
Contents

List of contributors	viii
Introduction to the Research Handbook on Law and Courts Susan M. Sterett and Lee Demetrius Walker	1
PART I COURTS AND POLITICAL ACCOUNTABILITY
1. International tribunals and political accountability James Meernik	17
2. Degrees of separation: judicial–executive relations in the US and Latin America Gbemende Johnson	30
3. Comparing the influence of war on high courts of the USA, UK, and Canada Susanne Schorpp	46
4. Drug policy, violence, and support for the judiciary in Latin America: the “drug trafficking trap” Aldo F. Ponce	64
5. Law, courts and populism: climate change litigation and the narrative turn Chris Hilson	81
6. Courts and transformative constitutionalism: insights from South Africa Anthony C. Diala	95
PART II JUDICIAL PROCESS
7. Independence in judicial hierarchies: civil law systems Julio Ríos-Figueroa	105
8. The use of precedent in US Supreme Court litigant briefs Jessica A. Schoenherr and Ryan C. Black	114
9. Challenging authorities’ (in)action via amparos Lydia Brashear Tiede and Susan Achury	130
10. Accountability, authority and documentary fragility: ‘shadow files’ in a trial in India Mayur Suresh	145
11. Court architecture and the justice system Patrícia Branco, Peter Robson and Johnny Rodger	158

12. Institutional norms, Parliament, and the courts: explaining the absence of abortion restrictions in Canada 173
Jonathan Parent

PART III DIVERSITY

13. Gender on the international bench 187
Laura P. Moyer
14. Appointing women to high courts 200
Maria C. Escobar-Lemmon, Valerie Hoekstra, Alice J. Kang and Miki Caul Kittilson
15. Judicial Service Commissions and the appointment of women to higher courts in Nigeria and Zambia 213
J. Jarpa Dawuni and Tabeth Masengu
16. Judicial diversity in the United States federal judiciary 231
Taneisha N. Means, Andrew Eslich and Kaitlin Prado
17. The gender and judging project: equity in Germany 246
Ulrike Schultz

PART IV SUBNATIONAL COURTS

18. Power, activation, decision making, and impact: subnational judicial politics in Brazil 252
Luciano Da Ros and Matthew C. Ingram
19. Understanding the determinants of opinion language borrowing in state courts in the United States 267
Jennifer Bowie and Elisha Carol Savchak
20. State high courts and precedent: the diffusion of precedent in the United States 280
Benjamin J. Kassow
21. Letting the outside in? Court clerks, discretion and the shifting boundary between community and court: domestic violence cases in South Africa 290
Kelley Moul
22. When do the losers win? Appellate court reversals of civil jury verdicts 308
Tao L. Dumas
23. Creating space for supranational law: environmental legal mobilization and Spanish NGOs 320
Luz Muñoz and David Moya

PART V COURTS, INCLUSION AND BELONGING

24. Patrolling the boundaries of belonging? Courts, law and citizenship 336
Lisa Conant, Andreas Hofmann, Dagmar Soennecken and Lisa Vanhala
25. Conflicts in indigenous law: courts and federalism in the United States and common law nations 351
Rebecca A. Reid and Todd A. Curry
26. Implicit and explicit boundaries of belonging: indigenous and minority identities 365
Kati Nieminen
27. Domestic legal institutions and international law: the UN Women's Rights Treaty and the Netherlands 379
Audrey L. Comstock

PART VI DIGITALIZATION OF LAW AND COURTS RESEARCH

28. Creating digital legal subjects: the use of online criminal court records for research 394
Sarah Esther Lageson
29. All your data will be held against you: secondary use of data from personal genomics and wearable tech 404
Andelka M. Phillips
30. Data infrastructure innovation in the field of law and courts: the European Court of Human Rights Database (ECHRdb) 427
Elizabeth Chrun and Rachel Cichowski
31. "Text as data" in law and courts: data coding, language clarity, and data sharing 443
Justin Wedeking
32. Creating databases in sociolegal research: the US Supreme Court Confirmation Hearings Database 457
Paul M. Collins, Jr and Lori A. Ringhand
- Index* 469