
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Foreword by Roy Suddaby	x
Foreword by Professor Trish Reay	xii
1 Frequently asked questions in qualitative family business research and some guidelines to avoid risky paths Nadine Kammerlander and Alfredo De Massis	1
PART I TRENDS AND PROSPECTS IN FAMILY BUSINESS QUALITATIVE RESEARCH METHODS
2 Qualitative research in family business: methodological insights to leverage inspiration, avoid data asphyxiation and develop robust theory Evelyn Micelotta, Vern L. Glaser and Gabrielle Dorian	25
3 Full-cycle research in family business contexts: combining qualitative case studies and quantitative methods Kimberly D. Elsbach and Ishita Ghai	48
4 Ethnography: a much-advocated but underused qualitative methodology in published accounts of family business research Denise Fletcher and Rocky Adiguna	72
5 Historical methods in family business studies Andrea Colli and Paloma Fernandez Perez	98
PART II CASE STUDY RESEARCH
6 The evolution of case study methodology in the study of family enterprises Giacomo Laffranchini and Frank Hoy	125
7 The case study in family business: current perspectives and suggestions for the future Tanja Leppäaho, Emmanuella Plakoyiannaki, Katerina Kampouri and Eriikka Paavilainen-Mäntymäki	161
8 Religion and business families' philanthropic practices Navneet Bhatnagar, Pramodita Sharma and Kavil Ramachandran	191
9 How can qualitative research advance the understanding of family firms' internationalization? A multiple case study of family firms internationalizing into China and India Claudia Pongelli and Andrea Calabrò	208

PART III USING NARRATIVE-BASED APPROACHES AND INVESTIGATING INTERPERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS

- 10 Mapping narratives in family business studies: a guideline for researchers 224
Michela Floris, Cinzia Dessì and Angela Dettori
- 11 Growth through innovation and internationalization: exploring the role of family business identity through narrative analysis 248
Alexandra Dawson, Maria José Parada Balderrama and Alberto Gimeno Sandig
- 12 Illuminating the space between: investigating interpersonal relationships in family firms through qualitative inquiry 270
Matthias Waldkirch

PART IV ALTERNATIVE METHODS AND METHODOLOGIES

- 13 Reasons, opportunities and methods for a visual analysis of organizational tensions in family business 284
Mara Brumana, Attilia Ruzzene and Katerina Vasilevska
- 14 The fsQCA method in family business research 304
Daniel Pittino, Francesca Visintin and Giancarlo Lauto
- 15 Treating non-family managers like family: new insights from a re-analysis of pre-existing qualitative interview data 321
Jennifer E. Jennings, Albert E. James and Elizabeth A. Tetzlaff
- 16 Research methods on emotions in family business 351
Rania Labaki

PART V PUBLISHING QUALITATIVE FAMILY BUSINESS RESEARCH AND ADDRESSING PRACTICAL ISSUES

- 17 Why do so many qualitative studies of family businesses get rejected?
Confessions of a recovering associate editor of the Family Business Review 390
W. Gibb Dyer
- 18 Engaging practitioners in qualitative family business research: an engaged scholarship approach 399
Judith van Helvert-Beugels, Mattias Nordqvist and Leif Melin
- 19 Bridging communication, building trust: the art and science of getting access to informants and preparing them for in-depth qualitative inquiry 418
Leilanie Mohd Nor and Mohar Yusof

- Index* 427