

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface and acknowledgments	x
PART I INTRODUCTION
1. International investment law and history: An introduction Stephan W. Schill, Christian J. Tams and Rainer Hofmann	3
PART II OBJECTS AND OBJECTIVES OF HISTORY
2. Narrating narratives of international investment law: History and epistemic forces Andreas Kulick	41
3. The first investor-state arbitration? The Suez Canal dispute of 1864 and some reflections on the historiography of international investment law Jason Webb Yackee	70
4. Understanding change: Evolution from international claims commissions to investment treaty arbitration Heather L. Bray	102
5. History and international law: Method and mechanism – empire and ‘usual’ rupture Kate Miles	136
6. The challenges of history in international investment law: A view from legal theory Jörg Kammerhofer	164
PART III METHODOLOGY AND ITS CHALLENGES
7. Resolving challenges to historical research: Developing a project to define fair and equitable treatment Mona Pinchis-Paulsen	179

8. The evolution of contractual protection in international law: Accessing diplomatic archives, discovering diplomatic practice, and constructing diplomatic history Jean Ho	213
9. The gust of wind: The unknown role of Sir Elihu Lauterpacht in the drafting of the Abs-Shawcross Draft Convention Yuliya Chernykh	241
10. Enriching law with political history: A case study on the creation of the ICSID Convention Taylor St. John	286
11. A genealogy of censurable conduct: Antecedents for an international minimum standard of investor conduct Muin Boase	321
Index	367