
Index

- absolute advantage 125
- absolute location 452
- absorptive capacity 224–5, 226, 251, 291–2, 444, 445
- accessibility 134, 175, 180, 313, 555
- adaptive cost reduction 539
- Aerospace Valley, Toulouse 378–9
- agency 610–11
- agglomeration
 - Baldwin, Martin and Ottaviano on 79
 - co-agglomeration 396–7
 - and communication and transportation cost reductions 63
 - and decline 630
 - definition of 386
 - diseconomies of 639
 - and environmental policies 346–7
 - factors, as externalities 54–5
 - and FDI-induced spillovers 227–8
 - and governance 17
 - industrial, and entrepreneurship 207–9
 - of knowledge 318
 - and knowledge economy 372
 - Martin and Ottaviano on 72
 - over- or under-agglomeration 193
 - and social enterprises 348
 - Yamamoto on 73
 - see also* agglomeration economies; agglomeration economies (production theory approaches); clusters
- agglomeration, measurement of 386, 407–9
 - causality of productivity and firm location 406–7
 - direct 387–400
 - effects of agglomeration 403–6
 - Ellison and Glaeser index 394–6
 - indirect 400–407
 - industrial localization in terms of employment 387–9
 - location indexes in terms of output levels 393–4
 - location indexes in terms of plant size 391–2
 - market selection 403
 - modification for industry co-agglomeration 396–7
 - regional diversity 398–400
 - regional specialization in terms of employment 389–91
 - sources of agglomeration 400–402
 - spatial scale of agglomeration 397–8
- agglomeration economies 7–9, 12, 13
 - and cities 34–5, 108, 143
 - definitions of 104
 - and free economic zones (FEZs) 638–9
 - and space 29, 31, 32–7, 52–3
 - static and dynamic 108
 - and territorial capital 134
- agglomeration economies (production theory approaches) 104–5, 120
- A_j variables 112–15, 116
 - conceptualization of (causes and effects) 105–8
 - econometric issues 116–18
 - measuring 112–18
 - modelling 108–11
 - specific applications 118–20
- agricultural surplus 630
- air transport 119, 519
- analytical knowledge 293, 294
- Anas, A. 498–9
- Anderson, W.P. 496–8
- Andersson, Å.E. 315–16
- Angeriz, A. 52
- applied general interregional equilibrium (AGIE) analysis 474–6
- Arthur, W.B. 56
- Aschauer, D.A. 178
- Austin, Texas 92–3, 96
- Australia
 - economic growth 425–6
 - endogenous regional employment performance model 420–29, 432
 - human capital 419
 - industrial structure 418
- average treatment effect (ATE) 591
- average treatment effect on the treated (ATT) 591, 592
- Azis, I.J. 470, 471, 474–6
- backwash effects 575
- Balassa index 393
- Baldwin, R. 73–80, 86–7
- Bangalore 93
- Barro, R. 438, 440–41
- Basile, R. 462
- Baum-Snow, N. 182

- behavioural geography 14–15
 Bertinelli, L. 397
 Birmingham (England) 99, 100
 ‘black box’ of knowledge spillovers 279, 285–9 Boston Metropolitan Region, role of institutions in transition to knowledge economy 545–6
 bounded rationality 126, 531
 Brazil 579, 581
 Brexit 565
 Bröcker, J. 483, 484, 485
 Buckley, P.H. 470, 471, 473–4 bureaucracy 630–31 business ecosystems 331 ‘buzz’ 13, 546
- C-society 316
 calibration versus estimation, in macroeconomics 500
 Camagni, R. 35, 108, 117–18, 125, 126, 136, 247, 259
 capability theory 379
 Capello, R. 35, 37, 39, 142, 143, 252, 253, 257, 259, 261, 265, 266, 269–70, 271, 272–3, 301, 366
 capital accumulation 49–52, 137–41 costs of 135–6 creative 423
 formation, and environmental regulations 353 goods, production, in Baldwin, Martin and Ottaviano model 74 inflows 637–8 intangible 279–80, 295 natural and cultural 137–8, 140 nature of 135
 and productivity 109
 public, and infrastructure 174, 178 relational 132–3, 134, 136, 139, 140–41, 246
 social 132, 136, 139, 140–41, 143, 161, 165, 377–8, 423, 546, 552–3, 631
 spillovers 12
 subsidies 558–9
 see also human capital; territorial capital causal inference 588 causality
 econometric issues 116–17, 599
 and infrastructure investment 181–4 central places theories 630 chaos 57
 China 100, 639–40, 651
 CIM-EARTH (Community Integrated Model of Economic and Resource Trajectories for Humankind) 494
- cities and agglomeration economies 34–5, 108, 143 borrowed size 552, 555 capital (cities), moving 581 and climate change 360, 623 and clustering 104 as communication centres 316 connectivity 16
 and creativity 316
 decreasing returns to scale in 11–12 and diversification spillovers 284 and economic development 282 and entrepreneurship 206, 207 expansion, productivity effects of 110 growth of 610
 and human capital 159–60
 and innovation 10
 and migration 211
 population increases 623 and productivity 13, 117–18
 size of 143 and transportation infrastructure 182, 183 urbanization economies 8, 38, 104, 112, 401, 408 clean development mechanism (CDM) 491–2 climate change 358–61, 491–4, 498, 555, 607, 622–3 club convergence hypothesis 454, 455, 456 club goods 129, 130, 368 cluster-based economies 98 clusters 104–5, 200, 208, 209, 243–4, 245, 331, 366–8, 381
 and decline 630
 definitions and conceptualizations of 372–3 economic geography in 370–75 knowledge-based cluster development 376 measurement of performance 379 policy 373–5
 in regional development context 375–81 and regional growth 379 social capital and proximity in 376–9
 co-agglomeration 396–7
 coarsened exact matching (CEM) 593–4 coefficient of variation 437 cognitive and functional domains, co-evolution of 269–71 cognitive approach to territorial development 125–8 cognitive capital 138, 140
 cognitive distance 330–31 cognitive proximity 250–51, 287, 293 cognitive theories of knowledge creation 246–7, 250–51, 266
 Cohen, J.P. 117, 118–20 collective goods 129–30

- collective learning 133, 246–7, 259, 261 Combes, P. 403, 406 common support assumption 593 communication 312, 372, 373 centres 316 costs 63, 85, 86
 company life history analysis 206 comparative advantage 81, 125, 320, 393 competition 340 between free economic zones (FEZs) 641, 643, 645–6 monopolistic 11, 483, 485 and multinational enterprises (MNEs) 220–21 perfect, assumption of 49, 59 competitiveness demand-driven export competition models 553–4 international 125
 local 30, 33, 125, 126
 regional 416–17 complex non-linear dynamics 57–8 complexity 294 computable general equilibrium (CGE) models 185–7, 467–9, 500, 512, 518–20; see also spatial computable general equilibrium (SCGE) models concentration of demand 106 measures 284 use of term 386 see also agglomeration, measurement of conditional convergence 438, 444, 453, 458, 462 conditional independence assumption (CIA) 593 congestion 354 conjunction hypothesis 318 conjunction opportunities 322 connectivity 16, 134, 370
 contingency theory 96 contracts 126, 532–3 controlled experiments 560–61 convergence and divergence, regions 42–3, 49–51, 198, 368–9, 551, 554; see also heterogeneous reaction versus interaction in spatial econometric regional growth and convergence models; spatial-economic disparities and convergence cooperation and cooperation networks 38, 134, 136, 248, 259, 530 and proximity relationships in production processes 339–41 and territorial governance 333–4, 338, 339 cooperative innovations 335, 336 coordination of agents 133 core–periphery model 53–4, 72, 79, 85–6 cost–benefit analysis (CBA) 185, 566–7, 608, 609, 622
 cost-efficiency 118–19
 cost function 111, 115–16, 406, 641, 642–3 costs
 adaptive cost reduction 539
 capital 135–6
 communication 63, 85, 86
 marginal social cost (MSC) 192, 193 psychic (migration) 155
 see also transaction costs; transportation costs counterfactual approach 589, 599, 600 creation 270–71 creative capital, in endogenous regional employment performance model 423 creative class 554 creative destruction 161, 201, 332 creativity 35, 163–4, 165, 200
 Cuadrado-Roura, J.R. 554–5 cultural and natural capital 137–8, 140 cultural distance 227 cultural diversity 280, 298–9 culture 203–4, 208, 631 culture-based development (CBD) 208 cumulative causation 553, 574 customer satisfaction 337 data on trade, need for 87–8 Deardorff, A.V. 81–2 decision-making under uncertainty 126 decline
 as development 628–32
 free economic zones (FEZs) as development strategy 635–53 North Korean free economic zone (FEZ) as policy example 647–52 public interventions to overcome 634–6 stages of regional development in regional decline 632–4 decreasing returns to scale, in cities 11–12 Decrop, J. 397
 deforestation 349–50, 352 deindustrialization 94, 95 demand 124
 concentration of 106 individual input demand models 110–11 labour 109, 405, 596–7
 and supply 40, 41–2, 401
 demand-driven export competition models 553–4 demand-driven IO and SAM impact analysis 505–10

- demand-induced growth 611, 615
- density 114
- development indicators 634
- development policies 634–6
- free economic zones (FEZs) as 635–53
 - see also* quantitative evaluation techniques for regional policies; regional policy; regional policy models
- development theories, critical assessment of 628–34
- difference-generalized moment method (GMM) 407
- difference-in-differences (DID) estimator/method 564, 592, 594, 600
- disaster impact studies 520
- discounting 567
- diseconomies of scale, pollution 353–5
- dissimilarity index of regional specialization 390
- distance 114, 227, 241–2, 313, 330, 378, 397–8
- diversification 9, 270–71, 287, 418
- and economic growth 288
 - versus specialization 283–5, 300–301
- diversity
- cultural 280, 298–9
 - industrial 418
 - measurement of 112
 - regional 398–400
- Dixit–Stiglitz modelling framework 10–11
- Duranton, G. 182, 397–8
- dynamic regional economies 538–9
- earnings, see wages
- econometric-IO models 519
- economic activity, and space 24–5
- economic decline, see decline
- economic development
- and cities 282
 - critical assessment of development theories 628–34
 - environmental dimensions of 345–9
 - and local action 95–6, 97
 - stage theories 632
 - strategy, regional 430–32
 - see also* leadership, in regional economic development and growth
- economic geography 6, 7, 13–14, 15, 370–75
- evolutionary 15, 250, 286–7, 553
 - see also* new economic geography (NEG)
- economic growth 366, 380, 629
- Australia 425–6
 - and diversification 288
 - and entrepreneurship 296, 297
 - exogenous growth theory 414–15
 - and human capital 150–53, 161–2, 163
 - and innovation 9–10, 277–8
 - and institutions 296, 543–7
 - multi-regional 314–15
 - and related variety 288
 - see also* endogenous growth theories; leadership, in regional economic development and growth
- economic integration, Rivera-Batiz and Romer model 64, 67
- economic sustainability, regional 97–9
- economics, evolution of 436
- economy, fluctuations in 9
- ecosystem management 359–60, 361
- education 150–51, 290, 535–6
- and city-living 159, 160
 - and creativity 164
 - and migration 153–5, 156–7
 - and wages 113, 150, 151
- efficiency
- cost-efficiency 118–19
 - and equity 551
 - of firms 534
 - and redistribution 17
 - and regional policy 550
- Elbers, C. 478
- Eli Lilly Foundation 94, 97
- Elliott, J. 494
- Ellison and Glaeser co-agglomeration measure 396–7
- Ellison and Glaeser index 394–6, 397, 402, 407
- employment
- definition of endogenous regional employment performance 419–20
 - effects of agglomeration 405–6
 - endogenous regional employment performance model 420–29, 432
 - and environmental regulations 352
 - growth 418
 - industrial localization in terms of 387–9
 - job creation 161, 162, 556, 557, 597
 - job-search theory 156–7, 354
 - labour market pooling 105–6, 112, 113, 118–19, 400–401, 408, 554
 - moving jobs 557
 - and population distribution 609–11, 612, 613–14, 615–16, 618–21
 - regional endogenous employment growth measure 413
 - regional specialization in terms of 389–91
 - self-employment 163, 201, 211
 - spillovers 600
 - see also* labour; wages
- endogeneity problem 407
- endogenous conditions, role of 32
- endogenous detection methods 456

- endogenous development 33, 34, 95–6, 576 endogenous elements, competitiveness of local areas 30, 33 endogenous growth theories 12, 36, 52–4, 63, 278, 281–2, 313–14, 414–17, 551–2 and externalities 55–8
 and human capital 151–3, 158–9
 and innovation and entrepreneurship 204
 and institutions 295
 and territorial capital 133–4 see also new growth theory; regional growth and trade, models and analyses endogenous regional performance 413, 429–32 approach to measuring and modelling 419–24
 definition of endogenous regional employment performance 419–20 endogenous factors associated with regional growth 418–19 of functional economic regions, Australia (2001–2011) 425–9 model application in Australia 424–5 regional economic development planners 417 shift from exogenous to endogenous focus 414–19 variables used in model 420–24 enterprise zones 599–600; see also free economic zones (FEZs) entrepreneurial human capital 161–3, 164 entrepreneurs, characteristics of 203 entrepreneurship 198–9, 212, 630
 definitions and measurement of 199–202 determinants of 202–4, 207
 future research 212
 and industrial agglomeration 207–9
 and innovation 161–2, 163, 201, 207–8, 209
 and knowledge spillovers 296–8 and networks 209–12 spatial aspects of 204–7 entropy index 399–400 environment, and development, see sustainable development environmental amenities, in regional adjustment models (US) 619, 620 environmental justice 347 environmental policies and agglomeration 346–7 analysis of, in SCGE (spatial computable general equilibrium) models 491–4 environmental quality 346–7 environmental regulation 352–5 equipment utilization, in Ethier model 82–5 equity 550–51
 Ertur, C. 455, 461–2 escalator model 158, 160
 Ethier, W.J. 82–5 ethnic entrepreneurship 211–12
 EU (European Union) cohesion 439, 446, 488–91, 579, 601 convergence 437, 439–40, 445–6 innovation and regional growth policy 301 polarization 455
 R&D target 253 regional disparities 440 structural funds 579 European Value Survey 141–2 evaluation techniques for regional policies, see quantitative evaluation techniques for regional policies evidence-based policy, see regional adjustment models evolutionary approaches to regional growth 15–17, 18 evolutionary economic geography 15, 250, 286–7, 553 evolutionary economics 14, 246 evolutionary regional innovation patterns 269–71, 272 excludability 128–9, 174, 310 exit–voice–loyalty model 336–9 exogenous elements, competitiveness of local areas 30 exogenous growth theory 414–15, 574 experiments, controlled 560–61 export base, in regional adjustment models (US) 619, 620 exports 225, 226, 393–4, 477, 553–4 external inputs 106–7 externalities
 agglomeration factors as 54–5 and co-agglomeration 396–7 demand and supply externalities 401 and FDI (foreign direct investment) 219–20 and geographical proximity 330
 and human capital 152
 implications of 55–9 knowledge 13
 local 14
 Marshall–Arrow–Romer (MAR)
 externalities 8, 284, 285, 286 negative 11–12, 536 pecuniary 219, 221 proximity 317
 public goods and resources 129
 technological 55, 443–6
 and theories of local endogenous development 33 types of 106–7
 externality model 52

- face-to-face interactions 277, 312, 317, 331, 372
- factor endowments 106
- factor mobility, neoclassical model 51
- factor-price equalization (FPE) 81–2
- factors of production, and space 24–5
- Fan, W. 484, 487–8
- FDI (foreign direct investment), and free economic zones (FEZs), see free economic zones (FEZs)
- FDI-induced effects (foreign direct investment) 218–19, 232–4
- firm-specific factors 222–5
- future research 234
- and global value chains (GVCs) 231–2
- horizontal and vertical FDI 223–4
- local-context factors 225–7
- moderators of knowledge spillovers 222–9
- spatial dimension of (agglomeration and spatial spillovers) 227–8
- taxonomy of 219–21
- feedback loops 57
- Feenstra, R.C. 80
- Felipe, J. 111
- Fernald, J.G. 179
- firms
- demographics of 205, 206
- development of 205–6
- efficiency of 534
- entry of 490
- high-growth 108
- knowledge flows to 317–18
- knowledge of 309–11
- migration of 557
- as private hierarchies 534, 536
- and product cycle theory 319, 320, 321
- routines of 310–11
- small 163, 201, 539
- survival rates of 201, 205
- fiscal imbalance 577–8
- fiscal incentives 579–80
- fish stocks 359–60
- five forces model 371
- forcing variable 595
- forests 349–50, 352
- fragmentation of production 63, 80–81
- Baldwin and Lopez-Gonzalez analysis 86–7
- Deardorff on 81–2
- Ethier model 82–5
- Fujita and Gokan model 86
- Fujita and Thisse model 85–6
- free economic zones (FEZs) 635–6
- competition between 641, 643, 645–6
- establishment of 640–41
- example of (Najin–Sonbong, North Korea) 647–52
- as instrument of economic growth and transformation 636–40
- microeconomic theory of 640–47
- as policy instrument to combat economic decline 653
- free trade zones 637
- freight network model 479–80
- Frenken, K. 287, 288, 375
- Friesz, T.L. 479–80
- Fujita, M. 85–6, 482–3
- functional and cognitive domains, co-evolution of 269–71
- functional economic regions (FERs) 424–5, 426–9
- functional forms 499
- functional proximity 249–50
- functional urban regions 317
- game theory 131
- Gasiorek, M. 484, 488–91
- general equilibrium framework 53, 54
- general simultaneous-equations models 565–6
- generalized propensity score (GPS) 601
- geographic constraints, in regional adjustment models (US) 619, 620, 621
- geographic information systems (GIS) 356–8, 588–9
- geographical proximity 294, 330, 331, 334, 338, 339, 340–41, 378
- geographically weighted regression (GWR) 457–9, 461, 462
- German Historical School 530, 632
- Getis–Ord statistics 455
- Ghoshian IO model 510, 511–12
- Gibbs–Martin index 399
- Giesecke, J.A. 480–82
- Gini coefficient 391, 392
- Gini location coefficient 388–9, 397
- Glaeser, E.L. 394–7, 407–8
- global financial crisis (2007) 277
- global value chains (GVCs) 218, 229–32, 233, 234
- global warming 358, 359, 360, 623
- globalization 63, 79, 82, 85, 86–7, 125, 277, 299, 417, 554, 633
- Gokan, T. 86
- Gonzalez-Loureino, M. 373
- governance 17, 333
- of clusters 374
- economic, institutions of 533–7
- metro regions 545
- modern regional economic 540–43

- processes, relationships of proximity in 336–9
 and production (territorial development and proximity relationships) 327–34 quality of 559 territorial 333–4 territorial capital 134, 137, 140 government and economic decline 631 and globalization 417 and regional inequality 575 role of 100, 366
 transfers, interregional 577–8, 579
 Gräsjö, U. 313 gravity approach to regional welfare measurement of infrastructure investments 187–92
 Greater Indianapolis Progress Committee (GIPC) 94, 95, 96, 99–100 greenfield investments 222–3 greenhouse gases 358, 492, 494, 498, 608–9, 622
 GREMI approach 126
 Griliches, Z. 242, 314
 gross domestic product (GDP), as measure 443 growth, conceptualizations of 40–41 growth, economic, see economic growth growth pole theory 9–10, 574
 GTAP-E model 491–3
 GTAP-EX model 493

 Hägerstrand, T. 241–2
 Heckscher–Ohlin frameworks 81–2 heterogeneous local average treatment effect (LATE) 600–601 heterogeneous reaction versus interaction in spatial econometric regional growth and convergence models 451–3, 463 discrete spatial heterogeneity 453–6 geographically weighted regression (GWR) 457–9 spatial locally linear models 459–62 higher education 150–51
 Hino, S. 495–6
 Hirschman, A. 336–7, 574, 575
 Hirschman–Herfindahl index 387, 389–90, 394–5, 396, 399–400 historical route instrumental variables (HRIV) approach 182
 Holub-Iwan, J. 372 hospitals, cost-efficiency 118–19 households 610–11 mobility 354–5
 housing, use of geographic information systems (GIS) 356, 357

 Hudson Institute 94, 95
 human capital 133–4, 149–50, 280, 290, 291, 418–19, 546 cities and skills 158–60 convergence 438–9
 creativity 163–4, 165
 and economic growth 150–53, 161–2, 163 in endogenous regional employment performance model 423 entrepreneurial 161–3, 164 extensions to concept of 160–65 implications for regional development and policy 165–6
 migration behaviour of 153–8 in regional adjustment models (US) 619, 620 as social input 13
 subsidies 559
 Hyderabad 93

 immigration 153, 211
 impact analysis, see IO (input–output) analysis; quantitative evaluation techniques for regional policies impact variables, and measurement of effects of regional policy 563–4, 566
 IMPLAN (Impact Analysis for Planning) 515–16, 518 import processing 639 import substitution industrialization (ISI) 581 importing to export (I2E) 86 importing to produce (I2P) 86 income convergence, between global North and South 79–80 distribution, and territorial capital 136 inequality, measurement of 443 inconsequential units (IU) approach 182–3 increasing returns to scale 7, 15, 67
 Indianapolis, Indiana 94–6, 97, 99–100 industrial districts 200, 210, 331, 369, 552 industrial location and structure, and regional economic development 345–6 Industrial Revolution 79, 80 industrial structure 418, 422
 industrialization 73, 79–80, 581 industry distance, measures of 114 inequality 443, 550–51, 573–4, 575, 582 information asymmetric 533 distinction from knowledge 309 and education 154–5
 and entrepreneurship 210–11
 and relational capital 133 information and communication technology
 (ICT) 210, 230, 277, 409

- infrastructure 119, 172–3, 193–4, 380, 519–20, 582
 - causality issues 181–4
 - CGE analysis of regional effects of infrastructure investments 185–7
 - defining and measuring 173–6
 - gravity approach to regional welfare measurement of infrastructure investments 187–92
 - impacts 176–8
 - North Korea 650
 - as production factor 178–84
 - SCGE model 488–91
 - spatial spillovers and interdependencies 181
 - specifying infrastructure services 179–81
 - surplus equivalence in welfare analysis 192–3
- innovation 55, 200, 204, 633
 - and access to knowledge 209
 - and agglomeration 107
 - conceptualizations of 257–8
 - and cultural diversity 298–9
 - definition of 335
 - and development 332
 - and economic growth 9–10, 277–8
 - and entrepreneurship 161–2, 163, 201, 207–8, 209
 - geography of 207
 - global North and South 79
 - importance of 539
 - in Martin and Ottaviano model 72
 - policies 204, 299–301, 377–8
 - processes 278–80
 - rivalrous and excludable knowledge 310
 - systems 380
 - technological 332, 336
 - territorial, main categories of 335–6
 - types of 293–5
 - see also* entrepreneurship; innovation in space, theories of (regional science); R&D; R&D and knowledge spillovers
- innovation and space, achievements and prospects 257–9, 273
 - diachronic overview of regional innovation modes 259–67
 - evolution of regional innovation modes 267–71
 - evolutionary regional innovation patterns (cognitive and functional domains) 269–71
 - future research directions and applications 271–3
 - learning regions 261–3
 - milieu innovateur* theory (role of collective learning) 133, 246–7, 259–61, 554
 - regional innovation patterns 251–3, 266–7, 268, 269–72, 273
 - regional innovation systems (RIS) theory 249–50, 253, 263–4, 267–9, 271, 272, 300–301, 316–18
 - social filter approach 264–6
- innovation in space, theories of (regional science) 240
 - cognitive proximity 250–51
 - economic differences among regions and innovation diffusion 242
 - epidemiological diffusion 241–2
 - functional proximity 249–50
 - future challenges (structural dynamic theories of innovation) 253–4
 - institutional proximity 247–9
 - non-geographical proximities (functional and cognitive theories of knowledge creation) 247–51
 - relational proximity (integrated functional, cognitive and territorial theory of knowledge creation) 251–3
 - sectoral and functional approaches to knowledge creation 243–4
 - space as location of knowledge activities (knowledge creation theories) 243–5
 - space as physical distance (spatial diffusion of innovation) 241–2
 - space as territory (cognitive and territorial theory of knowledge creation) 246–7
 - spatial proximity 244–5
- innovative cross 128, 134
- inoperability input–output model (IIM) 520
- input–output analysis, see IO (input–output) analysis
- input sharing 8, 106, 112–13, 400, 402, 405
- institutional approach to economic theory 126
- institutional dynamics and evolution 538
- institutional environment 347–8
- institutional proximity 247–9
- institutional thickness 248
- institutions 14–16, 18, 527–9, 547
 - ‘architectures’ of regional economic institutions 542–3
- in classical and neoclassical economic theory 529–30
- dynamic regional economies and rise of networks 538–40
- of economic governance 533–7
- and FDI (foreign direct investment) spillovers 226–7
- and knowledge spillovers 295–6
- and leadership and economic development 99–100

- multi-institutional view of regional economies 540–41
- new institutional economics (NIE) 527, 530–33, 534
- perspectives on modern regional economic governance 540–43
- and regional economic growth and evolution 543–7
- and regional innovation systems (RIS) theory 263
- rigidity of 531
- role in transition to industrial economy 544
- role in transition to knowledge economy 545–7
- social embeddedness of 541–2
- theories on emergence and evolution of 529–38
- instrumental variables (IV) 407, 596–7, 614
- integrated assessment models (IAMs) 492, 493
- integrated spatial assessment (ISA) 357
- integration, global 80
- interactive learning 248, 249, 262
- interregional computable general equilibrium (ICGE) models 473–4
- interregional feedback effects 507–8, 509
- interregional input–output (IRIO) models 507, 508, 564–5
- interregional input–output (IRIO) tables and accounts 514–15
- Intramax 424–5, 426
- investment
 - and environmental regulations 353
 - fiscal incentives 579–80
 - greenfield 222–3
 - regional allocation of investment model 446–8
 - see also* FDI-induced effects (foreign direct investment); infrastructure
- IO (input–output) analysis 505, 521, 564–5
 - developments in data construction and model applications 512–17
 - IO tables 505–6, 512–15, 518
 - practice of modern impact analysis 517–20
 - theory of demand-driven IO and SAM impact analysis 505–10
 - theory of price and supply-side impact analysis 510–12
- Isard, W. 470, 471, 474–6, 514–15
- Italy, territorial capital 142–3
- Jacobs, J. (and ‘Jacobian’ spillovers) 282, 284, 285, 286
- Japan 94
- job creation 161, 162, 556, 557, 597
- job-search theory 156–7, 354
- jobs, moving 557
- Jones, R. 469, 470, 471, 472–3
- Kaesong Industrial Complex (KIC) 651
- Kaldor, N. 314
- Kelejian, H.H. 181
- kernel functions 457–8
- Keynesian models, convergence and divergence 42–3
- Kilkenny, M. 484, 485–7
- know-how and know-why 309–10
- knowledge
 - access to 209
 - accessibility, of region 322
 - accumulation 134
 - and concept of region 308
 - diffusion 9–10, 134
 - economy 372, 538–9, 545–7
 - effect on economy 310–11
 - and entrepreneurship 161–2, 210–11
 - in evolutionary economic geography 553
 - externalities 13
 - filter 297
 - of firm 309–11
 - flows 289, 312, 314–15, 317–18
 - form of 309–10
 - generation 110, 546
 - and institutions 14
 - intensity, and location dynamics 320–22
 - interaction, in regional innovation systems (RIS) 316–18
 - localized 308–9
 - nature of in economy 309–13
 - networks 313
 - patterns in large and small regions 318–19
 - as public goods 281, 282, 300, 312
 - in regional macroeconomy 313–15
 - regional policies relating to 322
 - sector, expansion of 150
 - sources of 311–12
 - stickiness of 312–13
 - tacit 546
 - technical, growth of in neoclassical model 52
 - transfer 246
 - types of 293–5, 297–8
 - and universities 293, 312, 545–6
 - see also* innovation and space, achievements and prospects; knowledge creation; knowledge spillovers; R&D and knowledge spillovers
- knowledge-based cluster development 376
- knowledge-based regional innovation policies 204

- knowledge creation 35, 140, 281, 312 cognitive theories of 246–7, 250–51, 266 in region 315–18
see also innovation in space, theories of (regional science)
- knowledge production function (KPF) 245, 280–85, 286, 312
- knowledge spillover theory of entrepreneurship (KSTE) 296–8
- knowledge spillovers 8, 9, 52, 55, 106, 107, 244–5, 401
 and entrepreneurship 162, 202
 and FDI (foreign direct investment) 220, 222–9, 231–2 geographical scale of 16–17
 and global value chains (GVCs) 231–2
 measurement of 113, 408
 moderators of 222–9 space-related 283–5 universities 293, 312, 546
 in Walz model 69
see also R&D and knowledge spillovers
- Koch, W. 455, 462
- Kopp, A. 179–80
- Kosmetsky, George 92, 93, 96
- Krugman, P. 11, 12, 53, 390–91
- labour
 demand 109, 405, 596–7
 in Ethier model 82–5 mobility 246, 290, 556–7
 North Korea 651–2
 productivity 109, 143, 405
 subsidies 558–9 turnover 220
see also employment; wages
- labour market
 and agglomeration 54–5 pooling 105–6, 112, 113, 118–19, 400–401, 408, 554
- Lafourcade, M. 398
- land-use 329, 333–4, 357, 360, 361
 regional adjustment models 615, 618
 SCGE models 495, 496, 497–9
- leadership, in regional economic development and growth 91–2 disruptive leadership process: driven by external changes 93–6 disruptive leadership process: driven by ‘great men’ 92–3, 96 and institutions and learning 99–100 and learning 97–9 summary, conclusions and discussion 100–101 types of leadership and disruption 96–7
- learning
 clusters 372, 374, 376–7
 collective 133, 246–7, 259, 261 and leadership, in regional economic development 97–100 modes 266–7 processes 246–7, 258, 271, 546
 systems 545
- learning regions 247–9, 261–3, 316, 554
- Lenzi, C. 252, 253, 266, 269–70, 271, 272
- Leontief IO model 505, 506, 510, 511, 512, 515
- LeSage, J. 456, 459, 460–61
- Levy, R. 378
- linkages 10, 72, 209, 372, 401–2
 and global value chains (GVCs) 232
 and multinational enterprises (MNEs) 220, 224, 227
- Liu, Y. 498–9
- Liverpool 98–9, 100
- local action, and economic development 95–6, 97
- local average treatment effect (LATE) 591, 596, 600–601
- local development and diversified-relational space 29–35
- local government 577, 579
- localization 206, 387–9
- localization economies 8, 38, 104, 112, 401, 402, 404
- localized production systems (LPS) approaches 326–7, 329, 331
- location choices 27, 250, 356, 407, 555, 558, 637
- location dynamics, and knowledge intensity 320–22
- location indexes 391–4
- location of economic activities 11–12, 15
- location of knowledge activities, space as 243–5
- location quotient (LQ) 284, 388, 390, 392, 393, 422, 518
- location theory 25–6, 27–8, 31, 32
- locations, peripheral 11–12
- Löfgren, H. 470, 471, 476–7
- logging 349–50
- logic of belonging 330
- logic of similarity 330–31
- logistic equation 57
- London 160
- Lopez-Gonzalez, J. 86–7
- loyalty 336–7, 338, 339
- Lucas, R. 152, 281–2, 314
- Lundvall, Bengt-Åke 248

- machine-learning 602–3
 Madden, J.R. 480–82
 Maier, G. 56–7 managerial transaction costs 532
 Mankiw, N. 438, 453
 Mansfield, E. 242
 manufacturing, and FDI (foreign direct investment) 224 Marcon, E. 398
 marginal social cost (MSC) 192, 193 marginal willingness to pay (MWTP) 192, 193 market areas 27 market failure 141, 535–6, 635 market selection, and agglomeration 403 market transaction costs 532 markets 533–6, 537, 540–41, 542, 543, 632–3, 634
 Marshall, Alfred 34, 54–5, 200, 210, 369
 Marshall–Arrow–Romer (MAR) externalities 8, 284, 285, 286
 Martin, P. 71–2, 73–80
 Martin, W. 399
 Massachusetts, economic development and institutions 544
 MASST (macroeconomic, sectoral, social and territorial) model 37–9, 142 matching estimators 593–4 materiality (territorial capital) 128–9, 130
 Maurel, F. 395–6
 McCombie, J. 111 mediation analysis 602 merger and acquisition (M&A) 222 Mexico, import substitution industrialization (ISI) 581 migration 151, 153–8, 159–60, 165, 211, 280, 298–9, 481, 556–7, 622–3 migration impact assessment (MIA) 211 milieu 131, 204, 206, 209, 322, 415 milieu innovateur theory 133, 246–7, 259–61, 554 Mion, G. 398 modern multiregional, multisectoral (MRMS) CGE models 481–2 monopolistic competition 11, 483, 485 monopoly, local 8
 Montouri, B. 441, 442
 Moran scatterplots 455
 ‘Moran’s I’ 398, 405
 Morrison Paul, C.J. 115, 117, 118–20 multinational enterprises (MNEs) 229–32, 295, 312, 322; see also FDI-induced effects (foreign direct investment) multiregional input–output (MRIO) data 481 multiregional input–output (MRIO) model 507 multiregional input–output (MRIO) tables and accounts 515–17, 518
 Myrdal, G. 575
 National Center for Amateur Sports 94–5 national innovation system (NIS) 300 National Interstate Economic Model (NIEMO) 515, 516 natural advantage 106–7 natural and cultural capital 137–8, 140
 natural resources 349–52, 358, 576
 neo-Marshallian theories 34, 35 neo-Schumpeterian theories 35 neoclassical economics/model allocation of growth in 48–51 convergence and divergence 42, 43, 49–51
 externalities 55
 and growth 31, 151, 551, 629
 implications of 51–2
 and institutions 529–30, 531
 and markets 533–4
 and regional growth 7–10
 and space 25
 and trade 62
 net present value (NPV) 567 Netherlands, regional policy 557 networks 17, 180, 316–17, 539–40, 545–6 of cities 552
 of clusters 381
 and entrepreneurship 204, 209–12
 freight network model 479–80
 institutional 3470
 knowledge 313 producer 332 of regions 442
 social 292, 299, 377
 transportation network models 520 see also cooperation and cooperation networks new business formation 163, 164, 201, 203, 204, 205, 211 new economic geography (NEG) 6, 7, 11, 12, 16, 18, 36, 52–4, 63, 553 criticisms of 14
 and externalities 55–8
 NEG-based spatial computable general equilibrium (SCGE) models 482–91 transportation infrastructure models 520 see also regional growth and trade, models and analyses
 ‘New Economy’ 98 new growth theory 11, 12, 16–17, 18, 414–17
 criticisms of 14
 and human capital 149, 151–3, 160–61

- see also* endogenous growth theories; regional growth and trade, models and analyses new institutional economics (NIE) 527, 530–33, 534
 new trade theory 10–11, 12
 Nijkamp, P. 153, 366, 374, 491–2 non-economic development indicators 628 non-experimental research 562 norms 132, 541
 North Korea, example of free economic zone (FEZ) 647–52
 novelties 335, 336, 338
 NUTS regions 142–3, 267, 271, 439, 440, 490
- Obama Administration 608–9 OECD (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development) 127, 199, 200–201, 554
 old institutional economics 530 organizational proximity 378 organizations 527–8 organized proximity 330–31, 334, 338, 339, 340–41
 Osberg, L. 436
 Ostrom, Elinor 131
 Ottaviano, G.I.P. 71–2, 73–80 output levels, location indexes in terms of 393–4 outsourcing 82–5, 321
 Overman, H.G. 397–8
- Pace, R.K. 459, 460–61 Papke, L.E. 638 parallel trend assumption 592 parameter heterogeneity 451, 454–5 partial adjustment models 612–13 partial interference 598 participatory theory 96 patents 201, 245, 283, 294 path-dependency 15, 53, 268, 270, 272 Pavitt, K. 243 people prosperity 550, 556 perfect competition, assumption of 49, 59 peripheral locations 11–12 Pigouvian taxes 353–4, 355 place prosperity 550 planned route instrumental variables (PRIV) approach 182 planning 134, 140, 416, 417, 615 plant size
 Ellison and Glaeser index 394–5 location indexes in terms of 391–2 and spatial autocorrelation 398 polarization effects 575
- Polèse, M. 555–6 political transaction costs 532 pollution 353–5, 360
 Polya-process 56
 Poot, J. 153 population changes, and economic decline 629, 630, 643, 645
 deconcentration perspective 610 distribution, and employment 609–11, 612, 613–14, 615–16, 618–21
 populist politics 17
 Porter, M. 371
 post-Fordism 552 potential outcomes framework 589 prices 81–2, 478, 479, 510–12, 538 private goods 130–31 private hierarchies 534, 536, 537, 542, 543 producer networks 332 product cycle dynamics model 320–22 product cycle theory 319–20, 415, 630 production areas 27–8
 decline 629
 global organization of 229–31 and infrastructure 176, 177
 in large and small regions 319 localized production systems (LPS) approaches 326–7, 329, 331 processes, proximity relationships and 339–41
 and territorial development 329, 331–2, 339–41
see also agglomeration economies (production theory approaches);
 fragmentation of production production function 48–9, 109–11, 115, 135, 151–2
 effects of agglomeration 403–5 free economic zones (FEZs) model 641, 642
 and infrastructure 178–9, 180
 knowledge production function (KPF) 245, 280–85, 286, 312
 and location choice 407
 regional 311, 314–15
 regional knowledge production function (RKPF) 282–3, 286, 288, 290
 and territorial capital 136
 productivity
 and agglomeration 107–8, 109–11, 115–16, 403–7
 cities 13, 117–18
 and environmental regulations 353
 and ICT 210
 and infrastructure 176, 178, 179–80

- labour 109, 143, 405
 - and migration 158, 160
 - total factor productivity (TFP) 283, 403
 - propensity score matching (PSM) 593, 600
 - property rights 532, 535, 536
 - proximity 209, 227, 230, 244–5, 282–4, 292, 293, 296, 317, 318–19, 332, 376
 - cognitive 250–51, 287, 293
 - and creative regions 545
 - functional 249–50
 - geographical 294, 330, 331, 334, 338, 339, 340–41, 378
 - institutional 247–9
 - organizational 378
 - organized 330–31, 334, 338, 339, 340–41
 - relational 251–3, 259, 293
 - temporary geographical 331
 - see also* territorial development and proximity relationships
 - psychic costs, migration 155
 - public capital, and infrastructure 174, 178
 - public choice theory 630–31
 - public goods 128–30, 535, 536
 - knowledge as 281, 282, 300, 312
 - public services provision 577–8
 - Puech, F. 398
 - Puig, F. 373

 - quality of life 346, 554
 - quantitative evaluation techniques for regional policies 588–90, 602–3
 - based on stable unit treatment value assumption (SUTVA) 591–7
 - difference-in-differences (DID) estimator and recent developments of 592–3, 594
 - heterogeneity of regional policy impact 600–602
 - instrumental variables (IV) 596–7
 - matching estimators 593–4
 - not based on stable unit treatment value assumption (SUTVA) 597–600
 - policy evaluation techniques 590–600
 - regression discontinuity design (RDD) 594–6, 601–2
 - quantitative general equilibrium analysis 467
 - quasi-experimental research 561–2
 - Quigley, J.M. 8–9

 - rail transport 174–5, 182, 183
 - R&D 201, 204, 207, 243–5, 309–10, 312, 633
 - and economic growth 313–14
 - knowledge as input to 313
 - in Martin and Ottaviano model 71–2
 - in Rivera-Batiz and Romer model 65
 - target, EU 253
 - in Walz model 69
 - R&D and knowledge spillovers
 - absorptive capacity 291–2
 - ‘black box’ of knowledge spillovers 279, 285–9
 - conclusions 301–2
 - cultural diversity 298–9
 - entrepreneurship 296–8
 - further research 289–99
 - human capital 290
 - innovation policy and spatial scope of knowledge spillovers 299–301
 - innovation types 293–5
 - institutions 295–6
 - knowledge production function (KPF) 280–85
 - social networks 292
 - space and knowledge spillovers 277–80
 - specialization versus diversification 283–5
 - see also* knowledge spillovers
 - receptivity 134
 - recycling 351–2
 - REDYN (Regional Dynamics) 515, 516
 - Regio, Director General 126
 - regional adjustment models 607–8
 - applications within and among regions 614–16
 - bi-directional growth, spatial equilibrium and analytical framework 609–11
 - call for evidence-based policy 608–9
 - and climate change 622–3
 - empirical example of (US regional growth and development) 616–22
 - method 612–14
- regional development
 - concepts 367, 369
 - determinants of 31, 376, 377
 - different interpretations of 40–42
 - nature of 366
 - theories of 551–6
 - regional economic development strategy 430–32
 - regional economics 25–6, 27–9, 32, 198
 - regional funds 578–9
 - regional growth
 - classical and neoclassical insights into 7–10
 - and clusters 379
 - common ground between different approaches 16–17
 - different interpretations of 40–42
 - and diversified-stylized space 35–9
 - endogenous factors associated with 418–19
 - evolutionary approaches to 15–17, 18
 - theory 26

- and uniform-abstract space 28–9
- see also* regional growth and trade, models and analyses
- regional growth, spatial distribution of 48
- agglomeration factors as externalities 54–5
- allocation of growth in neoclassical model 48–51
- endogenous growth and new economic geography (NEG) 51–4
- implications of externalities 55–8
- summary and conclusions 58–9
- see also* space
- regional growth and trade, models and analyses 62–3
 - Baldwin, Martin and Ottaviano 73–80
 - Baldwin and Lopez-Gonzalez 86–7
 - Deardorff 81–2
 - Ethier 82–5
 - Fujita and Gokan 86
 - Fujita and Thisse 85–6
 - growth and trade in parts and tasks 80–87
 - Martin and Ottaviano 71–2
 - research agenda 87–8
 - Rivera-Batiz and Romer 64–7
 - Walz 67–70
 - Yamamoto 73
- regional innovation systems (RIS) theory 249–50, 253, 263–4, 267–9, 271, 272, 300–301, 316–18
- regional knowledge production function (RKPF) 282–3, 286, 288, 290
- regional patterns of innovation approach 251–3, 266–7, 268, 269–72, 273
- regional policy 322, 366–8, 550–51, 568
 - allocation of investment model 446–8
 - changing horizons in 368–70
 - and clusters 374–5, 380–81
 - and convergence 445–6
 - instruments of 556–9
 - measurement of effects 560–67
 - and territorial capital 143–4
 - and theories of regional development 551–6
 - see also* quantitative evaluation techniques for regional policies
- regional policy models 573–4, 584–5
 - conceptual 574–7
 - explicit regional policies 577–80
 - policies with regional effects 581–2
 - typology of 583
- regional restructuring perspective 610
- regional science 474; see also innovation in space, theories of (regional science); sustainable development
- regions 308, 367
 - cooperation and competition among 38
 - creative 315–16, 545
 - decline, factors 555–6
 - diversification in 9
 - functional economic regions (FERs) 424–5, 426–9
 - functional urban 317
 - and globalization 417
 - heterogeneity of 368
 - learning 247–9, 261–3, 316, 554
 - networks of 442
 - and regional economics 198
 - resourceful 379
 - success, factors 554–5, 556
 - sustainability 348–9
- regression discontinuity design (RDD) 594–6, 601–2
- related variety 250–51, 287–9, 294
- relatedness 289
- relational capital 132–3, 134, 136, 139, 140–41, 246
- relational private services 135
- relational proximity 251–3, 259, 293
- relational space 29–32, 247, 259, 261
- relative location 452
- relocation 340, 557, 558
- RELU-TRAN model 498–9
- REMI (Regional Economic Models, Inc.) 517–18
- Rennes, France 98, 100
- residential issues, use of geographic information systems (GIS) 356, 357
- resourceful regions 379
- revolution, political 631
- Rey, S. 441, 442
- Ricardian model 81
- RIMS-II 518
- risk
 - and entrepreneurship 200, 202, 208, 209–10
 - and migration 155
- rival and non-rival goods 310
- rivalry (territorial capital) 128–9, 130
- Rivera-Batiz, L.A. 64–7
- road pricing 495–6
- road transport 119, 174–5, 177, 179–80, 182, 183, 184, 187–92, 346, 350, 354, 490, 559
- Robinson, D.P. 181
- Robinson, S. 470, 471, 476–7
- Romer, P.M. 52, 64–7, 151–2, 281, 282
- Rosenthal, S.S. 109–10, 114
- Roson, R. 492–4
- rural development 347–8, 485–7
- Russia, free economic zones (FEZs) 651
- Sala-i-Martin, X. 438, 439, 440–41
- Samuelson, P. 476, 501

- Sato, T. 495–6
- SCGE models, see spatial computable general equilibrium (SCGE) models
- Schumpeter, J. 161, 200, 201, 332, 630, 631
- Schweinberger, A.G. 638
- scientific method 607, 608–9
- search behaviour 205–6
- sector structure approach to development 630
- sectoral policies 581
- Sédillot, B. 395–6
- self-employment 163, 201, 211
- self-interest 542, 543
- Semitech 92, 96
- sensitivity analysis 567
- service-orientated free economic zones (FEZs) 639
- services
 - and FDI (foreign direct investment) 224
 - relational private 135
 - trade in 87
- settlement capital 138, 140
- settlement structure 38
- Shearmur, R. 555–6
- shift-share analysis 419–20, 424, 596–7
- Silicon Valley 92, 374–5
- Sims, C.A. 500
- simultaneous-equations models 565–6
- Singapore 100
- single-equation models, use in measurement of
 - effects of regional policy 563–4
- situational leadership 97
- skills theory of leadership 96, 97
- small firms 163, 201, 539
- smart specialization 252, 301, 381
- social accounting models (SAMs) 508–9, 517
- social capital 132, 136, 139, 140–41, 143, 161, 165, 377–8, 423, 546, 552–3, 631
- social cost–benefit analysis 566–7
- social distance 378
- social embeddedness of institutions 541–2
- social enterprises 348
- social filter 264–6, 291–2
- social networks 292, 299, 377
- social norms 541
- social policies 582
- social rules 542, 543
- space 43–4
 - active role in local development 32–5
 - conceptualizations of 32–3, 36
 - dependency 289
 - and economics 24–7
 - local development and diversified-relational space 29–35
 - location and physical-metric space 27–8
 - as location of knowledge activities 243–5
 - regional growth and diversified-stylized space 35–9
 - regional growth and uniform-abstract space 28–9
 - relational 29–32, 247, 259, 261
 - roles of 32
 - see also* innovation and space, achievements and prospects; innovation in space, theories of (regional science); regional growth, spatial distribution of
- spatial aggregation 114
- spatial autocorrelation 116, 117, 118, 119, 398, 424, 452–3, 456, 461, 462
- spatial autoregressive (SAR) model 117, 283
- spatial clusters, see clusters
- spatial computable general equilibrium (SCGE) models 468–9
 - analysis of environmental policies 491–4
 - constructing modern multiregional CGE model 480–82
 - first extensions of Walrasian CGE trade models into space 469–77
 - new directions in 499–501
 - with new economic geography (NEG) foundations 482–91
 - in smaller areas 495–9
 - in tradition of spatial price equilibrium and predictive freight network modelling 477–80
- spatial cross-regressive model 442
- spatial data 357–8, 455
- spatial dependence 452, 459
- spatial distribution of regional growth, see regional growth, spatial distribution of
- spatial Durbin model 283, 460, 461, 462
- spatial econometrics 117–18, 181, 358, 452, 599, 600, 612, 618
- spatial-economic disparities and convergence 436, 448
 - alternative empirical measures of regional convergence 440–43
 - conceptual notion and empirical measures of regional convergence 436–40
 - optimal regional policies 446–8
 - role of technological externalities 443–6
- Spatial Economy* 482–3
- spatial equilibrium concept 611
- spatial-error model 441–2
- spatial exit 337–8
- spatial filtering 456
- spatial heterogeneity 451–2, 459
 - discrete 453–6
- spatial-lag models 442, 618
- spatial price equilibrium (SPE) models 478, 479
- spatial product cycles 319–20

- spatial scale of agglomeration 397–8
- spatial spillovers 181
- special economic zones (SEZs), China 639–40
- specialization 112, 206, 287
 - definition of 386
 - versus diversification 283–5, 300–301
 - and productivity 107
 - regional, in terms of employment 389–91
 - smart 252, 301, 381
- spillovers
 - capital 12
 - employment 600
 - evaluation of 597–600
 - FDI-induced 222–9, 231–2, 233–4
 - and infrastructure 172, 181, 490–91
 - and stable unit treatment value assumption (SUTVA) 591
 - technological 221
 - see also* knowledge spillovers; R&D and knowledge spillovers
- spread effects 575
- stable unit treatment value assumption (SUTVA), evaluation methods based on 591–7
- stage theories 632–4
- stakeholder participation 576
- standard deviation 437
- standardized products 538
- state 534–6, 537, 541, 542, 543, 635
- Stimson, R. 416, 417, 419–20, 424, 425, 427, 429, 431
- Stough, R.R. 416, 419–20
- Strange, W.C. 109–10, 114
- structural dynamic theories of innovation 253–4
- structural funds, EU 579
- structuralist models 475
- subsidiaries, foreign 223
- subsidies 558–9, 597
- Sue Wing, I. 496–8
- Suo, Z.-G. 479–80
- supply
 - and demand 40, 41–2, 401
 - shocks 520
- supply-chain trade (SCT) 86–7
- supply-induced growth 611, 615
- supply-orientated approaches, resurgence of 124–5
- supply-side impact analysis 511
- surplus equivalence in welfare analysis 192–3
- surveys, use of 561–3
- sustainable development 344–5, 361, 430, 576, 629
 - environmental quality 346–7
 - environmental regulation 352–5
 - industrial location and structure 345–6
 - local institutional environment 347–8
 - natural resources 349–52
 - regional climate change 358–61
 - regional economic development 345–9
 - use of geographic information systems (GIS) 356–8
- symbolic knowledge 293–4
- synthetic control method (SCM) 592–3
- synthetic knowledge 293, 294
- Tahir, J. 636–8
- Talbot, D. 378
- taxation 355, 472–3, 494, 499
 - incentives 579–80, 636–7, 646, 650
 - Pigouvian 353–4, 355
- technical knowledge, growth of in neoclassical model 52
- technological change 528
- technological diffusion 444–5
- technological externalities 55, 443–6
- technological innovation 332, 336
- technological progress 52, 151, 241, 415, 551–2, 634
- technological spillovers 221
- technology
 - and fragmentation of production 81
 - information and communication technology (ICT) 210, 230, 277, 409
 - and multinational enterprises (MNEs) 225, 227
 - transfer 231–2, 633
- temporal analysis 25
- temporary geographical proximity 331
- territorial capital
 - actions and policies 139, 141
 - agglomeration economies, accessibility, connectivity and receptivity 134
 - cognitive capital 138, 140
 - concept of 125–8
 - conclusions 144–5
 - definition of 127
 - determinants of 127
 - and entrepreneurship 208
 - human capital 133–4
 - intermediate, mixed-rivalry tangible goods 129–31
 - modalities of accumulation and de-cumulation 137–41
 - natural and cultural capital 137–8, 140
 - private fixed capital and toll goods 131
 - public goods and resources 129
 - and regional development 141–4
 - relational private services 135

- resurgence of supply-orientated approaches 124–5
- settlement capital 138, 140
- social and relational capital 132, 139, 140–41, 143
- theoretical nature of 135–6
- theoretical taxonomy of 128–35
- territorial development and proximity relationships 326–7, 341
- categories of territorial innovations 335–6
- concept and definition of territorial development 328–9
- governance issues and proximity relationships (role of stakeholders) 333–4
- production and governance 327–34
- productive relationships and different forms of proximity 329–32
- proximity relationships in governance processes 336–9
- proximity relationships in production processes 339–41
- territorial development mechanisms and proximity 335–41
- territorial identity 35
- territorial resources, as determinants of regional development 376, 377
- territory, use of word 127
- third places 331
- Thisse, J.F. 85–6
- time, in regional adjustment models (US) 620, 621
- Tobin's q theory 353
- toll goods 131
- tomahawk-bifurcation 53–4
- total factor productivity (TFP) 283, 403
- trade
 - coefficients 507
 - data on, need for 87–8
 - and free economic zones (FEZs) 637, 638
 - liberalization policies 581
 - models 469–77
 - supply-chain trade (SCT) 86–7
 - theory 10–11, 12, 62–3, 87
 - see also* regional growth and trade, models and analyses
- transaction costs 8–9, 193, 231, 530
 - in Baldwin, Martin and Ottaviano model 78–9
 - in Fujita and Gokan model 86
 - in Fujita and Thisse model 85
 - in Martin and Ottaviano model 72
 - new institutional economics (NIE) approach 530–33, 534
 - and relational capital 132–3
 - and social capital 132
- transfers, interregional 577–8, 579
- transition countries 635
- transportation costs 11–12, 27, 28, 52–4, 63, 186, 188–93, 227, 230, 350, 401, 520
 - in Martin and Ottaviano model 71–2
 - in SCGE models 471, 473, 475, 476, 484, 485–8, 490
 - in Walz model 67, 68–9, 70
 - in Yamamoto model 73
- transportation infrastructure, see infrastructure
- transportation network models 520
- transportation services 473–4, 478, 479–80
- treatment assignment 589, 590–91, 595, 601
- Treyz, F. 484, 487–8
- Treyz, G. 484, 487–8
- trust 203, 340, 532
- turbulence 201
- Turner, M.A. 182
- UK (United Kingdom), human capital mobility 160
- unbundling 230
- unemployment 9, 40, 157, 192, 288, 550, 556–7, 573
- universities
 - and entrepreneurship 207
 - and innovation 249
 - knowledge generation 545–6
 - knowledge spillovers 293, 312, 546
- unrelated variety 287, 288, 294
- upgrading 270–71
- urban economics 6, 16, 17
- urban heat island effect 360
- urban planning 615
- urbanization 611, 615
- urbanization economies 8, 38, 104, 112, 401, 408
- US (United States)
 - call for evidence-based policy 608–9
 - disruptive leadership processes, and regional economic development 92–6, 97, 99–100
 - economic development programmes 579
 - entrepreneurship 203, 204
 - human capital 159–60, 164
 - labour mobility 556, 557
 - and regional adjustment models 612, 615, 616–22
 - regional economic development, and institutions 544–6
 - regional policy 556
 - urban and rural areas, growth of 610
 - water provision and use 350–51, 360

- utility 186
 - free economic zones (FEZs) model 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647
- value-added trade (VAT) 86, 87
- Venables, A.J. 484, 488–91
- Virginia, economic development and institutions 544
- voice 337, 338, 339
- wages 109
 - and education 113, 150, 151
 - and job-search theory 156–7
 - and migration 154, 157, 158
- Wall, D. 639
- Walz, U. 67–70
- Wang, S. 491–2
- Washington State IO model 513–14
- waste management 351–2
- water provision and use 350–51, 352, 360
- weighting functions 457–8
- well-being 554
- Westin, L. 479–80
- wetlands, use of geographic information systems (GIS) 357
- Whalley, J. 469, 470, 471, 472–3
- wholesale services 473–4
- Widodo, W. 107
- Yamamoto, K. 73