Contents

List	of contributors of abbreviations nowledgements	vii x xiii
PAF	RT I INTRODUCTION
1	Introduction: the centrality of arenas, agents and actions Tom Baker and Christopher Walker	2
PAF	RT II ARENAS
2	Policy circulation through the Twitterverse: the case of Arctic development policy Jennifer Spence	26
3	Seeing is believing? Understanding policy tourism as an arena for policy circulation Tom Baker and Pauline McGuirk	42
4	The South as an arena of policy circulation: South–South cooperation on human rights policies Michelle Morais de Sá e Silva	56
PAF	RT III AGENTS
5	Big philanthropies as agents of policy circulation in development: examining the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation Roosa Jolkkonen	73
6	The business of global intermediaries in the promotion of bus rapid transit Astrid Wood	89
7	Failure is an option: epistemic communities and the circulation of Health Technology Assessment Alexandru Rusu and Olga Löblová	103

PART IV ACTIONS

	Collaborative interactions: understanding transfer success in	100
	transport regulation and compliance policies	123
	Christopher Walker
	Policy transfer strategies: how agents' actions ensure lessons from abroad stick at home	144
	Mauricio I. Dussauge-Laguna
10	Enacting persuasion: storytelling, emotional artefacts and face-to-face encounters as key actions behind policy
	circulation	161
	Sergio Montero
11	Policy narratives and policy transfer mechanisms: towards a research agenda	180
	Titilayo Soremi
PAR'	T V CONCLUSION
12	Prospects for policy circulation studies: towards engaged
	pluralism?	196
	Tom Baker, Mauricio I. Dussauge-Laguna, Roosa Jolkkonen,
	Olga Löblová, Pauline McGuirk, Sergio Montero, Michelle
	Morais de Sá e Silva, Alexandru Rusu, Titilayo Soremi, Jennifer Spence, Christopher Walker and Astrid Wood
Bibli	Bibliography
Index		231