

Contents

List of contributors	vii
List of abbreviations	xiv
Foreword	xvii
1 Toward a comprehensive EU-China investment agreement Julien Chaisse	1
PART I DRIVERS AND ISSUES OF CHINA-EU INVESTMENT RELATIONSHIPS
2 Negotiating an uncertain world: economic and political dimensions of the Comprehensive Agreement on Investment Duncan Freeman	15
3 The competence to conclude the EU's new generation of free trade agreements: lessons from Opinion 2/15 Eleftheria Neframi	32
4 EU-China economic relations: interactions and barriers Pascal Kerneis	59
5 The potential role of sustainability impact assessment in the EU-China BIT negotiations Fernando Dias Simões	69
PART II CHINA-EU: TOWARDS INNOVATION IN RULE-MAKING?
6 FTZs: can they initiate a new round of reforms in China? Jiaxiang Hu	94
7 Refining the expropriation clause: what role for proportionality? Catharine Titi	111

8	Investor nationality and the definition of investment: policy options to limit the practice of ‘treaty shopping’ Jorun Baumgartner	131
9	Emerging regulatory issues for financial services in the new generation of FTAs Federico Lupo-Pasini	156
10	OBOR in the context of China-EU FDI and China’s evolving economic diplomacy Donald J. Lewis	177
11	Investment related provisions of EVFTA: implications for Vietnam’s policy reforms Nguyen Binh Duong	193
12	Toward an EU-Taiwan bilateral investment treaty: a roadmap Chien-Huei Wu	206
PART III FROM INVESTOR-STATE ARBITRATION TO A PERMANENT INVESTMENT COURT?
13	How much of a court? The EU Investment Court System as a hybrid mechanism Joanna Jemiełniak	226
14	The inclusion of investment court system into the EU-China BIT: innovations, prospects and problems Chi-Chung Kao	247
15	The appellate option: promises and pitfalls Matthew Hodgson and Vee Vian Thien	267
	Index	287