
Index

- accountability politics 205–6
 - accumulation by dispossession 186
- activism
 - ‘chain of responsibility’ 200, 205
 - chain-specific 202
 - conflict and cooperation in GVC 206–9
 - ‘convergence space’ 199, 206, 207
 - GVC-based, rise and diffusion of 203–6
 - in GVC theories 201–3
 - outlook for 209–10
 - South African fruit campaign 334
- activist networks 199–200, 203, 207–8
- actor–network theory 201
- adaptive policy 461–2
- additive GVCs
 - additive value chains (AVCs) 509–10, 514–15, 518, 559
 - coffee as classic 247
 - policy priority 20
 - thickening in 559
 - versus vertically specialized GVCs 245–7
- African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA) 249, 396, 529–30
- agrifood GVCs
 - activism in 204
 - downgrading 191
 - gender profiles 327–8
 - horizontal and vertical relationships in 549
 - ‘tightly coordinated’ 538
- agro-industries, SME participation in GVCs 65–7
- Alliances for Action (A4A) 540–542, 547–51
- AMARTA partnership 544–5, 548, 550
- anti-sweatshop movement see sweatshops
- apparel GVC
 - Asian
 - organizational learning and advancement mechanisms 379
 - regional expansion and industrial upgrading 58–9
 - buyer-driven chains 97, 121
 - classification 35–7
 - data sources 49
 - exporting countries, recommendations for 399
 - footprints in
 - China 41
 - Vietnam 41
 - industry report examples 52
 - knowledge sources 396
 - labour intensive, exports in 248–9
 - production tendencies 510
 - technological capabilities and upgrading in 389–91
 - technological capabilities matrix 391–5
 - workforce composition across, typology 71
- apparel industry
 - exports in labour-intensive GVCs 248–9
 - governance modes 341
 - as labour-intensive 110, 276
 - Mexico’s blue jeans 62–3, 193, 244
 - ODM role 242
 - TFSs in 354–6
 - power of 359–64
 - top five 355
 - upgrading in Europe and Turkey 243
 - women-majority workforce 326–7
- applied approaches to GVCs 173–4
- arena of actors
 - as dimension of power 127–9
 - dyadic and collective 127–30, 131–2, 359
 - transmission mechanisms and actor constellations 132
 - in typology of power 128–9
 - in wine GVCs 133
- automotive industry
 - average cost of purchases 441
 - changing governance modes 341
 - determining GVC reach 33
 - digitalized processes, impact of 587
 - GVCs as nested structures 403–4
 - in Mexico 533
 - supplier bankruptcies 458
 - TFSs in 354–6
 - power of 359–64
 - top five 355
 - workforce composition across, typology 71
- backward linkages upgrading 61–2, 477
- bargaining power
 - asymmetrical 93, 97
 - characteristics 128–9
 - distinguished from institutional power 130
 - and economic returns 98
 - and PPPs 550, 552
 - supplier 342, 358, 364, 513, 516

- of TFSs 364
- transmission mechanisms and actor constellations 131–2
- in typology of power 128, 129, 359
- in wine GVCs 133–4
- barriers to entry
 - coffee, cotton, cocoa, and wine 191
 - costly innovations acting as 162
 - economic organization 96–7
 - policies and programs needed to overcome 473
 - protection of rents 155–6
 - as subject to erosion 157
 - upgrading 343
 - ‘boomerang effect’ 203, 204–5
- Broad Economic Classification (BEC) 37, 50, 85
- bundling services 257, 267–8
- business advisory services 540
- business climate, policies targeting 486, 491, 493–4
- business environment 64, 467, 512, 579
- business functions
 - new classification of 82, 83, 84
 - as part of global value chain model 31
- business matchmaking 540, 548
- business process outsourcing (BPO) 68–70, 72
- buyer-driven chains
 - apparel example 97
 - ‘boomerang effect’ 204–5
 - compliance and cooperation approaches 286–7
 - drivenness 357
 - emergence of 116
 - exploitation of labour intrinsic in 273
 - focus on governance role of large retailers 509
 - highlighting role of downstream actors 149
 - home country institutions important for strategy formulations 346–7
 - lead firms choosing governance type 342
 - Mexican blue jeans 244
 - powerful role of large retailers 58, 111, 556
 - wine GVC 134
- buyer role of state 289, 557, 563–5
- buyer–supplier relationships
 - power asymmetry 144–6
 - relational capital in 147
 - SCM perspective on 432–3
- campaigning see activism
- capability building see local firm-level learning and capability building
- capital
 - circuit of 221, 224
 - dynamic of global 175–9
 - flows of 531
 - capital accumulation see green capital accumulation
 - capitalism
 - environment and GVCs 214–15, 223–5
 - GVC as one of main forms of 179
 - and meaning of value 174, 176, 180
 - and nature 228, 235, 588
 - and origins of globalization 11
 - relation to value 177–8, 179
 - uneven development characterizing 202
 - captive governance 60–61, 123, 145, 341–2, 356, 528, 572
 - CCIs see cultural and creative industries (CCIs)
 - Central America
 - apparel sector in 248, 389
 - exploitative work conditions 203
 - speciality coffee in 247–8
 - Central America Free Trade Agreement (CAFTA) 248–9
 - Central Product Classification (CPC) 37–8, 50–51, 84
 - chain structure
 - and environment 216–18
 - and livelihoods 297–8, 306
 - chain upgrading
 - interchain upgrading 389
 - as moving to new higher-value chains 331
 - role of purchasing departments 446
 - and supply chain management 440, 442
 - as type of upgrading and definition 61, 241, 434
 - workplace development initiatives 72
- China
 - apparel GVC footprint 41
 - apparel supply chain 59
 - Apple iPod 78–9
 - clusters 412
 - global trade of creative goods, position in 140–141
 - ‘Great Firewall’ 561
 - ‘green labels,’ interest in 231
 - ICT sector, GVC upgrading 250–251
 - impact on cost of labour 162–3
 - ‘indigenous innovation’ 241–2
 - Industry 4.0 policies 587–8
 - innovation systems 374, 377, 380
 - iPhone 4 160, 245–6, 559
 - labour power 586
 - as largest exporter of mobile phone handsets 82
 - leather tanning 314
 - nationalism, rise of 579

- pigment manufacture 261, 264–6, 268
 - social contract 289
 - spillovers 485–6
 - state-owned enterprises 562–3
 - tariffs 524, 530, 533
 - TiVA indicators 80
 - vertically specialized GVCs 245–6
- civil governance of CSR 291–2, 293
- civil society actors 200–203, 206, 208, 273, 292
- class distribution of income 159
- classification systems
 - data sources 48–9
 - data types 34–8
 - GVC reports by industry, examples 52–3
 - international, details and databases 50
 - limitations of industrial 35
 - medical device GVC definition based on 51
 - methods of identifying relevant codes 37–8
 - standardized international 32–8
- classifications, new
 - of business functions 82, 83, 84
 - of ICT-enabled services 82, 84–5
 - of specified intermediate goods and services 85
- Clean Clothes Campaign (CCC) 203–4, 205–6, 273
- clusters see local clusters
- co-evolution
 - of clusters and GVCs 408, 410
 - of GVC and IS 374–6, 381
- cocoa
 - bipolar GVCs 357
 - downgrading 191
 - GVC reports 52
 - sustainability challenges 233
 - trade partnership 544–5, 548, 550
- coercive power 126
- coffee industry
 - environmental outcomes 320
 - environmental standards 488
 - environmental upgrading 312
 - in Indonesia
 - speciality 301–3
 - value chain upgrading and livelihood trajectories 300–305
 - role of state, India 556
 - speciality
 - in Central America and East Africa 247–8
 - in Indonesia 301–3
 - trade partnership 544, 546–7, 548, 550–551, 552
- collaboration
 - between lead firms
 - and civil society organizations 232
 - and suppliers 219, 356
 - in model for SME participation in GVCs 66–7
 - move from competition to 469–70
 - between NGOs and labour unions 206–7
 - supply chain 439–40, 441, 443
- commercial dynamics
 - of GVCs 332–3, 335
 - and socially embedded gender relations 330
- competition
 - brick-and-mortar retailers facing 325
 - capitalist 178, 224
 - in GVCs 178
 - import 163–4
 - and lead firms 358, 360, 364, 508
 - local firms and FDI 486
 - move to collaboration 469–70
 - and rents 153, 154–5, 156, 171, 511
 - in VFX sector 145, 147
- compressed development
 - development models, links to 459–61
 - GVCs, connection with 452–3
 - linking techno-economic periods to organizational paradigms and management models 454–5
 - network model
 - crisis of, and rebalancing 458–9
 - offshoring and outsourcing 455–8
 - thin industrialization and adaptive policy 461–2
 - time compression and era effects 453–4
- conflict in GVCs 206–9
- ‘conscientious consumerism’ 203
- constitutive exclusion 14, 190, 193–4
- constitutive power
 - characteristics 130
 - transmission mechanisms and actor constellations 131–2
 - in typology of power 128, 130, 359
 - in wine GVCs 133, 134
- contestation
 - in GVC theories 201–3
 - labour 333–6
- convention theory 124, 418–19
- cooperation in GVCs 206–9
- coordinating MNE 418, 420, 422–3
- core competences
 - of Apple 164
 - specialization in 156–7, 162, 232, 509
- corporate social responsibility (CSR)
 - civil governance of 291, 293
 - limitations 291–2
 - definitions 285, 293
 - in GVCs, scattered literature on 285–6
 - and human rights 293–4

- private governance of 286–7, 293
 - limitations 288–9
- public governance of 289–90, 293
 - limitations 290–291
- synergistic governance of 292–3
- corporate strategy
 - bargaining-based 346
 - definition 340
 - and GVC governance 341–3, 349
 - relationship-based 346–7
- ‘cost squeeze’ dynamic 234
- Costa Rica
 - aerospace industry 468
 - investment policy 476
 - medical devices GVC 39–40, 43, 471, 475
- creative industries see cultural and creative industries (CCIs)
- critical approaches to exploitation in GVCs 174–5
- cultural and creative industries (CCIs)
 - definitions of 139
 - future research avenues 149–50
 - global
 - competing perspectives on 142–4
 - overview 139–41
 - GVC governance and upgrading in 144–9
 - GVC perspective 143–4, 146, 149
 - as integral part of global economy 138
 - leading trading countries 141
 - revenues and employment by subsector 141
 - unique features 138
 - world’s exports of 140
- cultural/media imperialism 142–3
- culture
 - celebrity 163
 - cultural discount 146
 - cultural flows 142
 - in global production networks 222–3
- data-driven GVC mapping application 38–44
- data sources
 - classification systems 48–9
 - private, and their limits 85–6
- decent work
 - definition 273
 - measurement 275, 276
 - pillars of 273
 - possibilities of state governance to promote 561
 - social upgrading 273–4, 281
 - as Sustainable Development Goal 539
 - value chain development for 579
- decoupling 189–90, 193, 199, 208
- ‘democratic deficit’ 207–8
- demonstrative power
 - characteristics 128, 129
 - of TFSs 359, 364
 - transmission mechanisms and actor constellations 131–2
 - in typology of power 128, 129, 359
 - in wine GVCs 132–3, 134
- dependency theory 4–5, 6, 7, 572
- design capabilities
 - increased, TFSs 361–2
 - and supplier bargaining power 342
- designing MNE 418, 420, 424–6
- devaluation 14, 186, 190–192
- developing countries
 - actors becoming environmental standard makers 315
 - applied tariffs 523
 - attracting foreign investment as priority 475
 - backward linkages difficult for 477
 - bound tariffs 530
 - clusters in 405, 411
 - competitiveness, factors affecting 64–5
 - compressed development 385, 461–2
 - development of global factory as highest form of upgrading 423
 - economic development 579, 587
 - economic upgrading 578
 - exports of creative goods 140
 - female labour force participation 325, 326, 329–30, 335, 587
 - frustration with lack of policy space 573
 - GVCs offering opportunities for inclusive growth 282
 - import policies 524–5
 - industrial interdependence 547–8
 - industrial policy
 - challenges 506, 517–18
 - implications of GVCs for 511–18
 - use in pursuing economic development 506
 - industrialization paths 506–18
 - infrastructure policy for 478
 - innovation in 370–372, 374, 377–81
 - investment and trade policy 485
 - lead firms’ power 468–9
 - learning in 396–7
 - livelihood impacts of certification schemes in 297–8
 - local market requirements 471
 - lower value-added activities, concentrating in 63–4
 - offshoring services industry 67, 73
 - policy protections 522
 - private sector incentivizing investment 540
 - slim chance of upgrading in CCI 142

- smallholders facing constraints in 65
- standards acting as barriers 473
- strengthening innovative capacity and bargaining power 550–551
- as unable to catch up with developed countries 467
- WTO aiding supply-side constraints in 539
- see also* Global South
- development
 - actors in clusters and GVCs driving 406–7
 - compressed 452–63
 - East Asian and Latin American strategies 7
 - GVC policies for upgrading 470–479
 - and innovation 371–2
 - International Development Goals 539
 - policy focus 479
 - policy for GVC participation, new approach to 466–70
 - state-centric 555–7
 - uneven 183–95
 - value chain, promoting 577–8
 - see also* economic development; international development organizations
- development models 459–61
- development PPPs 537–8
 - Alliances for Action in 540–542
 - case studies 542–7
 - findings and lessons learned 547–51
 - characteristics 543
 - evolution of, US example 541
 - nature of 538–40
- digitalization 149, 444–5, 587–8
- disarticulations
 - vs downgrading and decoupling 187–90
 - modes of 191–4
- disarticulations perspective
 - desired outcome 195
 - generated by focus on reproduction of uneven geographies of development 244
 - influences in developing 185–7
 - overview 183–4
- disinvestment 14, 192–4, 244
- distribution of returns in GVCs 158–61
- distributional outcomes
 - regulatory role 561
 - role played by rents in GVCs 162–6
- dominating MNE 418, 420, 421–2
- downgrading
 - adaptive 243
 - coffee industry 304
 - cycles associated with trade-policy dependency 245
 - as dimension of GVC analysis 61–4
 - vs disarticulations 187–90
- economic and social
 - commercial dynamics 332–3, 335
 - gender dynamics 330–331, 336
- environmental 313, 320–321
- firm 191
- functional 191, 243
- livelihood perspective 300
- outcomes for labour and regional development 191
- passive 243
- social 274, 276–7, 279–80, 281, 296
- as strategy to defer devaluation 191
- and technological capabilities 389–91, 400
- driveness 23, 126, 316, 357
- driving, governance as 121–2
- dynamic capabilities
 - in IB (MNE) literature 418–19
 - underwriting sustainable rents 157–8
- dynamic of global capital 175–9
- East Africa, speciality coffee in 247–8
- East Asia
 - animation offshore outsourcing 138, 147
 - development strategies 7
 - ‘late development’ in 452
 - trade as percentage of GDP 523
- ecology
 - in global production networks 222–3
 - world, and capitalism 228
- economic development
 - in applied approaches to GVCs 173–4
 - changed processes of 461
 - and clusters 403
 - contending perspectives on 1–5
 - core process 385
 - definition 391
 - developing countries 579, 587
 - and GVCs 98, 452, 466, 511
 - and industrial policy 506
 - interfirm dynamics as critical condition for 560
 - link with value 170, 172–3
 - Schumpeterian 454
 - value chains as easier path to 575
- economic organization
 - and GVCs 96–8
 - relation to value 172, 179
- economic upgrading
 - definition 61, 240–241
 - limits of 242–4
 - new research directions 244–51
 - and social upgrading
 - commercial dynamics 332–3, 335
 - gender dynamics 330–331, 336

- interactions between 277–9, 282, 578
- policy formulation 466–80
- through GVC participation
 - complementary policies 484–8
 - country coverage 501
 - data and empirical specification 488–90
 - industry coverage 502–3
 - research methods 483–4, 498
 - results 490–497, 498
 - variables sources, definitions and coverage 504–5
- typologies and trajectories 240–242
- economics
 - firm-level models of sourcing decisions 107–12
 - general equilibrium approaches 106, 112–14
 - interest in global production 105
- education policy 487, 494–5
- electronics industry
 - activism 200, 204, 208
 - digitalized processes, impact of 587
 - end market categories 32
 - GVC reports 52
 - as intermediately globalized 97
 - as labour-intensive 110, 276
 - network model 458–9
 - NGO Electronics Watch 565
 - OEM and ODM roles 241–2
 - in Taiwan 343
 - TFSs in 354–6
 - power of 359–64
 - strategic mergers and acquisitions, examples 368–9
 - top five 355
- elephant curve of global inequality and growth 158–9, 163
- embeddedness
 - of chains 174–5
 - of firms in innovation systems 370, 374
 - of foreign direct investment 400
 - and gender inequalities 335
 - local, productive capacities and capabilities 517–18
 - multifaceted problem of 94–5, 97–100, 102
 - social and institutional 329
 - societal, of production 330
 - ‘territorial,’ of resources 216
- end-market upgrading 62, 391, 511
- end markets
 - emergence of regional 279
 - in global value chain model 31, 32, 35
 - importance of linking to different 516–17
 - institutional sectors, similarity to 34
 - linkages in apparel GVC technological capabilities matrix 392–5
 - shift from EU to China 191, 380
 - state facilitator role 558–9
- endogenous rents
 - arising through combination of investments 155
 - barriers to entry protecting 156
 - as major category of rents 154
 - role played in distributional outcomes
 - market power 164
 - Schumpeterian 162–4
 - and specialization in core competences 156–7
- entry in value chain (upgrading) 61
- environment
 - capitalism and GVCs 214–15, 223–5
 - centrality of, in study of GVCs 215–16
 - culture and ecology in networks of global production 222–3
 - energy efficiency enhancement 318
 - integration into company’s strategic objectives 314
 - materiality, chain structure and power 216–18
 - net gains and losses 313
 - sustainable development 588
 - underexplored research areas 321
 - waste and post-consumption 219–22
 - see also* environmental upgrading
 - environmental activism 200, 201–2, 204–10, 230
 - environmental campaigns 204, 207
 - environmental standards 487–8, 494–8
 - environmental upgrading
 - challenges and open issues 320–321
 - classification 313
 - conceptualizing 311–12
 - defining 312–13
 - drivers of 314–16
 - environmental outcomes, implications for 319–20
 - in GVCs
 - leveraging sustainability 310
 - literature on 218–19
 - from lead firms perspective 316–19
 - strategy 201
 - and social upgrading 63
 - of suppliers 235
 - and supply chain management 218, 440, 443
 - exclusion in GVCs 175, 191–4
 - exogenous rents
 - as category of rents 154
 - occurrence 155
 - role played in distributional outcomes 165–6
 - vulnerabilities 156

- exploitation in GVCs, critical approaches to 170, 174–5
- export-oriented industrialization (EOI) 508–9, 512, 534, 556, 559
- export-processing zones (EPZs) 241, 469–70, 476, 478, 525
- Extended Balance of Payments Services (EBOPS) Classification 34, 37, 50, 84–5
- facilitator role of state 289, 558–60
- film and visual effects (VFX) 138, 144–5, 147–8
- finance and distribution in CCIs 145, 149
- financial crisis (2008)
 - ‘cost squeeze’ dynamic 234
 - exports of creative goods 140
 - global production networks 193
 - and GVC uptake 570, 574–7
 - lead firm responsibilities 360
 - network model crisis 458
 - reshoring manufacturing activities 445
 - General Motors 562
- firm-level data, mapping with 39, 395
- firm-level learning see local firm-level learning and capability building
- firm-level models of sourcing decisions
 - location decisions 107–8
 - organizational decisions 108–12
- firm-level strategy
 - corporate strategy and GVC governance 341–3
 - institutional strategy and GVCs 346–8
 - research
 - firm-centric focus 348–50
 - questions for 340, 350
 - technology strategy and profiting from upgrading 343–6
- first-tier suppliers see transnational first-tier suppliers (TFSS)
- foreign direct investment (FDI)
 - attracting 514, 517
 - firms’ offshoring and outsourcing strategies 408
 - concept of integration as buyer and seller 484
 - costs of integrating new location 528
 - and dominating MNE 421
 - as external factor 94
 - firms 512, 516, 518
 - and knowledge sources 397
 - life cycle shortening 192
 - local Chinese manufacturing firms in SEZs 485
 - outward, US as main source of 5
 - spillovers 486–7, 491, 494, 516
 - state facilitator role 558
- Fourth Industrial Revolution 559–60, 561, 566
 - see also* Industry 4.0
- fruit and vegetables GVC
 - diagram 57
 - job profiles 472
 - in Kenya 320–321, 327
 - quality standards 545
 - reports 52
 - segments 56–7
 - stakeholder engagement 478
 - upgrading stages in selected countries 62
 - see also* South African fruit industry
- functional upgrading
 - in Asian apparel value chain 58, 59
 - as assuming new industrial roles 297
 - categories of 391–5
 - as changing or adding functions 300
 - in coffee industry 247, 301
 - concept of 241–2
 - lead firms 286, 511, 513
 - in manufacturing GVCs 148
 - in Moroccan garment industry 280
 - in offshore services value chain 70, 72
 - policy priorities 474
 - purchasing departments, role of 446
 - regional end markets 516
 - and supply chain management 440, 441–2
 - as type of upgrading and definition 61, 241, 434
 - as undertaking new activities within chain 331
- furniture GVC studies
 - employment, exports and wages 42, 44
 - manufacture in Singapore 261, 264–6
 - production for large-volume standard products 510
 - second-tier supplier performance 317
- gender dynamics in GVCs
 - commercial dynamics 332–3
 - gender analysis 328–31, 336
 - gender equality, challenges and opportunities for promoting 333–5
 - gender perspective 328–30, 587
 - gender profiles 325–8
 - introduction 324–5
 - overview 335–6
- general equilibrium approaches 106, 112–14
- geographic scope
 - comparison with supply chain theories 433
 - explanation 55
 - as global dimension of GVC analysis 58

- geographical indications (GIs), livelihood upgrading through 304–5
- ‘global civil society’ 207
- global commodity chains (GCCs)
 - analysis influences 572
 - buyer- and producer-driven typology 121–2
 - ‘developmentalist turn’ in research 3, 8
 - emergence 7–8
 - ‘global’ term 22
 - positional power 95
- global destruction networks (GDNs) 221
- global industries
 - changing organizational features of 8, 122
 - as dominated by lead firms 468
 - GVC analysis mapping transnational organization of 286
 - GVCs providing holistic view of 54, 55, 417
 - and invention of GVC analysis 572
 - local firms’ capabilities to connect to 466
 - managing trade and production networks in 229–30
 - MNCs and power in 5–6
 - power dynamics in 556
- global interpersonal distribution of income 158–9, 162
- global production
 - dispersion of, driving force 387
 - economists’ interest in 105–6
 - firm-level approaches
 - to location 107–8
 - to organization 108–12
 - ‘functional integration’ 106
 - future research avenues 114–15
 - general equilibrium approaches 106, 112–14
 - women in 326–8
- global production networks (GPNs)
 - actor–network theory 201
 - comparison with GVC and disarticulations 189–90
 - culture and ecology in 222–3
 - ‘dark side’ of 188, 296
 - driven by three capitalist dynamics 232
 - and exclusions 193–4
 - and gender dynamics 329
 - interfirm dynamics in 560
 - in Mexico 193
 - and the state 555, 556–7, 558, 560, 562
 - and strategic coupling 187–8, 296, 304–5, 404
 - tendency to focus on forms of upgrading
 - within firms and chains 175
 - and uneven development 192, 195
 - variable outcomes for regions in 189
- global sourcing
 - in configuration of firms’ engagement in GVCs 436
 - firm-level decision models 107–12
 - interaction with inequality 114
 - as term for GVC activity 105
 - and women 326, 329–30, 335
- Global South
 - corporate social responsibility in 285–94
 - environmental compliance costs 233
 - food safety and quality 231
 - growing capabilities of 67
 - income inequality 93
 - industrial clusters 287
 - assistance for 288–9
 - knowledge-intensive intermediaries 315
 - low-paid labour for extractive and manufacturing activities 199
 - low-skilled labour 92
 - preferential tariff arrangements 193
 - producer and exporter in CCIs, expanding role as 140
 - supplier capabilities 96–7, 99
 - technology transfer 371
 - transnational regulatory initiatives exerting significant influence 208
 - upgrading
 - industrial, link with GVC integration 99
 - opportunities blocked by MNCs 191
 - for promotion of development 296
 - value chains for development approach to 307
 - waste and post-consumption 221
 - workers
 - continued and increasing precariousness in experience of work 586
 - sporadic inclusion of 194
 - vulnerability of 98
 - see also* developing countries
- global supply chain strategy and GVC upgrading 436–7
- global value chain model
 - one-digit ISIC codes 34–5
 - parts of 30–32
- global value chains (GVCs)
 - analysis 3–9
 - comparison with SCM analysis 433–4, 446
 - dimensions 55–65
 - gender 328–31, 336
 - inventing 572
 - multiple uses of 578–9
 - new directions 10–11
 - recent applications 65–73
 - and sustainable livelihoods approach 298–300, 307

- concept 1
- contestation and activism in 199–210
- corporate social responsibility in 285–94
- cultural and creative 138–50
- defining 30–38
- developing country industrial policy, implications for 511–18
- and development
- economic 98
 - local firm 476–7
 - policy formulation for economic and social upgrading 466–80
- disarticulations perspective 183–95
- and economic organization 96–8
- economic upgrading in 240–251
- emergence of 8–9
- and environment 214–25
- environmental upgrading in 310–321
- in era of trade uncertainty 532–4
- and firm-level strategy 340–350
- gender dynamics in 324–36
- and income inequality 99–100
- industrialization paths and industrial policy 506–18
- innovation in 370–381
- and international business 417–28
- and international development organizations 570–80
- and international trade policy 521–34
- linkage mechanisms and network characteristics 123
- and local clusters 403–12
- local firm-level learning and capability building in 385–400
- main issues and future research agenda 585–9
- modelling 105–15
- participation
- economic upgrading through 483–98, 501–5
 - policy for 466–70
- public-private partnerships in 537–52
- rents and inequality in 153–67
- rise of 2, 507–8, 522–5, 571
- risk and market access predictability in 525–8
- services in, measuring and analysing 255–69
- state, role of 555–66
- suppliers' strategic choices in 148–9
- and supply chain management 432–46
- sustainability and green capital accumulation 228–36
- 'value' in work of 169–80
- as 'windows of opportunities' 511, 518
- and workforce development 69–73
- see also* GVC governance; GVC upgrading; mapping global value chains; measuring global value chains; power: in GVCs; theories: GVC
- Global Value Chains Initiative 8–9, 240, 572
- globalization
- backlash against 561–2, 566
 - 'from below,' counter-hegemonic 206
 - of CCIs, literature on 142
 - characteristic of 165–6
 - and clusters 405, 411–12
 - of financial flows 166
 - gains from 92–3, 98, 101
 - giving rise to proliferation of PPPs in GVCs 537
 - GVC-led 158, 166–7
 - of industries 58, 73
 - and investment strategies 475–6, 479
 - knowledge gaps and policy gaps created by 9, 572
 - links to rising inequality 99
 - new patterns of 445
 - of production 185, 195, 276–7
 - 'retreat of the state' with 555–6
 - of value chains
 - implications for study of value 172–3
 - ways of understanding 171
- globalizing service sectors in world economy 66–70
- 'glocal' value chains, governing 146–7
- goods and services
- conversion classification for 37
 - differences between 256
 - 'green' 231
 - input-output structure involving 56
 - and investment 257
 - separate international trade regimes for 257
 - specified intermediate, new classification of 85
 - trade as percentage of GDP, by region 523
- goods, flow of 529–30
- governance
- bipolar 10, 342, 357
 - contested 202
 - of corporate social responsibility
 - civil 291–2, 293
 - private 286–9, 293
 - public 289–91, 293
 - as driving 121–2
 - as linking 122–4
 - multipolar 131, 134, 316, 354, 358
 - as normalizing 124–6
 - for social upgrading 279–82
 - synergistic 201, 286, 292–3
 - unipolar 10, 17, 134, 342, 357–9,

- governance gap 205, 281
- governance instruments for environment 311, 316–17
- governance structure
 - comparison with supply chain theories 433
 - and economic upgrading 279
 - explanation 55–6
 - to facilitate glocalization 146
 - as global dimension of GVC analysis 58–61
 - lead firms' type of involvement depending on 396
 - local learning as influenced by 249
 - opportunities to reshape rural livelihoods 307
 - patterns of production and exchange linked to 577
 - typology 58–61
- governance theory
 - power asymmetry 127, 129
 - and sustainability 'of chains' 321
- governing MNE 428
- green capital accumulation 232–5
- gross measurement 259
- GVC governance
 - approaches to 121–6
 - concept 1–2
 - in cultural and creative industries 144–9
 - determinants 356
 - early and recent focuses 120–121
 - factors shaping 132–4
 - and firm-level strategy 341–3
 - and power dynamics, empirical application 131–5
 - in relation to sustainability 229–30
 - supplier power and multipolarity 355–9, 364
 - TFSs, role in 354–64
- GVC perspective on global CCIs 143–4, 146, 149
- GVC policies
 - for participation 466–70
 - for upgrading 470–479
- GVC-relevant complementary groupings in official statistics 81–5
- GVC research approach 30
- GVC upgrading
 - as contested and shaped by governance structure of change 511
 - and global supply chain strategy 436–7
 - and industrialization paths 508–11
 - and innovation systems 249–51
- H-O factor abundance trade theory 92–3
- Harmonized System (HS) codes 34, 36–7, 50–51
- hegemony 202, 507
- hierarchy governance 60–61, 123, 341–2, 356, 528, 572
- high-income economies 159–60, 162–3, 165, 495, 516, 523–4
- high value-added
 - jobs in Hollywood 143
 - nodes protected by high barriers to entry 187
 - in production 272
 - segments of apparel value chain 62–3
 - tasks in low-road IDs 409
- high-value agriculture value chains 65–6, 468
- high-value horticultural value chain 544, 545–6
- high-value niches
 - focus on occupying and moving to 559
 - in resource-based GVCs 247–8
- higher-value activities
 - economic rents and lead firms 329–30
 - in economic upgrading definition 61, 240–241, 282
 - firms seeking balance with lower-value activities 243
 - in functional upgrading 148
 - 'GVC paradigm' of upgrading to 69
 - of offshore services GVC 68–9
 - smile curve, in GVCs 64
 - within supermarket value chains 332
- higher value-added activities
 - developed countries' presence in 63–4
 - examples of 516
 - importance of upgrading to 510–511
 - mergers and acquisitions amongst TFSs 362–3
 - no guarantee of additional value capture 344
- higher value-added functions 286, 389, 397, 400, 513
- higher-value products 191, 243, 389, 394, 397, 475
- 'historical bloc' 202, 209
- horticulture development programme 544, 545–6, 548, 551
- human capital
 - as highly GVC and stage specific 471, 473
 - importance of 470
 - job profiles in fruit and vegetables GVC 472
- human rights 203–4, 209, 281, 293–4, 565
- ICT-enabled services, new classification of 34, 82, 84–5
- idea entrepreneurs 570, 573–4, 576
- import-substitution industrialization (ISI) 508–9, 512, 556, 559, 570, 573
- inclusionary bias 175, 184–90, 194, 244
- inclusive growth
 - aligning incentives for 550
 - explicitly stated need for 272

- GVCs offering opportunities for 282
- partnership towards 546–7, 550
- through GVCs, determinants for 279
- income
 - class distribution 159
 - global interpersonal distribution 158–9, 162
 - interfirm distribution 160
 - share of labour in total national incomes 160
 - skills-based distribution 159, 161
- income inequality
 - economic trade theories 92–3, 99
 - and globalization 91, 99
 - and growth, elephant curve 158–9, 163
 - and GVCs 99–100
 - labour markets 114
 - recommendation for 565
- Indonesian coffee sector 300–305
- industrial classification systems 34–7, 39, 50–53, 85, 502
- industrial GVC reports 52–3
- industrial policy
 - developing countries
 - challenges 506, 517–18
 - implications of GVCs 511–18
 - use in pursuing economic development 506
 - in digital context 559–60
 - issues for 507
 - new approach to 467, 479
 - recommendations for 518
 - support for firms 511
 - traditional 509
 - UNIDO's focus on 574
 - VSCs and AVCs 509–10, 515, 559
- industrial upgrading
 - in Asian apparel value chain 59
 - as building block for GVC approach 240
 - conceptions of 343–4
 - early literature's focus on 330, 419
 - link with GVC integration in South 99
 - as 'moving up the value chain' 115
 - societal contribution to local territories via 201
- industrialization paths
 - GVC-based, drivers 514
 - involving different GVC types 509–10
 - and rise of GVCs 507–9
 - and upgrading in GVCs 508–11
- Industry 4.0 440, 444–5, 587–8
 - see also* Fourth Industrial Revolution
- industry-level platforms 548, 550
- industry stakeholders
 - explanation 56
 - as local dimension of GVC analysis 65
- information politics 205
- information technology outsourcing (ITO) 68–70, 72
- infrastructure and services 64
- infrastructure development 478–9, 514, 515
- innovation
 - and clusters 404–5, 407, 408, 411
 - and development 371–2
 - as prerequisite for sustainable economic growth 370
 - reverse 462
 - and upgrading in GVCs 373–4
- innovation capabilities
 - co-evolution of GVC and IS 374–6, 381
 - definition 371
 - examples of 358
 - increased, TFSs 361–2, 364
 - requirements 372
 - trajectories of firms' 376–80
- innovation rents 154, 162, 164, 167, 171
- innovation systems (IS)
 - definition 374
 - and GVC upgrading 249–51
 - and GVCs
 - co-evolution 374–6, 381
 - innovation trajectories examples 376–80
 - less-developed countries 396, 398
 - policy implications 380–381
- input–output datasets, TiVA indicators from 78–81
- input–output structure
 - analytical problem 219–20
 - comparison with supply chain theories 433
 - explanation 55
 - as global dimension of GVC analysis 56–7
- institutional context
 - comparison with supply chain theories 433
 - explanation 56
 - illustration of importance of 65–6
 - as local dimension of GVC analysis 64–5
 - upgrading shaped by 62, 511
- institutional power
 - characteristics 129–30
 - interactions 134
 - terminology 128
 - transmission mechanisms and actor constellations 131–2
 - in typology of power 128, 129–30, 359
 - in wine GVCs 133–4
- institutional strategy
 - and firms' ability to influence institutions 340, 349–50
 - and GVCs 346–8

- institutionalization
 - as factor affecting developing country competitiveness in GVCs 65
 - as 'political-cultural construction' 347
- institutions
 - definition 346
 - development 169, 307, 559
 - firms influencing 340, 349–50
 - formal and informal 346–7
 - in innovation systems definition 374
 - moderating role of 100
 - policies targeting 486, 491, 493–4
 - private 372, 514
 - public 150, 314, 315, 372, 507, 514
 - social 298, 305
 - societally embedded, gendered 329
- intellectual property, flows of 531–2
- intellectual property rights (IPRs)
 - barriers against imitation arising from 344
 - benefiting entrepreneurs 154
 - business climate policies 486
 - in CCIs 146, 148–50
 - rents protected by 155
 - reputational-asset 156
 - time-limited knowledge-asset 156
- interfirm distribution of income 160
- international business (IB)
 - growing interest in SOEs 562
 - literature
 - developments in 418–20
 - focus of 120
 - insights from 428
 - MNEs and their implications for GVCs 421–7
- International Classification of Occupations (ISCO) 34, 50
- International Development Goals 539
- international development organizations
 - collective contributions 570–571
 - early proponents of GVCs 570, 573–4
 - financial crisis and GVC uptake 574–7
 - GVC analysis
 - inventing 572
 - multiple uses of 578–9
 - neoliberalism and challenge for IOs 573
 - rise of GVC economy 571
 - shrinking policy space 573
 - value chain development, promoting 577–8
 - in value chain world 579–80
- international input–output datasets 78–81
- International Standard Industrial Classification (ISIC) system 34–7, 39, 50–53, 85, 502
- international trade policy 521–2
 - and GVCs
 - in era of trade uncertainty 532–4
 - reducing risk and increasing predictability 525–32
 - rise of 522–5
 - trade liberalization 522–5
- international trade regime
 - flows of capital 531
 - flows of goods 529–30
 - flows of intellectual property 531–2
 - and GVCs
 - in era of trade uncertainty 532–4
 - increasing unpredictability in 528–9
 - reducing risk in 525–8
 - structural relationship 521–2, 533
 - separate, for services, goods and investment 257
- intersectoral upgrading
 - in offshore services value chain 70
 - policy priorities 474
 - as type of upgrading and definition 61
 - see also* chain upgrading
- investment
 - and flows of capital 531
 - incentivizing 540–541
 - in learning efforts 397–400
 - risks in modes of governance 527–8
 - separate international trade regimes for 257
 - Trump administration 532–3
- investment and trade policy 65, 485–6, 491–2, 498, 504, 515
- investment capabilities 387–8, 392–5
- investment strategies 475–6, 479
- Ireland
 - Google's 'residence' in 166
 - investment environment 476
 - local firm development 476–7
 - medical device GVC 40, 43
- IS see innovation systems (IS)
- Kenya Horticulture Development Program (KHDP) 544, 545–6, 548, 551
- KHDP partnership see Kenya Horticulture Development Program (KHDP)
- knowing MNE 418, 420, 423–4
- knowledge
 - in clusters 405, 407, 408–9, 410
 - sources of 396–7
- knowledge process outsourcing (KPO) 68–70, 72
- knowledge transfer 278–9, 317–18, 399, 409, 424, 513
- labour contestation 333–6
- labour exploitation 170, 174–5, 176, 273, 274

- labour-intensive GVCs
 - buyer-driven structure of 273
 - trade policy dependency in 248–9
 - workforce composition typology 71
- labour-intensive industries 206, 273, 277–8, 387, 528
- labour markets
 - and inequality 114
 - intermediaries in 192
 - moderating role of institutions 100
 - share in total national incomes 160
 - women with limited access to 335, 587
- labour power, new forms of 586
- labour rights 203–6, 281–2, 291–2, 332, 588
- labour standards 487–8, 494–8
- labour theory of value 176
- labour unions 135, 206–7, 232
- late-late export-oriented development 396
- late-late industrialization 400
- 'latent value' 220–221
- Latin America
 - development strategies 7
 - import substitution industrialization 467
 - ISI model popular in 573
 - telecommunications and offshore services 479
 - trade as percentage of GDP 523
- lead firms
 - definition 1
 - environmental upgrading from perspective of 316–19
 - importance of connecting to and leveraging 512–14
 - power 229, 235, 358, 508, 512, 516
- learning
 - and clusters 405, 410
 - firms
 - in developing countries, trajectories for 374–6
 - factors shaping 397–400
 - in GVCs 373–4, 379–80
 - local firm-level 385–400
 - innovation policy 381
 - for technological development 372
- learning rents 171
- Lesotho, trade policy dependency 248–9
- leverage politics 205
- linkage capabilities 388
- linking, governance as 122–4
- livelihood upgrading
 - commodity selection 307
 - overview 296–8
 - sustainable livelihoods approach 298–300, 307
 - through geographical indications 304–5
 - through 'relationship coffees' in speciality markets 301–3
 - through sustainability programmes 303–4
 - value chain interventions 297, 304, 306, 307
- livelihoods
 - rural 300, 303–7
 - sustainable approach to 298–300
 - trajectories in Indonesian coffee sectors workers 300–305, 306
- local clusters
 - actors
 - division of economic activities across 405–6
 - driving development and growth 406–7
 - horizontal and vertical relationships 407
 - characteristics 403
 - definition 403
 - globalization, impact of 412
 - in GVCs
 - evolution of 407–8
 - recent transformation 407–10
 - industrial 240, 249, 285, 287, 288–9, 293, 572
 - literature
 - comparison with GVC literature 403–7, 411
 - contributions of GVC studies to 410–411
 - types 408, 409
- local firm development 476–7, 517–18
- local firm-level learning and capability building
 - determinants of 395–400
 - developing GVC-specific technological capabilities matrix 391–5
 - overview 385–6
 - technological capabilities and upgrading paths in GVCs 389–91
 - technological capabilities approach 386–8
- local firms
 - and GVCs 375
 - and innovation systems 375–6
- locally rooted GVC-led industrial districts 408, 409
- location decisions 107–8
- low-road industrial districts 408, 409
- macro-comparative sociology see quantitative macro-comparative sociology (QMCS)
- management models 454–5, 456, 460–461
- manufacturing
 - and cluster types 409
 - clusters as specialized systems of 403–4
 - division of economic activities 405–6
 - as value-adding activity 411
- mapping global value chains
 - benefits 29, 42, 406
 - classification systems 32–8, 48–53

- data-driven, application of 38–42
 - with firm-level data 39, 395
 - GVC research approach 30
 - qualitative process 32
 - qualitative research steps 33
 - from theory to applied research 29–30
- market access predictability in GVCs 525–8
- market governance 59–60, 123, 342, 356, 527, 572
- market power rents 155, 164–5, 218
- materiality and environment 216–18, 220, 222
- measuring global value chains
 - economists' interest in 105–6
 - GVC-relevant complementary groupings in
 - official statistics 81–5
 - private data sources and their limits 85–6
 - trade in value-added indicators from
 - international input–output datasets 78–81
 - two research streams 77–8, 86–7
- measuring services
 - case studies 260–268
 - challenges 258–9, 269
 - value-added versus gross 259
- measuring social upgrading 274–8, 280, 282
- medical devices GVC study
 - in Costa Rica 39–40, 43, 470, 471, 473, 475
 - data sources 49
 - identifying codes 37
 - industrial classification systems 49
 - product focus, exports and longitudinal 38–40
- mercantilism 173–4
- mergers and acquisitions (M&A)
 - apparel industry 363
 - automotive industry 362
 - electronics industry 362–3, 368–9
 - in sustainability initiatives 232
 - as source of foreign investment information 86
- methodological nationalism 91, 95, 97
- Mexico
 - apparel GVC 62–3, 193, 244
 - automotive sector and NAFTA 532–3
 - medical device GVC 38, 43
 - regional disinvestment 193, 244
 - share of labour in total national incomes 160
 - tariff barriers 524
- MNCs (multinational corporations)
 - as central actor in dependency research 4–5
 - cost changes, response to 476
 - global outsourcing 67
 - institutional strategy, use of 348
 - and power in global industries 5–6
 - upgrading opportunities blocked by, in
 - Global South 191
- MNEs (multinational enterprises)
 - coordinating 422–3
 - designing 424–6
 - dominating 421–2
 - governing 428
 - in GVC and IB literatures 417–20
 - knowing 423–4
 - networking 426–7
 - politicizing 427
- modular governance 59–60, 123, 341–2, 356, 527, 572
- monopoly rents 170, 171, 174, 268, 419
- Moroccan garment industry 280
- multipolarity 10, 357–8, 364
- multitier supply chains, risks in 445
- mushroom value chains 222–3
- neo-Gramscian perspective 202–3, 206, 207, 208
- neo-Ricardian approaches to GVCs 171–3
- neoliberalism
 - collapse of confidence in 575
 - departure from tradition of 467
 - financial crisis confirming end of 577
 - 'hegemony' 202
 - and international organizations 573
 - international organizations closely
 - associated with 578–9
 - interpretation of GVCs 578
 - launch of regimes in 1980s 199
 - market primacy, faltering faith in 173
 - one-size-fits-all approach 580
 - orthodoxy
 - limited roles for governance and public policy 577
 - of privatization, deregulation, and free trade 570
 - resistance to 574
 - period of dominance 558
 - trade theory 572
 - VCD interventions 297
- networking MNE 426–7
- networks
 - activist 199–200, 203, 207–8
 - chain specific 204
 - firms interconnected through 93, 95
 - forms 122–4, 143–4
 - global destruction 221
 - governance of, exchange-theoretic
 - conceptualization 98
 - offshore production 245
 - recycling 220–221
 - regional cultural 139, 142–4
 - social 94, 234, 302, 306–7
 - networks of global production see global production networks (GPNs)

- 'new international division of cultural labour'
(NICL) 142–3
- NGOs (non-governmental organizations) as actors driving GVC development 406–7 chain-specific networks 204 collaboration with labour unions 206–7 and corporate social responsibility 285, 287, 288, 292
environmental 230–231, 233
in global value chain model 31 and power 129–30
- Nicaragua
coffee exports 247
trade policy dependency 248–9
- normalizing, governance as 124–6
- off-farm work 304, 552
- offshore services 53, 67–70, 72–3
- offshoring
motivations for 526
and outsourcing 455–8
risks 526
- organizational decisions 108–12
- organizational improvements 313, 320
- organizational paradigms 454–5, 456, 460, 462
- original design manufacturing (ODM) 241–2,
246, 251, 393–4, 411
- original equipment manufacturing (OEM) 63,
241–2, 244, 246, 249, 251, 393, 411
- outsourcing animation offshore 147 and bundling 257, 267–8 business process 68–9 civil society activism in response to growth in 291
dichotomy with integration 108–12
governance 560, 578
GVC, consequences of 163 in GVC governance concept 1–2 information technology 68–9 knowledge process 68–9 leading to feminized labour-intensive production 326 limits to 458
motivations for 525–6
and offshoring 455–8 online 588 property rights approach 110 reshoring for 445
risks 526
services 266–7, 269
transactions costs approach 109–10
value chains developed from 157
- outward-oriented GVC-led industrial districts
408, 409
- own-branded manufacturing (OBM) 241–2, 251, 379, 411
- passive revolution 208–9
- policy
adaptive 461–2
for GVC participation 466–7 move from competition to collaboration 469–70
picking winners 468 thinking globally, acting locally 468–9 shrinking space for 573 for upgrading complementary 484–8, 491–6
country coverage 501 global practices 470–479
industry coverage 502–3 sources, definitions and coverage of variables 504–5
- policy entrepreneurs 570, 573, 575
- politicizing MNE 418, 420, 427
- 'pollution haven' hypothesis 314
- poverty
in applied approaches to GVCs 173–4
in coffee industry 222, 307
as 'horizontal' aspect of GVCs 218
in International Development Goals 539
NGOs' goals of fighting 206 partnerships in Kenya for reduction of 546, 551, 552
SMEs in agriculture value chains 65 voluntary sustainability standards schemes 303–4
- power
contestation and activism in GVC theories 201–3 dynamics, and GVC governance 131–5
and environment 216–18
in global industries 5–6
in GVCs empirical application 131–5 foundational concept 126 two dimensions of 127–9 typology of 128–31, 135, 359
- labour, new forms of 586
- of lead firms bargaining 358
counterbalance to 516 and developing countries 508, 512
in relation to sustainability 229–30, 234 and MNCs 5–6
of suppliers 355–9, 364 of TFSs in electronics, automotive and apparel industry GVCs 359–64

- power asymmetry
 - in buyer–supplier relationships 144–6
 - in cluster model 410–411
 - and competence power 358
 - degree of
 - between actor dyads 131–2
 - determined by complexity of outsourcing transactions 355–6
 - in governance types 60, 95, 127–8
 - developing countries, shift from 508
- PPPs see public–private partnerships (PPPs)
- predictability in GVCs
 - in era of trade uncertainty 532
 - and flows of capital 531
 - and flows of goods 529–30
 - market access 525–8
 - risk factors to 525–8
 - trade regime function to provide higher level of 521, 525, 528–9, 530
- private data sources 85–6
- private governance
 - of corporate social responsibility 286–7, 293
 - limitations 288–9
 - definition 286
 - lead firms filling in governance gap 200, 281
 - preoccupation of GVC research with 560
 - public–private governance 561
 - and synergistic governance 293
- private sector finance, leveraging 540
- process improvements 72, 313, 319–20
- process upgrading
 - adoption of new technologies 297
 - automation and smart manufacturing as forms of 444
 - and clusters 410
 - increased efficiency as benefit 445
 - lead firms 511, 513
 - limits to 243
 - in Moroccan garment industry 280
 - as part of technological environmental upgrading 313
 - policy priorities 474
 - as producing same product in different ways 331
 - requirements in Central America and East Africa 247–8
 - and supply chain management 438–40, 446
 - as type of upgrading and definition 61, 241, 434
 - vendor-managed inventory as example of 434–5
 - workforce development initiatives 72
- producer-driven chains
 - ‘boomerang effect’ 204
 - drivenness 357
 - emergence of 116
 - focus on governance role of large technology-driven transnational firms 509
 - lead firms choosing boundaries 342
 - often tied to industrial clusters or emerging global suppliers 287
 - transport equipment example 97–8
 - vertical integration tendency 58
- producer role of state 289, 557–8, 562–3
- product design
 - as driver of environmental upgrading 310–311
 - governance instruments for environment 317, 318
 - as strategy used by TFSs 360, 364
- product improvements 313, 319–20
- product upgrading
 - in coffee industry 301
 - lead firms 511, 513
 - legal framework in China and Vietnam 560
 - limits to 243
 - in Moroccan garment industry 280
 - policy priorities 474
 - as producing new outputs 331
 - requirements in Central America and East Africa 247–8
 - role of purchasing departments 446
 - and supply chain management 440–441
 - as type of upgrading and definition 61, 241, 434
 - value capture 296–7
- production capabilities 160, 250, 388, 395, 409
 - importance of building locally embedded 517–18
 - and PPPs 547, 552
- productive capacity
 - as factor affecting developing country competitiveness in GVCs 64
 - importance of building locally embedded 517–18
 - state control of 289
- productivity
 - labour 92, 224, 228, 273, 279, 387, 392, 398
 - nature as source of 217–18
 - and services 257–8
 - as smallholder competitiveness bottleneck 66
 - spillovers from FDI 485, 487, 491, 494
- productivity effect 114, 279
- profit
 - and competition dynamics 178
 - new innovations increasing tendency to capture 177
 - rents as particular form of 171

- struggles over realization and capture of 173
- super-profits 174, 179
- and tax law 178
- value
 - as ability to capture 169, 170, 171
 - as distribution of 172, 176
 - GVCs managing relationship between 179
- 'property rights' approach 110–111
- public governance
 - of corporate social responsibility 289–90, 293
 - limitations 290–291
 - definition 286
 - public–private governance 561
 - role of state as regulator 289, 557, 560–562
 - shaping gender outcomes 333
- public–private partnerships (PPPs)
 - development PPPs
 - Alliances for Action in 540–542
 - case studies 542–7
 - findings and lessons learned 547–51
 - imperative of 537–8
 - nature of 538–40
 - required approach and objectives 551–2
 - public procurement 289, 557, 563–5
- QMCS see quantitative macro-comparative sociology (QMCS)
- qualitative GVC mapping process 32
- qualitative research steps in GVC mapping 33
- quality conventions 125
- quantitative macro-comparative sociology (QMCS)
 - adding value to 93–6
 - capturing value of GVCs for 96–101
 - theoretical and methodological challenges 93–6
- redistributive rents 171
- regional cultural networks perspective 142, 144
- regional disinvestment 190, 192–4, 244
- regional value chains (RVCs) 149, 509, 516–17, 579–80, 585
- regulatory role of state 289, 557–8, 560–562
- relational capital 147
- relational governance 60, 123, 341–2, 356–7, 444, 527–8, 572
- 'relationship coffees' 301–3
- relocation 445
- rents
 - barriers to entry 155–6
 - centrality of 171–3
 - definition 252
 - and distributional outcomes, role played in 162–6
- dynamic capabilities underwriting 157–8
- economic 329, 330, 335
- and GVC upgrading 511
- nature of 153–5
- new innovations increasing tendency to capture 177
- quest for, impacts 158–61
- relation with power 126–7
- specialization in core competences 156–7
- upgrading as condition for capturing 172
- value
 - as ability to capture 169, 170, 171
 - as distribution of 172, 176
- research
 - future agenda 585–9
 - GVC, approach 30
 - GVC-related stream 78, 86
 - qualitative, steps in mapping GVCs 33
 - social science stream 77–8, 86–7
 - from theory to applied 29–30
 - upgrading, new directions in 244–51
- reshoring 445
- resource-based GVCs 247–8
- resource-based view (RBV) of the firm 266–7, 432
- resource rents
 - as category of rents 153–4
 - protection by entry barriers 155
 - protection by scarcity 155–6
 - role played in distributional outcomes 165–6
- retail
 - in agrifood global value chain 549
 - in apparel global value chain 36
 - in fruit and vegetable global value chain 57
 - 'glass ceiling' 326, 328
 - in global value chain model 35
 - in offshore services global value chain 68
 - powerful role of 58, 111, 134–5, 204–5
 - in specialty coffee global value chain 247
 - supermarket 57, 286, 545–6, 548
 - threat to 445
 - in wine global value chain 133
 - women in 325–8, 335
- risk
 - and market access predictability in GVCs 525–8
 - in multitier supply chains 445
 - political 526–8
 - supply 442, 527–8
- Rockefeller Foundation 9, 572
- Schumpeterian innovation 164
- Schumpeterian rents 162–4, 171, 174

- SCM see supply chain management (SCM)
- service sectors, globalizing 66–70
- services
- bundling and outsourcing 257, 266–8
 - growing role of 255–6
 - in GVCs, case studies
 - bundling 267–8
 - challenges in identifying and estimating sources of value 262–4
 - listing 260–261
 - mapping along value chains 263
 - outsourcing 266–7
 - project design, methodological challenges 261–2
 - playing multiple roles in economy 268–9
 - and productivity 257–8
 - see also* goods and services
- services economy, defining features of 256–8
- SEZs (special economic zones) 485, 558
- skills-based distribution of income 159, 161
- skills policy 474–5, 487, 494–5
- SME participation in GVCs
- in agro-industries 65–6
 - four pillars model 67
- smile curve 64, 246, 406, 409, 411
- social standards 487–8, 494–8
- social upgrading
- achieving 277–82
 - and economic upgrading
 - commercial dynamics 332–3, 335
 - gender dynamics 330–331, 336
 - interactions between 277–9, 282, 578
 - policy formulation 466–80
 - governance for 279–82
 - indicators of 275–6
 - in Moroccan garment industry 280
 - nature of 272–4
 - recipients of 276–7
 - and supply chain management 440, 443
 - trajectories 277–8
- South African fruit industry 332–3, 335
- specialization in core competences 156–7, 162, 232, 509
- SPREAD partnership 544, 546–7, 548, 550–551, 552
- stakeholder analysis 65
- standardized international classification systems
- data sources 48–9
 - data types 34–8
 - details and databases 50
 - mapping based on 32–4
- standards
- and certifications
 - governance instruments for environment 317
 - as part of productive capacity 64
 - labour, social and environmental 487–8, 494–8
 - policy for 473–5
- state
- roles in GVCs
 - buyer (hidden) 563–5
 - differing and evolving 585–6
 - facilitator (long-assumed) 558–60
 - producer (neglected) 562–3
 - regulator (increasingly visible) 560–562
 - typology 557–8
 - state-GVC nexus
 - move from state-centric development to 555–7
 - as ongoing concern 565–6
 - state-owned enterprises (SOEs)
 - global economy, important role in 20
 - role of state as producer 289, 557, 562–3
- statistics
- labour market 326–7, 331
 - official, GVC-relevant complementary groupings in 81–5
- strategic mergers and acquisitions see mergers and acquisitions (M&A)
- supplier power 342, 358–9, 364
- supplier squeeze, sustainability-driven 232–5
- suppliers' strategic choices in GVCs 148–9
- supply-and-use tables (SUTs) 36–8, 50
- supply chain management (SCM)
- analysis, comparison with GVC analysis 433–4, 446
 - 'bullwhip effect' 432
 - definition 432
 - future integration areas 444–5
 - global supply chain strategy and GVC upgrading 436–7
 - and other upgrading typologies 441–3
 - and process upgrading 438–40, 446
 - and TFSs 360–361, 364
 - and upgrading 434–6
- sustainability
- business of 230–232, 234–5
 - in cocoa-chocolate chains 544–5
 - cooperation-based models for improved outcomes 317
 - and environmental upgrading 310
 - future research avenues 235–6
 - global crises of 228
 - and green capital accumulation 232–5
 - and GVC governance 229–30
 - in International Development Goals 539
 - management of 232–5

- partnerships 231–2
- supplier squeeze 232–5
- in, of and through value chains 321
- voluntary standards 303–4, 315
- sustainability programmes, livelihood
 - upgrading through 303–4
- sustainable development 63, 219, 282, 588
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) 314, 507, 537, 538–9, 565, 580
- sustainable livelihoods approach (SLA) 298–300, 307
- sustainable rents, dynamic capabilities
 - underwriting 157–8
- Sustaining Partnerships to Enhance Rural Enterprise and Agribusiness Development
 - see* SPREAD partnership
- Swaziland, trade policy dependency 248–9
- sweatshops 200, 203, 204, 206, 274, 285, 291
- symbolic politics 205
- synergistic governance 201, 286, 292–3

- technical advisory services 467, 540
- techno-economic periods 454–5, 460, 461
- technological capabilities
 - determinants of local firms' capability
 - building 395–400
 - increased, TFSs 361–2
 - matrix, developing GVC-specific 391–5
 - and upgrading paths in GVCs 389–91
- technological capabilities approach, local firm-level learning 386–8
- technology strategy
 - explanation 340
 - incorporating in GVC analysis 349
 - and profiting from upgrading 343–6
- TFSs see transnational first-tier suppliers (TFSs)
- theories
 - actor–network 201
 - capturing value of GVCs for QMCS 93–6
 - comparative advantage 92–3
 - convention 124, 418–19
 - dependency 4–5, 6, 7, 572
 - governance 127–8, 321
 - GVC
 - of industrial governance 97
 - and institutional strategy 348
 - limits 126
 - and livelihood strategies 299, 307
 - power, contestation and activism in 201–3
 - labour, of value 176
 - move towards applied research 29–30
 - theoretical challenges of adding value to QMCS 93–6
- trade
 - concept of upgrading originating in 373
 - H-O factor abundance 92–3
 - linking globalization to income inequality 99
 - neoliberal 572
 - and potential gains from globalization 98
 - value 176–7
 - value-form 170, 175–9
 - world-systems 5, 7–8, 185, 187, 244, 340, 572
- thickening
 - in additive GVCs 559
 - domestic value 510
 - implications of GVC types on 514–15
- thin industrialization 343, 386, 461–2, 514
- thinning
 - implications of GVC types on 514–15
 - needed for productive sector policy 559
 - of production 157
 - value-added productive activities 510
- time compression 453–4, 460–461
- TiVA see trade in value-added (TiVA)
- trade
 - development policy 477
 - pattern of 113
 - in services 84, 88
 - value-added 105, 571
 - volume of 113
- trade in value-added (TiVA)
 - aggregation in database 260
 - capabilities of 29
 - as improvement over traditional trade
 - measures 580
 - indicators from international input–output datasets 78–81
 - value for QMCS 100–101
- trade liberalization 522–5
- trade policy
 - affecting domestic firms 486
 - dependency
 - downgrading cycles associated with 245
 - in labour-intensive GVCs 248–9
 - development 477
 - incentive structure facing firms 399
 - potential for state's regulatory role 561–2
 - and public regulation in GPNs 560
 - shaping amount and type of foreign investment 485
 - see also* international trade policy; investment and trade policy
- trade theories see theories: trade
- trade uncertainty, GVCs in era of 532–4
- 'transactions costs' approach 109–10
- transmission mechanisms
 - actors, arenas and actor constellations 131–2
 - as dimension of power 127

- direct and diffuse 127–8, 131–2, 359
 - in GVC and IB literatures 418–19
 - in typology of power 128, 129
 - in wine GVCs 133
- transnational corporations (TNCs)
 - asymmetries of power introduced by 572
 - GVCs governed by lead 512
 - media 138, 142–4, 148–9
 - power of, justifying strong state role 578–9
 - resource-extracting 165
 - in rise of GVC economy 571
 - state as facilitator 558
- transnational first-tier suppliers (TFSSs)
 - in apparel industry 354–6
 - power in GVCs 359–64
 - in automotive industry 354–6
 - power in GVCs 359–64
 - in electronics industry 354–6
 - power in GVCs 359–64
 - strategic mergers and acquisitions, examples 368–9
 - growth in responsibilities 360–361
 - GVC governance, supplier power and multipolarity 355–9, 364
 - increased technological, design and innovation capabilities 361–2
- Trump administration
 - attempts to restrict trade 167
 - steel tariffs and increased protectionism 561–2
 - trade uncertainty 532–3
- TV (television)
 - content chain 144–5
 - content production 138, 146, 149
 - definitions 139
 - value chain 145–6, 147, 149
- uneven development
 - commodity chains explaining reproduction of 185
 - and constitutive exclusion 193–4
 - disarticulations perspective 183, 190, 195, 244
 - examples challenging traditional conceptions of 192
 - geographical 185–6, 195, 244
 - and global production networks 194, 195
 - at heart of commodity chain analysis 183
 - intranational 192–3
 - problematic of 183–4, 240
 - process characterizing global capitalism 202
- UNIDO (United Nations Industrial Development Organization) 48, 50, 570, 574, 579, 580
- upgrading
 - comparison with supply chain theories 433
 - in cultural and creative industries 144–9
 - definition 510–511
 - GVC policies for 470–479
 - importance to higher value-added activities 510–511
 - and innovation in GVCs 373–4
 - local clusters 411
 - as local dimension of GVC analysis 61–4
 - orientations 2–3
 - profiting from, firm-level 343–6
 - skills for, policy priorities 474–5
 - and supply chain management 434–6
 - and technological capabilities in GVCs 389–91
 - types and definitions 61, 241, 434, 440–443
 - and value capture 188, 243, 296–7, 306, 343–4, 345
 - value chain, in Indonesian coffee sector 298–300
 - see also* chain upgrading; economic upgrading; environmental upgrading; functional upgrading; GVC upgrading; livelihood upgrading; process upgrading; product upgrading; social upgrading
- value
 - as ability to capture profits and rents 169, 170, 171
 - concept, slippery nature of 179
 - integration of scholarship and political economy theories 179–80
 - in work of GVCs
 - applied approaches 173–4
 - critical approaches to exploitation 174–5
 - neo-Ricardian approaches 171–3
 - overview 169–71
 - value-form theory and dynamic of global capital 175–9
- value added
 - domestic 483–4, 488, 490–491, 494, 496, 498
 - foreign 488, 490, 494, 496
 - gains 484, 491–2, 495–6
 - measurement 259
 - taxes 485
 - trade 105, 571
- value-adding activities
 - discrete ‘value chain’ 120
 - examples 143, 342
 - in global value chain model 31, 35
 - representing business functions 31
 - smile curve 64
 - tangible and intangible, focus on 55

- value capture
 - economic rents 329
 - firm-level 349
 - and geographical indications 304–5
 - global cocoa prices 544
 - in Hollywood 143
 - localized 165
 - low wages facilitating 335
 - for premium phone models 161
 - and relationship coffees 302
 - TNCs maintaining power via 144
 - and upgrading 188, 243, 296–7, 306, 343–4, 345
 - and women's contribution to value creation 330, 331
- value chains
 - and gains from globalization 92–3
 - governing 'glocal' 146–7
 - international development organizations in world of 579–80
 - promoting development of 577–8
 - upgrading in Indonesian coffee sector 300–305
- value chains for development (VCDs) 297, 307
- value-form theory 170, 175–9
- value theory 176–7
- Varieties of Capitalism (VoC) perspective 97
- VCDs see value chains for development (VCDs)
- vendor-managed inventory (VMI) 434–5, 438–9
- vertical specialization value chains (VSVCs)/ vertically specialized GVCs 509–10, 514, 515, 518
 - versus additive GVCs 245–7
 - thinning in 559
- Vietnam
 - in apparel supply chain 59
 - aquaculture 300, 380, 560
 - compliance programs 290
 - downgrading 300
 - footprint in apparel GVC 41
 - labour power 586
 - reliance on GVCs to drive economic development 453
- voluntary sustainability standards (VSSs) 303–4, 315
- waste and post-consumption 219–22
- wealth
 - in applied approaches to GVCs 173–4
 - in critical approaches to exploitation 174
 - and Marx's value theory 176
- welfare gains 113–14, 483–4
- wine GVC 131–5
- women
 - garment workers 203–4, 206, 279
 - and gender equality 333–4, 336
 - 'glass ceiling' 17, 326, 328, 335
 - in global production 326–8
 - in GVCs 324, 328–30
 - in International Development Goals 539
 - in retail 325–8, 335
 - social and economic upgrading and downgrading 188, 278, 331, 335
 - in South African fruit sector 332–3
 - working on Kenyan farms and packing houses 546
- work
 - connections to informality 586–7
 - formal and informal 586–7
 - gender perspectives in changing world of 587
- work conditions
 - activism 201, 203–4, 205, 206–7, 208, 209
 - and corporate social responsibility 290–293
 - economic vs social sustainability 235
 - economic vs social upgrading 296, 578
- workforce development 69–73
 - and GVC skills 471
 - initiatives in offshore services value chain 72
 - types of work in GVCs 71
 - typology of workforce composition across different GVCs 71
- World Bank
 - finding GVC framework useful 173
 - GVC uptake by 574–7
 - imposition of neoliberal reforms 573
 - as major international organization 49, 559
 - 'market-friendly' view of East Asian success 7
 - new partnership strategy emerging 579
- world-systems theory 5, 7–8, 185, 187, 244, 340, 572
- WTO (World Trade Organization)
 - close association with neoliberalism 578
 - creation of 521–2, 558, 573
 - finding GVC framework useful 173
 - flows of goods 529–30
 - as free, transparent, and nominally objective 81
 - GVC uptake 574–7
 - as major international organization 7, 559
 - public procurement 565
 - TiVA project 79–80, 260

