

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Preface	x
1     Authoritarian constitutionalism: coming to terms with modernity's nightmares Günter Frankenberg	1
2     Neoliberalism as a form of authoritarian constitutionalism Helena Alviar García	37
3     Authoritarian constitutionalism: the South African experience Dennis M. Davis	57
4     Infrastructural power and its possibilities for the constitutional evolution of authoritarian political systems: lessons from China Michael W. Dowdle	76
5     Authoritarian constitutionalism in the Islamic world: theoretical considerations and comparative observations on Syria and Turkey Omar El Manfalouty	95
6     Authoritarian constitutionalism in Latin America: from past to present Roberto Gargarella	115
7     Authoritarianism and the narrative power of constitutionalism in Venezuela Jorge González-Jácome	136
8     Authoritarian constitutionalism in liberal democracies Duncan Kennedy	161
9     French authoritarian constitutionalism and its legacy Eugénie Mérieau	185

10	Plus ça change . . . the riddle of all Central Asian constitutions Scott Newton	209
11	Constitution of false prophecies: the illiberal transformation of Hungary Maximilian Pichl	240
12	States of authoritarianism in liberal democratic regimes Norman W. Spaulding	265
13	Arab constitutionalism and the formalism of authoritarian constitutionalism Nimer Sultany	292
14	Authoritarian liberalism as authoritarian constitutionalism Michael A. Wilkinson	317
15	An authoritarization of Japanese constitutionalism? Hajime Yamamoto	338
	Index	367