

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
PART I INTRODUCTION: THE CONCEPTUAL DIMENSION
1 The role of the EU in the transnational governance of standards, contracts and codes Marta Cantero Gamito	2
PART II THE ROLE OF THE EU IN THE TRANSNATIONAL GOVERNANCE OF STANDARDS, CONTRACTS AND CODES
2 Private standards as a replacement for public lawmaking? Rob van Gestel and Peter van Lochem	27
3 Private food safety standards, private law and the EU: exploring the linkages in constitutionalization Paul Verbruggen	54
4 EU rules and values, transnational legal ordering, and international arbitration Barbara Warwas	80
5 The standardization of the internet and the international harmonization of ecommerce Gerald Spindler	100
6 Self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in the platform economy Christoph Busch	115
7 Private standard setting in the TBT Agreement: control and recognition Mislav Mataija	135

8	Standardization of standard contracts: fairness in EU energy exchanges Lucila de Almeida	155
9	EU Securitisation Regulation: legal ordering in symbiosis with transnational bodies Teemu Juutilainen	180
10	Standardizing intrafirm processes worldwide: product governance between IOSCO and the EU Antonio Marcacci	200
11	SME inclusion: codes of conduct in the food supply chain María Paz de la Cuesta de los Mozos	221
12	The Dutch Banking Agreement on Human Rights: a blueprint for EU governance? Kinanya Pijl	239
PART III CONCLUSIONS: THE NORMATIVE DIMENSION
13	Voyaging through standards, contracts, and codes: the transnational quest of European regulatory private law Rodrigo Vallejo	265
14	Epilogue: the role of the EU in the external reach of regulatory private law – gentle civiliser or neoliberal hegemon? Hans-W. Micklitz	299
	Index	322