

Index

---

- access justice 312, 313, 319
- accountability measures
  - intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 207–8
  - private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking 37
- accreditation
  - private food safety standards 59, 69–71, 74, 77
  - private technical standards and PIP breast implant scandal 40–43, 46–7
  - private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking 37, 40, 41, 46
- ‘adhering banks’, Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 242, 246, 247, 249, 250, 251–2
- alternative dispute resolution (ADR) and international arbitration see international arbitration and EU rules and values, alternative dispute resolution (ADR)
  - see also* dispute resolution
- application programming interfaces (APIs) 123, 128
  - see also* self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy
- arbitration see dispute resolution
- artificial intelligence and internet standardisation 114
- Bangladesh Sustainability Compact model 261
- Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights see Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights
- Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS) criteria 187–8, 189, 191–2, 194, 196
- benchmarking
  - private food safety standards 73–6, 77
  - WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement 146, 149, 153
- best practices
  - private food safety standards 71, 72, 75–6
  - private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking 43
- blockchain technology see internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce
- Brussels effect 6, 299–302, 310, 319, 321
- energy exchanges 155–6
- European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 284, 299, 300–302, 310
- Canada, EU/Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) 85, 86, 87–8, 90
- Capital Markets Union plan, and EU Securitisation Regulation 182
- certification
  - as alternative to public enforcement 40–43
  - unannounced inspections 42
  - certification bodies’ liability to end users 39–40
  - see also* accreditation

- codes of conduct
  - corporate social responsibility (CSR) 6–7, 12–13, 275
  - energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts 156, 157, 170–74, 177–8
  - European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 275, 285–6
  - international arbitration and EU rules and values 83, 96–8
  - internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce 108, 110, 114
  - self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy 130–31, 133
  - SMEs and food supply chain see SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct
  - and standards see standards, contracts and codes
  - see also* contracts; standardisation
- collective action problems, Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 260
- competition
  - between arbitration bodies 97–8
  - and energy exchanges see energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts
  - regulatory competition, and standards, contracts and codes 21–3
  - SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct 228–30
- conflicts of interest
  - intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 204, 213, 214–15
  - private food safety standards 55, 56, 69
- contracts
  - European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 275, 285–6
  - Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 252–3, 258–9
  - private food safety standards 58–60
  - self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy 117–18
  - SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct 224, 236–7
  - and standards see standards, contracts and codes
  - see also* codes of conduct; standardisation
- copyright law, internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce 112–13
- corporate social responsibility (CSR) 6–7, 12–13, 275
  - see also* codes of conduct; social considerations
- credit-granting criteria, EU Securitisation Regulation 185
- critical legal scholarship role 307–13
  - access justice 312, 319
  - crisis times, dealing with 308–9
  - national autonomy issues 311
  - political economy revival effects 309–10
  - Social Model issues 309–11, 312–13, 318–20
- cross-border trade and autonomous legal orders, energy exchanges 158–60, 163
- data protection, and internet standardisation 109, 111–12
- delegation issues, private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking 29, 31, 32–7
- deregulation effects
  - energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts 162
  - SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct 224, 238
- digital platform economy
  - ecommerce see internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce

- self-regulation see self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy
- see also* technical standards
- digitalisation of dispute resolution 97
- see also* international arbitration and EU rules and values, alternative dispute resolution (ADR)
- dispute resolution
  - European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL), private administrative law consideration 281–2
  - international arbitration see international arbitration and EU rules and values
  - Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 245–7
  - WTO see WTO Dispute Settlement
- distribution chains
  - food supply chains and SMEs see SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct
  - intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 206–7
- distributor requirements and manufacturer information agreements, intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 204–5, 208
- due diligence
  - and EU Securitisation Regulation 184, 185
  - Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 244–5, 246, 249, 251, 252, 253
- duty of care, private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking 39, 49–50, 52
- ecommerce
  - and internet standardisation see internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce
  - see also* digital platform economy
- energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts 155–79, 271, 272, 316, 317, 319
- anonymity of trades in exchange platform 165
- autonomy of exchange platform 165–6
- Brussels effect 155–6
- capacity allocation and congestion management (CACM) obligation 172, 174
- codification issues 156, 170–74
- cost-of-service regulated energy exchanges 164
- cross-border trade and autonomous legal orders 158–60, 163
- energy exchange platforms 156–7
- European Power Exchange (EPEX) 175–7
- fairness concerns 166–70
- fairness concerns and Market Abuse Directive 168
- intraday and day-ahead contracts 171–4
- intrusion process 175–8
- intrusion process, market manipulation definition 175–7
- market integration and competition 157, 160–66
  - deregulation at national level 162
  - market coupling model 162–3, 173–4
  - privatisation 161
  - reregulation of infrastructures at EU level 162
- Network Codes 157
- over the counter (OTC) markets 163, 165, 166, 168
- pluralism effects 159
- privately created energy exchanges 164–5
- Universal Services Obligations (USOs) 167
- energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts, Regulation on Wholesale Energy Market Integrity and Transparency (REMIT) 157, 166–9

- contract obligations 171–2
- energy exchanges prior to 163–6
- on market manipulation 169–70, 175–7
- risks and surveillance obligations 177–8
- and welfare distribution 169
- environmental considerations, EU
  - Securitisation Regulation, sustainability promotion 193
- Equator Principles and risk management, Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 253–4
- EU
  - consumer contract law 92–5
  - Digital Single Market Strategy 109, 130
  - EU-Vietnam Free Trade Agreement 90
  - EU/Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) 85, 86, 87–8, 90
  - EU/US Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) 85–6, 87
  - food safety law see private food safety standards, EU food safety law
  - General Data Protection Regulation 5–6, 133
  - as gentle civiliser 301, 306
  - integration negativities 305–6
  - Low Voltage Directive 31
  - Market Abuse Directive 168
  - Markets in Financial Instruments Directive see intrafirm processes and product governance (PG), EU Markets in Financial Instruments Directive
  - Medical Devices Directive 38, 39–40
  - Medical Devices Regulation 43–4, 45, 290
  - neoliberalism 304, 305, 307, 312
  - ‘New Approach’ 28–32, 33, 36–7, 48, 49, 50, 317–18
  - ‘New Deal for Consumers’ 115, 124
  - Online Intermediary Platforms Directive Discussion Draft 123–4, 131–2
  - Product Liability Directive 61–3
  - REMIT see energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts, Regulation on Wholesale Energy Market Integrity and Transparency (REMIT)
  - and self-regulation 123–5, 128–9, 130–32, 133–4
  - Unfair Commercial Practices Directive 128–9, 238
  - Unfair Trading Practices Directive 222–4, 225–6
- EU, cases
  - Elliott Construction* 16, 17, 28, 30, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 49, 286, 287, 289, 318
  - ESMA* 30, 34–5, 286, 287, 289
  - Federutility* 167
  - Fra.bo* 37, 318
  - Gemeente Almelo v Energiebedrijf IJsselmij* 161
  - Meroni* 29, 32–7, 33, 286
  - Romano* 32–3, 286
  - Schmitt v TÜV* 40, 318
  - UK v European Parliament and Council* 34, 35
- EU ‘New Approach’ and harmonised standards 28–32, 33, 36–7, 317–18
- EU Securitisation Regulation 180–99, 272, 273, 281–2, 283, 316, 317, 319
  - and Capital Markets Union plan 182 dual aims 182–4
  - financial crisis effects 182–3
  - investor protection and systemic risk management 183–4
  - originate-to-distribute models, prevention of 183, 191
  - resecuritisation ban, EU Securitisation Regulation 185, 192
  - risk management 183–4, 185, 186
  - securitisation special purpose entity (SSPE) 182, 192–4

- EU Securitisation Regulation, STS (simple, transparent and standardised) securitisations 184–90
- and Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS) criteria 187–8, 189, 191–2, 194, 196
- credit-granting criteria 185
- and due diligence 184, 185
- and European Banking Authority (EBA) 187–8
- extra-EU effects 195–8
- extra-EU effects, equivalence regime for third country securitisers 197–8
- extra-EU effects, secondary transnationalisation 196
- and International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) criteria 187–8, 189, 191–2, 194, 196
- resecuritisation ban 185, 192
- selling of securitisations to retail clients 185
- transnational origins 187–9
- European Banking Authority (EBA), and EU Securitisation Regulation 187–8
- European Power Exchange (EPEX) 175–7
- European Regulatory Private Law (ERPL) 3–4, 80, 83, 92, 95, 96–99, 265–298, 302–304, 307, 310, 312, 320
- European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 2, 3–4, 5, 24, 265–98, 307, 312, 313, 316
- Brussels effect 284, 299, 300–302, 310
- codes use 275, 285–6
- contracts use 275, 285–6
- corporate social responsibility policies 275
- exporting effects 267, 271–2
- introspection process 266, 267–9
- reconstruction of EU identity 268
- scope of external reach 271–2
- standards, use of 272–3, 274–5, 279–80, 281–3, 285–6, 291
- verticalisation issues 273, 274–7
- European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL), private administrative law 274–85
- component principles 278–83
- dispute resolution 281–2
- future generalisation potential 290–96
- institutional components 270, 278–85
- judicial review concerns 288
- as legal concept 276–7
- membership recognition issues 294–6
- new governance risks 293–4
- politics and civil society governance 285–96
- regulatory failures in
- constitutionalisation 288–90
- regulatory failures, diagnosing 293
- substantive aspects 283–5
- technical standards in legal system 286–8, 291–2
- European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) 34–5, 201, 206, 217, 218–19
- European Standardization Committee (CEN) 35–6, 133
- European Supply Chain Initiative 226–7
- external dimension
- EU Securitisation Regulation, STS (simple, transparent and standardised) securitisations 195–8
- extraterritoriality 6, 271, 303, 313
- financial crisis effects, EU Securitisation Regulation 182–3
- food safety standards see private food safety standards
- food supply chains
- and SMEs see SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct
- see also* distribution chains
- France
- B2B trading practices regulation 232–3, 235–6, 237
- Commission D'Examen des Pratiques Commerciales (CEPC) 232–3

- Label Relations Fournisseurs & Achats Responsables 235–6
 ‘unfair competition’ legislation 228–30
- free prior and informed consent,
 Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 251–2
- Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI) 73–4, 75, 76
see also private food safety standards, legitimacy management
- harm, strict liability for harm caused by defective food products 62–3
- harmonisation of technical standards 131–4
- human rights, banking sector see Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights
- ICANN see internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce, Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN)
- information exchange
 and EU Securitisation Regulation 194
 intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 204–5, 208, 211, 214, 215
 Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 248–9
 research field information access and expertise 314–16
 and self-regulation in digital platform economy 126
- international arbitration and EU rules and values 80–99
 arbitration reforms 82
 codes of conduct 83, 96–8
 Commission’s incremental support of arbitration 84–8
- Commission’s incremental support of arbitration, rationale for 88–90
- EU-Vietnam Free Trade Agreement 90
- EU/Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) 85, 86, 87–8, 90
- EU/Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA), Trade Sustainability Impact Assessment 89
- EU/US Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) 85–6, 87
- FDI as part of EU common commercial policy 83–4, 88–9
- Investment Court System (ICS) 85, 86–8, 89–92
- Investment Court System (ICS), WTO dispute settlement system comparison 91, 92
- investor-state dispute settlement (ISDS) 84, 85–6, 91–2
- investor-state dispute settlement (ISDS) reform 86–8, 89–90
- Multilateral Investment Court (MIC) 86
- Multilateral Investment Court (MIC), as standardisation tool in international economic law 90–92
see also dispute resolution
- international arbitration and EU rules and values, alternative dispute resolution (ADR) 81–2, 92–8
- International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) and EU Securitisation Regulation 187–8, 189, 191–2, 194, 196
 intrafirm processes see intrafirm processes and product governance (PG), International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) and investor protection

- International Organization for Standardization (ISO), private food safety standards 70, 72, 77
- internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce 100–114, 272, 281, 283, 316
- anonymous use concerns 101–2
- artificial intelligence and pure machine to machine communication 114
- basic technical standards 101–2
- codes of conduct 108, 110, 114
- data portability problems 109
- electronic platforms as standard setters 108–10
- EU Digital Single Market strategy 109
- Internet Architecture Board (IAB) 101
- Internet Engineering Task Force (IETF) 101
- internet governance 102–8
- technical standards and copyright law 112–13
- technical standards and copyright law, Creative Commons licences 113
- see also* self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy; technical standards
- internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce, blockchain technology 110–12 and data protection rules 111–12
- European Blockchain Partnership 111
- Internet Governance Forum (IGF) 106–7
- US influence on 105–6
- intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 200–220, 271, 272, 316, 319
- EU role in transnational arena 216–19
- know your customer principle 201, 202, 212
- UK Financial Services Authority (FSA) Guidance 216, 218–19
- intrafirm processes and product governance (PG), EU Markets in Financial Instruments Directive 201–8
- and European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) Technical Advice 201, 206, 217, 218–19
- internal processes and investor protection duties 207–8
- manufacturers and distributors, distinction between 203–4
- product governance duties 203–7
- risk assessment responsibilities 204
- suitability and appropriateness tests 202
- UCITS management companies 205–6
- Investment Court System (ICS), international arbitration 85, 86–8, 89–92
- investor protection and systemic risk management, EU Securitisation Regulation 183–4
- investor-state dispute settlement (ISDS) 84, 85–6, 91–2
- see also* international arbitration and EU rules and values
- IOSCO (International Organization of Securities Commissions) see intrafirm processes and product governance (PG), International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) and investor protection
- judicial enforcement effectiveness and fear factor, SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct 227–8
- knowledge building as regulatory strategy, Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 249–51
- layered regulation see self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy, layered regulation

- legitimacy management, private food safety standards see private food safety standards, legitimacy management
- manufacturers and distributors, distinction between, intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 203–4
- market coupling model, energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts 162–3, 173–4
- market integration, and energy exchanges see energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts, market integration and competition
- market surveillance regulation, private food safety standards 70–71
- membership recognition issues, European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 294–6
- metaregulation, self-regulation in digital platform economy 125–7
- Multilateral Investment Court (MIC), international arbitration and EU rules and values 86
- national legislation
 autonomy issues 311
 European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 270
 internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce 109
- national responsibility, WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement and private standard setting 143–4
- national standard bodies (NSBs), and private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking 31, 37
- Netherlands
 Food and Consumer Product Safety Authority 76–8
Knooble 33
 polder model 241
 Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 254–62
 Bangladesh Sustainability Compact 261 collective action problems, solving 260
 EU multistakeholder governance 256–62
 EU values-based approach to global governance 255–6
 governance through contract 258–9
 Loan Market Association (LMA) 260
 Open Method of Coordination (OMC) 260–61
 operationalising EU Agreement on Banking and Human Rights 259–62 role of private actors in decisionmaking 257–8
 ‘New Approach’, EU 28–32, 33, 36–7, 48, 49, 50, 317–18
 ‘New Deal for Consumers’, EU 115, 124
 nondiscrimination requirement, WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement 150, 151
- Open Method of Coordination (OMC), Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 260–61
- pesticides and maximum residue levels (MRLs), private food safety standards 65–6
- PIP breast implant scandal see private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking, PIP breast implant scandal
- pluralism effects, energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts 159
- political economy revival effects, and critical legal scholarship role 309–10

- private administrative law see European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL), private administrative law consideration
- private food safety standards, EU food safety law 60–68
  - food chains and firms' responsibilities 63, 66
  - food hygiene and Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point (HACCP) 64–5, 67
  - General Food Law 63, 66
  - and global sourcing of food products 62
  - Medina Report and BSE crisis 61–2
  - official controls 66–8
  - pesticides and GLOBALGAP standard 66
  - pesticides and maximum residue levels (MRLs) 65–6
  - primary agricultural products inclusion 61–2
  - privately labelled products 62
  - Product Liability Directive 61–3
  - reliability challenges 67–8
  - strict liability for harm caused by defective food products 62–3
  - Value of Private Assurance Schemes' working group 67–8, 77
- private food safety standards, legitimacy management 54–8, 68–78
  - accreditation 59, 69–71, 74, 77
  - benchmarking 73–6, 77
  - best practice guidelines for voluntary certification schemes 71, 72, 75–6
  - Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI) 73–4, 75, 76
  - GLOBALGAP standard 70, 72, 73
  - government recognition of certification 76–8
  - International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 70, 72, 77
  - market surveillance regulation 70–71
  - stakeholder participation 71–4
- private technical standards as
  - replacement for public lawmaking 27–53, 271, 272, 273, 286–92, 316, 319–20
  - accountability of notified bodies 37
  - accreditation 37, 40, 41, 46
  - best practices 43
  - competence theory 33
  - delegation theory 33
  - democratic legitimacy loss 37
  - duty of care 39, 49, 52
  - European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA)
    - intervention in financial markets 34–5
  - European Standardization Committee (CEN) 35–6
  - European Standards Organisations (ESOs) and New Approach 29–30, 31, 33, 48, 49, 50
  - Meroni doctrine and delegation issues 29, 32–7
  - national standard bodies (NSBs) 31, 37
  - unlawful delegation complaints 31 see also energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts
- product governance, and intrafirm processes see intrafirm processes and product governance (PG)
- public agency role, SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct 230–34
- public private partnership (PPP) model, private technical standards and transmission belt theory 46–8, 50–51
- recognition requirement, WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement 149–50
- regulatory failures in
  - constitutionalisation, European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 288–90
- regulatory intermediation (RIT) model, self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy 121, 123

- REMIT see energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts, Regulation on Wholesale Energy Market Integrity and Transparency (REMIT)
- reregulation of infrastructures at EU level, and energy exchanges 162
- research field information access and expertise 314–16
- empirics versus theory 315–16
- private, public and semiprivate actors 316–18
- private, public and semiprivate actors, public good protection 316–17
- standards, contracts and codes 314–16
- risk management
- energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts 177–8
- EU Securitisation Regulation 183–4, 185, 186
- intrafirm processes and product governance (PG), EU Markets in Financial Instruments Directive 204
- Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 245, 250, 253–4
- securities
- IOSCO (International Organization of Securities Commissions) see intrafirm processes and product governance (PG), International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) and investor protection
- regulation see EU Securitisation Regulation
- self-regulation 9, 12, 38, 50, 52–3, 79, 105, 109, 115–34, 164, 172–3
- and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy 115–34, 271, 272, 273, 282–3, 289, 316
- codes of conduct 130–31, 133
- EU ‘New Deal for Consumers’ 115, 124
- and information asymmetries 126
- layered regulation 128–34
- platform regulation as metaregulation 125–7
- platform regulation as metaregulation, systemic limitations 126–7
- platforms as regulatory intermediaries 120–25
- regulation by technology 127–8
- self-regulation by platforms 117–20
- see also* internet standardisation and international harmonisation of e-commerce; technical standards
- SMEs and food supply chain codes of conduct 221–38, 272, 316, 317
- civil courts role in B2B relations 227–30, 235
- collectively negotiated contracts 222, 236–7
- deregulation effects 224, 238
- enforcement anticipation, internalisation and cooperation 234–7
- EU Unfair Commercial Practices Directive 238
- EU Unfair Trading Practices Directive 222–4, 225–6
- prohibited practices 226
- on public agencies 233–4
- European Supply Chain Initiative 226–7
- global food crisis effects 224
- judicial enforcement effectiveness and fear factor 227–8
- private regulatory initiatives on business to business relations 226–7
- public agency role 230–34
- regulatory landscape 224–7
- transnational supply chains and way forward 237–8
- unfair competition legislation 228–30

- social considerations
  - corporate social responsibility (CSR) 6–7, 12–13, 275
  - critical legal scholarship role 309–11, 312–13, 318–20
  - energy exchanges and welfare distribution 169
  - EU Securitisation Regulation, sustainability promotion 194
  - Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 241, 242–3, 247, 254, 259, 260, 261
- Spain
  - Agencia de Información y Control Alimentarios (AICA) 231
  - B2B trading practices regulation 232, 235, 237
  - ‘unfair competition’ legislation 228
- stakeholder participation
  - Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 242–3, 250–51
  - private food safety standards 71–4
  - private technical standards and transmission belt theory 47
- standard contracts, and energy exchanges see energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts
- standard setting, WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement see WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement and private standard setting
- standardisation
  - EU Securitisation Regulation, sustainability promotion 192–3
  - European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 272–3, 274–5, 279–80, 281–3, 285–6, 291
  - food safety see private food safety standards
  - internet see internet standardisation and international harmonisation of ecommerce
  - technical standards see technical standards
- technical standards see technical standards
- standards, contracts and codes 4, 6–14, 21–5, 300–301, 302–4, 314–21
  - accountability 6–7, 10
  - corporate social responsibility (CSR) (codes) 6–7, 12–13
  - international standardisation 9–10
  - juridification 13–14
  - public dimension 23–4
  - regulatory competition 21–3
  - sector-specific component and functional differentiation 7–8
  - soft law norms 6–7
  - transnational normativity 8–9
  - transnational private regulation (standard form contracts) 10–12
  - verticalisation issues 7–9
- STS (simple, transparent and standardised) securitisations see EU Securitisation Regulation, STS (simple, transparent and standardised) securitisations
- suitability and appropriateness tests, intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 202
- supply chains, private food safety standards 56–7, 59–60
- sustainability, and securitisation see EU Securitisation Regulation, sustainability promotion
- syndicated lending influence, Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 249, 253–4
- technical standards
  - European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 286–8, 291–2
  - and public lawmaking see private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking

- and WTO TBT Agreement see
WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement and private standard setting, technical regulations and standards, distinction between
- see also* internet standardisation and international harmonisation of e-commerce; self-regulation and regulatory intermediation in digital platform economy
- trade barriers, and private food safety standards 56
- transmission belt theory see private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking, transmission belt theory and alternative regulatory models
- transparency requirements
EU Securitisation Regulation, sustainability promotion 193
Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 246–7
private technical standards and transmission belt theory 49
- UCITS management companies, intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 205–6
- UK
B2B trading practices regulation 231–2, 235
Brexit effect 197, 219, 312
Financial Services Authority (FSA) Guidance, and intrafirm processes and product governance (PG) 216, 218–19
Food Safety Act 60–61
Food Standards Agency (FSA), ‘Earning Recognition’ programme 77–8
Groceries Code Adjudicator 231, 235
Grocery Supply Chain Code of Practice (GSCOP) 231–2
Modern Slavery Act 240
Supermarkets Code 231
- UN Guiding Principles, Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 240–41, 243, 244, 245, 250
- Universal Services Obligations (USOs), energy exchanges and standardisation of standard contracts 167
- US
EU/US Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) 85–6, 87
and Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) 105–6
- usurpation theory, private technical standards as replacement for public lawmaking 33–4
- value chain mappings of high-risk sectors, Netherlands, Banking Sector Agreement on Human Rights 250
- verticalisation issues
European regulatory private law, external dimension (ED-ERPL) 273, 274–7
standards, contracts and codes 7–9
- voluntary standards, self-regulation in digital platform economy 132–3
- WTO Dispute Settlement
Australia–Salmon 140
Canada – Renewable Energy/ Feed-In Tariff Program 137
EC–Sardines 148
EC–Selected Customs Matters 143
Investment Court System (ICS) 91, 92
Japan–Film 137
US–Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Duties (China) 143
US–Tuna II 141, 147, 148, 149, 150, 280
- WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement and private standard setting 135–54, 271, 272, 273, 279–80, 283, 295, 316, 319

- and benchmarking 146, 149, 153
- Code of Good Practice 141–2
- GATT (General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade) legislation 136–7, 139, 142–3
- Government Procurement Agreement (GPA) 137
- SPS (Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures) Agreement 137–8, 140, 147
- TRIMS (Trade-Related Investment Measures) Agreement 137
- WTO law influence 136–8
- WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement and private standard setting, and international standard adoption 146–52
- consensus requirement 148–9
- market acceptance 152
- nondiscrimination requirement 150, 151
- open membership question 147–8, 151, 152
- recognition requirement 149–50 and strategies of WTO members 151–2
- WTO TBT (Technical Barriers to Trade) Agreement and private standard setting, technical regulations and standards, distinction between 138–45
  - central government, local government or nongovernmental bodies distinctions 141–2, 143–5
  - framing legal challenge against a WTO Member 142–3
  - local and nongovernmental bodies 139–40
  - mandatory regulations versus voluntary standards 141
  - state responsibility 143–4