The editors would like to note that a book of this nature does not simply ‘happen’. A great deal is owed to the impetus provided by the organizers and administrators of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law, the interest and support from the publishers, and indeed the dedication and enthusiasm of the global network of scholars who make up the IUCN AEL – going into its 16th year at time of writing – and we express our thanks to all of these people. In particular, however, the editors do wish to thank Jamie Benidickson, Yves Le Bouthillier and Winnie Carruth from the Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa and the IUCN AEL Secretariat for their administrative support; Yves and Jamie again for ‘encouraging’ us to take on the task of editing; Jamie, again, and Zen Makuch for their invaluable services in reviewing the draft manuscript; Ben Booth from Edward Elgar for his patience and his professionalism; and also to people involved in the production and copy-editing processes, including Marina Bowgen, Carolyn Fox and Malcolm Baylis.
