

Index

- Abery, E. 207
Academic Dean 253 academic directors 99 academic engagement, work–life balance and conflict 168–78
 burnout 174, 176
 conflicting values 174, 176, 177*t* disciplinary or negative perspectives 170, 171
 emotional labour 169, 171 home and family 170
 hyperprofessionalism 169, 170
 key performance indicators (KPIs) 171, 177–8
 managerial scrutiny and control 169, 170
 mental health issues 173
 metrics and targets 176–7
 new managerialism 171–2 performance audits and judgements 170, 176 performance indicators 170, 177
 presenteeism 169
 quality of working life 169
 reward and recognition, insufficient 174, 176, 177*t*
 stress and stress management 169, 170, 174
 summative usage 176 surveillance, micro-management, monitoring and scrutiny 170, 171, 174, 176
 teaching-related factors 172, 175
 unfairness, sense of 174, 176, 177*t*
 wellbeing 169
 working hours 169
see also student evaluation of teaching (SET)
- academic management roles in undergraduate student experience
 99–116
academic experience 101*t*, 104, 112*f*, 113
campus experience 101*t*, 104, 112*f*, 113 completion rates 111
conceptualising student experience 100, 101–104
employability experience 107, 113
findings 106–110
 peers' lens 107–109 student lens 106–107 four-lens model (Brookfield) 100, 103, 104–105, 106, 115
framework of student experience (Temple) 101*t*, 103, 106, 111 graduate experience 101*t*, 104, 112*f*, 113 implications for theory and practice 114–15
literature lens 103
methods 104–106
 participants 104–105
 procedure 106
participants' profiles 105*t*
peers/colleagues' lens 103, 105, 106, 107–109
personal tutor 99–100, 102, 103, 105, 106–114, 115
phenomenological approach 103,
 104
pre-entry experience 101*t*, 104, 111, 112*f*
programme leader 99–100, 102, 103, 105, 106–114, 115
recruitment processes 114–15
reflections' lens 105, 106, 109–112

- students' lens 103, 106–107 teacher's own lens 103
 transition 107
 year tutor 99–100, 102, 103, 105, 106–108, 115
 'accidental' academic 47–8 accountability 110, 171–2, 214–15 acculturation 93
 Ackoff, R. L. 266
 Adams, J. 84, 91 administrative procedures 114, 220, 221
 age factors 94
 age imbalance across universities 279 ageing of academic workforce 5, 300 retirement age 301–302, 307 Technology Acceptance Model (TAM) 228–34
 see also working past retirement age agency 40, 41
 Al-Adwan, A. 230
 Alderman, L. 173
 Allison, L. 315
 Allison, R. 328, 343
 Alpha career pattern 35, 36
 alumni networks 76
 amateurism 3
 Anderson, J. (Anderson Committee)
 279–80
 anxiety 4, 83, 84, 92, 111, 173
 apprenticeship model 47 assessment processes see PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) assessment processes: inter-institutional
 variations and inconsistencies
 assistant professorships 183 assistants 188
 associate professors 188–90 Association for Institutional Research (AIR) 267, 268
 audits 170, 176, 211, 212
 Australia 173, 254
 authenticity 32, 35, 36, 37, 39, 40
 autonomy 26, 28, 90, 212, 213, 253, 260, 305
 Bagozzi, R. P. 238
 Barkhuizen, G. 2
 Barki, H. 228
 Barnard, G. 333
 Barnett, R. 168, 176
 Baum, M. 301
 Baum, R. C. 301
 Beattie, J. 271
 Beech, N. 306 belonging, sense of and inclusiveness 114
 Bengasat, I. 228
 Benner, P. 86
 Bensimon, E. M. 254
 Berk, R. A. 173
 Bernard, J. M. 155
 Berry, K. 197, 208
 Birnbaum, R. 254
 Blackmore, J. 215
 Blenkinsopp, J. 23, 25
 Bolden, R. 256
 Borland, K. 269
 Boudon, R. 273
 boundaryless career 31, 36, 37, 40
 Bourdieu, P. 288, 295
 brain drain 278–9
 Braun, S. 253
 Breakwell, G. M. 255
 Bristow, A. 9
 Brookfield, S. D. 100, 103–106, 109, 115
 Brosan, G. R. 153
 Browne Review (2010) 211
 Bryer, T. A. 69
 Bryman, A. 255
 Burgess, T. F. 215
 Burke, J. 333
 Burnham, P. 139
 burnout 174, 176, 207
 Burstein, M. 277
 Business, Innovation and Skills (BIS) 67, 69
 Callender, C. 103
 Caplan, R. 213 career development and intellectual opportunities 84, 92

- career issues, paths and motivations 31–41 31–41
 Alpha career pattern 35, 36
 authenticity 32, 35, 36, 37, 39, 40
 barriers 40
 boundaryless career 31, 36, 37, 40 challenges 35, 36
 intelligent career 31–2, 40, 41
 kaleidoscope career 31, 39, 40, 41
 ‘knowing whom’ competency 37–8, 40
 methods 32–9
 participants’ profiles 32*t*
 protean career 31–2, 34–5, 37, 40, 41
 work–life balance 34–5, 38, 39, 40 career orientation/progression 48, 59–60, 169 career service and support 71 career transitions from industry to academia 16–28
 findings 18–28
 current employer, reason for choosing 20–23
 participants’ perceptions of career choices 23–8 reasons people make career transitions 18–23
 role 23–5
 serendipity and chance 20
 status and prestige 25–6
 teaching as a calling 19, 28
 work–life balance 18–19, 27–8
 working conditions 26–8
 methodology 16–18
 participant demographic information 17*t*
 Carswell, J. 280
 Carter, B. 137
 Cashian, P. 75
 Cassidy, S. 197, 208 challenges, coping with 4
 Chang, S. C. 232
 Chartered Institute of Marketing 156
 Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development 156
 Christiaens, W. 175
 Chung, J. E. 230 citizen/authority analogy 171 class sizes 175*t*, 234–5, 276
 Coaldrake, P. 49, 54
 College Presidents 254 collegial and symbolic qualities and values 254
 collegiality, lacking 11 commercialisation of universities 62, 252 commitment and enthusiasm for teaching 3 Committee on Grants to Students (Anderson Committee) 279–80
 commoditisation 62 compassion fatigue 198, 207 competition-based university funding 3, 4, 11 competition-based working life 186 competitive advantage 171
 Condon, J. 278
 Conrad, D. 240
 consultancy – widening gap between managers and academics 277
 consultative work 317
 coping and coping strategies 2, 85, 89–90
 social support 201*t*, 204–205 copyright 187 core subject vs option module 175*t* corporatisation in university management practice 54 Council for National Academic Awards (CNAA) 153 course-related factors 175
 Credit Accumulation Transfer Scheme (CATS) 276
 Crewe, I. 274–5
 ‘critical friend’ 129
 Crosby, J. 52
 Crossouard, B. 140
 Cryer, P. 140
 culture shock and cultural issues 83, 84, 87, 90, 91, 92
 current employer, reason for choosing 20–23
 Cyprus see distance learning education and technological change (Cyprus)

- Dance, A. 338
- Darwin, S. 174
- Davies, E. M. M. 315
- Davies, F. 216
- Davies, G. 220
- Davis, F. D. 227–8
- DBA (Doctor of Business Administration) 317, 319
- De Santo, M. G. 324
- Deans of Faculty 254
- Dearing Report 128, 275
- Denmark 256
see also PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) careers
 post-graduation (Denmark);
 teaching/research balance
 (Denmark)
- Department Heads 254
- departmental champions 235
- depersonalisation 206–207
- depression 84
- determinism 85, 305
- Dickens, J. 276
- diploma awards 156
- Diploma in Management programmes 316
- directive performance appraisal systems 218
- disciplinary or negative perspectives 170, 171
- discretionary work 169
- disillusionment 4, 83, 91
- distance learning 165, 166, 317 see also distance learning education and technological change (Cyprus)
- distance learning education and technological change (Cyprus) 238–50 accessibility, ease of 240 change management 240
 continuous training 249 effectiveness, increased by animated learning 240 face-to-face determinants of success 246, 249 flexibility in learning 240 information flow through mobility 239 internationalisation 239–40 knowledge production 239 learning style and cultural issues 240 literature review 239–40
 low cost 240
 management 239–40
 maturity and discipline towards studies 247–9 methodology 241–2 participants 242
 motivation 247–9
 negative effects 244 non-technological tools, use of in tandem with 249 pedagogical expertise 240 permitted/not-permitted topics in class 241 questionnaires and live WebEx sessions 247 relevance 239 results 242–8
 attitudes towards DL education 244–8 challenges academics face 243*t* impact of technology on the work of academics 242–4 scholarship of discovery 239 smartphones and interactive whiteboards 243 social expertise 240 social media (Facebook and Instagram) 243 staff support 249 system capabilities 241 technological expertise 240 time management 240, 248 training on non-technical aspects 246 workload, increase in 241, 244, 248
- Dobson, S. 146
- Doherty, N. 215, 218
- Donelan, M. 344
- Doyle, B. 333
- Drew, S. 174

- Eakin, P. J. 307
- early-career academics in the context of 'excellence' 2–12 in context of 'excellence' 4–5 early career academics 2–4 findings 6–11
'living the dream' 6–8
surviving and thriving as a personal goal 10–11 tensions and contradictions 8–10
methods 6
transition and adjustment between international and early career staff 12*t*
- economic and personal capital models 78
- Ekman, M. 252
- Elton, L. 274, 278–9
- emeritus 308
see also emeritus roles:
autobiographical approach
- emeritus roles: autobiographical approach 324–45 access to networks, facilities and expertise 340
autoethnography 326 charity work 336, 338, 339*t*, 340–42, 344, 358–9
childhood and school 326–7 community education and provision of higher education opportunities for disadvantaged students 335
councils and committees involvement 334 creative arts 335 critical incidents 344 critical people 343–4
Dean and Pro-Vice-Chancellor (1998–2011) 334–6 definition of emeritus professor 324–5
emeritus professor (2011–?) 337–42
employees and volunteers 342 funding and accounting practices 341–2
- Global Hope* (previously Hope One World) (charity) 333
- Head of Department (1988–98) 333–4 institutional and personal chronology 329–32*t* institutions 345
Liverpool Hope's Creative Campus
335–6, 337–8, 345
meetings 342 narrative inquiry 326 national associations 333–4 Network of Hope 335 overseas academic communities, links with 338
Peru 327 qualitative methods 325 quantitative data 326 research 328
retirement (2011) 337
sense of purpose 338 stipend or remuneration 324 teacher training 328 teaching (1973–88) 333 university and charity procedures and attitudes 341
urban regeneration 335
- emotional labour and wellbeing 169, 171, 196–208
compassion fatigue 198, 207
coping through social support 201*t*, 204–205
deep acting 198, 202
depersonalisation 206–207
discontent and dissatisfaction 197 emotional display rules 197–8, 205 emotional dissonance and burnout 198, 207
emotional distancing 203, 206 emotional exhaustion and fatigue 203–204, 207
feeling rules 197 hermeneutic circle/phenomenology
198
Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA) 198–9 mental health 207–208
methodology 198–201

- analysis 200
- participant reflective interviews 199–200
- sample 199
- ‘mothering’ role 206
- paternalistic relationship with students 201–204, 201*t*
- professional detachment 207
- self-protection, need for 201*t*, 205–206
- stress 198, 204
- subordinate themes 201*t*
- superordinate themes 201–204, 201*t*, 204–206
- surface acting 198, 207
- theoretical background 197–8
- value dissonance 203
- employability of students 67–79
 - acquisition of skills and attributes 72
 - curriculum and employability 72–3
 - defining and embedding employability in curriculum 72
 - developmental view 72
 - economic impact of employability 69
 - economic self-sufficiency 69
 - enterprise and employability 78–9
 - exclusivity and social injustices 75
 - frameworks 72
 - holistic employability model 71, 73
 - how students perceive they gain knowledge of employability skills 70*f*
 - lists of employability skills 72
 - macro level connection between graduate employability and economic growth 68
 - mock assessment centre days 75
 - part-time students and employability 79
 - positional approaches 72
 - possessional approaches 72–3
 - postgraduate employability 78
 - processual approach 72–3, 79
 - research around factors influencing employability 72
 - self-managed learning 73–4, 76–7
 - simulation of selection and recruitment 72–3, 75, 77
 - Skills and Personal Reflective Activity questionnaire 74–6
 - soft skills, knowledge and personal attributes 67
 - students 69–71
 - universities 68–9
 - see also* TEE (Transition, Empowerment and Enrichment) model
- employee-like tasks 56
- empowerment 68, 75–6, 78
- enrichment for exit 76–9
- Enserink, M. 176
- Enterprise Education (EE) 68, 71, 73
- enthusiasm for teaching 48
- Eteokleous, N. 249
- ethical issues 157, 164
- Europe 82, 186, 212, 269, 271, 286
- European Association for Institutional Research (EAIR) 269
- evaluation of teaching see student evaluation of teaching (SET)
- examinations 187
 - see also* PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) assessment processes: inter-institutional variations and inconsistencies
- examiners see PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) assessment processes: inter-institutional variations and inconsistencies
- expectations xvii, 51, 92, 100, 197
- expertise, level of 21
- external collaborations 252
- external examiners 120–32, 137, 187, 308
 - career enhancement 131
 - ‘critical friend’ 129
 - email or Skype, duties undertaken by 126–7
 - examiner experience 123
 - findings 124–32
 - exam boards attendance 126–8
 - first external position 122, 128–9
 - general duties 124–6

- remarking work 130
 - validation and external examination distinction 130–31
 - formal annual report 126
 - institutional processes, weak or inconsistent 126
 - ‘internal external’ to gain experience in own institution 129, 132
 - job adverts 128
 - methodology 121–3
 - discussion forum 121–3, 132
 - semi-structured interviews 123
 - topics raised in discussion forum 122*t*
 - payment of fees 126
 - prior experience 128–9, 132
 - reasons for becoming examiner 131–2
 - right-to-work checks 122–3
 - role requirements 123
 - sampling 122
 - standardisation of procedures 124
 - validation panel 129, 132
- Farbrother, C. 113
- fellowship 46–7
- Festinger, L. 198
- financial pressures 5, 40, 84, 111
- financialisation 11, 62
- Finkelstein, M. J. 240
- Flaherty, C. 315
- flexible working 28, 169
- foreign-born staff see international academics and cross-cultural adaptation
- formal training 47
- four-lens model (Brookfield, S. D.) 100, 103, 104–105, 106, 115
- Fox, M. F. 257
- Franco-Santos, M. 215, 218
- Froese, F. J. 93
- Frost, P. J. xvii, 239
- funding, changes in 196
- Further and Higher Education Act (1992) 153
- Garrett, G. 220
- Garrison, C. P. 25–6
- Gecas, V. 306
- gender factors 6, 94, 197
- gender distribution in PhD careers post-graduation (Denmark) 287–8
- gender gap 259
- gender identity 3
- gender of students 175*t*
- Technology Acceptance Model (TAM) 228–31, 233
- generalist role 50–51
- Germany 254, 256–7, 259–60
- Gläser, J. 7
- ‘good’ students 175*t*
- Goodyear, R. K. 155
- Gould-Williams, J. 216
- governance mechanisms 186, 193
- government initiatives 4
- government-sponsored initiatives for small businesses 316–17
- grade leniency 175*t*
- graduate identity perspective 72
- graduate level employment outcomes 67
- Grady, M. L. 173
- Graeber, D. 219
- grants and fellowships 4
- Greenberg, D. 266
- Groom, G. 343
- Grove, L. 103
- guest speakers 321
- Gunson, J. S. 207
- Guthrie, E. 172
- Hagenauer, G. 206
- Hammersley, A. 333, 344
- Hannan, A. 120–21
- happenstance theory 34
- hard skills – organisational ability 114
- Harden, R. M. 52
- Harris, L. 207, 271
- Hartwell, H. 113
- Hauk, N. 301
- Head of Department 253

- Heidegger, M. 199
- Heller, D. 277
- Hepworth, S. 69, 70*f*, 72
- Hernandez, M. 218
- hierarchical nature of academia 8, 36, 171
- Higher National Certificate programme 318
- Higher National Diploma programme 318
- Hills, J. M. 73
- Hochschild, A. R. 198
- Hoffman, K. D. 56
- holistic employability model 71, 73
- Holmes, L. 72, 75
- HOPE (Helping Outstanding Pupils Educationally) programme (Georgia, United States) 277–8
- Hopson, B. 83, 91
- House of Commons Public Accounts Committee on Redundancy Compensation Payments to University Staff 278
- Howard, R. 269
- Hu, P. J. H. 231
- Hüffmeier, J. 301
- Hughes, C. 333, 344
- Human Resource Management (HRM) 169
- Humboldt, W. von 185, 257
- hyperprofessionalism 169, 170
- identity 100, 303–5
 - academic as form of 10–11, 46
 - and agendas 5
 - bricolage 306
 - conflict 3
 - construction 4
 - graduate identity perspective 72
 - occupational 306–308
 - personal – the self 305–307
 - racial/ethnic 3
 - on retirement 302–305
 - social class 3
- inadequacy and disorientation 84
- individual coaching sessions 259
- individualistic nature of academia 3, 8
- Information and Communication Technology (ICT) and new information 54, 165, 166
 - see also* distance learning; Technology Acceptance Model (TAM)
- institutional indicators 215
- institutional research (IR) 265–82
 - centralisation of IR 269
 - contextual intelligence 268
 - disparate functions 269
 - gnothi seauton* (know thyself) 266–7
 - policy objectives 266–7
 - issues intelligence 268–9
 - policy objectives, responding to 270–74
 - errors in data underpinning policy objective 272
 - ignorance of social system
 - critical to policy objective 272
 - ‘imperious immediacy of interest’ 273
 - importing commercial practices 271
 - managerialism, rise of 270–73
 - pervasive or unintended consequences 271–4
 - self-defeating prophecies 273
 - technical analysis 268–9
 - unintended consequences 271–82
 - consultancy – widening gap between managers and academics 277
 - entitlement to support 279–82
 - lottery funding and narrowing access 277–8
 - modular degrees and student feedback about assessment 275–6
 - restructuring universities and the brain drain 278–9
 - summative assessment of Internet 275
 - tuition fees 280, 281*f*, 282
 - ‘what’ and ‘why’ questions 267–70
 - research paradigms 270
- institutional staff surveys 214

- institutional support, lack of 207, 279–82
- instrumentality 44, 55–6, 62
- intelligent career 31–2, 40, 41
- international academics and cross-cultural adaptation xviii, 3–4, 11, 82–95, 165 academic expectations 92 accepting a new reality 84, 93
 acculturation 93
 adjustment stage 83
 anxiety 84, 92
 career development and intellectual opportunities 84, 92 coping strategies 85, 89–90 crisis stage 83, 91
 culture shock and cultural issues 83, 84, 87, 90, 91, 92 deep-rooted stage 90 denial 84
 depression 84
 determination 85
 disillusionment 83, 91
 emotional and physical upheavals 88 exemplars or paradigm cases 86 financial hardship 84
 findings 87–91
 euphoric stage 87, 91–2
 ‘integration’ stage 90–91 ‘letting go’ stage 89–90, 93 shock stage 84, 87–9, 92, 95 flexibility 85
 foreignness used as resilience resource 90, 93 honeymoon stage 83, 91
 inadequacy and disorientation 84
 internalisation 84 interpretive phenomenology 86 language and cultural difference barriers 84 loneliness and isolation 84
 mental health issues 84
 mentoring 92, 94
 methodology 85–7
 participants 85–6
 research design and analysis 86–7
- migration culture transition patterns 83–5
- mobility 83, 92
- organisational factors 91
- personal relationships with colleagues and friends 84, 89, 90, 93
- personal resilience 91
- preparedness 91
- pride 90
- professional difficulties 84, 87
- psychological reactions to transition 91
- racial prejudice, xenophobia, stereotyping and hostility 84, 88–9, 92
- recovery stage 83, 91
- recruitment from the EU 82
- recruitment from outside the EU 82
- reputation 92
- residential and logistical difficulties 84, 92
- risk 84
- searching for meaning 84
- self-determination 93
- self-esteem 84
- social aspects 90
- social, psychological and educational theories 84
- social support 94
- socio-cultural and educational adaptation 83
- status and prestige 92
- stress and coping 94
- teacher–student relationship 88
- testing 84
- thriving mode 93
- transition and adjustment 83–4, 88–9, 94
- work-related and socio-cultural adjustment 94
- international accreditations 252
- Internet: summative assessment 275
- Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA) 198–9
- Islam, N. 240

- Jackson, C. 139
 James, P. 345
 Jary, D. 59
 Jasman, A. 48, 49–50
 Jenkins, A. K. 315
 Jenlink, P. M. 64
 Jennings, J. 328, 344 job insecurity 3–4
 Jones, J. 173–4, 176 journal rankings 5
- Kairuz, T. 178
 kaleidoscope career 31, 39, 40, 41
 Kehm, B. 240
 Kember, D. 172
 Kennedy, D. 171
 Kernutt 343
 Kersh, N. 103
 key performance indicators (KPIs) 67, 171, 177–8, 217, 218–19
 Kierkegaard, S. 269
 Kiley, M. 138
 Kim, H. Y. 228
 King, A. 274–5
 Kitayama, S. 305
 Klopper, C. 174
 Knight, P. 72
 Knipfer, K. 260
 ‘knowing whom’ competency 37–8, 40
 knowledge
 abstract 297 explicit and tacit 313–14, 317–18 nature of 58
 overconfidence in one’s own 24
 Knowles, M. S. 74
 Kogan, M. 239–40
 Koster, S. 197, 207, 208
 Kretovics, M. A. 56
 Kronman, A. T. 50, 53
 Krumm, S. 301
 Ktoridou, D. 249
- Lackritz, J. R. 174
 Langbein, L. 176
 Larschan, R. 315
 Laudel, G. 7
- Lave, J. 8
 Lawless, B. 197, 207, 208
 Lawton, M. P. 315 leaders and leadership development 252–60 adaptability 255 administrative, formal leader roles 253, 254–6, 260 administrative and research leadership differentiation 252 behaviours associated with leadership effectiveness 255 capabilities 259 change 253, 260
 collegial and symbolic qualities and values 254 community of professionals 254 complexity and competitiveness 252, 257 confidence 255 context-specific challenges 252 credibility 255 diversity 259 effectiveness 254 experience of university life 255 feedback 259 financial awareness 255 follower development 258
 gender gap 259
 incentives 260
 individual coaching sessions 259
 individual level 259
 international accreditations 252
 learning mindset 259 motivation 258, 259–60
 organizational level/unit 259 perceived lack of fit 259 practical training sessions 259 presidential leadership 254 professional managers 254 research leader roles (informal) 253, 256–8, 260 role of leadership development 258–60 security/insecurity 260 selection 259 self-reflection 259 size of research teams 257

- strategic leadership 255
- strength-focused approach 260
- strong persona 255
- team performance 258
- theoretical input 259
- transformational leadership 258
- uncertainty 253
- vision 255
- league tables 5
- lecturers 256
 - charisma 175*t*
 - contradictory view of nature and role of 51
 - facilitation and guiding role of 50
 - title 54
- Lee, M. 301–302, 308
- Lee, S. 333, 334
- legitimate peripheral participation 8
- Leiter, M. 174, 176
- Lindgren, M. 252
- 'living the dream' 6–8, 11
- Locke, J. 305
- loneliness and isolation 84, 294–5, 296
- Longden, B. 270
- lottery funding and narrowing access 277–8

- Mabry, C. K. 24
- McCauley, C. 139
- Macfarlane, B. 52, 71
- managerial control and efficiency
 - savings through lean concepts 196
- managerialism 62, 164, 169, 270–73
 - see also* new managerialism; New Managerialism Philosophy (NMP)
- Mares, C. 333
- marginalisation 3
- Marin, P. 277
- marketisation of universities 99, 214, 219
- Markus, H. R. 305
- masculine model 36
- Maskell, D. 240
- Maslach, C. 174, 176

- Mason, I. 344
- massification 99, 214
- Master's degrees 156, 316
- Matthews, D. 271
- MBA (Master of Business Administration) degree 316, 317–18
- Mead, G. H. 306
- membership of an academy 46
- mental health issues 84, 173, 207–208
 - anxiety 4, 83, 84, 92, 111, 173
 - depression 84
 - see also* stress and stress management
- mentoring 4, 9–10, 92, 94, 114, 161
- merit-based or need-based awards 278
- Mertens, P. 140
- Merton, R. K. 272–3, 275
- metrics and targets 176–7, 214
- migrant academics see international academics and cross-cultural adaptation
- Mihhailova, G. 240, 241, 248
- Millennial universities 230
- Mintzberg, H. J. 219
- mock assessment centre days 75
- modular degrees and student feedback
 - about assessment 275–6
- monitoring and scrutiny 169–70, 174, 211, 212, 219
- Montgomery, J. 268
- morale 115, 169
- Morell, J. A. 274
- Morgan, W. 344
- motivation 216, 223, 258, 259–60
- moving average system 216
- Mullins, G. 138

- Napier, Sir Mellis 44, 46, 49
- National Student Survey (NSS) 67, 78, 172, 276
- National Union of Students (NUS) 221
- neoliberalism 4, 5, 6, 8, 12, 185, 192, 196, 208

- Neruda, P. 307
- Ness, E. C. 278
- Netherlands 256
- Neuman, R. 174
- new managerialism 171–2, 196, 208
see also New Managerialism Philosophy (NMP)
- New Managerialism Philosophy (NMP) 211, 212, 214–22, 223 administrative processes 219–20 performance appraisal systems 217–19
 student as customer 221–2 workload allocation models 215–17
- ‘new normal’ 211
- new public management (NPM) 185, 187, 192, 257
- NICE 211, 213, 214, 216–18, 220, 222
- Noland, B.E. 278
- Nordic countries 186
see also Denmark
- Oberg, K. 83, 91, 93
- Office for Students (OfS) 270
- Ogbonna, E. 207, 271
- on the job training 48
- online information searches 71
- online learning platforms 165, 166
see also distance learning
- open knowledge sources, access to 50
- oral examination see PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) assessment processes: inter-institutional
 variations and inconsistencies
- organisational protocol 207
- Orwell, G. 51
- Ottewill, R. 71
- over-supply of graduates 71
- overseas students see international academics and cross-cultural adaptation
- Packendorff, J. 252
- Palfreyman, D. 271
- para-academics 52
- Park, C. 136, 139–40
- Parker, M. 59
- part-time students and employability 79
- partial employees, students as 56–7, 171
- participant demographic information 171
- paternalistic relationship with students 201–204, 201*t*
- peer review 176, 235
- Peltokorpi, V. 93
- pensions 301–303, 312–13
- performance appraisal systems 217–19 audits and judgements 170, 176
 -based working life 186 culture 192 indicators 170, 177 individual 216
 management 174, 211
 measures 67 see also key performance indicators (KPIs)
- Perkman, M. 252
- Persico, D. 229
- person-environment fit theory 315
- personal interests, hobbies and travel 308
- Personal Professional Development
 (PPD) 68, 74
- personal relationships with colleagues and friends 84, 89, 90, 93
- personal tutors 99–100, 102, 103, 105, 106–114, 115
- PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) 319 early-career academics in the context of ‘excellence’ 2 research supervision 156, 163, 165
 teaching/research balance
 (Denmark) 183, 188–9
see also PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) assessment processes: inter-institutional
 variations and inconsistencies;
 PhD (Doctor of Philosophy)
 careers post-graduation
 (Denmark)

- PhD (Doctor of Philosophy)
- assessment processes:
 - inter-institutional variations and inconsistencies 135–49
 - ambiguities and tensions 137
 - applied perspectives 140–45
 - appointment of examiners: criteria 136, 138, 142*t*
 - assessment process, variability in 137–8, 142*t*, 145
 - attendance of observers 144*t*, 145
 - behaviour (bad) and maverick tendencies of examiner 138, 140
 - chairpersons 145
 - closed nature of examination 140
 - common features 137–8
 - commonality and variance 140–41
 - concerns surrounding assessment processes 138–9
 - consistency 137, 138
 - decision-making processes, uncertainty surrounding 138–9
 - discretion and leeway 136, 145
 - end-point uncertainty 137
 - external examiner 137
 - face validity 147
 - fairness 137, 138, 140
 - final assessment of thesis 135
 - independent chairperson 143*t*, 145
 - independent and joint examination reports 138
 - independent pre-oral and joint post-oral examiners' report forms 145
 - judgement-making, uncertainty surrounding 139
 - moderation processes, lack of 140
 - national standards 136
 - nomination of examiners 143*t*, 145
 - number and type of examiners 142*t*
 - objectivity 138
 - oral examination 135, 137–40
 - affective and gendered experiences 140
 - conduct 136
 - electronic recording 144*t*, 145
 - obligatory nature 145
 - permitted location 143*t*, 145
 - requirement 143*t*
 - responsibility for arrangement of 143*t*
 - outcome of assessment 136, 140, 145*t*
 - overview of institutional practices in pre-1992 universities (UK) 142–5*t*
 - power, authority and influence, unequal levels of 140
 - pre-oral assessment reports 144*t*
 - preparation of candidates for final assessment 138
 - prescriptive practical protocols 148
 - progress reviews 135
 - psychometric perspective 146
 - reliability 146
 - rigorous procedures 137
 - “secret garden” of assessment – incomplete information and rumour 137
 - social and subjective interaction 148
 - standardised assessment criteria 146, 148
 - supervisor, role of when in attendance 143*t*, 144*t*, 145
 - timescales linked to amendments 137, 145
 - transparency 137, 138, 139, 140
 - validity 146–7
 - varied practices 139
- PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) careers
- post-graduation (Denmark) 286–97
 - active rejection of university career 295
 - business services and finance 288, 292
 - competences 286–8, 290, 297
 - conditions of opportunity 295–7
 - connections or associations 289
 - empirical basis and research methods 287–9
 - employment at university 288

- exit strategy 292, 297
- gender distribution 288
- humanities and social sciences 287–8, 292
- loneliness and isolation 294–5, 296
- public administration 288, 292
- qualitative study 287
- quantitative study 287–8
- right place at the right time 289
- strategies 286–8, 289–91, 295–7
- strategies outside of university 288, 292–5
 - being inside and feeling outside 294–5
 - moves to other institutions 292–4
- teaching and administrative tasks 291
- working conditions 291, 293, 294–5
- working hours and free time 291
- phenomenological approach 103, 104
- Pillay, G. 325, 333–4
- Placement Offices 159–60
- placements 71
- plagiarism 159, 163–4
- Plato's Academy 56
- polytechnics 152–3, 156, 159
- Poole, B. 140
- Popper, K. R. 265
- portfolio building 73
- post-1992 universities 152–4, 156, 230, 235
- postdoctorates 183
- Postgraduate Research (PGR) –
 - doctoral programmes 156, 161, 163, 165
- postgraduate taught programmes (PGT) 155–6, 160, 161, 165
- postgraduate/post experience Diploma in Management programmes 316
- Pounder, J. S. 173, 175
- Powell, S. 139
- pre-1992 universities 142–5*t*, 153–4, 156, 235
- presenteeism 169, 214
- pressures of academia 211–23
 - behaviour and rewards, lack of clarity between 212
 - communication of change 222
 - directive approaches 218
 - interactive models 213
 - monitoring and audit requirements 211, 212
 - person-environment (PE) fit 213
 - pragmatic mitigation 222–3
 - presenteeism 214
 - recruitment based on interpersonal characteristics 223
 - response-based models 212
 - stewardship approaches 218
 - stimulus-based models 212–13
 - stress 212–14
 - task extent 213
 - value of academics, recognition of 222–3
 - wellbeing 211, 212–23
 - work–life balance 212, 215
 - workload allocation 211, 212, 221*see also* New Managerialism Philosophy (NMP)
- prestige and status 7, 25–6, 92
- Principals 254
- privacy, breach of 176
- Pro-Vice-Chancellors 254, 255
- professional bureaucracy 33, 164, 176, 211, 219
- professional detachment 207
- professional difficulties 84, 87
- professionalism 59–60
- professors 54–5, 253, 256, 257, 258
- programme leaders 99–100, 102, 103, 105, 106–114, 115
- progression rates between years of study 67
- promotion/tenure decisions 172
- protean career 31–2, 34–5, 37, 40, 41
- Public Accounts Committee 279
- public engagements departments 76
- publication and usage of data 176
- publications, number and quality of 183, 189

- 'publish-or-perish' 40, 252
- quality advisers 308
- quality assurance 120, 124, 174, 219, 240, 246
 - see also* Quality Assurance Agency (QAA)
- Quality Assurance Agency (QAA) 120, 136, 137–8, 139, 155
- quality of working life 169, 302–303
- Raaper, R. 148–9
- racial prejudice, xenophobia, stereotyping and hostility 84, 88–9, 92
- Rae, D. 69, 72
- Ragan, L. C. 241
- Reader 256
- recruitment processes 114–15, 223
- Rectors 254
- Remmers, H. 172
- remuneration 26, 212, 259, 324
- reporting 219
- Research Excellence Framework (REF) 4, 37–8, 136
- research group leaders 256
- research ideal 53
- research, institutional see institutional research (IR)
- research methodology courses 318–19
- research role 52
- research supervision 152–67
 - access and availability: limitations and boundaries 157–8
 - assessment criteria 161–4
 - block release 160
 - bureaucratisation 164
 - contact information 157
 - contexts 154–6
 - diploma awards 156
 - distance learning modes of delivery 165, 166
 - ethics 157, 164
 - expert guidance 157
 - fairness 157
 - final year dissertation research project 155
 - full master's degrees 156
 - future 166
 - generic criteria 161
 - grade differentiation 161
 - information and communication technologies (ICT) and new information 165, 166
 - key principles 157–8
 - learning analytics 166
 - learning outcomes 161
 - managerialism 164
 - nature of assessment for award 156
 - nature and expectations of students 156
 - overseas students 165
 - past 158–61
 - PhD 156, 163, 165
 - plagiarism 159, 163–4
 - polytechnics 152–3, 156, 159
 - post-1992 universities 152–4, 156
 - Postgraduate Research (PGR) – doctoral programmes, full-time and part-time versions 156, 161, 163, 165
 - postgraduate taught programmes (PGT), part-time and full-time 155–6, 160, 161, 165
 - pre-1992 universities 153–4, 156
 - present 161–5
 - professional doctorates 156
 - research definition 155
 - research design 157
 - 'sandwich degrees' 159–60, 164
 - social media and messaging platforms (Facebook and WhatsApp) 165
 - standardised approaches 166
 - steer, guide and support 162–3
 - supervision definition 155
 - technical and emotional support 157
 - undergraduate level 155–6, 161
 - weighting of individual criterion 162
 - work-load models 164–5

- workplace visits 160
- research and teaching balance see
 - teaching/research balance (Denmark)
- Researchgate* website 320
- resistance 2, 5, 12
- response-based models 212
- restructuring universities and the brain drain 278–9
- retirement 300–309
 - bricolage identity 306
 - ‘character’ 304–305
 - ‘giving something back’ 308
 - identity 302–305
 - life expectancy 302–303
 - numbers retiring and quality of life 302–303
 - occupational identity 306–307
 - occupational identity, removal of 307–308
 - pension contributions 301–303
 - personal identity – the self 305–307
 - personal need to stay in academia
 - for personal satisfaction and wellbeing 303
 - psychological and sociological debate 305
 - reasons for retiring 300–302
 - retention of connection to academic position 308
 - ‘Third Age’ 300
 - see also* emeritus roles; working past retirement age
- review panellists for degree validation 308
- reward and recognition, insufficient 174, 176, 177*t*
- Ricoeur, P. 304
- Robertson, I. 214, 303
- Robinson, I. 240
- Robinson, K. 335
- role 23–5
 - conflict 100
 - description 114
 - overlap/workload duplication 102, 109–115
- Technology Acceptance Model (TAM) 229, 233, 235
 - theory 100
- Russell Group 123, 230
- Salinger, J. D. 307
- ‘sandwich degrees’ 159–60, 164
- Saupe, J. 268
- Schlossberg, N.K. 338
- Sears, G. 343
- sector-wide surveys 214
- self-awareness 73, 78, 306
- self-managed learning 73–4, 76–7
- self-protection, need for 201*t*, 205–206
- Senior Lecturers 256
- serendipity and chance 20, 34, 40
- service/administration role 52
- sessional staff 5
- Share, M. 138
- Shelvin, M. 174
- Sheppard, D. 333
- Siegel, S. 326
- Sikes, P. 137
- Silver, H. 120–21
- simulation of selection and recruitment 72–3, 75, 77
- Skills and Personal Reflective Activity questionnaire 74–6
- Skype interactions 126–7, 147, 165
- smartphone technology (SPT)
 - acceptance and apps: interactive polling systems 226–35, 243
 - see also* Technology Acceptance Model (TAM)
- Smedley, J. 230
- SMEs and third sector 78–9
- Smith, D. 254
- Smith, J. A. 200
- social impact of students within society 78
- social justice concerns 78
- social media and messaging platforms (Facebook, Instagram and WhatsApp) 101, 165, 243
- socialisation 296
- societal demands and expectations, changing 54

- soft skills – empathy and listening 114
- specialism debate 50–52
- Spendlove, M. 255
- Spooren, P. 175
- Stalker, B. 23, 25
- standard hours model 216
- standardisation 146, 148, 166, 197
- Stedman, L. 49, 54
- stewardship approaches 218
- stimulus-based models 212–13
- stress and stress management 111, 169, 170, 172–3, 174, 189, 198, 204, 212–14
 - anxiety 4, 83, 84, 92, 111, 173
 - coping and coping strategies 2, 85, 89–90
 - depression 84
- structure/structural forces 41
- student as customer 171, 221–2
- student evaluation of teaching (SET) 171
 - alleviation of potential pitfalls 177*t*
 - formative vs summative usage 173–6
 - and links to stress 172–3
 - potential bias 175
 - validity and reliability 175*t*
- student expectations xvii, 51
- student experience framework (Temple) 101*t*, 103, 106, 111
- student judgements about teaching practice, fairness and appropriateness of 176
- student numbers, increasing xvii, 56, 99
- student-to-staff ratio 196, 275
- student-tutor relationship 102, 111
- Sun, H. 231
- support, entitlement to 279–82
- surveillance and micro-management 171, 174, 176
 - see also* monitoring and scrutiny
- Tarhini, A. 230
- Taxpayer Bill of Rights II (1996) 277
- Taylor, A. E. 56
- Taylor, M. S. xvii, 239
- teacher-as-researcher 52
- teacher-student relationship 88
- teaching as a calling 19, 28
- teaching decreasingly valued 50
- teaching evaluation see student evaluation of teaching (SET)
- Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) 4, 67, 69
- teaching/research balance (Denmark) 183–93
 - basic research versus application-oriented research 191–2
 - contemporary perspective 186–8
 - coordination work between full-time and part-time courses 187
 - evaluations of teaching 187
 - flexibility versus rigidity in dissemination 190
 - freedom of research and teaching 184–6
 - future challenges and dilemmas 192–3
 - governance mechanisms 186, 193
 - neoliberalism 185, 192
 - new public management (NPM) 185, 187, 192
 - non-permanent appointments 188
 - permanent appointments 188
 - post-Humboldtian pattern 186
 - publications, number and quality of 183, 189
 - teaching versus research 188–9
 - timesheet/accounting for hours 187, 188, 190–91
 - weighting and handling of everyday work tasks 189
- team loyalty 171
- technological change see distance learning education and technological change (Cyprus)
- Technology Acceptance Model (TAM) 227–31, 232–5
 - acceptance 230
 - actual use of technology 228
 - adoption 230

- age 228, 229, 230, 232, 233, 234 attitude towards using 228, 232*t* behavioural intention 228, 230, 232*t*, 233–4, 235 benefits to students 234 class sizes 234–5 cost 228 cultural acceptance 230 effort expectancy 228 experiences with previous technologies 228, 233 facilitating conditions 228 gender 228, 229, 230, 231, 233 how to use the technology 234 infrastructures available 228 intention to participate 230 level at which respondent mostly teaches 234–5 participated, self-regulated and interactive approaches 229 perceived ease-of-use 228, 230, 232*t*, 233 perceived usefulness 227, 230, 232*t*, 233 performance expectancy 228 positive perception 230 risks involved 234
 role 229, 233, 235
 self-efficacy 232*t* social influences 228 staff development 230 student's acceptance 230 study methods 231–2 subjective norm 232*t*, 233 teaching experience 232 teaching hours 234–5
 transmissive model 229 user experience 231 virtual learning environment (VLE) 230
 voluntariness of use 228
 TEE (Transition, Empowerment and Enrichment) model 73–9 empowerment 68, 75–6, 78
 enrichment for exit 76–9
 transition 73–4
 Teichler, U. 239–40
 Temple, P. 101*t*, 103–104, 106, 111
 tensions and contradictions 3, 8–10, 12, 173
 Tenure-Track Professorships 257
 Terenzini, P. T. 267, 268–9
 Thatcher, M. 278
 Thoits, P. A. 307
 Thomas, E. 315
 Tight, M. 270
 timesheet/accounting for hours 3, 187, 188, 190–91, 240, 248
 Tinkler, P. 139
 Tizard, B. 315
 Townes, F. H. 64
 TRAC system 215 transfer rate 276
 transition and adjustment between international and early career staff 12*t* based on life circumstances 31 early-career academics in the context of 'excellence' 2
see also TEE (Transition, Empowerment and Enrichment) model
 transparency 137, 138, 139, 140
 trialogue – making sense of the twenty-first-century academy 44–64 becoming a scholar 47–9
 definition of scholar/scholarly 53–4 evolving role of the academic/scholar 49–53 key concepts 46–7 trust and confidence, breach of 176 tuition fees xvii, 4, 99, 196, 280, 281*f*, 282
 Tung, F. C. 232
 Turner, J. 327, 343
 tutor title 54
 Tytherleigh, M. Y. 255 undergraduate degree programme 155–6, 161, 318
 undergraduate student experience

- see* academic management roles in undergraduate student experience
- unfairness, sense of 174, 176, 177*t*
- unintended consequences see under institutional research (IR)
- United States of America 173, 254, 256, 267–9, 271, 275–8
- Universities UK report 5
- university ‘dashboards’ 177
- University Presidents 254
- University of the Third Age (U3A) 300, 321

- validation panel 129, 132
- values, conflicting 174, 176, 177*t*
- Varallo, S. M. 206
- Venkatesh, V. 228, 231
- Vice-Chancellors 253, 254, 255
- Vice-Presidents 254
- Vinson, D. 102
- virtual learning environment (VLE) 73–4, 230
 - see also* distance learning
- Volet, S. 206
- volunteering 308, 315

- Wallace, S. 140
- Watson, T. 308
- Watts, J.H. 140
- wellbeing 169, 211, 212–23
 - see also* emotional labour and wellbeing
- Wellington, J. 136, 137
- Wenger, E. 8
- ‘what works’ solutions 72
- Whitchurch, C. 254
- Whittaker, K. 137
- Williams, G. 274
- Williams, V. 328, 343
- Wilson, M.J. 25
- work experience 71, 78
- Work Related Learning (WRL) 68
- Work-based Learning (WBL) 73–4
- work–life balance 3, 18–19, 27–8, 212, 215
 - distance learning education and technological change (Cyprus) 250
 - family or social pressures 111
 - quality of working life 169, 302–303
 - work overload and imbalance 37, 40
 - see also* academic engagement, work–life balance and work–life conflict
- work-load models 164–5
- working conditions 5, 26–8, 192, 291, 293, 294–5
- working hours 169, 291, 317
 - see also* timesheet/accounting for hours
- working past retirement age 312–22
 - attitudes to retirement 314–16
 - Business and Management education 316
 - communication networks 318
 - consultative work 317
 - cross-fertilisation of ideas and approaches to management 318
 - experience, interests and motivations 317
 - explicit and tacit knowledge 313–14, 317–18
 - flexible working hours 317
 - government-sponsored initiatives for small businesses 316–17
 - hobbies 320–21
 - matters relating to retirement 312–13
 - opportunities for experienced business and management academics 316–19
 - part-time re-employment at university 315
 - passing on knowledge and skills 313–14
 - phased retirement policy 313
 - post-retirement 319–22
 - preconditions and motives 314

- research including book research and access to resources 315, 321
- state pension 312–13
- unpaid, academic activities 315
- workload allocation 211, 212, 215–17, 221, 241, 244, 248
- workplace visits 160
- Worlock, D. 333
- Yao, Y. 173
- year tutors 99–100, 102, 103, 105, 106–108, 115
- Yorke, M. 72, 269, 270, 275
- zero hours contracts 321
- Zhang, P. 231
- Zhou, Y. 84