - disconnected capitalism (DCT) 75
 - institutional approaches 170
 - and labour process theory (LPT) 69
 - and radicalism 38
 - and regulation 155
 - see also* business systems approach; Marxism; Varieties of Capitalism (VoC) framework
- Carollo, L. 207, 209, 210
- causal ambiguity 326–7, 332
- causal attribution 355–6
- civil law 172
- Claar, S. 188
- Clark, P.B. 356
- class
 - and division of labour (Smith) 282
 - and Marxism 18, 20–21, 23–5, 28–9, 31, 45, 84, 219
 - ruling 24–5, 26
 - working 21, 22, 24, 25, 26–7
- Clegg, H. 5, 34, 36, 39–40, 42, 44, 157, 159
- co-production 243
- Cockburn, C. 236, 237–8, 239–41, 242
- cognitive competence 227
- Cohen, G.A. 20–21
- Cold War 16–17
- collective action, see mobilization theory
- collective agreements 159, 176
- collective bargaining 29, 39, 42, 157–60, 192–3
- Colquitt, J.A. 301
- commitment 227–8, 272–3
- commodities 19
- common-law systems 172
- communication 301, 318
- communism 16–17, 24, 26, 40
- Communitarianism 42–3
- competence/competencies 226, 227, 228, 254, 327, 331
- competitive advantage 223–4, 325–8, 329, 330, 331
- complex adaptive systems 119
- complexity 113, 161–2, 163, 326
- congruence, labour regulation 162
- conservatism 43–4
- consumption 131
- contingency theory 6, 115, 116, 200, 205
- contracts 273–5
- control of workers (by management) 27–8, 29–30, 69–70, 74–6, 220–21, 255–6, 271
- convention theory 210–11
- cooperation 89, 151
- coordinated market economies (CMEs) 183, 184–7, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192–4
- coordination problems and mechanisms 186, 187, 188
- Cornelissen, J.P. 2
- corporate governance 176
- corporate social responsibility 160–61, 165
- costs and benefits, social exchange theory (SET) 267–9
- ‘counter-mobilization’ 358–9
- crashes, economic 24
- creative work 74
- critical realism 123
- Cullinane, N. 274–5, 359
- Cunningham, I. 74
- Cushen, J. 75

- Dalio, R. 62–3
- Danieli, A. 238–9
- Darwin, C. 128, 129
- Daubner-Siva, D. 209, 210
- Dean, D. 360
- deductive approaches, theorization 2
- degradation of work 70
- delegation 174
- Deliveroo 61–2
- democracy
 - and conservative political theory 43–4
 - and trade unions 36, 39
 - and universities 48
- Denmark 175
- deontology theory 302
- dependent market economies (DMEs) 187
- dialectical and historical materialism 18–20
- Dietz, G. 250–51, 253
- ‘Digital Taylorism’ 62
- disconnected capitalism (DCT) 75
- discrimination 46, 241
- distributive justice 269, 298–9, 300
- distrust 249, 253–4, 256, 257–8, 266, 270
- disutility of work 150
- diversity management 210
- ‘divide and rule’ 25, 30
- division of labour 22–3, 56, 57, 61, 220, 282, 285
- duality perspective 205–6
- Duhigg, C. 62
- Dundon, T. 3, 117–18, 274–5, 359
- Dunlop, J. 157
- Durkheim, É. 281–2
- dynamic capabilities 327–8, 329
- Dysvik, A. 342, 343–4

- earnings, see pay; personnel economics, and performance-related pay
- economic growth 184, 186–7, 221–2
- economic leader–member exchange (ELMX) 338, 340, 342, 346–8
- ecosystems 121, 123
- education 190–91, 219, 220, 221, 222, 225
- Ehnert, I. 199, 207, 208
- elites 88
- emerging economies 188
- Emerson, R.M. 275
- emotional labour 75–6
- empirical inquiry (Mayo) 83
- employee commitment 87, 100
- employee development 210, 341, 344
- employee engagement 174, 190, 191, 255–6, 300
- employee voice 37–8, 46–7
- employers, control structures 54–7
- employment protection 175–6
- employment relations (ER)
 - definition of 156
 - theory in 4–6
- empowerment 87, 102, 104, 105
- enforcement (of regulations) 156, 159, 165
- Engels, F. 16, 18, 21
- enterprise bargaining (EB) 163, 164
- equifinality 114
- equity theory 298–9
- Evans, P. 205
- evolutionary biology 129–30
- evolutionary psychological theory 128–9
 - future research 133–4
 - of human resource management (HRM) 131–3
 - human survival and reproduction 130–31
 - limits of 133
 - link between employee selection and sexual selection 132–3
 - workplace mobbing 131–2
- exchange relationship model 254
- exchange value 69
- expectations
 - and role theory 284–5, 286, 287, 288, 289
 - and social exchange theory (SET) 265–6, 268, 273–4
- exploitation 20–22, 28, 30, 31, 69, 264
- fairness 268–9; see also organizational justice theory
- family-friendly policies 44
- feedback loop 113
- feminist theory 235–6
 - extending understanding of employment relationship and working life 240–42
 - future research 244
 - and methods, contemporary relevance of 242–3
 - objectives of feminist epistemology 236–40
 - standpoint theory 237–40, 243, 244
- financialization 75, 121, 185, 194
- firms
 - business systems approach 169, 170, 171, 172–8
 - capabilities 327–8, 329
 - coordination problems 186, 188–9
 - institutional frameworks 169–70
 - ‘relational view of’ 186
 - resources and competitive advantage 325–7
 - Varieties of Capitalism (VoC) framework 186, 188–9
- fit, and tensions 205
- Flanders, A. 39, 40, 157
- Fordism 57, 184
- foreign investment 177
- Fox, A. 5–6, 34, 36, 40, 89, 94, 254–5, 270
- Foxconn 61
- ‘frames of reference’ 5–6, 34
- free markets 19, 22, 36
- free rider problem 356
- free speech 35–6, 43, 47, 48, 49
- French, J.R. 271
- French Regulation Theory 155
- Frenkel, M. 90
- Fuller, S. 35
- functional competence 227
- functionalism 283
- funding for research 243
- Gall, G. 361–2
- gender
 - and Hawthorne Studies 90
 - and labour process theory (LPT) 77
 - and mobilization theory 360
 - pluralist approach 46
 - relations 236, 239, 244
 - roles 44, 222, 242–3
 - and sexual value 130
 - see also* feminist theory
- general strikes 27
- generational configurations in workplace 226
- Gerpott, F.H. 207, 208
- Gibbs, M. 139, 145–6, 150
- gig economy 31, 61–2, 193
- Gillespie, N. 250–51
- Gingerich, D.W. 186–7
- Gintis, H. 219
- Girls, Wives, Factory Lives* (Pollert) 236, 242, 243
- Glucksmann, M.A. 242

- Godard, J. 3
- Goergen, M. 174–5
- Google 62
- Gouldner, A.W. 264–5
- green HRM initiatives 207, 210
- group norms 84, 87
- Guerci, M. 207, 209, 210
- Guest, D.E. 339
- Hakim, C. 46
- Hall, P. 186–7, 189, 190
- Hall, T. 360
- Hambrick, D.C. 1
- Hamel, G. 327
- Hancké, B. 187, 192
- happiness, and productivity 93
- Hardy, C. 255
- Harney, B. 117–18
- Harvard Business School 83, 85, 88, 91, 92–3
- Hassard, J. 91
- Hawthorne Studies 83–4, 85, 88–9, 90–91
- Heery, E. 5–6, 34, 47–8
- Herzberg, F. 86
- hierarchical market economies (HMEs) 187–8
- high-commitment HR practices 100
- high-involvement management 100
- high-performance work systems (HPWSs) 6, 73, 97, 107
- background and meanings 97–101
 - beneficiaries of 104–5
 - improving research methods 105–6
 - measurement of 106
 - system improvement 102–5
 - and systems theory 116, 119
 - types and contexts of systems 101–2
- historical learning 326
- Hoel, H. 360
- Holgate, J. 239, 240, 241–2
- Homans, G.C. 265, 267–8, 269
- Houlihan, M. 75–6
- ‘HR architecture’ 224
- HR practices
- and high-performance work systems (HPWSs) 99–100
 - integration of 116
- HR systems, types of 101–2
- human behaviour 83, 84–5, 87, 130–32, 140–41; see also role theory; trust
- human capital
- definition of 224–5
 - management 223–4
 - people seen as 72, 73, 223
- human capital index 228
- Human Capital Report 2015* 221
- human capital theory 141, 218
- evolution of, in human resource literature 223–5
 - opportunities, clarifications and scope for future development 226–9
 - pitfalls and shortcomings 225–6
 - and policy 221
 - theoretical underpinnings 219–23
- human development 222
- Human Relations School (HRS) 82–6
- conclusion 92–5
 - critical appraisal of 88–92
 - legacy of 87
 - Neo-Human Relations School 86, 87, 93
- human resource advantage 331
- human resource management (HRM)
- Marxist definition of 27
 - narrowing of focus and need for reflexive engagement 3, 94–5
 - theory in 4, 5, 6
- human survival and reproduction 130–31
- Hutchinson, S. 341–2, 343
- Hyman, R. 40, 157, 271
- identity politics 45–6, 47
- ideology 24–5
- impact 243
- incentives 139–40, 141, 143–5, 146–7, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 356
- inductive approaches, theorization 2
- industrialization 22
- inequality 17–18, 26, 188, 271, 276, 298–9
- information, asymmetric 142
- informational justice 298, 301
- inimitability 326, 332
- injustice 355, 356, 358, 359
- innovation
- and performance-related pay 150
 - and systems 115
- insecurity 20
- institution-based trust 251–2, 270
- institutional theory 169
- and industrial relations 157
 - new institutionalism 46–7, 165, 169–70
 - rational choice institutionalism 171–2
 - and systems theory 118
- see also* business systems approach; Labour Regulation Theory; paradox theory; Varieties of Capitalism (VoC) framework
- integrity 248, 250, 254
- interactional justice 300–301
- interactionist approach, role theory 283–4
- interdependence
- employer–employee 174–5
 - environmental 113

- internationalization 176–7, 193–5 interpersonal justice 298, 301 intersectionality 237, 240
 isomorphism 118, 119
- Jackson, S.E. 123 job satisfaction 341 job security 175, 273
 Jones, D. 102 journalists 71 justice 269
 injustice 355, 356, 358, 359
 see also organizational justice theory
- Kahn, R.L. 120–21, 285
 Katz, D. 120–21, 285
 Keegan, A. 207, 208, 209
 Kelly, J.E. 41, 353–5, 356, 358, 359, 361–2
 Kerbo, H. 353
 Kerr's folly 151
 Kirton, G. 238, 241 knowledge 210, 227
 work, and Scientific Management 60, 62–3
Knowledge that Matters (Campbell and Vanderhoven) 243
 Kohn, A. 149, 150, 151
 Kozica, A. 208, 210–11
 Kuvaas, B. 337–8, 341, 342, 343–4
- La Porta, R. 172
- labour
 active labour market policies 175 aesthetic 133
 and creation of value 19, 20 division of 22–3, 56, 57, 61, 220, 282, 285 emotional 75–6
 law 156, 160, 161
 markets 21–2, 192
 potential 54
 theory of value 20–21
 see also labour process theory (LPT); Labour Regulation Theory; Varieties of Capitalism (VoC) framework
 'labour indeterminacy' 266–7
 Labour Party 41, 42, 44 labour process theory (LPT) 23, 67–8, 76–7 core theory 69–71
 developments in 74–6
 and human resource management (HRM) 71–4 managers and management 71–2 Labour Regulation Theory 155–6, 166 antecedences and development of 157–60
 application of 162–4
 complexity and congruence 161–2, 164–5 and employment relationship/management of people at work 160–62 failures and scope for development 164–5 formality versus actual practice 161 new actors and influences 160–61
- Lam, W. 208, 210
- law 172
 and collective bargaining 158
 labour law 156, 160, 161
- Lazear, E. 139, 141, 148, 152
- leader–member exchange (LMX) theory 336–7 applications in HRM research 339–40 development of research agenda, for use in HRM research 345–8 direct linkage with HRM 340–41
 interactions with HRM 341–4 LMX relationships 337–8 and organizational climate 345–6 role of context 345 role of leaders and members in HRM 339
 and role theory 288–9
- leaders, see managers/leaders
- lean production systems 98
- learning 326
- legal system 172
- Lenin 24
- Lepak, D. 224
- Lewicki, R.J. 249, 250
- Lewis, M.W. 200, 201, 202, 203, 204
- Li, X. 344
- liberal market economies (LMEs) 183–4, 185, 186–7, 188, 189–91, 193–4
- liberal-pluralism 34, 36, 37, 39, 41, 43, 47, 48
- liberalism and neo-liberalism 17, 40–41, 43, 177
- Likert, R. 86
- line managers 210, 288–9, 339, 340, 341–2, 343–4, 345
- Link, K. 208–9, 210
- Linton, R. 283
- Lopes, A. 360
- Mabey, C. 209, 210
- management control of workers 27–8, 29–30, 69–70, 74–6, 220–21, 255–6, 271
 diversity management 210
 high-involvement management 100
 and managers, distinction between 71–2
 and Neo-Human Relations School 86 opposition to 18, 21, 25, 28 partnership with trade unions 44 personnel management 116, 299, 300
 see also performance management; Scientific Management
 managerialism 88–90, 92, 93, 94

- managers/leaders and AMO (abilities, motivations and opportunities) framework 103 despotic or psychotic 347 frontline, and role theory 288–9
 line managers 210, 339, 340, 341–2, 343–4, 345
 and management, distinction between 71–2 and mobilization 356, 358 and role ambiguity 287
 and trust 254, 255, 256
 and work groups 84
see also leader–member exchange (LMX) theory
- manufacturing 115–16, 185
- marginalization 237
- markets 19, 22, 36, 264
- Marshall, A. 220, 222
- Marshall, T.H. 42
- Marx, K. 16
- Marxism 16–18, 31–2
 alienation (division of labour and labour process) 22–3 capital and labour power 219–20 and class 18, 20–21, 23–5, 28–9, 31, 45, 84, 219 commodification of labour 220
 dialectical and historical materialism 18–20
 and education 219
 employment relations (ER) and work issues 27–31 exploitation (labour theory of value and labour markets) 20–22
 and labour process theory (LPT) 68, 69, 72, 75, 76
 New Left 40
 opposition to 26, 31, 32
 and radicalism 38
 revival of 40, 41
 trade unions and protest 25–7
- matching 152
- Mayer, R.C. 248, 250, 254
- Mayo, E. 82–6, 87, 88–9, 90–91, 93
- McAdam, D. 353, 354
- McCarthy, J. 353
- McCarthyism 17
- McGregor, D. 86
- McKnight, D.H. 250
- Mead, G.H. 282–3
- men 235–6, 238–9, 240, 241–3
- migrant workers 287, 360–61
- Mill, J.S. 43, 47
- ‘millennials’ 226
- ‘mind’ 282–3
- mixed market economy 187
- mobbing 131–2
- mobilization theory 352
 application of 359–60
 conclusion 361–2
 development of 353–5
 dynamics of collective action 357
 limitations of 360–61
 stages of mobilization 355–7 worker mobilization and union representation 357–9
- Moore, M. 61
- Moore, S. 359
- moral hazard 142
- Morris, A. 353
- motivation 140–41, 227–8 and pay 139–40, 150
see also Ability, Motivation and Opportunity (AMO) theory
- Müller, B. 208–9, 210
- multinational companies 177, 193–5
- Murphy, C. 359–60
- mutual gains model 73
- need rule 299
- Neo-Human Relations School 86, 87, 93
- neo-liberalism 17, 40–41, 177
- neo-pluralism, see pluralism and neo-pluralism
- neo-unitarism 37
- new institutionalism 46–7, 169–70
- New Labour 41, 44
- Nölke, A. 187, 188
- non-profit sector 20–21, 74
- Nordhaug, O. 226–7
- norms group 84, 87
 regulatory 161
- North, D. 171–2
- Nyland, C. 88
- obesity 130
- obligations (social exchange) 265–6, 267, 268
- O’Connor, E. 83
- offshoring 98
- Olson, M. 356
- open systems theory 112, 113, 114, 117–18, 120–21, 122–3
- operational capabilities 328
- opportunity, see Ability, Motivation and Opportunity (AMO) theory
- Opportunity, Capacity, Willingness (OCW) model 313
- organization of work 228
- organizational change 346–7
- organizational climate 104, 345–6
- organizational culture 87, 241

- organizational justice theory 295–6
 - conclusion 305–6
 - and employment relations (ER) and human resource management (HRM) 296–8
 - fairness theory and fairness heuristic theory 302
 - origins and development of 298–301
 - practical utility of 303–4
 - scope for future development 304–5
 - theoretical utility of organizational justice 301–2
- organizational performance 98
- organizational role theory, see role theory
- organizations, and environment 113, 120
- Orientalism 90
- Ornebring, H. 71
- Ostroff, C. 346
- ownership and control, separation of 141

- paradox theory 199–200
 - applications in HRM field 207–11
 - current limitations of 211
 - main tenets of 200–204
 - prospects for further development of 212–13
 - responses to paradoxical tensions 201, 202
 - summary of management and organization work, mobilizing a paradox lens 204
 - tensions in HRM studies 204–7
- Pareto 85
- Parsons, T. 283
- Party 24
- patriarchy 235–6
- pay
 - and organizational justice 303
 - and performance 316–17
 - rate of 54
 - and sexual attractiveness 133
 - systems 30, 148–9
 - see also* personnel economics, and performance-related pay
- Penrose, E. 325
- Perceived Supervisory Support (PSS) 341, 342, 344
- performance
 - and Ability, Motivation and Opportunity (AMO) theory 311, 312–14, 315, 316–17, 318, 319–21
 - appraisal 210–11, 317–18
 - measurement and monitoring, and performance-related pay 143–7, 148–9, 150, 151
 - organizational 98
 - and resources 329–30
 - and role clarity 286
 - and social exchange theory (SET) 272–3
 - traditional view of determinants of 312 and trust 247, 253
- performance management 30
 - and leader–member exchange (LMX) 340, 343
 - and organizational justice 303–4
 - and Scientific Management 58, 63
 - and systems theory 118
- personnel economics, and performance-related pay 139–40
 - criticisms 149–51
 - distinction, development and constraints of personnel economics 152–3
 - empirical support for personnel economics approach 147–9
 - monitoring performance 145–7
 - principal–agent problem 142–5
 - roots of personnel economics and contribution to HRM 140–42
 - sorting effects 147, 148
- personnel management 116, 299, 300
- Peters, P. 208, 210
- Pfeffer, J. 149, 223, 273, 326
- picketing 40
- piece rates 143, 144–5, 147–9
- platforms, digital 61–2, 193
- pluralism and neo-pluralism 34–6
 - approach to employment relationship 36–9
 - British antecedents and development 39–42
 - challenges 45–7
 - pluralisms (state, organization, civil society and free speech) 47–8
 - pluralist frames of reference 5–6
 - practical applications of 44
 - research projects and neo-pluralism 48–9
 - social democratic, liberal and conservative political theory 42–4
 - and systems theory 116, 119–20
 - and tensions 205
- political correctness 35
- Political Opportunity Theory (POT) 353
- Political Process Theory (PPT) 353
- Pollert, A. 236, 237, 238, 239, 240–1, 242, 243
- Porter, M. 325
- positivism 3, 115, 119
- post-Fordism 184–5
- poverty 17, 26
- power
 - and collective action 357, 360
 - and radicalism 38
 - and social exchange theory (SET) 270–71
 - and trust 255
- Prahalad, C. 327
- precarious workers, mobilization of 359–60
- predictability 248

- principal-agent problem 141–2 measuring and monitoring performance 146–7, 151 performance-related pay as solution to 143–5 and public sector 152
 Pringle, C.D. 312–13
 private property rights 171–2 procedural justice 298, 299–300, 302, 303–4 productivity and happiness 93
 and Hawthorne Studies 84, 90
 and Human Relations School (HRS) 92
 and Scientific Management 54, 55, 56, 58, 62
 and trust 252
 profits 19, 20–21, 54, 325 psychological contract 273–5, 302
 Purcell, J. 341–2, 343
 Putnam, L.L. 201
- qualifications 218, 225, 227, 228 qualitative studies, use of 106 quality measurement of 146
 and performance-related pay 148
- racism 21–2, 130, 241
 radical frames of reference 5–6 radical-pluralism 41–2, 47 radical socialism 39, 40
 radicalism 38, 39, 41, 46, 48
 Rafferty, A. 3
 rational choice institutionalism 171–2
 rational choice theory 249
 Raven, B. 271
 Read, I. 359 reciprocity 265–6, 267, 272–3, 275–6 recruitment and selection 132–3, 254, 289, 303, 312, 316 redundancies 176
 regulation, see Labour Regulation Theory relationships, see leader–member exchange (LMX) theory; social exchange theory (SET) Research Excellence Framework (REF) 243 research funding 243
 Resource-Based View (RBV) approach 324 criticisms of 329–30 discussion 332–3
 dynamic capabilities 327–8
 and HRM research 331–2 origins of 325–7
 and strategic HRM 330–31
 Resource Mobilization Theory (RMT) 353
- resources, and leader–member exchange (LMX) theory 336–7, 341, 343 responsive regulation 156 retail sector 101–2 retention 272 risk
 and performance-related pay 144–5, 146, 147
 and trust 248–9, 250, 256
 Rockefeller Institute 88, 92–3 role theory 280–81
 conclusion 290
 development of 282–8
 foundations of 281–2 frontline manager context 288–9 future directions 289 role ambiguity and role conflict 286–7, 289 role clarity 285–6, 289 role overload 287–8, 289 rules 157, 158–9, 160, 161, 162 ruling class 24–5, 26
- Safelite 148, 149
 Schein, E.H. 273
 Schleicher, D. 118
 Schneider, A. 209, 211
 Schneider, B.R. 187–8
 Schneider, S.C. 199
 Schultz, T. 219
 Scientific Management 53, 63–4, 97–8 alternative terms for 54 claims of gains for workers 58 claims of objectivity 57–8 delivery methods 57
 and Human Relations School (HRS) 89, 92
 limits of 57–60
 origins and principles of 53–7 possibilities for future 60–63
 Searle, R. 253, 254
 ‘self’ 282, 283
 selfishness 275
 Senior, N. 21 service sector
 and labour process theory (LPT) 74–6
 and Scientific Management 61–3 sexual attractiveness 130–31, 133 sexual selection 130–31, 132–3 sexual value 130
 Shenhav, Y. 90
 Shore, L.M. 338, 345
 Siebert, S. 255
 Siebert, W. 101–2
 Simms, M. 360
 skilled workers
 and labour process theory (LPT) 70
 and Scientific Management 55, 56, 57

- skills
 functional competence 227
 and human capital theory 219, 225–6, 228
 and labour process theory (LPT) 70–71, 75, 77
 Marxist interpretation of 22, 23
- Skinner, D. 254
- slavery 20, 21–2
- small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) and collective organization 359
 and systems theory 117–18
- Smith, A. 219, 264, 281–2
- Smith, C. 68, 69, 70, 74, 75, 77
- Smith, W.K. 200, 201, 202, 203, 204
- Snell, S.A. 224
- social capital 104, 222–3
- social climate 104
- social competence 227
- social complexity 326
- social democracy 42–3
- social exchange theory (SET) 264 antecedents and distinctive properties 264–71
 conclusion 276
 employment relations (ER) and HRM applicability 271–5
 and leader–member exchange (LMX) 338, 344
 limitations 275–6
 and organizational justice 302
 and systems theory 116–17
- social identity 356–7, 358
- social interactions 152
- social leader–member exchange (SLMX) 337–8, 342, 346–8
- social mobilization theory, see mobilization theory
- social movements 353, 356
- social needs 84, 85–6, 91, 92, 93
- social rights 42–3
- social sciences 34–5
- socio-legal perspective, regulation 156, 165
- sociobiology 128, 133
- sociological theory, importance and limitations of 128
- Soskice, D. 186, 189, 190
- Stalker, G. 115
- standpoint theory 237–40, 243, 244
- state
 and collective action 357 controls 20
 and Marxism 23–4
 and pluralism 47–8, 49
 and radicalism 38
- state-permeated market economy (SME) 188
- status 283
- Stinglhamber, F. 341
- strategy/operations nexus 207
- strikes 27, 37, 38, 40, 352, 357
- structural functionalism 283
- structural role theory 283, 284
- sub-contracting 55
- surplus value 20–21, 69–70, 75
- Sutton, R. 149, 326
- System, Society and Dominance (SSD) framework 117–18
- systemic effects, high-performance work systems (HPWSs) 99
- systems theory 112 application and value 117–19 evolution and imprint of, in ER/HRM 114–17 key purpose and characteristics 112–14 problems and pitfalls 119–21 prospects and potential 121–3 summary 123
- talent management 31, 210
- Tavory, I. 2
- Taylor, F.W. 22–3, 54, 55, 56–7, 58, 59, 61
- Taylorism, see Scientific Management
- team working, and performance-related pay 151
- technology and technological change 98 and human capital 221, 222
 and labour process theory (LPT) 71
 systemic linkages 99
- Teece, D. 327–8
- temporary agency workers 176
- tensions, see paradox theory
- theorization 2–4
- theory in HRM and ER 4–6
 role and purpose of 1–4
- Theory of the Growth of the Firm* (Penrose) 325
- Thompson, P. 68, 70, 72, 73, 75, 77
- three-legged stool models 207
- Tilly, C. 353, 354, 357
- Timmermans, S. 2
- Total Social Organization of Labour model 242
- Townsend, K. 118, 315
- trade unions
 and business systems approach 173–4, 175, 176
 as check on employer power 271
 and collective bargaining 29, 39, 42, 157–9
 in coordinated market economies (CMEs) 183, 192–3
 current position, UK 42

- decline of 5
- and democracy 36, 39
- development of 39–40, 42
- and identity politics 45
- as industry's opposition 44
- and labour process theory (LPT) 72
- in liberal market economies (LMEs) 191
- and Marxism 20, 21, 24, 25, 28, 29
- and mobilization theory 353, 357–60, 361
- partnership with management 44
- and pluralism and neo-pluralism 36, 37, 38, 46
- radical activist backlash 41
- and radicalism 38
- and women 241–2
- training 30–31, 174–5, 176, 190, 219, 228, 289, 312
- trust 247
 - benefits of 253
 - development, theory of 249–51
 - distrust 249, 253–4, 256, 257–8, 266, 270
 - and leader–member exchange (LMX) 338
 - limitations and scope for further theory
 - development 256–8
 - nature of, and antecedents 247–9
 - within organizational contexts 251–2
 - and organizational justice 304
 - and social exchange theory (SET) 266, 269–70, 272–3
 - utility of trust theory for HRM and people management 253–6
- Turner, R.H. 283–4
- Turner, T. 359–60
- unemployment, Marxist interpretation of 22
- unitarist frames of reference 5–6
- unitarist Human Relations 36, 37, 38–9, 40, 46, 89–90, 93–4
- USA, Cold War and anti-communism 16–17
- use value 19, 69
- Van Houten, D. 90
- Vandenberghe, C. 341
- Vanderhoven, D. 243
- Varieties of Capitalism (VoC) framework 41–2, 169, 171–2, 183–90
 - conclusion 195–6
 - growing role and impact of multinationals 193–5
- institutional changes and impact on labour
 - in coordinated market economies (CMEs) 192–3
 - and institutions of labour 190–91
 - and varieties of liberalization 191–2, 193
- vicious and virtuous cycles 201, 203, 207, 222
- Vincent, S. 76
- virtual teams 256–7
- Vliegthart, A. 187
- von Bertalanffy, L. 112
- wages, see pay; personnel economics, and performance-related pay
- Wang, C. 328, 329
- Waring, P. 161–2
- Watson, T.J. 122, 206
- Weber, M. 282
- Wheeler, A.R. 343
- whistle-blowing 132
- Whitener, E.M. 254
- Whitley, R. 173–4
- Wilensky, H. 63
- Williamson, O. 329
- Wilson, J.Q. 356
- windshield installation case study
 - (performance-related pay) 148, 149
- Winter, S. 328
- women 46
 - incentives 149
 - and work 222
 - see also* feminist theory; gender
- Wood, A.J. 360
- Woodward, J. 115–16
- work groups 84, 85, 87, 90, 92, 93, 94, 251, 286–7
- work–life balance 44, 317
- working class 21, 22, 24, 25, 26–7
- working hours, and Marxism 21
- workplace mobbing 131–2
- workplace occupations 359
- works councils 46, 192, 193
- World Economic Forum 221
- Wright, P. 331–2
- Zald, M. 353
- zero hours contracts 193
- Zhao, S. 209, 210
- Zubonov, N. 101–2