

---

Index

---

- abstract 50
- academic integrity 33
- academic journals, international marketing
  - in 153–4
- academic publishing, future of 131–3
- academic research 138
- Academy of Management (AOM) 30
- Academy of Marketing Science (AMS) 30
- ACCI
  - see* American Council for Consumer Interests (ACCI)
- achieved incremental contributions 49–50
- ACSI
  - see* American Customer Satisfaction Index (ACSI)
- Alford, R. R. 111
- American Council for Consumer Interests (ACCI) 127, 132
- American Customer Satisfaction Index (ACSI) 159
- American Marketing Association (AMA) 127, 132, 184
- Anderson, P. F. 107
- Andrea, C. M. 60
- Andrew, E. W. 60
- Argo, J. J. 63, 65, 68
- Armstrong, J. S. 32
- Arndt, J. 107
- Arnould, E. J. 111
- article processing fee 37
- Assimilation-Contrast Theory 57
- audience
  - impact 11
  - intended 10–11
- authorship 34–5, 43
- back end of the paper
  - consumer insights
    - methods section 65
    - results section 67–8
  - human insights
    - methods section 65
    - results section 67
  - marketer/policy insights 65
    - methods section 65
    - results section 68
  - writing about the methods 63–4
  - writing about the results 65–7
- Bagozzi, R. P. 110
- Bastiat, F. 189
- Baumgartner, H. 153
- beginning scholars, guidance for 186
- Bellezza, S. 60, 61, 63, 67
- Bello, D. C. 154
- Bettman, James R.
  - four tips for writing 215–16
- Bhagwat, Y. 106
- Bolton, R. 193, 194
- Bowen, W. 103
- Boyer, E. L. 103
- business-to-business research (managerial study) 162
- cash-per-publication policies 35
- cause and effects 33
- Cavusgil, S. 154
- CCT
  - see* consumer culture theory (CCT)
- choice of research topic 109–11
- Cialdini, R. B. 170
- co-authors, involvement 34–5
- codes of ethics 31, 36, 39–40, 42–4
- Coleman, N. V. 60, 65, 67
- collaboration, and impact 185–6
- comments, suggestions and 38
- Committee on Publishing Ethics (COPE) 28
  - case files 35
  - database 29
  - ethical guidelines by 29, 30, 38, 39
- common mistakes 216–18
- communication 215, 218
- competitive intelligence (CI) 118–20
- concept, defined 110
- conceptual development 143–4, 152–3
- conceptual framework 148
- conceptual hypotheses 148
- conceptualizing research 107–9
- conceptual paper 183
- conducting research 31–3, 42
  - challenges in 139–41
- confidentiality 38
- conflicts of interest 35–8, 43
  - predatory journals and 36–7
- construct
  - defined 110
  - definitions of 48
  - selection 47–8, 51

- consumer behavior 47
  - research 168
- consumer culture theory (CCT) 53
- consumer insights 55
  - back end of the paper
    - methods section 65
    - results section 67–8
  - front end of the paper
    - introductory section 60–61
    - theory section 63
- consumer researchers 57, 58
- consumer research example 160
- consumer research paper
  - checklist for 56
  - essential elements of 54, 56, 57–9
    - top marketing journal 57–9
  - “The Contribution Continuum” 4
- contributions 4, 5, 7, 34, 35, 38, 39, 49–51, 142–3, 147–8, 172, 219–20
  - customer contributions to firms 104
  - fundamental 59–63
  - methodological 119
  - novel 131
  - to public policy 135
  - reviewers 184–5
  - substantive 119
- conversation 8–10
- copyright laws 33
- “Core Practices” document 29
- Couper, M. P. 170
- cross-cultural issues 138
- customer
  - first lifetime (FLT) 116–18
  - second lifetime (SLT) 116–18
- customer engagement (CE) 109
- customer relationship management (CRM) 104
- customers’ repeat churn behavior 117–18

- Darren, W. D. 63, 65, 68
- data collection 32
- data needs 112–13
- Day, G. 184, 185, 193
- Delener, N. 170
- Deshpande, R. 107
- de Ven, V. 110, 111
- discussion 50–51
- “Dominant Logic” paper 185
- double-blind review 38
- duplicate publication 34

- editorial musings 127–30
- effective publication strategy, pursuit of 141–2
- empirical measurement 157

- empirical papers 53–4
- empirical research 109
- empirical studies 144–6
- endogeneity 146
- English Premier League 9
- ethical guidelines, by COPE 29, 30, 38, 39
- ethical misconduct 30–31, 38
- executive publications 151–2
- experiment-based big-picture theoretical contributions 54, 55
- external validity, sample design and 167–8

- Fader, P. 49
- fake reviewers 36
- Federal Trade Commission (FTC) 126, 130
- Feng, H. 106
- first lifetime (FLT), customer 116–18
- focal theory 58
- Fornell, C. 106
- fraud triangle 31
- front end of the paper
  - consumer insights
    - introductory section 60–61
    - theory section 63
  - human insights
    - introductory section 59–60
    - theory section 62
  - marketer or policy insights
    - introductory section 61–2
    - theory section 63
  - writing about the theory 62
  - writing the introduction 59
- FTC
  - see* Federal Trade Commission (FTC)
- fundamental contributions 54, 58
  - delineating 59–63
- generating ideas 104–7
- George, D. 105
- ghost authorship 34
- goal programming (GP) method 119
- goods-dominant (G-D) logic of marketing 194, 195
- grammatically unapproachable manuscripts 5–6
- Groves, R. M. 170
- guest authorship 34–5
- Gummesson, E. 194

- Hayes models 67
- high integrity publishing 29–30, 39
- honorary authorship 34
- Huber, Joel, common mistakes in responding to reviewer’s points 216–18
- Hult, M. 106

- human insights 55
  - back end of the paper
    - methods section 65
    - results section 67
  - front end of the paper
    - introductory section 59–60
    - theory section 62
- human subjects 37–8, 43
- Hunt, S. D. 107
- hypothesis development 114
- hypothetical studies 161
- ideas
  - development 142–3
  - generating 104–7
  - sources of 105
- ideation
  - data needs 112–13
  - ensuring rigor and relevance 114–15
  - executing the research 112
  - generating ideas 104–7
  - hypothesis development 114
  - methodological skills 113–14
  - understanding the scientific philosophies
    - 107, 108
- identity of reviewer 217
- ideoplagiarism 33
- imagination 104
- impact 33, 34
  - collaboration and 185–6
- influence 36
- informed consent 37
- initial submission 183–4
- insights
  - see specific types of insights
- intended audience 10–11
- intended incremental contributions 49–51
  - see also achieved incremental contributions
- intentional copying 33
- interfirm power construct 48
- internal validity 33
- international consumer behavior 138
- international marketing
  - academic research in 138
  - challenges in conducting research in
    - 139–41
  - in leading academic journals 153–4
  - practical approach to conducting research
    - in 141–52
    - academic conferences and publications
      - 146–7
    - conceptual development 143–4, 152–3
    - conceptual framework and hypotheses
      - 148
    - empirical studies and research design
      - 144–6
    - executive publications 151–2
    - introduction and positioning 147–8
    - methods and results 148–9
    - pursuit of effective publication strategy
      - 141–2
    - role of seminars and workshops 150–51
    - selection of topic and development of
      - idea 142–3
    - pursuing research in 140
  - interpreting reviewer comments and
    - decisions 218–20
  - introduction, and positioning 147–8
  - introductory section
    - consumer insights 60–61
    - human insights 59–60
    - marketer or policy insights 61–2
  - involvement, co-authors 34–5
  - IRB process 37–8
  - issue selection 47–8, 51
- Jacobson, R. 106
- JAMS
  - see Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science (JAMS)
- JCA
  - see Journal of Consumer Affairs (JCA)
- JCR
  - see Journal of Consumer Research (JCR)
- JIM
  - see Journal of International Marketing (JIM)
- JM
  - see Journal of Marketing (JM)
- JMR
  - see Journal of Marketing Research (JMR)
- Jong, D. 153
- journal articles 32
  - Journal of Advertising Research* 32
  - Journal of Consumer Affairs (JCA)* 126, 127, 130, 132, 133
  - Journal of Consumer Research (JCR)* 32, 51, 54, 126, 131, 134, 219
  - Journal of International Marketing (JIM)* 127
  - Journal of Marketing (JM)* 51, 54, 126, 127
  - Journal of Marketing Research (JMR)* 127
  - Journal of Public Policy & Marketing (JPP&M)* 126, 127, 130–32, 135
  - Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science (JAMS)* 192
- JPP&M
  - see Journal of Public Policy & Marketing (JPP&M)

- Katsikeas, C. S. 143, 154
 Keinan, A. 60, 61, 63
 Kettle, K. L. 68
 Kim, K. H. 106
 Kumar, V. 106, 110, 111, 115
- Letterman, D. 133
 Lewis, M. 106
 Linda, P. 111
 loyalty-card study (quantitative modeling study) 162
 Luce, Mary Frances, interpreting reviewer comments and decisions 218–20
 Lusch, Bob 189–92, 194
 Lusch, R. F. 183, 194
- MacInnis, D. J. 107
 major revisions, overview of 213–15
 managerial study 162 manuscript creation process mistakes in 7
     pitfalls in 4–5
 manuscripts, grammatically unapproachable 5–6 market entry 138
 marketer/policy insights 55
     back end of the paper 65
         methods section 65
         results section 68
     front end of the paper
         introductory section 61–2
         theory section 63
 marketing international see international marketing marketing discipline, positioning of papers in abstract 50
     achieved incremental contributions 49–50
     discussion 50–51
     intended incremental contributions 49
     issue, topic or construct selection 47–8
     review of prior research 48–9
     title 50
 marketing journals 58 marketing research, public policy and 130–31
Marketing Science (MS) 127 marketing strategy, ideation choice of research topic in 109–11 conceptualizing research in 107–9 studies in 115
         competitive intelligence in combating customer churn 118–20 investigating customers' repeat churn behavior 117–18 regaining lost customers 116–17 theory development in 111–12
 Master Mistake Rubric 13
 Mauss, M. 193
 McCarthy, D. 49
 McCracken, G. 111
 Mechanical Turk (MTurk) 32, 64, 65, 160, 163, 166, 167 methodological contributions 119 methodological rigor 144, 149, 153
 methodological skills 113–14
 methods and results 148–9
 methods section
     consumer insights 65
     human insights 65
     marketer/policy insights 65
     writing about the methods 63–4
 misconduct
     ethical 30–31, 38 opportunity for 31 misleading words 215 mistakes 216–18
     categories 4–5
         arguing for “a gap” in the literature 6–8
         conversation 8–10
         grammatically unapproachable manuscripts 5–6
         intended audience 10–11
         in manuscript creation process 7
 Mizik, N. 106
 moderator analysis, samples and 172 modern word processing technology 216
 Moisio, R. 111
 Mook, D. G. 111
 Moorman, Christine, responding to reviewers 212–13
 Morgan, F. 191
 Morgan, N. 154
 Morgan, N. A. 106
 Morgeson, F. V. 106
 MTurk
     see Mechanical Turk (MTurk)
- National Science Foundation 37
 Neeru, P. 60, 61, 63
 Newton, Sir Isaac 105
 non-probability sampling techniques 159
 non-response error 166–7
 novel contributions 131
- Olson, J. C. 107 opportunity for misconduct 31 organization of major revisions 213–15 overview of major revisions 213–15

- Pansari, A. 110
- Patti, W. 60
- peer review 37–8
- personal relationships 35–6
- Peter, J. P. 107
- plagiarism 33–4, 42–4
  - defined 33
  - retraction 34
- population of interest, sample design for 157–9
  - business-to-business research (managerial study) 162
  - components 160–67
  - consumer research example 160, 162
  - evaluating sample quality 162–4
    - and external validity 167–8
  - hypothetical studies 161
  - loyalty-card study (quantitative modeling study) 162
  - non-response error 166–7
  - over-coverage in sampling frame 163
  - response rate
    - increasing 170, 171
    - reporting 168–9
  - samples and moderator analysis 172
  - sample size 170–72
  - under-coverage in sampling frame 163
- positioning 147–8
- positioning of papers
  - defined 47
  - in marketing discipline
    - abstract 50
    - achieved incremental contributions 49–50
    - discussion 50–51
    - intended incremental contributions 49
    - issue, topic or construct selection 47–8
    - review of prior research 48–9
    - title 50
- predatory journals 36
  - characteristics of 36
  - problem with 37
- probability sampling techniques 159
- professional proofreading service 6
- proofreading service, professional 6
- proper positioning 47
- public policy
  - contributions to 135
  - and marketing research 130–31
- publishing ethics
  - authorship 34–5, 42
  - background 29–31
  - codes 39–40, 42–4
    - and policies 30
  - conducting research 31–3, 42
  - conflicts of interest 35–7, 43
  - COPE as guidance to 29, 30
  - education and training in 39
  - human subjects 37–8, 43
  - issues 34–5, 39
  - key problem in improving 30
  - managing for success 28–40
  - misconduct 30–31, 38
  - overview 28–9
  - plagiarism 33–4, 42–3
  - publishing pressure 31, 39
  - research results 32
  - reviewers 38–9, 43–4
    - steps 30
  - publishing integrity 29–31
    - problems in 31
  - publishing misconduct 30–31
  - publishing pressure 31
  - publishing success 37
- quantitative modeling study 162
- Question-Behavior Effect 57
- realistic perspective 54–7
- Reibstein, D. J. 105
- rejection of papers 212, 221–2
- research design 144–6
- research execution 112
- research planning 51
- research results 32
- research topic choice 109–11
- responding to reviewers 192, 212–14, 219
  - common mistakes in 216–18
  - suggestions to 220–22
- response rate
  - increasing 170, 171
  - reporting 168–9
- responses 190–94
- results section 67–8
- reviewer points, common mistakes in
  - responding to 216–18
- reviewers 38–9, 43–4
  - biases 38
  - comments and decisions, interpreting 218–20
  - contributions 184–5
  - responding to 212–14
    - common mistakes in 216–18
  - responsibilities 220
  - selection 184
  - suggestion 214
- reviewers' perspective 38
- review of prior research 48–9
- review process 184–6

- review team
  - errors 220–21
  - non-relevant points 221
  - right 221
  - wrong 220–21
- revisions 190–94
- rigor and relevance 114–15
- Robson, M. J. 154
- Rust, R. T. 184, 185

- Samiee, S. 143, 154
- sample-based approach 159
- sample design, population of interest 157–9
  - business-to-business research (managerial study) 162
  - components 160–67
  - consumer research example 160, 162
  - evaluating sample quality 162–4
    - and external validity 167–8
  - hypothetical studies 161
  - loyalty-card study (quantitative modeling study) 162
  - non-response error 166–7
  - over-coverage in sampling frame 163
  - response rate
    - increasing 170, 171
    - reporting 168–9
  - samples and moderator analysis 172
  - sample size 170–72
    - under-coverage in sampling frame 163
- sample quality evaluation 162–4
- samples and moderator analysis 172
- sample size 170–72
- sampling frame
  - over-coverage in 163
  - under-coverage in 163
- scientific philosophies 107, 108
- scientific research 32
- SDL paper
  - see* Service Dominant Logic (SDL) paper
- second lifetime (SLT), customer 116–18
- Service Dominant Logic (SDL) paper 185, 186
- service logic 188–96
- services economies 188
- Shah, D. 106
- Shaw, J. D. 149
- skimming 57
- Smith, A. 189
- Smith, S. 33
- Staelin, Richard, suggestions to respond to
  - reviewer comments 220–22
- statistical test 220
- Steenkamp, J.B.E.M. 153
- Stewart, D. 183, 191

- storyline
  - compelling 54, 57
  - for making fundamental contribution 54, 62
- submission 190–94
- submission process, pitfalls in 4–5
- substantive contributions 119
- successful positioning 47
- suggestions
  - and comments 38
  - to responding to reviewers 220–22
- survey research 32

- TBGP
  - see* tool based on goal programming (TBGP)
- TCR
  - see* Transformative Consumer Research (TCR)
- Theodosiou, M. 143, 154
- theory-based hypotheses 53
- theory development 111–12
- theory section
  - consumer insights 63
  - human insights 62
  - marketer/policy insights 63
- title 50
- tool based on goal programming (TBGP) 119–20
- topic selection 47–8, 51, 142–3
- top marketing journal 53
  - essential elements of consumer research paper for 57–9
  - realistic perspective about publishing in 54–7
- top-tier marketing journals 157
- Transformative Consumer Research (TCR)* 126, 133, 135, 136
- Turnitin 33

- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services 37

- Varadarajan, R. 110, 115
- Vargo, S. L. 183, 194

- Whitler, K. A. 106
- why-not approach 104
- Wind, J. 105
- Wren, D. 188, 189

- Zeithaml, V. 184–5
- Zhang, X. 106
- Zhang, Y. 149
- Zou, S. 154