

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Series preface	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction	1
Francis Cheneval and Mónica Ferrín
1 Switzerland as a model for the EU	10
Francis Cheneval and Mónica Ferrín
2 The EU and the Canadian mirror: citizenship, multinationalism and multiculturalism	40
Clara Isabel Velasco Rico and Marc Sanjaume-Calvet
3 Linguistic policies and citizens' claims in a multinational state: the case of Spain	66
Andrea C. Bianculli, Jacint Jordana and Siresa Lopez
4 The Czech Republic: minority rights since the days of the Habsburg Empire	93
Vít Hloušek
5 Minority policy and social rights: the case of Estonia	118
Gaabriel Tavits
6 Turkey: minorities and citizenship claims	137
Hakan Yılmaz, section 6.1 with the assistance of Çağdan Erdoğan
7 Accommodating rivalling claims to citizenship in federations: lessons for the EU	161
Marc Sanjaume-Calvet
8 Nation-building process versus community claims: taking stock of analysed examples of unitary states	175
Vít Hloušek

9	Conclusion Francis Cheneval and Mónica Ferrín	189
	Index	193