

Index

- abusive clauses 130
- acceptance 16
 - smart contracts 123, 127–8, 140
- access, right of 292, 294
- accuracy 290
- acquisition cost principle 321–2
- act of management (money laundering) 227, 229
- actors
 - quotations and the ‘Economies of Worth’ framework 33–8
 - Swiss blockchain industry 26, 27–31
- advertisement-based distribution model 263
- Affero license 257
- Airbnb 244
- Airbus 23
- airdrops 124
- Algeria 10
- algorithms 50–51, 52
- altcoins (alternative cryptocurrency coins) 3, 4, 304–5
- anger 16
- announcements, simple 125–7
- anonymity 54, 85, 132
 - criminal law and 217
- anonymisation 279–81, 282
- Anti-Money Laundering Act (AMLA) 147, 151, 157, 166–9, 174, 183, 216
 - issuance of payment tokens 160
 - platforms trading bitcoins 228
 - requirements to be observed 169
 - scope of application 167–8
- antitrust rules 98
- Antonopoulos, A. 21, 22, 34–5, 39–40
- Apple 8
- application tokens 306
- Arrigoni, B. 46
- asset management 153, 179–83
 - collective investment schemes 179–82
- asset managers 182–3
- asset tokens 102–3, 308
 - holding and double tax treaties 345
 - Swiss financial regulation 154–6, 157
 - deposit and safekeeping 174
 - exchange platforms for 177–8
 - issuance 161–5
 - trading 178–9
- assets
 - co-mingling of 139
 - cryptocurrency as financial assets 219–21
 - data representing 107
 - digital 210–12
 - income from immovable assets 314
 - movable see movable assets
 - origin of and money laundering 225–6
 - private 339–40
 - qualification of in the blockchain 152, 153–7
- Australia 11
 - Standards Australia 95–6
- Australian Taxation Office 310, 312
- Austrian tax authorities 310–11, 313

- authenticated electronic signatures 133–4
- authentication 55
- Automatic Exchange of Information (AEOI) 325–33
 - banks' perspective 333
 - digital wallets as 'financial institutions' 331–2
 - qualification of virtual currency 328–9
 - scope of the AEOI Standard 326–8
 - geographical 326–7
 - material 327
 - personal 327–8
 - virtual platforms as 'financial institutions' 329–30
- automatic tool for translating between plain language and computer code 116
- bank failures 202
 - mechanisms for protection of certain claimants 204–6
- banking/banks 185–6, 214
 - banks' perspective on treatment of cryptocurrency for purposes of AEOI 333
 - storage of bitcoin wallet data and 198
 - typical features of banking activity 191–5
 - deposits of movable things 192, 194–5
 - public deposits 191–4
- Banking Act 151, 190, 199
- banking licence 170–74
- Banking Ordinance 42, 43, 170–71, 175, 176, 214
- banking secrecy law 46–7
- bankruptcy 199–214
 - applicable rules when establishing the bankruptcy estate 202–4
 - mechanisms for protecting certain claimants 204–6
 - notion of seizable assets 199–202
 - seizure and recovery of bitcoins, and protecting owners 207–14
- Barrai, P. 41, 46
- being active in the financial sector 191
- beneficial owner, verification of identity of 227, 229–31
- binding offer 125–7
- bitcoin 3, 4, 19, 50, 104, 215–16
 - advantages of bitcoin payments 53
 - capitalisation 8
 - characteristics of the bitcoin system and bitcoin 207–8
 - as a claim 212–14
 - copyright protection 208
 - criminal law and see criminal law
 - as a digital asset 210–12
 - disruptive potential 21–6
 - ideological roots 21–2
 - MIT license 255–6
 - as a physical thing 208–10
 - protection and criminal law 231–3
 - protection of owners see bitcoin owner protection
 - qualification of 154, 155–6
 - revolutionary stages 16
 - seizure of 207–14, 237–8
 - trademark protection 260–61
- bitcoin address see public keys
- Bitcoin Association Switzerland (BAS) 28
- bitcoin cash (bitcoin gold) 260
- bitcoin client 189
- bitcoin owner protection 185–214
 - applications of principles to bitcoin storage and trading 196–9
 - bitcoin as a seizable asset 199–214
 - need for authorisation to store bitcoin wallet data 190–96
 - seizure and recovery 207–14

- technical aspects of acquisition, storage and trading 187–90
- Bitcoin Suisse 33–4
- bitcoin transaction service providers 189, 190
 - activity of 196–9
 - bitcoin as a claim 212–14
 - money laundering 228–31
- blockchain clusters 44–7
- ‘blockchain, not bitcoin’ attitude 38–41
- blockchains 1–17, 50–56, 83–6
 - applications 54–6
 - central properties 23, 24
 - challenges 7–16
 - environmental 11–14
 - governance 14–16
 - regulatory 8–11
 - development of blockchain solutions by financial service companies 39
 - disruptive potential 21–6
 - five principles underlying the technology 90–91
 - fundamental concepts 103–5
 - key features 274–7
 - participants and structures 277
 - user–blockchain interaction 274–5
 - need for proper structuring 297–8
 - opportunities 3–7
 - as a payment system 51–4
 - philosophy behind 242–7
 - different philosophical approaches 245–7
- BlockchainyourIP 283
- blocking of innovation 249–50
- blocks 276–7, 303
- Boltanski, L. 33
- Breyer* case 278–9, 282
- bugs, computer 118–19, 121–2
- business assets 339
- business profits 344
- Canada 10
- capital gains
 - non-realised 318–19, 321–2
 - sales and purchases of tokens 334–5, 339–40
 - double tax treaties 346
- central master administrator 295
- central securities depositories (CSDs) 174
- centralised systems 244
- certificated securities 161–3
- certification 55
- certification marks 269
- Chiasso 46
- China 9, 11
- choice of court agreements 76–8
- choice of law 70–71
 - private international law and blockchain transactions 78–81
 - smart contracts 68
- Circle 196
- civic world 34–5
- claim, bitcoin as a 212–14
- closed blockchains see private blockchains
- Coase, R. 25–6
- Coinbase 196
- ‘cold wallet’ 53, 189
- collective forced liquidation proceedings 199–200
 - see also* bankruptcy
- collective investment schemes 164–5, 179–82
- Collective Investment Schemes Act (CISA) 151, 165, 179–80, 180–81, 182
- collective marks 269
- collective well-being 34–5
- co-mingling of assets 139
- commit permission model 25
- common pot principle 226

- communication to an undetermined
 - number of people 125–7
- community of developers 14–15
- community of participants 72–3
- competition 35–6, 85
- computational logic 91
- computer bugs 118–19, 121–2
- computer code 69
 - automatic tool for translating
 - between plain language and 116
 - difficulty of ascertaining effective mutual expression of intent 128–30, 140–41
 - difficulty in translating plain language into 115–17, 121
 - errors in and performance of smart contracts 117–20, 121–2
 - possibility of being a legal contract 111–14
- computer dispute resolution (CDR) 74
- computer-implemented invention 258–9
- computer programs, and copyright 201, 252–3
- computers, seizure of 238
- conclusion mechanism for contracts 123–8, 140
- conduct crimes 235–6
- confiscation 237–8
- consensus rules 21
- consent
 - in contracts 134–7
 - data protection 290, 291, 292, 298 and the right to erasure 295
- consortium blockchains 86
- consulting firms 29–30
- content protected by law 106
- contractual validity 130–40, 141
- controversy 32–8
- co-ownership rights, tokens with 307
- copyright 201, 247, 248, 249
 - proof of 265–6
 - protection of bitcoin 208
 - protection for blockchains 251–5, 270
 - valorisation of 263–4, 270
- Corda 246
- core-privacy principles 290
- counterfeiting 268–9
- counterparty tokens 306, 343
- covert surveillance 236–7
- Credit Suisse 29, 37, 38
- criminal activity 8–9
- criminal law 215–39
 - aspects of substantive law 218–33
 - bitcoin protection 231–3
 - data protection 223
 - money laundering 223, 224–31
 - potential offences 218–31
 - protection of property rights 218–23
 - public order 223–4
 - extraterritorial jurisdictional competence 234
 - principle of territoriality 233–6
 - place of commission of an offence 234–5
 - place where offence has taken effect 235–6
 - procedural aspects 236–8
 - covert surveillance 236–7
 - search, seizure and confiscation 237–8
- Crypto Valley Association 28–9, 45
- cryptocurrencies 3–4, 50, 52–3, 215, 299–300
 - bitcoin see bitcoin
 - classification of 102–3, 154–6, 303–8
 - as data 221–3
 - as financial assets 219–21
 - as movable goods 218–19
 - operation of the cryptocurrency market 301–3

- owner protection see bitcoin owner protection
- qualification for AEOI purposes 328–9
- Swiss financial regulation
 - classification by FINMA 102–3, 154–6, 307–8
 - deposit and safekeeping 170–74
 - exchange platforms 175–6
 - issuance 158–61
 - trading 176–7
- tangibility 138–9
- tax treatment see tax
- theft of 62–6, 219, 238
- tokens see tokens
- cryptocurrency asset managers 182–3
- cryptocurrency champions 32–8
- cryptocurrency ecosystem 27–8
- currency, protection of 231
- custodial institutions 330, 332
- cyberpunks 5
- cybersquatting 262

- DAO, The 5–6
- data
 - cryptocurrency as 221–3
 - sent and received in smart contracts 106–8
 - stored in the blockchain 282–4
- data controllers 285, 286–8, 289
- data minimisation 290
- data processors 285, 288–9
- data protection 223, 272–98
 - concept of personal data 278–81
 - enforcement 298
 - information contained in
 - blockchains as personal data 281–4
 - issues and possible outcomes 284–95
 - players and responsibilities 285–9
- principles governing processing of personal data 290–92
- rights of data subjects 292–5
- need for proper structuring of blockchain systems 297–8
- opportunity for privacy 296–7
- risk for privacy 296
- data subjects 285, 286
 - consent 290, 291, 292, 295, 298
 - rights of 292–5
- databases 254–5
- DD4BC group 221
- De Werra, J. 212
- Debt Enforcement and Bankruptcy Act (DEBA) 190, 202
- debt tokens 345–6
- decentralisation 24, 244, 245, 262, 286
 - criminal law and cryptocurrencies' decentralised structure 217–18
 - databases and copyright 254–5
- decentralised authentication 22–3
- decentralised autonomous organizations (DAOs) 5–7, 110–11, 180, 186
- deep smart contracts 109
- defensive weapon hypothesis 38–9
- Deloitte Switzerland 30
- denial 16
- deposit insurance scheme 204, 206
- depository institutions 330, 332
- deposits
 - of movable things 192, 194–5
 - public 191–4, 198
 - segregation in favour of the depositor 203–4, 205–6
 - Swiss financial regulation on deposit and safekeeping
 - asset tokens 174
 - cryptocurrencies 170–74
- depression 16
- derivative works 252
- derivatives 156–7, 164, 195–6

- design licence agreements 264–5
- designers 286–7
- desktop wallets 331
- developers 287, 288, 289
 - governance by the community of 14–15
- digital administration 56
- digital asset gatekeepers 98
- digital assets 210–12
- digital signatures 133–4
- digital wallets see virtual wallets
- directly subordinated financial intermediaries (DSFIs) 168
- disintermediation 94
- dispute management 73–4, 120, 122
- disruptive innovation 37–8
- distributed ledger technology (DLT) 50, 90, 185, 186, 244, 245, 275–6, 299
- distributed trust 72
- divestiture principle 199–200
- dividends 345
- documents 283
 - forgery of 231–3
- double tax treaties 343–6
 - holding of tokens 345–6
 - mining of tokens 344–5
 - sale and purchase of tokens 346
- drugs, selling 131
- Dubai 56
- due diligence 229–31
- duress 134–5
- dynamic IP addresses 278–9

- economic beneficial owner, identification of 227, 229–31
- ‘Economies of Worth’ framework 33–8
- educational establishments 30–31
- efficiency 37–8
- Eggen, M. 134
- electricity consumption 12–14
- employment income 314, 344

- enforcement
 - data protection law 298
 - foreign judgments 81–2
- environment 11–14
- EPFL 30
- equivalent value, claims of 203
- erasure, right to 290, 292–3, 294–5
- errors
 - in computer code and smart contract performance 117–20, 121–2
 - risk of in smart contracts 66–8
- esisuisse deposit insurance scheme 204, 206
- Estonia 56
- Ether 104, 154, 156, 302
- Ethereum 3, 4, 104, 245, 249, 256–7
 - trademark protection 261
- Ethereum Classic 245, 249, 260
- Ethereum Enterprise Alliance 246
- European Patent Convention (EPC) 248
- European Patent Office Guidelines 259
- European Union (EU) 99
 - legal personality for robots 6–7
- exchange platforms
 - as ‘financial institutions’ 329–30
 - Swiss financial regulation 174–9
- executives’ personal opinions 39–40
- expression of a human thought 232–3
- extortion 220, 221
- extraterrestrial jurisdictional competence 234
- EY 39

- Faiella, R. 224
- failed performance of smart contracts 117–20, 121–2
- fallback rule 79–81
- fame, world of 33–4
- Federal Act on Banks and Savings Banks (Banking Act) 151, 190, 199
- Federal Department of Finance (FDF) 148

- Felten, E. 283
- filling in gaps in smart contracts 120–21, 122
- films 263
- financial assets, cryptocurrency as 219–21
- financial crisis of 2008 36, 185–6
- financial institutions
- reporting financial institutions 327–8
 - virtual platforms as ‘financial institutions’ 329–30
 - virtual wallets as ‘financial institutions’ 331–2
- see also* banking/banks
- Financial Institutions Act (FinIA) 151, 183
- financial instruments 157
- deposit and safekeeping 174
- see also* asset tokens
- financial intermediaries 168–9
- money laundering 227–31
- Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA) 11, 41, 146, 152, 214, 215–16
- Anti-Money Laundering Ordinance (AMLO-FINMA) 149
- classification of cryptocurrencies 102–3, 154–6, 307–8
- deposit and safekeeping of cryptocurrencies 171, 172–4
- evolution of the Swiss approach to regulation 149–51
- Guidance 150–51, 154
- need for authorisation to store bitcoin wallet data 190–99
- payment rights as an accessory service 166
- SROs and DSFIs 168
- Swiss Fintech model 42–3
- financial regulation 93–4
- approaches to 145–6
 - matters to take into account 144–6
 - Swiss see Swiss financial regulation
- Financial Services Act (FinSA) 151, 157, 163, 183
- financial services industry see Swiss financial services industry
- financing, new method of 3, 4–5
- First Industrial Revolution 16–17
- foreign exchange (forex) dealers 176–7
- foreign judgments 81–2
- foreign permanent establishments 316
- forgery of documents 231–3
- forks 245, 249, 260
- form of a contract 132–4
- Fourth Industrial Revolution 17
- fraud 134–5, 220–21, 223
- free software 245, 255–7
- freedom of form principle 132–3
- fund management companies 181–2
- fundamental mistake 134–7
- Furrer, A. 138
- gaps, filling in 120–21, 122
- Gard, E. 324
- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 98, 273, 286–7, 289, 292–3, 295
- general execution principle 202
- Geneva 44, 46
- Gibraltar 11
- global community 34–5
- global debt 8
- global inequality 15–16
- GNU General Public Licences 245, 256–7
- Gobat, S. 212
- gold 8
- Goldman Sachs 258
- governance 14–16
- Graham-Siegenthaler, B. 138
- GreenAddress 196–7
- Grisons Cantonal Court 213

- Hackett, R. 38–9
- hacking 222
- Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements 77
- Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Certain Rights in Respect of Securities held with an intermediary 79–80
- hardware wallets 331
- hash 103, 276, 283–4
- Hay, D. 36
- Hedqvist* case 313, 335–6, 341
- Hileman, G. 24–5
- human thought, expression of a 232–3
- human trafficking 104–5
- hybrid tokens 155
- Hyperledger 29
- IBM 29
- identification of the author of a human thought 232–3
- identity of beneficial owner, verification of 227, 229–31
- identity management 97
- ideological roots of bitcoin 21–2
- illegal contracts 131–2, 140
- immoral contracts 131–2
- immovable assets, income from 314
- immutability 24, 54, 83–4, 90–91, 245, 291
- and gaps in smart contracts 120–21, 122
- and the right to erasure 294–5
- improper performance 118, 119
- income tax
- token holders 318–19, 320–23
- double tax treaties 345–6
- non-realised capital gains 318–19, 321–2
- subject to income tax 318, 320–21
- virtual wallet as permanent establishment 319, 322–3
- token mining activity 309–12, 313–16
- double tax treaties 344–5
- mining plant as permanent establishment 311–12, 315–16
- subject to income tax 309–11, 313–15
- independent activity, income from 314–15
- Industrial Revolutions 16–17
- industrial world 37–8
- inequality, global 15–16
- information asymmetries 92
- infrastructure, governance by embedded 14
- infrastructure tokens 306
- initial coin offerings (ICOs) 4–5, 41, 53, 128, 153, 158, 260, 303
- issuance of asset tokens 161–5
- issuance of payment tokens 158–61
- legally binding offer vs simple announcement 125–7
- insolvency see bankruptcy
- integration (money laundering) 225–6
- integration clause 129
- integrity and confidentiality 290
- intellectual property 240–71
- blockchain protection for 241, 262–9, 270
- proof of right ownership 265–6
- use of intellectual property rights 266–9
- valorisation of intellectual property rights 262–5, 270
- philosophy behind 247–50
- protection for blockchains 241, 251–62, 270

- copyright 251–5, 270
- open source and free software 255–7
- patents 258–60, 270
- trademarks 260–62, 270
- intent 115–16
 - mutual expression of in smart contracts 123, 128–30, 140–41
- interest 345–6
- intermediate collaboration systems 246
- intermediated securities 161–3
- International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 86–7, 90, 92–3, 99, 100
- blockchain-related standards under development 97–9
- TC 307 93, 95–9
 - structure of the work 96–7
- international scope of bitcoin transactions 59–60
- international standardisation see standardisation
- Internet 1–2, 18, 59, 65
 - reduction of transaction costs 26
- Internet of Information 18
- Internet of Things (IoT) 23, 142–3
- Internet of Value 18
- interoperability 91, 98
- interpretation 115–17, 121
- interpretation contra stipulatorem* rule 129–30
- interruption of the paper trail 225–6
- intrinsic tokens see utility tokens
- inventory 199–200, 202–3
- investment advice 153, 179–83
 - collective investment schemes 179–82
- investment advisors 182–3
- investment entities 330, 332
- investment tokens 157
- investors 301
- IP addresses 274, 278–9
- irreversibility of records 54, 83–4, 90–91
- Italy 41
- Jaccard, G. 106
- Japan 10
- joint controllers 285, 289
- jurisdiction
 - private international law rules 76–8
 - Swiss criminal law 233–6
- key principles of international standardisation 90
- know your customer (KYC)-related regulations 93–4
- Kodak 264
- Kokott, Advocate General 336
- Kölvart, M. 125–6
- laboratory notebooks 267
- Lauslahti, K. 123
- lawfulness 290
- layering (money laundering) 225–6, 235
- legal contracts 108
 - arising from a smart contract 113–14, 122–41, 142
 - content similar to in smart contracts 107–8
 - pre-dating a smart contract 111–13, 114, 115–22, 141–2
 - partial performance of the legal contract 111–12
 - total performance of the legal contract 112–13
- legal impact, data without 106
- legal personality for robots 6–7
- legal persons 6, 339
- legal scope of blockchain transactions 57–8
- legal tender 52–3, 158–9, 231
- legitimacy 32
- lex cryptographia* 71–5
- lex fori* 79–81

- lex loci delicti* 64
- lex rei sitae* 63–4
- libertarians 36–7
- ‘licence light’ 171, 173–4
- licence to use software 201–2
- Linder, T. 328
- linkage principle 321
- Linux/GNU system 245–6
- location
 - of blockchain transactions 69–71
 - criminal law
 - place of commission of an offence 234–5
 - place where an offence has taken effect 235–6
 - territories of the Swiss blockchain industry 44–7
- Logistep* case 278
- Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts 30
- Lugano Convention 76–7, 81

- Macron, E. 9
- Maersk 23
- market world 35–7
- media attention 33
- media outlets 31
- Meier, C.M. 341
- Meisser, L. 45, 341
- Merkel, A. 9
- metadata chips 268–9
- Milan 46
- miners 50–51, 52, 208, 276, 277, 287–8, 301–2
- mining 302–3
 - tax consequences of token mining 308–17, 344–5
- misappropriation 219–20
- mistake, fundamental 134–7
- MIT licence 256–7
- modified circumstances 120–21, 122
- Monaco 79

- money laundering 217, 223, 224–31
 - act of management 229
 - Criminal Code provisions 225–7
 - criminal offender 227–9
 - identifying the beneficial owner 227, 229–31
 - legal provisions applicable to cryptocurrencies 225–31
 - place of commission 235
- money loan contracts 66–8
- movable assets 200–202
 - bitcoin as a movable good 218–19
 - deposits of movable things 192, 194–5
 - income from 314–15, 317
- Mt. Gox/Mark Karpelès 220–21
- Multilateral Competent Authority Agreements (MCAA Agreements) 326
- multilateral trading facilities (MTFs) 177–8
- music 263, 266, 268
- mutual expression of intent 123, 128–30, 140–41

- Nakamoto, S. 17, 21, 255
- native currency tokens 306
- negotiation 16
- Netflix 263
- netnography 20–21
- network starter 246
- new category of law 75–82
- Nikolajsen, N. 33–4
- nodes 50–51, 59, 83–4, 275, 276–7
- non-performance 118, 119
- non-realised capital gains 318–19, 321–2

- object of a contract 131–2
- off-chain governance 15
- offer 123–7, 140
 - binding vs simple announcement 125–7

- 'offline' storage 189
- on-chain governance 15
- online dispute resolution (ODR) 73–4
- open blockchains see public blockchains
- open source 91, 245, 253, 255–7, 261–2, 270
- operators 287, 288, 289
- oracles 108–9
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
 - AEOI Standard 325–33
 - Common Reporting Standards (CRS) 326–7, 329–30, 332
 - Model Tax Convention 311–12
- organisational structures, new 3, 5–7
- organised trading facilities (OTFs) 177–8
- origin of assets 225–6
- originality 253
- orphan works 266
- 'other income' 344–5
- owner depositor 203–4, 205–6
- ownership
 - bitcoin as a thing subject to 208–10
 - rights
 - bankruptcy and bank failure 203–6
 - proof of 265–6
- Oxfam 15
- paper trail, interrupting 225–6
- paper wallets 331
- partial taxation mechanism 341–2
- participation relief 337, 341–2
- pastime, mining activity as 314
- patent thickets 249, 258
- patents 241, 247, 248–9
 - protection for blockchains 258–60, 270
 - use of 267–8
 - valorization of 264–5, 270
- payment tokens 102–3, 323
- Swiss financial regulation 154–6, 157, 307–8
 - deposit and safekeeping 170–74
 - exchange platforms for 175–6
 - issuance 158–61
 - trading 176–7
 - utility tokens qualified as 165–6
- payments
 - blockchain as a payment system 3–4, 51–4
 - erroneous 67–8
 - made in tokens 337–8, 342
 - Swiss financial regulation 175–6
- peer-to-peer network 21, 90
- performance of contracts
 - failed performance of smart contracts due to errors in computer code 117–20, 121–2
 - performance of a legal contract by a smart contract 114
 - partial performance 111–12
 - total performance 112–13
- permanent establishment for income tax purposes
 - mining plant 311–12, 315–16
 - virtual wallet as 319, 322–3
- permission models 24–5
- permissioned blockchains 85–6, 277, 287, 289, 291–2, 298
- permissionless blockchains 85, 277, 287, 288–9, 290–91, 297
- personal data 223, 278–81
 - anonymisation and pseudonymisation 279–81
 - data stored in the blockchain as 282–4
 - definition 278–9
 - protection see data protection
- personally identifiable information 97
- Pesch, J.P. 284, 288
- phishing 220

- physical thing, bitcoin as 208–10
- piracy 268–9
- place see location
- placement (money laundering) 225–6, 235
- portability, right to 292, 293, 294
- primary market 152–3, 158–66
 - issuance of asset tokens 161–5
 - issuance of payment tokens 158–61
 - issuance of utility tokens 165–6
- privacy 97, 98
 - blockchains as an opportunity for 296–7
 - blockchains as a risk for 296
 - core-privacy principles 290
 - see also* data protection
- private assets 339–40
- private blockchains 24–5, 51, 81, 85–6, 104–5, 246, 277
- private international law 49–82
 - application of Swiss private international law rules 61–9
 - cryptocurrency theft 62–6
 - smart contracts 66–9
 - blockchain transactions and private law 56–60
 - international scope 59–60
 - legal scope 57–8
 - location of transactions 69–71
 - proposals for the adoption of specific rules 71–82
 - choice of law 78–81
 - jurisdiction 76–8
 - lex cryptographia* 71–5
 - new category of law 75–82
 - recognition of blockchain transactions 75–6
 - recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments 81–2
- private keys 53–4, 188, 189–90, 198, 207, 212, 274–5
 - as personal data 281–2
 - seizure of bitcoin 237–8
- proof of right ownership 265–6
- Proof of Stake system 13
- Proof of Work system 12, 21
- property, offences against 218–23, 234–5, 236
- property rights 63–4
- prospectuses 163
- protection of cryptocurrency owners see bitcoin owner protection
- pseudonymisation 279–81, 282
- public blockchains 23–5, 51, 81, 85, 104, 245–6, 277
- public deposits 191–4, 198
- public keys 53–4, 187–8, 198, 212, 274–5, 281–2
- public order
 - felonies and misdemeanours against 223–4
 - inventions contrary to 248
- purpose limitation 290
- qualification of assets in the blockchain 152, 153–7
- Rauchs, M. 24–5
- read permission model 24–5
- real estate transfers 18
- real rights, bitcoin and 208–10
- realisation principle 321
- reclaim 137–9
- recognition
 - blockchain transactions 75–6
 - foreign judgments 81–2
- records
 - storage in blockchains 54, 55, 104–5, 283
 - tamper-proof in blockchain technology 54, 83–4, 90–91
- recovery claims 203–5
- rectification, right to 292, 294
- reference architecture 97

- registered designs 264–5
- registers 283
- regulation 8–11, 89
 - financial 144–6
 - Swiss see Swiss financial regulation
 - standardisation see standardisation
- reportable accounts 327, 328
- reportable persons 327–8
- reporting financial institutions 327–8
- reporting obligations 178
- reputation 33, 34
- restitution of performances supplied
 - under a void contract 137–40
- result crimes 235–6
- revolutions 16–17
- Reynard, M. 7
- rights
 - bitcoin and real rights 208–10
 - data representing 107
 - of data subjects 292–5
 - in personam* 64
 - in rem* 62–4
 - intellectual property see intellectual property
 - ownership
 - bankruptcy and bank failure 203–6
 - proof of 265–6
 - property 63–4
 - right to be forgotten (right to erasure) 290, 292–3, 294–5
- Ripple 34
- robots, legal personality for 6–7
- Rossi, S. 35

- sandbox 148, 171, 172–3, 192
- Schlichting, L. 41
- Schneider-Ammann, J. 31
- Schopenhauer, A. 16
- search 237–8
- Second Industrial Revolution 17

- secondary market 153, 166–79
 - application of the AMLA 167–9
 - deposit and safekeeping of
 - cryptocurrencies 170–74
 - deposit and safekeeping of financial instruments (asset tokens) 174
 - trading and exchange platforms 174–9
- Secretariat for International Financial Matters (SIF) 148
- securities 174, 195–6, 198–9, 307–8
 - stamp tax 342–3
 - Swiss financial regulation 156–7
 - exchange platforms 177–8
 - issuance 161–4
 - trading 178–9
 - see also* asset tokens
- securities dealers 178–9, 199
 - activity of 195–6
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) 10–11
- security
 - and resilience 24
 - risks and vulnerabilities 97
- segregation 204, 205–6
- seizable assets 199–214
- seizure of bitcoins 207–14, 237–8
- self-employment income 317
- self-regulation 72–3
- self-regulatory organisations (SROs) 168
- semi-private blockchains 51, 81
- shallow smart contracts 109
- sharing economy 19, 244
- Shrem, C. 224
- Silk Road website 131, 132, 225
- Sillaber, C. 284, 288
- simple announcements 125–7
- Singapore 41, 336–7
- single point of failure 296
- Singular DTV 264
- smart cars 142

- smart contracts 3–4, 54–5, 92, 101–43, 186
 - can code be a contract 111–14
 - concept 105–9
 - DAOs 110–11
 - determining the law applicable to 66–9
 - legal contract arising from a smart contract 113–14, 122–41, 142
 - ascertaining mutual expression of intent 123, 128–30, 140–41
 - contractual validity 130–40, 141
 - offer and acceptance 123–8, 140
 - legal contract pre-dating the smart contract 111–13, 114, 115–22, 141–2
 - failed performance 117–20, 121–2
 - gaps and modified performance 120–21, 122
 - interpretation 115–17, 121
 - legal scope of bitcoin transactions 57–8
 - standards under development 97–8
- smart houses 142
- smart mandate 109
- software
 - and copyright 201, 252–3
 - free 245, 255–7
 - as seizable asset 201–2
- solidarity 34–5
- South Korea 11
- Spain 9
- pecially secured data 222
- Spectrocoin 197
- speculation 36
- stamp tax 338–9, 342–3
- standardisation 83–100
 - benefits of 87–90
 - benefits of creating international standards for blockchain 90–94
 - ISO TC 307 93, 95–9
 - ten blockchain-related ISO standards under development 97–9
 - Standards Australia 95–6
 - stock exchanges 177
 - storage limitation 290
 - Strongcoin 197
 - structure 277
 - need for proper structuring of blockchain systems 297–8
 - new organisational structures 3, 5–7
 - study groups 97
 - subject-origin approach 320
 - subscription model of distribution 263
 - subsidiarity principle 216
 - Swiss bankruptcy law see bankruptcy
 - Swiss Confederation 31
 - Swiss Criminal Code (SCC) 225–7
 - Swiss criminal law see criminal law
 - Swiss Federal Council Report on virtual currencies 147
 - Swiss financial regulation 144–84
 - bitcoin owner protection see bitcoin owner protection
 - classification of tokens 152, 153–7, 307–8
 - competitive advantage 41–4
 - evolution of the approach 146–52
 - Fintech model 42–3
 - steps in crypto-regulation 152–83
 - asset management 153, 179–83
 - primary market 152–3, 158–66
 - qualification of an asset in the
 - blockchain 152, 153–7
 - secondary market 153, 166–79
 - Swiss financial services industry 18–48
 - actors 26, 27–31
 - blockchain technology and its disruptive potential 21–6

- compromise 38–41
 - controversy between two competing camps 32–8
 - institutional environment as
 - a competitive advantage 41–4
 - territories of the Swiss blockchain industry 44–7
- Swiss franc 158–9, 184
- Swiss Interbank Clearing (SIC) 175
- Swiss National Bank 183, 184
- Swiss private international law rules 61–9
- Swiss tax law
 - classification of virtual currency 328
 - mining activity 310, 313–17
 - scope of AEOI 326–8
 - token holders 320–33
- Swisscom 29–30
- systemic risks 183–4
- Szabo, N. 105

- tangibility of cryptocurrencies 138–9
- Tapscott, D. 18
- tax 299–347
 - classification of cryptocurrencies 303–8
 - token holding 317–33, 345–6
 - AEOI 325–33
 - income tax and non-realised capital gains 318–19, 321–2
 - subject to income tax 318, 320–21
 - Swiss tax law 320–33
 - virtual wallet as permanent establishment 319, 322–3
 - wealth taxes 319–20, 323–5
 - token mining activity 308–17, 344–5
 - mining plant as permanent establishment for income tax purposes 311–12, 315–16
 - subject to income tax 309–11, 313–15
 - Swiss tax law 313–17
 - VAT 312–13, 316–17
 - token sales and purchases 334–43, 346
 - capital gain 334–5, 339–40
 - participation relief 337, 341–2
 - payment with tokens 337–8, 342
 - stamp tax 338–9, 342–3
 - Swiss tax law 339–43
 - VAT 335–7, 340–41
 - treatment of cryptocurrencies under double tax treaties 343–6
- taxonomy and ontology 97
- technological neutrality 59–60, 272
 - FINMA 149, 150–51
- technological rationality 88
- technology companies 29–30
- terminology and concepts 97
- territoriality 262, 272–3
 - Swiss criminal law 233–6
 - place of commission of an offence 234–5
 - place where an offence has taken effect 235–6
- terrorist financing 8, 223, 224, 235
- theft 62–6, 219, 238
- Thévenot, L. 33
- Thiam, T. 36
- thing, bitcoin as a 208–10
- Third Industrial Revolution 17
- third parties 80, 285
- token exchange companies 333
- token generating events (TGEs) 4–5, 153, 158, 302, 303
 - asset tokens 161–5

- payment tokens 158–61
 - utility tokens 165–6
- tokens 4, 304
 - AEOI 325–33
 - classification 305–8
 - Swiss financial regulation 152, 153–7, 307–8
 - holders 301, 302
 - tax consequences of holding tokens 317–33, 345–6
 - tax consequences of mining 308–17, 344–5
 - tax consequence of sales and purchases of 334–43, 346
 - unsolicited 124–5
 - value of for wealth tax purposes 324–5
 - see also under individual types of token*
- tort, claims in 64
- traceability 55–6
 - combating counterfeiting and piracy 268–9
- trademarks 241, 249, 250
 - protection for blockchains 260–62, 270
 - use of 267
 - valorisation of 264–5
- trading platforms
 - as ‘financial institutions’ 329–30
 - Swiss financial regulation 174–9
- transaction costs 25–6
- transactions data 283
- transparency 24, 244–5
 - data protection 290, 291, 297
 - with pseudonymity/cryptography 90
- triple step test 249
- Trüeb, H.R. 136
- trust 72, 84

- Uber 19, 244
- UBS 29, 37–8

- uncertificated securities 161–3
- undercover investigation 237
- undocumented children 104–5
- unforeseen situations 118, 119
- United Kingdom (UK) 11, 56
 - tax authorities 312–13
- United Nations 104–5
- United Nations Convention on the Use of Electronic Communications in International Contracts 60
- United States of America (USA) 309–10
- universality principle 199–200
- University of Zurich 30
- unjust enrichment 137, 139–40, 236
- unlawful use of financial assets 219–20
- unsolicited tokens 124–5
- unusual clause rule 129
- use of intellectual property rights 266–9
- users of blockchains 288
 - and governance 14–15
 - user-blockchain interaction 274–5
- utility settlement coin (USC) 29
- utility tokens 102–3, 107, 306, 308, 323
 - Swiss financial regulation 154–6
 - issuance 165–6

- validity, contractual 130–40, 141
- valorisation of intellectual property rights 262–5, 270
- value adjustment (provision) 322
- value of a token 324–5
- Van Gils, R. 312
- VAT
 - mining activity subject to 312–13, 316–17
 - sales and purchases of tokens 335–7, 340–41
- verification of identity of beneficial owner 227, 229–31
- Vinnik, A. 224
- virtual currencies 52
 - AEOI 325–33

- cryptocurrencies see
 - cryptocurrencies
- virtual permanent establishments 312
- virtual property, data representing 106–7
- virtual wallets 53, 54, 188–90, 302, 327
 - as ‘financial institutions’ 331–2
 - as permanent establishment for
 - income tax purposes 319, 322–3
- VISA 13
- void contracts 130–40, 141
 - restitution of performances supplied under 137–40
- voluntary standardisation 87–8
- voting tokens 107

- Walmart 23
- wealth inequality 15–16
- wealth taxes 319–20, 323–5
- Wikileaks 131
- working groups 96–7
- World Identity Network 104–5
- World Trade Organization Technical Barriers to Trade (TBT) Committee 89–90
- ‘worlds’ 33–8
- write permission model 24–5
- written contracts 133–4

- Xapo 197, 216

- YouTube 263

- Zug 28–9, 44, 45, 56
- Zurich 44, 45–6

