
Index

- aberrant customer behaviors 295
- adventure images, user-generated
 - content 339
- advertising messages 264
- aggregated information 86–8
- agreeableness
 - behavioral customer engagement 231–2
 - cognitive customer engagement 231
 - definition of 231
 - emotional customer engagement 231
 - social customer engagement 232
- asset management, nonownership value 434
- audition research
 - illustrative exemplars of 135–6
 - pre-purchase stage 134, 137
 - purchase stage 137–8
 - summary of 138
 - touchpoints 134
- authenticity 278–80, 285
- autonomy 174

- Bastiat, Frederic 426
- Beatty, Sharon E. 2
- behavioral engagement 209
 - definition of 25
 - engagement-to-value (E2V) framework 22
 - transactional behavior 21
- Bolton, Ruth 2
- brand co-creation campaigns 333–4
- brand community engagement 444–7
- brand engagement
 - advertising messages 264
 - conceptual work on customer engagement 121
 - vs. conventional branding 262–4
 - experiencing branding 263
 - experiential engagement 263–4
 - likes of 262
 - simplicity 263
- brand equity 260
- brand meaning co-creation 333–4
- brand-owned touchpoints 126
- brand-related behaviors 79
- brand strength performance evaluation 265–6
- brand value framework 266
- brand value information 267
- business customer engagement 399
- business decision-makers 62
- business-to-business (B2B) firm vs. business-to-customer (B2C) firm 9

- Calder, Bobby J. 2
- canonical trajectories 380
- CE see customer engagement
- CEB see customer engagement behavior
- cell comparisons 364–5
- CEM see customer engagement marketing
- Channel Partner Programs (CPPs) 11, 12
 - diagnosing longitudinal value of 24–5
 - engagement-to-value (E2V) 11
 - recommendations for management of 33–4
 - return on investment 12
- characters 206–7, 213–14
- circular economy
 - enabled by technology
 - engagement platforms 107
 - Internet of Anything (IoA) platforms 109
 - Internet of Everything (IoE) platforms 108
 - Internet of Humans (IoH) platforms 107–8
 - Internet of Things (IoT) platforms 108
 - overview of 107
 - engagement challenges
 - benefits 102
 - in literature 101

- opportunities and challenges
 - 100–102
 - principles in 99–100
- engagement framework for
 - transition 98
- managerial implications 110–11
- multi-actor networks
 - encouragement processes 102–4
 - overview of 102
 - socialization processes 104–5
 - support processes 106–7
- research implications 109–10
- restorative economic model 99
- value co-creation 102
- circular economy model 16
- Circular Economy Promotion Law 104
- Circular Lightning 101
- clicks on cells factor 365–6
- clickstream data 363
- co-created value
 - efficiency value 482
 - emotional value 481
 - functional value 480
 - self-determination value 482
 - social value 481
 - transactional value 480
- cocreation assets 433–4
- cocreation process
 - customer engagement activities 41
 - foundational processes 41
 - outcomes 41, 44
 - strategies 13, 14
- cognitive absorption dimensions 177
- cognitive engagement 208–9
- community engagement 394
 - brand 444–7
 - customer consultation 448–9
 - customer information 447–8
 - customer participation 449–50
 - implications 450–52
 - relational and instrumentalist
 - elements of 446
 - typology of 447
- community moderation 69
- competition affordance 46
- computer process tracing (CPT) 363–4
- conscientiousness
 - behavioral customer engagement 235
 - cognitive customer engagement
 - 234–5
 - definition of 234
 - emotional customer engagement 235
 - social customer engagement 235–6
- consumer behavior, storytelling on
 - 206–8
- consumer brand engagement (CBE)
 - behavioral engagement 209
 - cognitive engagement 208–9
 - definition of 204
 - emotional engagement 209
 - future research 217–19
 - overview of 204–5
 - story-based
 - case study 219
 - characters 213–14
 - conceptual model 211
 - framework 210
 - iterative and interactive
 - phenomenon 216, 217
 - process 215–17
 - story plot 210, 212–13
 - verisimilitude 214–15
- consumer engagement
 - literature review 225–6
 - S-D logic-informed perspective
 - interactive hallmark 226
 - investment of operand/operand
 - resources 225
 - motivational nature 225–6
 - traditional branding 264–5
- consumer-to-consumer (c2c)
 - communication 402
- consumer value, types of 396–7
- consuming behavior 77
- consumptive customer engagement
 - behavior
 - definition of 186–7
 - limitations and conclusion 199–200
 - managerial implications 199
 - seemingly unrelated regressions
 - 194–6
 - in social media 188–9
 - theoretical implications 197–9
- Contiki brand visual analysis, user-generated content
 - advertisement images 339
 - cultural experience images 339–40
 - description of images 335
 - friendship images 340
 - genre images 339

- global exploration images 340
- medium used for images 338
- overview of 334–5
- style images 338–9
- subject matter in images 335–8
- travel images 347–57
- contributing behavior 77–8
- conventional branding 262–4
- CPPs see Channel Partner Programs
- CPT see computer process tracing
- creating behavior 78
- cultural experience images, user-generated content 339–40
- customer aggression and violence 295–6
- customer anger 296
- customer care units 62
- customer-centric constructs 9
- customer-centric philosophy 12
- customer consultation 448–9
- customer engagement (CE)
 - concept of 4
 - definition of 4
 - digitalization 14–15
 - direct/indirect contribution 4
 - examples of 7–8
 - future research areas 17–18
 - gamification
 - conceptual development 167, 170–71
 - conceptual framework 171–2
 - effectiveness of 165
 - engagement platforms 164–5
 - gameful experience 176–8
 - list of definitions 168–9
 - motivational affordances 172–6
 - optimistic perspective 166
 - outcomes 178–80
 - process 171–2
 - iterative process-based model of 13
 - marketing literature 471–2
 - in marketing practice 5–10
 - negatively valenced see negatively valenced customer engagement
 - positively valenced see positively valenced customer engagement
 - recommendations for research 32–3
 - strategy models
 - authenticity 278–80
 - comparative study of 275
- customer-owned resource
 - investments 281
- design elements, task-based
 - engagement 282–6
- dialogue 276–7
- employee empowerment 274
- employee engagement 274, 276
- facilitation 277–8
- indicative matrix applications 286–8
- psychological availability 281–2
- reflexivity 280
- risk assessment 282
- customer engagement behavior (CEB)
 - consumptive see consumptive customer engagement behavior
 - definition of 405
 - online customer reviews 12, 15
 - productive see productive customer engagement behavior
- customer engagement marketing (CEM)
 - antecedents and consequences of 42
 - cognitive, emotional, social, and behavioral activities 43
 - definitions of 39
 - experiential 392
 - failure rate of gamification 35–6
 - gamification
 - characteristics 45
 - competition affordance 46
 - customer side 46
 - definition of 44–5
 - design and insights from service design theory 46–9
 - firm side 45–6
 - overview of 44
 - reward affordance 45
 - self-expression affordance 46
 - status affordance 46
 - value constellation 47–8
 - graphical overview of 38
 - iterative multi-stage process
 - CE activities, cocreation process 41
 - cocreation outcomes 41, 44
 - foundational processes, cocreation process 41
 - overview of 37–8, 40
 - macro-level model 37

- notion of 35
- research objectives 36–7, 49–50
- strategies
 - co-creation process 13
 - traditional/non-traditional platforms for 11
- task-based 392
- task vs. experiential focus 272–3
- customer engagement research
 - academic research thrives 117–18
 - deeper conceptualizations 118–19
 - dotcom revolution 118
 - emerging topics 121–3
 - digital environment 122
 - physical environment 122
 - social environment 122
 - empirical work, conceptual work 119–20
 - managerial questions 116
 - origins of 115–16
 - related constructs 120–21
- customer equity 298
- customer experience (CX)
 - conceptualization of customer engagement 121
 - definition of 126, 318
 - post-purchase stage 127
 - pre-purchase stage 126
 - purchase stage 126
 - value-experience-satisfaction-emotional attachment chain 318–19
- customer influencer value 299
- customer information 447–8
- customer knowledge sharing 41, 431–2
- customer knowledge value 299–300
- customer learning 41, 432–3
- customer lifetime value 298–9
- customer orientation 301
- customer-owned resource investments 281
- customer participation 449–50
- customer-perceived organizational reputation 301
- customer rage 296–7
- customer referral value 299
- customer relationship constructs 44
- customer relationship management (CRM)
 - background literature 442
 - momentum of 442
 - customer resource integration 13
 - definition of 41, 428–9
 - intellectual service capital 430–31
 - market-driven economic theories 429–30
 - physical service capital 430
 - social service capital 431
 - customer retaliation and revenge 296
 - customer review ecosystem
 - definition of 12
 - online reviews 16, 80, 81–2
 - qualitative features 82
 - quantitative features 82
 - customer side gamification 46
 - customers' investment of resources
 - extrinsic motivations 173–4
 - intrinsic motivations 173–5
 - customer socialization theory 460
 - customer value 297–8, 318
 - customer-value creation 314
 - CX see customer experience
- data acquisition Web site engagement
 - clickstream data 363
 - computer process tracing 363–4
 - elementary information processes 363
 - organizational performance 364
 - overview of 362–3
 - tracing navigation behavior 367
- data analysis, Web site engagement 368–9
- description of images, user-generated content 335
- design thinking
 - definition of 56
 - innovation process 56
 - longitudinal approach
 - building blocks of 59–61
 - identifying customer's job and service concept 59, 62–6
 - measuring post-implementation success 71–2
 - validating service concept 66–71
 - online communities 56
 - overview of 55–6
 - Telenor Group, case study 58–9
 - theoretical approach 57–8

- deviant customer behaviors 295
- dialogue, CEM strategies 276–7
- digital environment, customer engagement research 122
- digitalization 14–15
- dimension of control and curiosity 177
- direct aggression 295
- direct contribution 4
- direct customer engagement 4–5
- discriminant analysis 29
- dysfunctional customer behaviors 295

- E2V see engagement-to-value
- efficiency value 482
- EIPs see elementary information processes
- elaboration continuum 407
- Elaboration Likelihood Model 81
- electronic-WOM (e-WOM) 78
- elementary information processes (EIPs) 363
- emotional engagement 209
- emotional reassurance 484
- emotional stability
 - behavioral customer engagement 236–7
 - cognitive customer engagement 236
 - definition of 236
 - emotional customer engagement 236
 - social customer engagement 237
- emotional value 481
- employee empowerment 274
- employee engagement 274, 276
- employee interaction competence 461–2
- encouragement processes, circular economy 102–4
- engagement platforms
 - definition of 107
 - gamification 164–5
 - technology-enabled platforms
 - Internet of Anything 109
 - Internet of Everything 108
 - Internet of Humans 107–8
 - Internet of Things 108
- engagement proclivity 398
- engagement style of technological actor
 - connections 252–3
 - definition of 251
 - holistic perspective on technology 251–3
 - managerial implications 255–6
 - psychological state 251–2
 - relational connections 252, 253
 - temporal connections 252, 253
- engagement-to-value (E2V)
 - behavioral engagement 21–2
 - in CPPs 11, 20–21
 - empirical case study 12–13, 20–34
 - four-step framework
 - diagnosing longitudinal value of CPP 24–5
 - discriminant analysis 29
 - empirical case 23–4
 - identification 25–7
 - overview of 22–3
 - propensity matching analysis 30–32
 - strategies 30–32
 - three-dimensional engagement 27–30
 - promises and problems of 20–21
 - engagement value 297–300
- entertainment 187, 191, 199
- ex ante orientation 380
- experiential customer engagement marketing 392
- experiential engagement 177–8
 - brand engagement 263–4
 - task-based engagement 272–3
- ex post orientation 380
- external researchers 62
- extraversion/introversion
 - behavioral customer engagement 230
 - cognitive customer engagement 228, 230
 - definition of 228
 - emotional customer engagement 230
 - research propositions 229
 - social customer engagement 230
- extrinsic motivations 173–4
- eye-minded hypothesis 410

- facilitation, CEM strategies 277–8, 285
- firm-customer relationship 6, 10–11
- firm orientation 317–18
- firm side gamification 45–6
- flawed linear model 16
- focused immersion 177

- food sampling 148
- four-step framework, E2V
 - diagnosing longitudinal value of CPP 24–5
- discriminant analysis 29
- empirical case 23–4
- identification 25–7
- overview of 22–3
- propensity matching analysis 30–32
- strategies 30–32
- three-dimensional engagement 27–30
- friendship images, user-generated content 340
- functional value 480
- game-related psychology 174
- gamification
 - consequences 175
 - customer engagement
 - conceptual development 167, 170–71
 - conceptual framework 171–2
 - customer-centered perspectives 166, 170
 - effectiveness of 165
 - engagement platforms 164–5
 - gameful experience 176–8
 - list of definitions 168–9
 - motivational affordances 172–6
 - optimistic perspective 166
 - outcomes 178–80
 - process 171–2
 - customer engagement marketing
 - characteristics 45
 - competition affordance 46
 - customer side 46
 - definition of 44–5
 - design and insights from service design theory 46–9
 - firm side 45–6
 - overview of 44
 - reward affordance 45
 - self-expression affordance 46
 - status affordance 46
 - value constellation 47–8
 - customer resource integration 13
 - customers' investment of resources
 - extrinsic motivations 173–4
 - intrinsic motivations 173–5
 - description of 13
 - design principles 14
 - reward-based 173–4
- genre images, user-generated content 339
- Global Customer Engagement 10
- global exploration images, user-generated content 340
- Google analytics 360
- haptic metaphors 146
- HCE see health consumer engagement
- health consumer engagement (HCE)
 - co-medical data provider and collaborator
 - co-create value 480–82
 - medical self-photography 477–80
 - patient engagement and empowerment 482–3
 - definition of 396, 474
 - extended framework of 478
 - outcomes
 - cognitive 484–5
 - emotional reassurance 484
 - health-related behaviours 485
 - physiological 483–4
 - research studies 476–7
 - value co-creation 474–5
 - health-related behaviours 485
- Heuristic Systematic Model 81
- historic trajectories 380
- holistic perspective on technological actors
 - engagement
 - connections 252–3
 - definition of 251
 - managerial implications 255–6
 - psychological state 251–2
 - relational connections 252, 253
 - temporal connections 252, 253
 - managerial implications 254–6
 - overview of 245–6
 - practices
 - array of activities 248
 - managerial implications 254–5
 - micro-level perspective 246
 - non-regularized actions 248
 - service ecosystem perspective 247, 250

- taking selfies 247–8
- traditional service research
 - literature 249
- service systems
 - literature review 253–4
 - macro-level level perspective 253
 - managerial implications 254–5
- hypothesis development, majority/
 - minority research
- on customer satisfaction 408–10
 - discussion 416
 - measurement 413
 - moderating effects of customer
 - engagement 410–11
 - participants and procedure 412
 - results 413–15
- in-depth interviews 62, 66–7
- indirect contribution 4, 6
- indirect customer engagement 5
- informational sharing 459–61
- informativeness 187, 190, 199
- in-store retail customer experience
 - audition research
 - illustrative exemplars of 135–6
 - pre-purchase stage 134, 137
 - purchase stage 137–8
 - summary of 138
 - touchpoints 134
 - multisensory research
 - illustrative exemplars of 153–5
 - perception 152
 - pre-purchase stage 152, 156
 - purchase stage 156
 - summary of 156–7
 - olfaction research
 - illustrative exemplars of 140–41
 - main streams 138–9
 - pre-purchase stage 139
 - purchase stage 139, 142
 - summary of 142–3
 - organizing framework 127–8
 - post-purchase stage 127
 - pre-purchase stage 126
 - purchase stage 126
 - sensory components 127
 - taste research
 - distinguishing taste 148
 - illustrative exemplars of 149–50
 - pre-purchase stage 148, 151
 - purchase stage 151
 - summary of 151
 - touch research
 - consequences and advantages 143
 - illustrative exemplars of 144–5
 - pre-purchase stage 143, 146
 - purchase stage 146–7
 - summary of 147
 - vision research
 - illustrative exemplars of 129–31
 - pre-purchase stage 128, 132
 - purchase stage 132–3
 - summary of 133
 - touchpoints 128
- intellectual service capital 394, 430–31
- interactional justice 459–61
- interaction orientation 317
- Internet of Anything (IoA) platforms 109
- Internet of Everything (IoE) platforms 108
- Internet of Humans (IoH) platforms 107–8
- Internet of Things (IoT) platforms 108, 426
- intrinsic enjoyment 177
- intrinsic motivations 173–5
- introversion see extraversion/
 - introversion
- iterative multi-stage process
 - cocreation process
 - customer engagement activities 41
 - foundational processes 41
 - outcomes 41, 44
 - overview of 37–8, 40
- iterative process-based model 13
- jay-customer behaviors 295
- JIM see Journal of Interactive
 - Marketing
- Job-To-Be-Done (JTBD) theory
 - longitudinal design thinking
 - approach 12, 14
 - building blocks of 59–61
 - identifying customer's job and
 - service concept 62–6
 - measuring post-implementation
 - success 71–2
 - validating service concept 66–71

- Journal of Interactive Marketing (JIM) 119–20
- Journal of Service Research (JSR) 117
- JSR see Journal of Service Research
- Krafft, Manfred 117
- Kumar, V. 1
- linear economic model of “take-make-waste” 16
- linear economy
 ‘take-make-dispose’ model 97, 100
 ‘take-make-dispose’ principle 97
- locus of control 15
- longitudinal design thinking approach
 building blocks of 59–61
 identifying customer’s job and service concept discover and defining jobs 62–4 ideate solutions and prototypes 64–5 service designers 62
 strategic decisions 65–6 measuring post-implementation success 71–2
 validating service concept 66–71
- longitudinal engagement-to-value matched sample 27
 whole population of resellers 26
- lower engagement 78
- loyal customers 6, 7
- macro-level customer engagement marketing model 37
- majority default position 407
- majority/minority research contextual impact 407–8 guiding principles 406–7 hypothesis development on customer satisfaction 408–10
 discussion 416
 measurement 413
 moderating effects of customer engagement 410–11 participants and procedure 412
 results 413–15
- managerial implications
 consumers’ processing of online reviews 416–17 online information presentation 417
 source-context-elaboration (SCE) model 406 theoretical background 404–5
 theoretical implications 418 underlying processes 406–7
 market-driven economic theories 429–30
- marketer-generated content (MGC)
 description of 186
 entertainment 187, 191, 199
 informativeness 187, 199
 limitations and conclusion 199–200
 managerial implications 199
 measures of 193–4
 overview of 189–90
 persuasiveness 187, 191–2, 199
 seemingly unrelated regressions 196
 theoretical implications 198
- marketing practice
 B2B firm vs. B2C firm 9
 customer-centric constructs 9
 firm-customer relationship 6
 Hofstede’s cultural dimensions and country-level economic factors 10
 loyal customers 6, 7
 new customers 7
 re-acquired customers 8
 referral programs 6 regular customers 7
 in service firms 9
 service industry 9
 view points of 5–6
- Marketing Science Institute (MSI) 115–16
- mastery-related motivations 174
- medical self-photography 475–6, 477–80
- medium used for images, user-generated content 338
- MGC see marketer-generated content
- minority behavioral style threshold 407
- moderators of reviews’ outcomes 88–90
- motivational affordances 172–6
- MSI see Marketing Science Institute
- multi-actor networks, circular economy encouragement processes 102–4

- overview of 102
- socialization processes 104–5
- support processes 106–7
- multisensory research
 - illustrative exemplars of 153–5
 - perception 152
 - pre-purchase stage 152, 156
 - purchase stage 156
 - summary of 156–7
- natural resources 99
- negative externalities 100
- negatively valenced customer
 - engagement (NVCE)
 - conceptual framework 303
 - consequences of 297
 - customer aggression and violence 295–6
 - customer rage 296–7
 - customer retaliation and revenge 296
 - definition of 295
 - dysfunctional customer behaviors 295
 - engagement value 297–300
 - multidimensional concept 292
 - organizational performance 302
 - organizational reputation 300–302
 - unidimensional concept 292
- network theory 443–4
- new customers 7
- nonownership
 - customer engagement research 424
 - definition of 423
 - economics of propositions 425–7
 - economic theory 424
 - engagement processes 427–8
 - examples for 423–4
 - foundational engagement processes
 - customer knowledge sharing 431–2
 - customer learning 432–3
 - customer resource integration 428–31
 - managerial implications
 - realizing nonownership value 436
 - smart specialization 436–7
 - terms with uncertainty 435–6
 - research opportunities
 - asset management 434
 - cocreation assets 433–4
 - trust as key 435
- NVCE see negatively valenced customer engagement
- olfaction research
 - illustrative exemplars of 140–41
 - main streams 138–9
 - pre-purchase stage 139
 - purchase stage 139, 142
 - summary of 142–3
- online information, presentation of 417
- online reviews
 - consumers' processing of 416–17
 - customer review ecosystem 15–16, 80, 81–2
 - qualitative features 82
 - quantitative features 82
 - description of 15
 - as expressions of customer engagement 77–80
 - brand-related behaviors 79
 - consuming behavior 77
 - contributing behavior 77–8
 - creating behavior 78
 - electronic-WOM 78
 - service systems concept 79
 - word-of-mouth 78
 - future research of 90–91
 - overview of 76–7
 - predictors of outcomes
 - aggregated information 86–8
 - moderators of reviews' outcomes 88–90
 - reviewer factors 85–6
 - review factors 82–5
- online service recovery
 - conceptual model 463
 - employee interaction competence 461–2
 - implications 463–4
 - informational sharing 459–61
 - interactional justice 459–61
- openness to experience
 - behavioral customer engagement 233–4
 - cognitive customer engagement 233
 - definition of 232–3

- emotional customer engagement 233
- social customer engagement 234
- operand resources 175
- operant resources 175
- organizational performance
 - brand engagement vs. conventional branding 262–4
 - brand equity 260
 - brands 261–2
 - brand strength performance evaluation 265–6
 - brand value framework 266
 - control of 261
 - data acquisition 364
 - economic value 266–8
 - future developments 268–9
 - Integrated Reporting (IR) effort 267
 - negatively valenced customer engagement 300–302
 - overview of 259–60
 - positively valenced customer engagement 300–302
 - service-dominant (S-D) logic perspective 319–21
 - valuation methods 261
- organizational reputation
 - customer-perceived organizational reputation 301
 - negatively valenced customer engagement 300–302
 - positively valenced customer engagement 300–302
- participant trajectories 380
- partner engagement 399
- patient engagement (PE) 472–4
- patient-generated health data (PGHD) 396
- PE see patient engagement
- personality
 - Big Five framework 224–5
 - literature review 226–7
 - overview of 224–5
- personality-based consumer engagement styles
 - agreeableness
 - behavioral customer engagement 231–2
 - cognitive customer engagement 231
- definition of 231
- emotional customer engagement 231
- social customer engagement 232
- conscientiousness
 - behavioral customer engagement 235
 - cognitive customer engagement 234–5
 - definition of 234
 - emotional customer engagement 235
 - social customer engagement 235–6
- emotional stability
 - behavioral customer engagement 236–7
 - cognitive customer engagement 236
 - definition of 236
 - emotional customer engagement 236
 - social customer engagement 237
- extraversion/introversion
 - behavioral customer engagement 230
 - cognitive customer engagement 228, 230
 - definition of 228
 - emotional customer engagement 230
 - research propositions 229
 - social customer engagement 230
- future research implications 237–8
- openness to experience
 - behavioral customer engagement 233–4
 - cognitive customer engagement 233
 - definition of 232–3
 - emotional customer engagement 233
 - social customer engagement 234
- overview of 227–8
- persuasiveness 187, 191–2, 199
- PGHD see patient-generated health data
- physical aggression 295
- physical environment, customer engagement research 122
- physical service capital 394, 430

- positively valenced customer
 - engagement (PVCE)
 - conceptual framework 303
 - consequences of 294–5
 - definition of 293–4
 - engagement value 297–300
 - organizational performance 302
 - organizational reputation 300–302
 - unidimensional concept 291–2
- post-implementation success, design thinking 71–2
- practice style of technological actor
 - array of activities 248
 - holistic perspective on technology 246–51
 - managerial implications 254–5
 - micro-level perspective 246
 - non-regularized actions 248
 - service ecosystem perspective 247, 250
 - taking selfies 247–8
 - traditional service research literature 249
- predictors of online reviews
 - aggregated information 86–8
 - moderators of reviews' outcomes 88–90
 - reviewer factors 85–6
 - review factors 82–5
- productive customer engagement
 - behavior
 - definition of 186–7
 - limitations and conclusion 199–200
 - managerial implications 199
 - seemingly unrelated regressions 194–6
 - in social media 188–9
 - theoretical implications 197–9
- propensity matching analysis 30–32
- prototypes 58, 64–5
- psychological availability 281–2
- psychological state of engagement 251–2
- purpose-related motivations 174
- PVCE see positively valenced customer engagement
- re-acquired customers 8
- referral programs 6
- reflexivity 280
- regular customers 7
- Reinartz, Werner 117
- relatedness 174
- relational capital 394
- relational community engagement 446
- relational connections 252, 253
- relationship marketing (RM) 317
- reviewer factors 85–6
- review factors 82–5
- reward affordance 45
- reward-based gamification 173–4
- risk
 - assessment 282
 - definition of 282
- RM see relationship marketing
- seemingly unrelated regressions (SUR) 194–6
- self-advocacy 484
- self-confidence 484
- self-determination value 482
- self-expression affordance 46
- semi-structured interviews 62
- service capital 394
 - intellectual 430–31
 - physical 430
 - social 431
- service designers 62
- service-dominant (S-D) logic-informed perspective
 - consumer engagement
 - interactive hallmark 226
 - investment of operant/operand resources 225
 - motivational nature 225–6
- service-dominant (S-D) logic perspective
 - conceptual model
 - customer engagement and organizational performance 319–21
 - firm orientation 317–18
 - value-satisfaction-behavioral intention chain 318–19
 - future research 321–3
 - institutional arrangements 458–9
 - overview of 311–13
 - temporality in service innovation 378–9
 - value cocreation 313–15, 458

- service-dominant (S-D) orientation 318
- service-dominant (S-D) theory logic
 - 13, 16
- service ecosystem perspective 474–5
- service firms, marketing practice 9
- service industry, marketing practice 9
- service platform 381–3
- service systems 459
- service systems concept 79
- service systems style of technological actor
 - holistic perspective on technology 253–4
 - literature review 253–4
 - macro-level level perspective 253
 - managerial implications 254–5
- simulated test market (STM) 265–6
- situated learning 179
- smart specialization 436–7
- Smith, Adam 426
- social environment, customer engagement research 122
- social gameplay 178
- socialization processes, circular economy 104–5
- social level brand community engagement 445
- social media marketing
 - consumptive customer engagement behavior
 - definition of 186–7
 - limitations and conclusion 199–200
 - managerial implications 199
 - seemingly unrelated regressions 194–6
 - in social media 188–9
 - theoretical implications 197–9
 - marketer-generated content
 - entertainment 187, 191
 - informativeness 187, 190
 - limitations and conclusion 199–200
 - managerial implications 199
 - measures of 193–4
 - overview of 189–90
 - persuasiveness 187, 191–2
 - seemingly unrelated regressions 196
 - theoretical implications 198
 - productive customer engagement behavior
 - definition of 186–7
 - limitations and conclusion 199–200
 - managerial implications 199
 - seemingly unrelated regressions 194–6
 - in social media 188–9
 - theoretical implications 197–9
- social service capital 394, 431
- social value 481
- source-context-elaboration (SCE) model 406
- spotlight analysis 414
- status affordance 46
- STM see simulated test market
- story-based consumer brand engagement
 - case study 219
 - characters 206–7, 213–14
 - conceptual model 211
 - framework 210
 - iterative and interactive phenomenon 216, 217
 - process 215–17
 - story plot 206, 210, 212–13
 - verisimilitude 207, 214–15
- storyboarding 62–3
- story plot 206, 210, 212–13
- storytelling
 - on consumer behavior 206–8
 - fundamental elements 206
- style images, user-generated content 338–9
- subject matter in images, user-generated content 335–8
- supplier value-creation process 314
- support processes, circular economy 106–7
- SUR see seemingly unrelated regressions
- sustainable development 16
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) 104
- tactile contamination 147
- ‘take-make-dispose’ model 97, 100
- ‘take-make-dispose’ principle 97

- task-based customer engagement
 - marketing 392
- task-based engagement
 - design elements for 282–6
 - experiential engagement vs. 272–3
- taste research
 - distinguishing taste 148
 - illustrative exemplars of 149–50
 - pre-purchase stage 148, 151
 - purchase stage 151
 - summary of 151
- technology-enabled platforms
 - Internet of Anything 109
 - Internet of Everything 108
 - Internet of Humans 107–8
 - Internet of Things 108
- Telenor Group 58–9
- temporal connections 252, 253
- temporality in service innovation
 - managerial implications 388
 - overview of 376–7
 - service platform 381–3
 - temporal orientation 379–81
 - generic process of service development 379
 - trajectory framework 380
 - theoretical perspectives 387–8
 - three-way interface, S-D Logic, customer engagement and service innovation 378–9
 - value cocreation 384–6
- temporal orientation
 - generic process of service development 379
 - trajectory framework 380
- three-dimensional engagement 27–30
- time distortion 177
- total absorption 177
- touchpoints
 - audition research 134
 - vision research 128
- touch research
 - consequences and advantages 143
 - illustrative exemplars of 144–5
 - pre-purchase stage 143, 146
 - purchase stage 146–7
 - summary of 147
- transactional value 480
- transportation-imagery model 210
- trust, nonownership 435
- UGB see User-Generated Branding
- uncertainty sharing, engagement
 - processes
 - customer knowledge sharing 431–2
 - customer learning 432–3
 - customer resource integration 428–31
- untransformed model variables 195
- User-Generated Branding (UGB) 329–30
- user-generated content
 - brand co-creation campaigns 333–4
 - brand meaning co-creation 333–4
 - empirical studies 332
 - experimental studies 332–3
 - firm performance 331–3
 - longitudinal studies 332
 - overview of 329–31
 - prominence and impact of 331–3
 - visual analysis for Contiki brand
 - adventure images 339
 - cultural experience images 339–40
 - description of images 335
 - friendship images 340
 - genre images 339
 - global exploration images 340
 - medium used for images 338
 - overview of 334–5
 - style images 338–9
 - subject matter in images 335–8
 - travel images 347–57
- validating service concept, design thinking 66–71
- value cocreation (VCC) 102
 - in healthcare 474–5
 - S-D logic 458
 - service-dominant (S-D) logic perspective 313–15
 - temporality in service innovation 384–6
- value constellation 47–8
- value fusion 398
- value-satisfaction-behavioral intention chain 318–19
- VCC see value cocreation
- verbal/psychological aggression 295
- verisimilitude 207, 214–15
- vision research
 - illustrative exemplars of 129–31

- pre-purchase stage 128, 132
- purchase stage 132–3
- summary of 133
- touchpoints 128
- visual analysis of Contiki brand see
 - Contiki brand visual analysis,
 - user-generated content
- visual self-service 64–5

- Watts, James 426
- Web marketing research 359–60
- Web site engagement
 - data acquisition
 - clickstream data 363
 - computer process tracing 363–4
 - elementary information processes 363
 - organizational performance 364
 - overview of 362–3
 - tracing navigation behavior 367
 - data analysis of 368–9
 - definition of 360–61
 - dimensions
 - challenges 361
 - curiosity 361–2
 - focused attention 361
 - involvement 362
 - positive effect 361
 - discussion of 369–70
 - integrative data acquisition Web site 366–8
 - limitations and recommendations 372–3
 - overview of 358–9
 - research objectives and hypotheses
 - cell comparisons 364–5
 - clicks on cells 365–6
 - impression and clickstream variables vs. 364
 - survey for measuring 372
 - theory and practitioners implications
 - commercial products vs. e-commerce Web page 371
 - instrument for assessment 371
 - non-clicked sites 371
 - online marketing companies 371
 - site performance with clickstream and impressions 370
 - visual representation of 362
- word-of-mouth (WOM)
 - definition of 78
 - electronic 78