

Index

- Abdou, E. 137–8
Abdullah, S. 137
accountability 24, 48–9, 50, 62
actor-network theory 88
advertising 156
advocacy partnerships 86
African National Congress (ANC) 3
agrifood supply chains 94, 95–6
 hybrids in 97–100
Akha Ama Coffee 97–9
altruism 123–4
Alvord, S.H. 41
Anthropocene 167
anthropological approach to rural development
 105–11
Arab Spring 136
Arthur, L. 14
asset-based development business model 72 assumptions about social enterprise 29–31
astronaut's perspective 168–9, 171
Auckland 132–3
Australia
 Job Network 25
 National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)
 23–4, 28–33
 rural development in Tasmania 107–10 authoritarian regimes 36–45
 democratising in 39–42
 social enterprises in 36–8
autonomy 39
awareness 138–9

Bahari, A. 137
Bangladesh 158
Barcelona 171
Barraket, J. 107
Beckert, J. 164–5, 166
benefit corporations 61
Berman, S. 39
Bevir, M. 25–6
Big Jump movement 170
Billis, D. 97

blended value accounting 4 bonding social capital 40 bottom-up change 109, 110, 114
Bourdieu, P. 20, 74, 129
bricolage 77, 106
bridging social capital 40, 74–5
Building Better Homes, Towns and Cities Challenge 131
business models for community enterprise 72–3

Cafédirect 97–9
capitalism everyday life, rhythms and 155–63 fictional expectations 164–8, 171, 172, 173, 174 future orientation 164–76
 neoliberal 25, 26, 27–8
Cardy, S. 26
case study methodology 148–9 charitable activity 124, 139
Chell, E. 128
Chen, K. 37–8
China 37–8, 39–40, 42
chrono-normativity of debt 159 circular economies 113–20, 167 advancing social entrepreneurship within 117–18
 social entrepreneurs and ecopreneurs 114–17 civil society 37, 155 independent 38–9 social imaginaries 165–6, 169–72, 173, 174 class 117 climate change 116 clothing take-back system 113
coalitions of stakeholders 84–5, 90
collaborations 85–7 collective dimension 6
collective social entrepreneurship (CSE) 82–93 approaches to 84–7 cultural and constructivist perspectives 89 evolutionary aspects 90–91 literature on 83
 research agenda 87–91

- social entrepreneurship as enterprise vs innovation vs social change 89–90
- colonisation 130
- community-based enterprise (CBE) business model 73
- community benefit societies 68
- community cohesion 71
- community development corporations (CDCs) 69
- community embeddedness 69, 148
- community enterprises 6, 16, 17, 67–8
 - business models 72–3
 - mission 70–72
 - and social enterprises 67–8
- community entrepreneurship (CE) 67
 - characteristics 68–70
- community interest companies (CICs) 60, 68, 70
- community land trusts 69
- community perspectives 67–81
 - research agenda 74–7
 - on social capital 74–5
 - on social entrepreneurship 70–73
 - on social impact 76
 - on social innovation 75
 - on social networks 74
 - on sustainability 76–7
- community provisioning 71
- community responsiveness 108
- community rhododendron garden 107–8
- competing logics 3–4
- constructivism 89
- consumption, changing patterns of 115–16, 118
- contest perspective 166–8
- contestation 3
- cooperative societies 70
- corporate creep 26, 30
- corporate governance see governance
- corporate–social enterprise collaborations 86
- corporate social responsibility (CSR) partnerships 86
- counter-hegemonic resistance 19–20
- counterwork 106
- creative destruction 164
- critical perspectives 5–6
- cross-sector partnerships 86
- cross-sector resource mobilisation 108
- cultural bias 83
- cultural capital 129–30
 - Indigenous research and entrepreneurship 130–33
- cultural perspectives 89
- culture
 - dimensions of 141
 - MENA region 140–41
 - micro-finance and cultural tensions 160
- Czech Republic 37
- Dacin, M. 82
- Dacin, P. 82, 129
- Dairy Home 97–9
- dairy products 116
- Davies, I.A. 87
- debt (micro-finance) 156, 157–60, 161
- Dees, J.G. 2
- democracy 36–45
 - democratising in transitional and authoritarian contexts 39–42
 - social enterprises and independent civil society 38–9
- democratic deficit 155
- Derrida, J. 32
- developing countries 124
 - hybrid social entrepreneurship in 145–54
 - micro-finance 156, 157–60, 161
- development 7
 - economic 71
 - rural 104–12
 - sustainable 116, 169
- dimensions of culture 141
- directionality of innovation 169
- discursive perspective 5
 - discourses on sustainability 165–72
- Divine Chocolate 97–9
- Doi Tung 97–9
- Donovan, J. 94
- double agents 26–8
- Doumit, G. 136
- drinking water provision 170
- dual economy 147
- Dufays, F. 87
- Duniam, M. 107–10
- Earth system science 168–9
- East Asia 37
- ecological footprint 172
- economic development 71
- ecopreneurs 114–18
- ecosystems 6, 13–22, 84
 - relevance of evolutionary theory 14–16
 - research priorities 19–21
 - typology of 16–19
- education 140
 - for entrepreneurship 141, 147

- EFESEIS project 13–14, 15, 19
- effectuation 77, 83
- Egypt 138, 139, 141, 142
- Eikenberry, A. 26
- embeddedness 84
 - community 69, 148
 - place 69, 108
- emerging economies see developing countries
- employment training business model 73
- empowerment 71
 - smallholders 98
- England 15–16, 17
- enlightened shareholder value model 62
- entrepreneurial state 169, 171–2
- entrepreneurship education 141, 147
- entrepreneurship typology 129
- environmental goals 96
- environmental sustainability 113–20
- epigenetics 15–16, 17
- Epple, R. 170
- ethics 173–4
- ethnographic methods 88, 118
- Europe, ecosystem types in 16–19
- Evans, B. 26
- everyday life 155–63
- evolutionary perspective 13–22
 - collective social entrepreneurship 90–91
 - relevance of evolutionary theory for ecosystems 14–16
- exnovation 170
- expansionist tendencies 167, 170
- expectations
 - fictional 164–8, 171, 172, 173, 174
 - precautionary 165–6, 168–9, 172–3, 174
- factories 157
- female entrepreneurship see women
- feminist research 125
- fictional expectations 164–8, 171, 172, 173, 174
- field building 6
- fields 20
- financial incentives 5–6
- financial products, new 64
- food 116
 - agrifood supply chains 94, 95–6, 97–100
- form, legal see legal forms
- formal economy 147, 150
- fossil fuel sector 115
- frameworks for impact assessment 48, 49
- free time 171
- Friedman, M. 61
- function, form and 59–66
- funding
 - challenges in the MENA region 139
 - grant funding from local councils 109
- gender 7, 117, 121–7
 - see also* women
- genetic variation 15–16, 17
- Gereffi, G. 100
- Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) 122
- Global Impact Investing Network (GIIN) 64
- good governance 60–63
- governance 59–66, 100
 - beyond corporate governance 63–5
 - community entrepreneurship 69, 70
 - good 60–63
 - smallholder value chains 98, 100
- governmentality 5–6
- Grameen Bank 157–8
- grant funding from local councils 109
- Grassl, W. 14
- grassroots initiatives 123
- green economy 166–8
- greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions 116
- Grimes, M.G. 128
- gyms, women-only 140–41
- Hall, K. 28
- Hart, M. 122
- Haugh, H. 84–5, 87
- hauntology 32–3
- health sector 140
- hermeneutics 173–4
- heroic entrepreneur 2, 82, 83
- hidden/hard to access communities 150
- Hofstede, G. 141
- Home Fires event 132–3
- home perspective 169–72
- Hultman, M. 115
- Huybrechts, B. 85, 87
- hybridity 3–4, 26–7, 90, 108, 126
 - confluence of hybrid systems with hybrid organisations 31–2
 - hybrid organisations in value chain development 95, 96–100
 - hybrid social enterprises in emerging economies 145–54
- ICSEM (International Comparative Models of Social Enterprise) project 8
- identification with others 40, 41, 42

- ideological shifts 32–3
- impact accounting 167
- impact assessment 4–5, 8, 46–58, 68, 149
 - actors in 50–51
 - community entrepreneurship 76
 - metrics and frameworks 48, 49
 - purpose of 48–50
 - research agenda for the practice turn 51–4
- Impact Reporting and Investment Standards (IRIS) 47
- incentives, financial 5–6
- inclusive value chain development (IVCD) 94–103
 - approach 95–6
 - hybrid organisations 95, 96–100
- income generation 145
- independent civil society 38–9
- India 159
- Indigenous perspectives 7, 128–35
 - Māori research and entrepreneurship 128, 130–33
 - neighbourhood regeneration 132–3
 - social and cultural capital 129–33
- industrial actors 114
- informal economy 146–7, 150
- informal moneylending 159, 160
- informal provision 171–2
- innovation 100
 - social see social innovation
- institutional environment 6
- institutional voids/gaps 146, 148
- inter-company comparison 149
- Interest-Community for Communal Drinking Water Provision 170
- intermediation 106
- internal corporate law 63
- intersectionality 7
 - circular economy 114, 117–18
 - see also* gender; Indigenous perspectives
- investment
 - hybrids 97–8, 99
 - structures 64
- investors in social enterprises 64–5
- Iran 140
- Irvine, H. 26
- Islam 137
- Italy 60, 62

- Job Network 25
- joint liabilities 158, 159–60
- Jordan 139, 140, 141, 142
- justice 169

- Kaupapa Māori methodology 131–2
- Kelly, J.M. 168
- Keynes, J.M. 164
- Kluver, J. 26
- knowledge gap in female social entrepreneurship 123–5
- Kravčík, M. 170
- Kreitmeyr, N. 140

- large-scale quantitative data sets 122–3
- learning
 - organisational 49, 50, 53–4
 - passive 141
- Lebanon 139, 141, 142
- Lefebvre, H. 156–7, 161
- legal challenges in the MENA region 138
- legal forms
 - community enterprises 70
 - and function 59–66
- legitimacy 49, 50
- Levie, J. 122
- Lewis, D. 38, 39
- Liberation 97–9
- life cycle analysis (LCA) 118
- linear rhythms 157, 158
- local government councils 107, 108–10
- logic models 46
- longitudinal perspective 149–50
- low-profit limited liability company (L₃C) 60

- Mad Ave Community Trust 132–3
- Maier, F. 40–1
- Mandela, N. 3
- Māori Renaissance 130
- Māori research and entrepreneurship 128, 130–33
- market 84
 - access to premium markets 99
- market-contest discourse 166–8
- marketisation 23–35, 37–8
 - problematising 25–8
 - rise of 24–5
 - spectres of 28–33
- marriage conflicts 160
- Marx, K. 171
- memorisation 141
- metrics for impact assessment 48, 49
- micro-finance 156, 157–60, 161
- Middle East and North Africa (MENA) 136–44
 - challenges faced by social enterprises 138–9
 - characteristics of social entrepreneurs 137–8
 - research agenda 142

- social entrepreneurship as a way forward
 - 139–41
- mission 70–72
- mission drift 53
- mission-oriented innovation policy approach 169
- mixed multi-cropping 99
- mobility innovations 115
- moneylending 159, 160
 - micro-credit 156, 157–60, 161
- Montgomery, A. 82
- Morocco 139, 140, 141, 142
- motivation of social entrepreneurs 142
- Muin, M.A.A. 137
- multi-disciplinary advantage 8

- National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)
 - 23–4, 28–33
- National Health Service 5–6
- Nazis 39
- neighbourhood regeneration 132–3
- neoliberalism 25, 26, 27–8
- networks
 - coalitions of stakeholders 84–5, 90
 - and movement-based CSE 87
 - social 74
- new financial products 64
- New Public Governance (NPG) 24–5
- New Public Management (NPM) 24–5
- New Water Paradigm 170
- New Zealand 128, 130–33
- Nicholls, A. 4, 27, 85
- non-profit sector 97, 139
- norms 63
- North Africa see Middle East and North Africa (MENA)

- opportunity identification 128
- organisational learning 49, 50, 53–4
- Orr, A. 94
- ownership 64, 100

- Palestine 139, 140
- participation
 - community entrepreneurship 69–70
 - democratic 40–41, 42
- participatory governance model 62
- partnership business model 73
- partnerships 85–7
- passive learning 141
- people 69
- People and Water 170
- phenotypes 15–16, 17

- philanthropic approach to rural development 109
- place 69
 - women and social entrepreneurship 124
- place-embeddedness 69, 108
- planetary framework model 168
- pluralism 8
 - ecosystem types 16, 18
- policy instruments 118
- pooling resources partnerships 87
- population growth 139
- portfolio companies 64
- Post, J.E. 2
- poverty 145, 150
- practice theory 51–2
- practice turn in impact assessment 47
 - research agenda for 51–4
- practices-praxis-practitioners framework 52–3, 54
- precautionary expectations 165–6, 168–9, 172–3, 174
- Private-macro ecosystem type 16, 18–19
- Private-micro ecosystem type 16, 18, 19
- private sector 26, 97
- Product Life Institutes 173
- profane time and space 160
- profit 97–8
- profitability, lack of 115
- provisioning
 - community 71
 - social imaginaries 171–2
- public sector organisations 97
- public service business model 73
- public–social enterprise collaborations 86
- Putnam, R.D. 40, 74, 75

- quasi-markets 25, 27
 - challenging assumptions about social enterprise 29–31
 - NDIS 28–33
 - see also* marketisation

- race 117
- randomised controlled trials (RCTs) 46
- readiness for marketisation 29–30
- reciprocity 84
- redistribution 84
- repayment schedules 159
- reports, in impact assessment 48, 49
- resource-based perspective 83
- resourcefulness 106
- Rhodes, R. 25–6
- rhododendron garden 107–8

- rhythms 155–63
 - micro-finance for women 158–60
- river swimming 170
- roles in social entrepreneurship, women and 124
- Roy, M.J. 14–15
- rural communities 104, 105
- rural development 104–12
 - actors 105–6
 - social enterprises in 106–11
 - Tasmania 107–10
- rurality 4
 - smallholder value chains 94–103
- Sachs, W. 166, 167, 168, 169
- Salamon, L.M. 24
- same-sector partnerships 85
- Saudi Arabia 137, 138, 139–40, 141, 142
- Schaper, M.T. 115
- Schatzki, T.R. 52
- Schönauer, S. 170
- Scotland 15–16, 17
- self-provision 171–2
- service provision 71, 171–2
 - quality of 25–6
- Shanghai 171
- shareholder-centric corporate governance model 62
- shareholder wealth maximisation 60–61
- Siam Organic 97–9
- skills 89
- smallholder value chains 94–103
 - agrifood supply chains 94, 95–6, 97–100
- Social Accounting and Audit 68
- social action 20
- social business form 16, 17
- social capital 40, 41, 129–30
 - community perspectives on 74–5
 - Indigenous research and entrepreneurship 130–33
- social change 89–90
- Social Enterprise Journal* 147–8
- social enterprises
 - assumptions about 29–31
 - community enterprises and 67–8
 - as double agents 26–8
 - and independent civil society 38–9
- social entrepreneurship field 1–12
 - collective dimension 6
 - contestation 3
 - critical perspectives and governmentality 5–6
 - field building and institutional environment 6
 - hybridity and competing logics 3–4
 - intersectionality 7
 - measuring social value 4–5
 - pluralism and multi-disciplinary advantage 8
 - rurality 4
 - social entrepreneurship ecosystems 13–22
 - social goals 96, 98–9
 - social housing tenants 132–3
 - social imaginaries 165–6, 169–72, 173, 174
 - social impact 4–5
 - community perspectives on 76
 - impact assessment see impact assessment
 - social innovation 1, 89–90
 - community perspectives on 75
 - time and 164–76
 - social-mindedness 123–4
 - social movements 3, 87
 - social networks 74
 - Social Return on Investment (SROI) 5, 46–7, 68
 - social value 3
 - measuring see impact assessment
 - socialisation 69
 - socially oriented investors 64
 - South Africa 3, 145
 - space, time and 156–61
 - Stahel, W. 172–3
 - stakeholders
 - coalitions of 84–5, 90
 - in impact assessment 50–51
 - Statist-macro ecosystem type 16–18
 - Statist-micro ecosystem type 16, 18
 - Steffen, W. 168
 - stewardship governance model 62
 - stigma of insolvability 160
 - Stoian, D. 94
 - strategy 49, 50
 - sub-Saharan Africa (SSA) 146–7
 - sustainability 165
 - community entrepreneurship 76–7
 - discourses 165–72
 - environmental 113–20
 - sustainable communities 72
 - sustainable development 116, 169
 - Sweden 116
 - Tamaki Regeneration Project 132–3
 - Tasmania 107–10
 - Teasdale, S. 27, 41, 122, 123
 - Thailand 95, 97–9
 - time
 - and social innovation 164–76
 - space, rhythms and 156–61
 - tools for impact assessment 48, 49, 68

- top-down change 109, 110
- trading business model 72
- trading resources partnerships 87
- training
 - employment training business model 73
 - programmes 140, 141
- transfirm norms 63
- transitional agency 113–20
- transitional regimes 36–45
 - democratising in 39–42
 - social enterprises in 36–8
- transport 116
- Treaty of Waitangi 130
- Truman, H.S. 167

- uncertainty, institutionalised 164–5, 172
- unemployment 139–40
- United Kingdom 36–7, 60, 68, 122–3
 - ecosystems in England and Scotland 15–16, 17
 - National Health Service 5–6
 - social enterprise hybrids 97–9
- United States 36–7, 60, 61
- universities 141

- Vaceková, G. 37
- value chains 94–103
- Vision Mātauranga policy 131
- volunteering 107–8, 123, 124, 139
- vouchers for returned clothing 113

- Wackernagel, M. 172
- Waddock, S.A. 2
- Waitangi, Treaty of 130
- Waqf (endowment) 137
- Warnecke, T. 39
- waste management 114
- welfare market reform
 - marketisation 23–35
 - NDIS in Australia 23–4, 28–33
- Whittington, R. 52–3
- wicked problems 146, 148
- Wischermann, J. 39
- women
 - micro-credit 156, 157–60, 161
 - social entrepreneurship 121–7, 146
- women-only gyms 140–41
- work 171
- work integration social enterprise (WISE) form
 - 18
- Wry, T. 4

- York, J.G. 4
- Yosso, T.J. 129–30
- Yu, J. 37–8
- Yunus, M. 2, 157

- Zahra, S.A. 2
- Zakat (almsgiving) 137

