academic freedom 83
accessibility of research 4–5, 83–4 accountability 10, 73, 106, 173–4 actions 13, 17
administrative culture 181, 183 ‘administrative guidance’ 124 advice, from academics 31 agency 13–14
Allison, Graham 135
altruism 211–12, 215
analytical rigour 83–4 anthropology 21–2
anti-corruption measures 104–5 anti-naturalism 12
Artificial Intelligence (AI) 124, 127, 143, 149, 150, 152, 156, 157, 230–31 Asia, East, see East Asia, development of modern public administration in Australia 40, 50, 51, 150 chiefs of staff to prime ministers (interpretive approach case) 18–19 and impact 80
Australia, digital era governance (DEG) 146–7, 158–9 barriers to change 152–6 drivers of change 150–52 government exemplars 156–7 list of organizations interviewed 161 models of public management and role of IT/digital technology 149–50 21st century pattern of, existing evidence 147–50 technology partnerships 157–8 Australian Public Service (APS) 146–7, 152, 153, 155–9 autonomy, local government 191, 194 Bacchus, K. 168, 172
balance of power 137 barriers to change (digital era governance, Australia) 152–6 Bastow, S. 36, 39
beliefs 13, 14, 15, 20
Bell, David A. 225–6
Benedict, Burton 164, 165, 172
Bevir, M. 12, 13, 14
big data 90–91, 157
Bovens, M. 29
Bozeman, Barry 143
Bratu, R. 104–5
Bray, M. 165, 167, 169
Brewer, G.A. 205–6, 207, 212–13, 216 bribery 97, 98, 101
bricolage 15, 16
Brock, C. 168, 172
Broucker, B. 33
Buddhist public administration 229–30 bureaucratic discretion, and corruption 102–3 Butler, Robin 52
Cabinet Office (UK) 58–60 capabilities 177
capability barriers to change (digital era governance, Australia) 155–6 case studies, use of 4 change, digital, see Australia, digital era governance (DEG) China
development of modern public administration in 114, 115–17, 119–21, 124–6, 127 Imperial 1, 116, 117
China, research agenda for public administration in 134, 142–4 building a modern governance system 139 China’s new global status 139 economic development 139–40 efficiency and freedom 140 fighting bureaucracy 140–41
New Era 134–5
traps 135–9
unresolved problems from previous administrative reforms 141–2 Christensen, T. 170–71
Chung, In-Hung 114–15

citations 230, 231
citizens, and co-production 64–6, 67, 68, 69, 71, 72, 73–4 civil service
  Australia 146–7, 152, 153, 155–9
  China 1, 116, 117, 119–20, 142
  East Asian mandarin model (civil service entrance examinations) 116–19 formation and development of 1–2 Japan 116–18, 121, 126, 127
  politicization of 184–5 and public administration education 125 in small states 168, 169–71
  South Korea 117, 118, 127 subnational and local levels of government 186 systems 184, 185–6, 195–6
  UK 55, 58–60, 119, 184
  US 119, 185
climate change 40, 43–4 collaboration, public service delivery 64 Commissioner for Public Appointments (UK) 47, 48 commissioning of research 33–5 committees and commissions (government-appointed), academics serving on 32 communication 84, 172–3 cost-efficiency 167, 174
democracy
  local 192, 193
  and multi-level governance (MLG) 190 and small states 173, 174, 175 demographic change 40, 64
Deng, Xiaoping 119, 141
Denzin, N.K. 15
declaration of interests 6
Dowding, K. 41
down, Anthony 210
Dutch Associate Professor (DAP) 220–21
digital era governance (DEG), see Australia, digital era governance (DEG) digitalization 72
dilemmas 14
discretion (bureaucratic), and corruption 102–3
East Asia, development of modern public administration in 114–15
East Asian development model 115–16
East Asian mandarin model (civil service entrance examinations) 116–19 education 120, 121–3, 125–6 practice 119–20, 121, 122, 124
research 120–21, 122, 123, 126–8
East Asia, development of modern public administration in 114–15
E-government and E-government 148–9 efficiency 167, 174
effect, see regulation and corruption
cost-efficiency 167, 174
Crewson, P.E. 206–7
criticism of 184–5
and interpretive approach 14–15, 17
UK government 59
decolonization 187–8
decentring 14
democracy
  local 192, 193
demographic change 40, 64
Deng, Xiaoping 119, 141
Denzin, N.K. 15
Department for Education (UK) 47
Di Tella, R. 103
digital by default 148, 150
digital era governance (DEG), see Australia, digital era governance (DEG)
digitalization 72
dilemmas 14
discretion (bureaucratic), and corruption 102–3 diseconomies of scale 174
Dowding, K. 41
Downs, Anthony 210
duties, of small and large states 176–7 competition
  in academia 38
down, Anthony 210
Dutch Associate Professor (DAP) 220–21
digital era governance (DEG), see Australia, digital era governance (DEG)
digitalization 72
dilemmas 14
discretion (bureaucratic), and corruption 102–3
diseconomies of scale 174
Dowding, K. 41
Downs, Anthony 210
East Asia, development of modern public administration in 114–15 challenges and future of 123–8
East Asian development model 115–16
East Asian mandarin model (civil service entrance examinations) 116–19 education 120, 121–3, 125–6
practice 119–20, 121, 122, 124
research 120–21, 122, 123, 126–8
East India Company 118–19

Andrew Massey - 9781788117258
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 05/21/2019 08:58:57PM
via free access
Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC, UK) 80–81 economic development 136–7, 139–40
economies and diseconomies of scale 167, 174 economists 52, 56
EDGE (Essentially Digital GovernancE) 149 effectiveness 86, 87, 88, 140 efficiency 86, 87, 88, 139, 140–41, 193
empathy 24
equity and equality 86, 87, 88, 90, 140–41 Estonia, digital disruption 156 ethics 29–30, 83
ethnography 15–17, 20–21, 22, 23 Europe, comparative public administration and administrative reforms, see comparative public administration and administrative reforms
European Union (EU)
anti-corruption measures 104, 105
funding 43
evaluations of public programmes, academics’ participation in 32–3 evidence 57–60, 224, 225 experimental methods 90–91, 215 expertise 79, 169–70
facts 225
fake news 225
Fazekas, M. 102
fieldwork 15–17, 22, 23, 24 cases (interpretive approach) 17–21 financial autonomy, local government 191 focus groups 16–17, 18, 19, 22–3 Fordism 4
forest rangers study 20 freedom 137, 140
academic 83
Funaiole, Matthew 135
‘functional politicization’ 185 functional profile, local government 190–91 ‘functional rationality’ 190
funding 34
from EU 43
and impact 36, 37, 49
Gamble, A. 51
Geertz, C. 15, 20, 21
Giddens, A. 12
Glaser, Bonnie 135
Global Financial Crisis 156 ‘global’ public administration 228 governance 56, 189
multi-level governance (MLG) 190, 193
new concepts 63–4
see also Australia, digital era governance (DEG); public governance in small states government 63–5
elites 138, 153, 172
intervention, extent of 143 small versus large 166–8 see also local government Gramsci Trap 138, 139
happiness 229–30
Herson, L. 1
Hirobumi, Ito 114
historical dimension, administrative systems 182 Hondeghem, A. 29–30
Hong Kong, and impact 80
Houston, D.J. 207
human development 1
human resources
small states 165, 169
systems 184, 185–6
impact 36–7, 48–9, 80–81
case studies 85–9
indicators for 225
models 49–52
research agenda for 89–91 tensions and dilemmas 82–5 see also relevance
Index of Mayoral Strength (MSI) 192, 194, 195 indicators 223–5, 226
industrialization 140
influence, difficulties in ascertaining 48–9 information technology (IT) 72, 143, 153, 155–6, 230–31, 232; see also Australia, digital era governance (DEG) innovation 64, 72, 140, 151, 154, 155, 158–9; see also social innovation Institute for Public Governance, Catholic University of Leuven 34–5 institutional amnesia 19 institutional dimension, administrative systems 181, 183
institutional environment 82 institutional memory 19 ‘institutional policies’ 187–90 institutional variables 195 integrity 108–9
interdisciplinary/multidisciplinary research 4, 42, 43–4, 70–73, 74–5, 91

Andrew Massey - 9781788117258
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 05/21/2019 08:58:57PM
via free access
interest groups 174
interpretive approach 5, 12–14, 23–4 cases 17–21
  methods 14–17
  relevance 21–3
  summary of concepts 14
Islamic public administration 229 ‘ivory tower’ of research 37–9

Japan, development of modern public administration in 114, 115, 116–18, 121–2, 124–7 job satisfaction 211 journals, publication in 37–8, 54, 80, 220, 222–3, 230 Kaufman, H. 17, 20
Kedar, A. 12, 13, 14
Killer, Dr Graham 19
Kindleberger Trap 137, 139
Klijn, E.-H. 225
knowledge 12, 224
Korea, development of modern public administration in 114–15, 116, 117, 118, 122–3, 124–6, 127 ‘laggards’ 159
Lambsdorff, J.G. 101, 102, 103 legal perspective, co-production 72–3 legalism 87
legislative barriers to change (digital era governance, Australia) 154 legitimacy 69, 86–7, 88
Letwin, O. 56
Lincoln, Y.S. 15
Local Autonomy Index (LAI) 191, 194, 195 local government 186, 195 autonomy 191, 194
functional profile 190–91
  and multi-level governance (MLG) 190, 193
political profile 192 reorganization of public service delivery 188 territorial and functional rescaling 187–8 territorial profile 191–2 Lowenthal, D. 172
MacCulloch, R. 103
macro-economic conditions, and digital change 150–51 management consultancies 39 managerialism 87
markets and market failure 51, 97, 168

Massey, A. 2, 5
Maynard-Moody, S. 20
mayors 192, 194
meanings 13, 17
megatrends 40, 43–4, 88–9, 175 meta-regulation 105–6
methodological issues 4–5, 83–4, 90–91, 221–2
Middle-Income Trap 136–7, 139–40
Mintzberg, Henry 224
mobile device/phone ownership and usage, Australia 148, 151 modelling 222
monopolies 168
Moore’s Law 150
Most Significant Change (MSC) 23 multi-functionality 170–71
multi-level governance (MLG) 190, 193 multidisciplinary/interdisciplinary research 4, 42, 43–4, 70–73, 74–5, 91 multidisciplinary nature of public administration 3 multinational projects 43
Musheno, M. 20

Naff, K.C. 206
narratives 13, 14
National Health Service (NHS, UK) 55 naturalism 12
neoliberalism 52, 53
networks 172, 173
neuroimaging 215
New Labour 51
New Public Management (NPM) 50–54, 55–7, 59, 148, 149, 184, 188–9, 214
New Zealand, digital disruption 156
Non-Western Public Administration (NWPA) 220, 228–30 normative convergence hypotheses 189
Northcote–Trevelyan Report 119
Nye, Joseph 137
Office of Students (UK) 47
Ongaro, E. 39, 226
operationalization 222
opinions 225
organizational frameworks, small states 171 Ostrom, Elinor 65–6, 67 output of academics, measurement of 38
Packer, S. 165, 169
Palifka, B. 98–9
Pandey, S.K. 208
paradigm disputes 4
Parsons, Talcott 165
‘particularistic’ role-relationships 165, 172
Pendleton Civil Service Reform Act (1883, US) 119 performance management 188, 189 Perry, J.L. 29–30, 204–5, 208, 209, 212 personnel systems 184, 185–6 philosophy, in and of public administration 226–30 policy instruments (regulation and corruption) 106, 107 policy trials 65, 73
political profile, local government 192 politicians 47, 48
politicization of public administration 184–5 Pollitt, C. 3, 4, 37–8, 40, 87–8, 89 population size 163–4, 165, 166–7, 168, 169 positivism 12, 225–6 ‘possibility’, as concept 81 practical experience and wisdom 29 practice/research interface, see research/practice interface practices 13, 14, 20 practitioner, concept of 30 ‘pragmatic compliers’ 158–9 privatization 188
productivity 150–51
professionalization of academic public administration 38 professionals, and co-production 68 public administration scholarship/as academic discipline 41–2, 49, 50, 54, 81–2 China 120–21
dominant discourse 220–21 and evidence 57–60
facts, truth and opinions 225–6 future of 3–4, 230–32
indicators 223–5, 226
Japan 121–2
methodological issues 4–5, 83–4, 90–91, 221–2 new research agenda, reasons for 1–3 Non-Western Public Administration (NWPA) 220, 228–30
philosophy in and of public administration 226–30 professionalization of 38 public administration as name of discipline 53 publication in journals 37–8, 54, 80, 220, 222–3, 230 relationship with state 51–3
South Korea 122–3
summary of key considerations 9–10 public appointments, held by academics 31 public governance in small states 162–3 centralized versus decentralized governing 173–4 definition of ‘small state’ 163–5 formal versus informal governance 171–3 generalist versus specialist administration 169–71 paradoxes of 165–74
research agenda 174–7
small versus large government 166–8 public interest 143–4, 181, 204, 211 public sector reforms 187–90 public service delivery, reorganization of 188 public service motivation (PSM) 29–30, 202–3, 209, 217 consequences of 205–6 intangible nature of 209–10, 215 measurement of 205, 206–7, 209, 213 normative nature of 210–12, 215–16 problems 209–14
public/private sector comparisons and differences 204, 206, 207, 209, 213–14 and public sector motivation 212–14, 216–17 research strategies and directions 214–17 theory and research on 203–9 public service value, China 143 public value 53–4, 154 qualitative methods 15, 90, 91, 209 quantitative methods 4, 90, 209 questionnaires 22
Raadschelders, J.C. 29
Radin, B.A. 39
Rainey, H.G. 204, 207
Rathgen, Karl 114
recentralization 187, 188 red tape, and bribery and corruption 98, 101, 104 regulation 168
regulation and corruption 97–9, 109–10 anti-corruption measures (lead to more corruption through regulations) 104–5 bad regulation (leads to more corruption) 103–4 deregulation 102
forms and levels of corruption 98–9, 101, 102 locus of regulation 103 measures and design 107–9 meta-regulation design 105–6 more regulation (leads to more corruption) 101–3 overview of literature (bibliographic search) 99–100 perceptions of corruption 103
relevance 3–4, 79–80, 90
appearance on academics’ agendas 80–81 debating 81–2
interpretive approach 21–3
of research, to practitioners 36–9 see also impact representative associations 41–2, 43 Research Excellence Framework (REF, UK) 36–7, 38, 41, 48, 49, 80, 85–9, 91 research infrastructure 91 research/practice interface 28, 37–40, 48, 56–7, 60, 221 and co-production 73–4 competition from outside academia 39–40 current tensions 37–40 debate within academia, paucity of and need for 40–41, 42–3 disconnect between research agenda and current practitioner problems 40 future of 42–4
impact 36–7, 91
in past 29–30
reflections 41–4
relevance of research to practitioners 36–9 UK government policy 58–60 what academics can do for practitioners (types of activity) 30–36 research process 35
resource barriers to change (digital era governance, Australia) 155–6 rewards, intrinsic and extrinsic 206–7
Rhodes, R.A.W. 17–19
Riddell, Peter 48
Ritz, A. 202, 205, 208–9, 211, 213 role ambiguity 216
role-relationships 165, 172, 173–4 Romania, anti-corruption measures 104–5
Rose-Ackerman, S. 98–9, 102
Rousseau Trap 137–8, 139 rule-making 105–6
rule-of-law culture 181
Schön, Jan Hendrik 222
Selden, S.C. 205–6, 207, 212–13, 216 self-interest 203–4, 210, 211–12, 215 self-sacrifice 206
service management 71
service users 68, 69, 71
short-termism 152
situated agency 14
Skinner, Q. 55
small states, public governance in, see public governance in small states social capital 204
social innovation 65, 66–7 context of 74
interdisciplinary approach 70, 71 key issues in current research 67–8, 69 social media 47, 72 social relations 165, 172, 176 sociology, small state 164, 165 solipsism, scholarly 54–7, 60 South Korea, development of modern public administration in 114–15, 116, 117, 118, 122–3, 124–6, 127 specialization of academic public administration 4, 38–9 governance 169–71
stakeholders (engaging with), and academic rigour 83–4 standing advisory committees, academics serving on 32 state 50, 224
and freedom 137
functions of 167–8
relationship with public administration scholarship 51–3 size of, and corruption 97 and social innovation 65 states, small, see public governance in small states Stein, Lorenz von 114
Steinbauer, P. 207
Stillman, R. 39
stories and storytelling 5, 18, 20, 22–3 street-level bureaucrats 20 sub-disciplines 4
Tacitus Trap 136
Taylor, C. 13
technological change 40, 72, 148, 151–2; see also Australia, digital era governance (DEG); information technology (IT) territorial and functional rescaling 187–8 territorial profile, local government 191–2 ‘territorial rationality’ 190 territoriality, and multi-level governance (MLG) 193 Thatcher, Margaret 52, 55
Thucydides Trap 135–6, 139
Tiernan, A. 18–19
INDEX

tradition 13–14
training of public officials, by academics 31–2 trust 101, 136, 139
Turnbull, Malcolm 146, 151

United Kingdom (UK)
civil service 55, 58–60, 119, 184
continuing use of ‘public administration’ as name 53 digital service delivery 156 government ministers and top civil servants (interpretive approach case) 17–18
New Public Management (NPM) 50–54, 55–6, 59
state, nature and size of 50, 51–2

United States (US)
and China 119, 185
failure to assume international responsibilities, 1930s 137 values 81, 82, 84, 87, 138, 143 Van Willigen, J. 21, 22 voluntary sector studies 71–2 Voßkuhle, Andreas 224

Weber, Max 81, 84, 186
whistle-blowers 206
Wise, L.R. 204–5, 212
Wolff, Christian 221
world competitiveness 124

Xi, Jinping 134, 135, 136–7, 138, 140
Young, Toby 47, 48
Zhu, Rongji 141

federal bureau chiefs (interpretive approach case) 17
New Public Management (NPM) 52
urbanization 140