

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Series preface	x
1 Introduction Gita Steiner-Khamsi and Alexandra Draxler	1
2 Experimenting with educational development: international actors and the promotion of private schooling in vulnerable contexts Antoni Verger, Adrián Zancajo and Clara Fontdevila	16
3 Advocacy as core business: new philanthropy strategies in Brazilian education policy-making Marina Avelar	39
4 Private participation in the education of Syrian refugees: understanding the roles of businesses and foundations Zeena Zakharia and Francine Menashy	52
5 Allies and competitors: private schools and the state in China Barbara Schulte	68
6 Unfair competition: exploring state-funded low-fee private schools' logics of action in Buenos Aires Mauro C. Moschetti	85
7 From billionaires to the bottom billion: who's making education policy for the poor in emerging economies? Carole Anne Spreen and Sangeeta Kamat	106
8 From low-cost to low-fee: BRAC's transition to a for-profit private school model in Bangladesh Emily Richardson	131

9	Death by a thousand cuts: privatizing public education in the USA Joanne Barkan	148
10	Public–private partnerships in education assessed through the lens of human rights Mireille de Koning	169
	Index	189