
Tables

3.1	Core commonalities of practice theories	34
3.2	Entrepreneurship as Practice (EaP) methodological framework	43
6.1	Functionalist, interpretive, critical and affirmative perspectives of entrepreneurship	105
6.2	Mystory captured in ten key moments, each placed in the context of three “events” within the three macro-discourses	126
9.1	Capturing processes in entrepreneurship	185
9.2	Comparing different data collection methods to capture process	187
10.1	Scientific social media/social learning media such as LoopMe compared to learning management systems such as Canvas and social media platforms such as Facebook	226
10.2	Comparison between three different methods (interviews, SSM and surveys are compared and contrasted across a number of key dimensions)	231
13.1	Stylized themes of practice theories and their links to the themes of socially situated cognition	289
14.1	Participating schools and researchers	321