

Index

- academic behaviour 172–4
- action
 - as component of behaviour 8
 - as decision theory problem 28
 - and mirror neurons 10–11
- actionable knowledge 28–9
- adaptive toolbox 42, 119
- affect heuristic see heuristics: affect
- affect, role of 7–10
- Alemanni, B. 221
- alternative dispute resolution (ADR) 166
- anchoring 4–10, 145, 169
- anticipated regret 7
- armchair economics 22
- “as if” concept 26, 72–4, 78, 130
- asset management 216–17, 219–20
- Attia, C. 15, 135, 156
- austerity 145, 151–2
- availability 9, 85–6, 120
- aversion to loss see loss aversion
- bank customers
 - bank-related behaviour 102
 - investment decisions 123–4
 - views of risk 122–3
- banks
 - actions preceding financial crisis 67–70
 - and complexity 69, 128–30
 - cooperative 122–4
 - incentives 102, 105
 - regulation 102–7
 - stability 103–5
 - see also* central banks
- Behavioral Financial Regulation and Policy (BEFAIRLY) xvii–xix, 30, 47, 55
- Behavioral Investor Types (BITs) 98
- behavioural biases 97, 119, 159, 165, 168–9, 201–3, 232–4
- behavioural economics
 - first generation 95–6
 - linking to monetary inertia 195–6, 201–3
 - pioneers 94–5
 - recent developments and lessons for policymakers 108–12
 - second generation 96–8
 - third generation 98–9
- behavioural finance
 - adaptive toolbox in 119
 - for better prediction and regulation 14–17
 - call to rethink nature of 130
 - emergence of 96–7
 - financial organizations 12–14
 - future 99
 - incorrect forecasting 2–3
 - and investment process 228
 - neuroeconomics 10–12
 - original intention and end result 117
 - personalized 98–9
 - pioneers 95
 - regulation of bankers’ behaviour 102–7
 - reshaping financial consumer protection 183–92
 - role in pension fund investment 219–20
 - room for methodological principles in 120
 - semantic and pragmatic anchoring 4–10
 - versus traditional financial paradigm 227
- behavioural finance preferences
 - architecture building 228–32, 234
 - behavioural chart 231
 - emotional behaviour 228, 230–33
 - growth dimension 228–9
 - inflation and investment needs dimension 228–9, 234

- investor types 231–2
 - irrational behaviour bias 228, 232–3
 - leverage dimension 228–9
 - monetary policy dimension 228–9
 - recommendations 233
 - survey findings 232–3
- behavioural insights (BIs) 37, 184–5, 187, 195–6
- behavioural policymaking
 - and bounded rationality 24–30
 - dealing with irrationalities 39–43
 - economists and psychology 20–24
 - lessons for macroeconomics 108–12
 - more pragmatic approach to 36–9
 - pension fund investment
 - recommendations 221–2
 - potential for integrative approach 37, 44
 - spread of 33
 - terminology 33–4
 - versus traditional economic policy 33, 35–7, 40, 44
 - see also* behaviourally-inspired policies
- behavioural regulation see regulation
- behaviourally-inspired policies
 - Consob's steps towards 187–92
 - defining 34–6
 - European institutions 184–7
 - see also* behavioural policymaking
- beliefs 61–2, 65–6, 102–3, 106–7, 127, 144, 148–50, 164, 227
- Benartzi, S. xii, 88–9, 96–7, 111
- Bendor, J. 24–5, 29
- bias-variance dilemma 120–21, 129
- Black–Scholes case 15, 139
- Black–Scholes–Merton formula 126
- bonuses see rewards
- boosts
 - classes of 24
 - domain for use 43
 - motivational 43
 - risk literacy 43
 - as targeting competences 42
 - theoretical foundations 41–2
 - types of 42–3
 - uncertainty management 43
- bounded rationality
 - basis for theory of 21, 75
 - definition of theory of 84
 - elements of 26–9
 - in political science 24–5, 29–30
 - two orientations of 24–5, 29–30
- brain 10–12, 89–92
- budget policies 37–8
- capital asset pricing method (CAPM) 78, 116
- Capital Markets Union (CMU)
 - focus on SME growth 215
 - personal pension market 221
 - recommendations for 222–3
- casinos 118, 129
- causal models 152–4
- central banks
 - actions in presence of behavioural biases 201–3
 - beliefs in 65–6
 - communication and formation of expectations 59–63
 - doves, pigeons and hawks 201–2
 - as Econs 197, 199–201
 - effect of financial crisis 58
 - governance 200–201
 - large-scale asset purchases 58
 - as lenders of last resort 103
 - loss aversion 195–7, 201–3
 - monetary inertia 195–6, 199–203
 - quantitative easing 3, 63–6
 - signalling with policy rates 61–3
 - use of committees 197–9
 - use of multiple models 66
 - see also* banks
- Cervellati, E.M. 98
- chess 82–3
- cognitive accessibility 11
- cognitive biases 7, 30, 52, 83, 98, 117, 125, 144, 151–2, 167–9, 186–7, 207–8
- cognitive components
 - of decision-making 15, 23, 83, 227
 - of organizational memory 17
- “cognitive continuum” 8
- cognitive control 43
- cognitive economics 15, 17, 109–10
- cognitive limitations 24, 26–8, 51–2, 110–11, 119
- cognitive operations of mind 41
- cognitive overload risk 208
- cognitive processes 7–8, 83, 190

- cognitive sciences
 - application in Consob 187–91
 - ascertaining role of 184–7, 191–2
 - use in monetary policy analysis 203
- cognitive skills 112
- cognitive system 42–3
- committees (monetary policy) 197–202
- complexity 16–17, 69, 128–30, 188–9
- Consob (Italian Authority for Securities Markets)
 - application of cognitive sciences in 187–91
 - demand for financial advice 189–90
 - financial disclosure 188–9
 - future steps 191–2
 - investor education 190–91
 - research into behaviourally informed policies 184
 - rules of conduct 189–90
 - suitability assessment 189
- conversational maxims 5
- credit standards 149–51
- Cruciani, C. 207, 210
- cultural cognition 24–5
- culture of risk 148–9, 155
- data
 - case of flawed 152
 - experiential 84
 - fitting 120
 - framing effect 6
 - order of 5–6
 - presentation of 4
 - quantity of 9
 - selection of 4
 - undersampled 140–43, 155
- databases 146
- debiasing 16, 25, 169
- decision process 41, 168–9, 183
- Delphic policy 61–2
- disclosure
 - for behavioural finance 17
 - Consob 188–9
 - educative nudges 41
 - regulation 38–9, 165, 185–6
 - response to information asymmetry 164
- disposition effect 7, 89–90
- diversification
 - causes behind lack of 216
 - improving portfolio 223
 - recommendations for pension fund 216–17
 - risk 221–2
- “dotcom effect” 9
- dual model of mind 7–8
- ecological rationality 12, 41–2, 119–22, 125, 128
- economics
 - armchair 22
 - mathematics and logic 21–2
 - versus psychology 20–24, 73, 82, 169
 - reunion with psychology 81–9, 110–11
 - stress on optimization theory 22–3
- Econs 197, 199–201
- efficient market hypothesis (EMH) 74–82, 155
- emotional salience 9
- emotions 7–8, 17, 52, 83, 122–3, 187, 191, 228, 230–33
- endowment effect 8, 110
- equity premium puzzle 77–8, 88–9
- European Commission (EC)
 - Capital Markets Union project 215, 221
 - financial disclosure 185–6
 - interest in behavioural approach 185
 - Joint Research Centre 184–5
 - Key Investor Information Document 185–6, 189
 - personal pension products proposal 221
 - rules of conduct 186–7
- European Securities Markets Authority (ESMA) 187, 189
- European Supervisory Authorities (ESAs) 186
- Eurozone crisis 135, 145, 151–2
- expectations
 - as driving behaviours 107
 - and efficient markets 74–8
 - formation of 59–63
 - fully rational 64, 70, 74
 - and “irrational” operators 79
 - regulators and bankers 102–3, 106–7
 - role in financial planning 71
 - see also* rational expectations theory

- expected utility theory (EUT) 40, 82–3, 130, 227
- finance
 - analyzing heuristics in 122–30
 - judgmental overconfidence in 136–9
 - mathematical tools of 116–17, 119
 - psychological blind spot in 117
 - role of uncertainty 115, 118, 130
 - towards systematic study of heuristics in 130
- financial advice
 - demand for 189–90
 - non-monetary benefit 208
 - transparency of cost 206
- financial advisory industry
 - exchange dimension of service 210–13
 - framework to understand trust in 210–13
 - as money doctors 207, 209–10, 212–13
 - as more than money managers 207, 213
 - new normative requirements for 206
 - relationship and exchange dimensions 210–13
 - trust models in 207–10
- financial advisory models evolution 234
- financial analyses and forecasts
 - anchoring and adjustment heuristic 4
 - behavioural sciences for improved 14–17
 - causal models for 152–4
 - correcting errors in 152–4
 - emotional salience 9
 - groupthink in 145–8
 - misprediction in US housing market 140–43, 155
 - overconfidence in 136–9
 - quantity of data 9
 - subservience to rating agencies 15–16
 - unreliable 2–3, 109
- Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) 37, 168, 184
- financial consumer protection
 - behavioural finance reshaping 183–92
 - consumer behavioural weakness 164–5
 - financial education for 167–9
 - necessity of 163–4
 - need for multi-disciplinary approach 169
 - private enforcement 166–7
 - public enforcement 165–6
 - regulation 165
- financial crisis
 - and availability heuristic 86
 - bank regulation preceding 104
 - catching institutional investors by surprise 220
 - challenging paradigm underlying financial regulation 183
 - as combination of myopia and herd behaviour 60
 - and financial heuristic 124
 - financial market preceding 67–70
 - impact on central banks 58
 - and MiFID II Directive 206, 209
 - and psychological biases 135–6, 151–2, 154–6
- financial disclosure
 - Consob's study on 188–9
 - European Commission's report on 185–6
 - regulation 185–6
- financial education
 - campaigns 183
 - for empowering financial consumers 167, 183
 - for investors 190–91
 - issues for consideration 98–9
 - low level in Italy 221
 - need for portfolio of approaches 167–9
 - as not limited to financial literacy 16
 - traditional 190–91
- financial education programs 98–9, 167
- financial incompetence
 - aims of study 135–6
 - asymmetric rewards and risk culture 148–9, 155
 - client psychology 143–5, 155

- cognitive biases 151–2
- correcting errors in statistical thinking 152–4
- groupthink 145–8, 151–2, 154–5
- judgmental overconfidence 136–9
- relaxing credit standards and mispricing risk 149–51, 154–5
- undersampling 139–43, 155
- understanding of and recommendations for 155–6
- financial intermediaries
 - in period preceding subprime crisis 67–70
 - and trust 208–9
- financial literacy
 - of bank customers 122–4
 - behavioural aspects 159–62
 - definitions 122, 124
 - dimensions of 158–9
 - financial knowledge 159–61, 163, 181
 - gender differences 161, 163
 - initiatives to raise awareness of relevance 168
 - versus nudging 125–6
 - overconfidence 159, 161–2
 - questions used to measure 179
 - role of parents 163
 - solutions for general public 124–5
 - statistics on 181, 221
- financial markets see markets
- financial organizations 12–14
- financial regulation see regulation
- forecasts see financial analyses and forecasts
- forgetfulness 9, 14, 52
- forward guidance 59–63, 65, 105–6
- fractal markets 80–81, 140
- framing bias 43, 52, 117, 164
- framing effect 4, 6, 82, 87–8, 169, 185–7, 221
- Franceschi, F. 163
- free will 11
- Friedman, M. 72–3, 83, 96, 108, 118, 120
- full rationality 26–8, 110–11
- gains versus losses 6–7, 87–8
- game theory 20, 22, 96
- Gaussian curve 15, 80–81
- Gigerenzer, G. 7–9, 12, 20, 24–5, 27–9, 41–3, 48, 50, 55, 86, 116–17, 119–20, 124–9, 192
- Giorgiantonio, C. 217–18
- goal-orientation 26–8
- governance
 - central banks 200–201
 - of pension funds 216–19, 222–3
- governance inertia 196, 200–201
- groupthink
 - among US securitization professionals and financial analysts 145–8
 - in Eurozone crisis 151–2
 - as exacerbating shared delusions 155
 - as often exacerbating errors 154
- gut feelings 9
- harm principle 51
- Hayek, F. von 51, 73, 118, 155
- herd behaviour 3, 52, 60, 219–20
- heuristics
 - affect 8, 120, 136, 149–51
 - anchoring and adjustment 4
 - availability 9, 85–6, 120
 - and bounded rationality 24–5, 28–30, 84
 - ecological rationality of 12, 41–2, 119–22, 125, 128
 - empirical questions on 13
 - fast and frugal 9, 24–5, 42–3, 116, 119, 125, 129
 - in finance, study of 130
 - gaze 115, 129
 - ground-based 106
 - impacting on information processing and evaluation 169
 - for investment 126–8
 - “local” 12
 - one-reason 13
 - prototype 9
 - recognition 14, 86, 120, 128
 - for regulation 128–30
 - representativeness 9, 84–5, 120
 - satisficing 126–7
 - simple 9, 12–14, 23, 41–3, 84, 119
 - “skin in the game” 130
 - terminology and description 115
 - use in human decisions 227
 - white-coat 124

- heuristics-and-biases 24–5, 41–2, 84
- heuristics revolution
 - study of adaptive toolbox 119
 - study of ecological rationality 119–22
 - taking uncertainty seriously 118
- Hilton, D. 15, 135–6, 138, 144, 156
- House Price Appreciation (HPA) 140–43
- household behaviour analysis 225–7, 234
- housing market (US)
 - “predatory” mortgages 144–5
 - undersampling and misprediction in 140–43, 155
- incentives
 - bankers driven by strong market 105
 - fiscal 174–5
 - for managers, and herding 219–20
 - and nudges 40, 50
 - and regulation 37–9, 155, 165
 - trader 64
 - see also* rewards
- incrementalism 24–5, 109
- information inertia 196
- information, role of 183–4
- innovation
 - Italian anomaly 171–3
 - valuation criteria of universities 172, 174
- “institutional herding” 220
- insurance-lottery framework 96
- intellectual arrogance 52–3
- interest rate inertia
 - loss aversion triggering 195–6
 - when central bankers are Econs 199–201
 - when central bankers become humans 201–2
- internalities
 - in classifications of public policies 35–6
 - dealing with 39–43
- investment
 - heuristics for 126–8
 - Italian attitudes towards 177–81
- investment knowledge 216, 221–2
- investment process 228, 234
- investment rules 221–2
- investor behaviour 174–5, 177–81, 234
- investor education 190–91
- irrational behaviour 6, 37, 79, 91, 110, 117, 154–5, 167–8, 227–8, 232–3
- Italy
 - attitudes toward investment 177–81
 - Consob’s steps toward behaviourally informed policy 187–92
 - financial attitude 227–34
 - financial literacy 122–4, 158–63, 169, 179, 181, 221
 - households’ financial portfolio 225–7
 - innovation 171–5
 - low capitalization of SMEs 215
 - pension funds 215–18, 222–3
- Joint Research Centre (JRC) 184–5
- judgmental overconfidence 136–9
- Kahneman, D. 4, 6–7, 9, 24–5, 41, 82–4, 95–6, 99, 108, 125, 140, 208, 227
- Key Investor Information Document (KIID) 185–6, 189
- Keynes, J.M. 73, 95
- King, M. 106, 118, 129–30
- Knight, F. 28–9, 115–16
- knowledge
 - and financial literacy 122, 124, 159–61, 163, 167–9
 - generated from information processes 28–9
 - investment 216, 221–2
 - in Italian innovation anomaly 173
 - and organizational memory 13
 - “pretense of” 118
 - study on consumers’ financial 188–92
- large-scale asset purchases 58–9
- law of small numbers 140
- less-is-more principle 9, 13–14
- libertarian paternalism 16, 97, 125
- Linciano, N. 189, 191, 221–2
- linguistic transparency 17
- Loewenstein, G. 33, 35–7, 39
- logic 21–2
- logical consistency 5
- loss aversion 6–8, 88–90, 94, 112, 164, 169, 187, 195–7, 201–3

- losses versus gains 6–7, 87–8
- LTCM (Long Term Capital Management) case 15, 139–40
- mapping 17
- markets
- “beating the” 71–6
 - behavioural sciences for improved prediction and regulation 14–17
 - efficient 74–8
 - fractal 80–81, 140
 - limits of efficiency 79–81
 - as prone to myopia 60, 67–70
- Markets in Financial Instruments Directive see MiFID II Directive
- Markowitz, H. 95–6, 115–16, 119
- Masciandaro, D. 195–7, 199, 201
- mathematics 21–2, 116–17, 119
- mean-variance approach 95, 116, 119, 121
- memory
- in bounded rationality 84
 - in chess game 83
 - consumption behaviour 110
 - market 80–81
 - organizational 13–14
 - in stock selection 86
 - “traditional” 14
 - in undersampling 139
- MiFID II Directive
- direct and secondary effects 209–11, 213
 - establishment 206
 - financial consumer protection regulation 165, 225
 - purpose and focus 206–9
- mirror neurons 10–11
- mis-selling 166, 187–8
- misprediction in US housing market 140–43
- mispricing
- risk 149–51, 154–5
 - stock 73–7
- Mojon, B. 69
- monetary policy
- committees 197–202
 - doves, pigeons and hawks 199, 201–2
 - effect of beliefs on 65–6
 - forward guidance 59–63
 - interest rate inertia 199–203
 - large-scale asset purchases 58–9
 - loss aversion shaping decisions on 195–7, 201–3
 - principal–agent perspective 201
 - quantitative easing 63–5
 - recommendations for 203
 - zero lower bound 58, 61–2, 196
- money doctors 207, 209–10, 212–13
- money managers 207, 213
- monkeys
- brain mechanisms experiment 10
 - “dart-throwing” 3, 76
- Mousavi, S. 20, 28–9, 117
- “muddling through” 24–5
- naïve diversification bias 119
- Neapolitan Republic story 46
- neuroeconomics 10–12, 89–90, 96
- neurofinance 89–92
- no-trade theorem 79, 87
- Nobel Prize winners xi, 15, 21, 94–6, 98–9, 108, 115, 139
- noise traders 79–80
- nuclear power 149–50
- nudges
- automatism 40–41
 - as behavioural intervention 36, 39
 - behavioural policy tilting towards 222
 - as behavioural regulation tool 49–51
 - benefits of 49–50
 - versus boosts 41–3
 - in bounded rationality 25
 - as “choice architects” 50–51, 53–4
 - from decision analysis perspective 41
 - definition 39
 - disciplines impacting on 97–8
 - discomfort 40
 - educative 41–3
 - examples 16
 - versus financial literacy 125–6
 - indifference 40
 - limitations of 49–50, 112
 - versus mandatory rules 53
 - against mortgage deals 155
 - as policy information tool 39
 - probability 40–41
 - as prompted choice 227
 - social 111

- soft, manipulative approach 49–50, 54–5
- taxonomy of 40–41
- Odyssean policy 61–2
- OECD-INFE survey 159–61
- one-size-fits-all approach 167–8, 189, 221
- organizational dyscrasia 15–16
- overconfidence
 - and demand for financial advice 189–90
 - impact of financial decisions 86–7
 - impacting on information processing and evaluation 169
 - judgmental 136–9
 - as psychological bias 117, 227
 - in self 143–4
 - Smith's description 94
 - survey assessment of 159–62
- Pareto, V.F.D. 22, 81, 94–5
- “patient” capital 215, 223
- pension funds
 - Europe's investment in 215–16, 221–2
 - governance of 216–19
 - herding behaviour 219–20
 - investment rules and behavioural policy recommendations 221–2
 - national barriers restricting investment in 222
 - need for consortium of investment 223
 - role of behavioural finance 219–20
 - as source of SME long-term financing 215–16, 223
- personal liability 130
- personal pension products (PEPPs) 221–2
- personality theories 98–9
- policymaking
 - cognitive biases in 151
 - financial consumer protection challenges 163–7
 - financial education 167–9
 - monetary 197–9, 201–2
 - see also* behavioural policymaking
- political economics
 - evaluation of monetary policy through board composition 197–9
 - evolution 195
 - foundation as psychological 94
- political science
 - bounded rationality in 24–5, 29–30
 - rational choice theory in 29
- portfolio theory
 - behavioural 95–6
 - mean-variance 95
 - mental accounting 96
 - risk-averse 96, 158
- positive illusions 143–4
- priority effect 5
- private enforcement 166–7
- probabilistic revolution 116–17
- probability
 - affect's role in 8
 - and availability 85–6
 - of events for US equities 230–31
 - and framing 88
 - Knightian 29, 115
 - miscalibration measures 136
 - and overconfidence 86–7, 161
 - and representativeness 84–5
 - in situations of risk 115–16
 - versus utility 40–41
- probability distribution 141–2
- problem-solving orientation 24–5, 28, 84
- prospect theory 6–7, 83, 88, 90, 96, 227
- prototype heuristics 9
- prudential regulation 104–5
- psychological biases 38, 135, 154–5
 - see also* groupthink; heuristics:
 - affect; judgmental
 - overconfidence; positive
 - illusions; risk aversion;
 - temporal discounting;
 - undersampling
- psychology
 - behaviour modeling 23–4
 - bias explaining subprime borrowers' behaviour 143–5
 - client 143–5
 - cognitive 7, 185, 188, 203
 - versus economists 20–24, 73, 82, 169
 - explaining mispricing risk 149–51

- as foundation of political economy 94–5
- and heuristics 23–5, 30
- and market responses 38
- portrayed as source of irrationality 117
- reunion with economics 81–9, 110–11
- of thinking 23
- public enforcement 165–6
- public policymaking
 - behavioural classification 34–6
 - dealing with internalities 39–43
 - new integrative approach 44
 - pragmatic classification 36–9
 - traditional 33, 44
- quantitative easing (QE) 3, 62–6
- randomized controlled trials (RCT) 34–5
- rating agencies 15–16, 142–3, 146, 149
- rational behaviour 74–5, 227, 230–33
- rational choice theory 25, 29, 110
- rational expectations theory 74–6, 81–2, 117, 200–201
- rationality
 - broad definition 108
 - deviations from 111
 - ecological 12, 41–2, 119–22, 125, 128
 - in research strands of behavioural economics 110–11
- rationality hypothesis 183–4
- recency effect 5
- recognition heuristic see heuristics
- recognition portfolios 128
- reflection effect 6
- regret 7–8, 134
- regulation
 - bank 102–7
 - behavioural sciences for improved 14–17
 - disclosure 38–9, 165, 185–6
 - educative nudges 41
 - experimental approach to 34
 - financial consumer protection 165
 - herding possibly driven by 220
 - heuristics for 128–30
 - of investment behaviour 216–17
 - investment rules 221–2
 - of pension fund governance 218–19
 - policy interventions 35–9, 41
 - as prescriptive 48
 - resistance to ‘being led to the good’ 46–7
 - rules for designing 47–8
 - rules and scoring 38–9
 - soft versus hard approaches 48–56
- regulators
 - accountability of 49, 54–5
 - competence of 49, 51–2
 - nudgers 48–51, 53–4
- representativeness 9, 84–5, 120
- rewards
 - asymmetric, in finance industry 148–9
 - bonus culture 148, 155
 - and miscalibrated traders 138–9
 - for those performing well 72
- risk
 - bank customers’ views of 122–3
 - banks’ estimation of 128–9
 - and behavioural finance 117
 - comprehension of 179, 181
 - to consumers 161–2, 164
 - culture of 148–9, 155
 - and heuristics 116
 - and investment decisions 123–4
 - mispricing 149–51, 154–5
 - nuclear power 149–50
 - and personal liability 130
 - theory behind 115–17
 - and uncertainty 118
 - and utility 8–9
- risk aversion 52, 77–8, 90, 177, 227, 230–34
- robo advice 190
- Rossi, S. 112, 215
- Rotondi, Z. 200
- rules of conduct
 - Consob 189–90
 - for empowering financial consumers 183
 - ESMA 187
 - European Commission’s report on 186–7
 - reliance on information flows 184
- saliency 9, 17, 85–6, 164, 166
- satisficing 24, 115, 126–8

- Savage, L.J. 28, 82, 96, 115–16, 227
- Save More Tomorrow (SMART) program 97
- securitization professionals 145–8
- self-interest 108
- Selten, R. 27, 116, 129
- shadow banking 104–5
- Shefrin, H. 20, 43, 95–6, 99, 125
- Simon, H.A. xi, 12, 21–5, 58, 75, 83–4, 94, 108, 115, 117–18, 130
- Simon's ant 23
- simplicity 13, 16–17, 221
- "skin in the game" 130
- SME long-term financing 215–16, 223
- Soccorso, P. 189, 191, 221–2
- social dyscrasia 16
- start-ups
 - and academic research 172
 - legal framework for 171–2
 - performance 174–5
 - recommendations for 175
 - success factors 171
 - university initiatives 174
- statistical literacy 41–3
- statistical thinking, errors in 152–4
- Statman, M. 20, 95–6, 98, 209
- stock
 - in fractal markets 80–81, 140
 - methods of valuation 71–8
 - mispricing 73–7
 - in "no-trade theorem" 79
 - noise traders 79
 - trader reaction to news regarding 78
- "story model" 5–6
- structural equation model (SEM) 210–13
- structure–conduct–performance paradigm 103–4
- Subjective Expected Utility (SEU) 227
- subprime mortgage crisis 16, 67–70, 124, 135–6, 140–46, 148–9, 153–5
- suitability assessment
 - Consob 189
 - ESMA's guidelines 187
- Sunstein, C.R. 16, 24–5, 39–42, 48–50, 96, 125, 222, 234
- swine flu 153–4
- "teasers" 16–17, 37, 144–5, 155
- temporal discounting 144–5, 155
- Thaler, R.H. xi–xii, 12, 16, 24–5, 39–41, 43, 48–9, 78, 85, 88–9, 94–9, 108, 111, 117, 125, 222, 234
- theory of mind (ToM) 90
- trust
 - avenues of future research 213
 - as complex phenomenon 207
 - as crucial element in provision of financial advisory services 207
 - methodological framework for understanding 210–12
 - models in financial advisory industry 207–10
 - no single definition of 212
 - relationship and exchange dimensions 210–13
- Trust Game 209
- Tversky, A. 4, 6, 24–5, 82–4, 95–6, 140, 227
- uncertainty
 - allowing for profit 116
 - approach to rationality under 12
 - and boosts 43
 - cognitive-based 26–8
 - and forecasters 4
 - heuristics as solution to 13, 42, 116, 118, 121–2, 128
 - and information perception 168
 - and information quantity 183–4
 - inherent 26–8
 - less-is-more principle 9
 - mean-variance portfolio under 119–21
 - and organizational memory 14
 - and risk 28, 106, 115–17
 - satisficing for decision-making under 115, 126–8
 - taking seriously 118
 - theory of decision-making under 130
 - and value of stocks 71, 73
- undersampling
 - historical examples 139–40
 - and misprediction in US housing market 140–43, 155
- universities 172, 174
- utility and risk 8–9
- utility theory 8, 74, 82, 87

- value at risk (VAR) 128–9, 139–40, 145, 153
- Venture Capital finance
 - at centre of attention 171
 - incentives for 174–5
 - Italy's position 172
 - recommendations for 175
 - start-ups requiring easy access to 171
- Viale, R. 2, 8, 16, 175
- Weltanschauung* 48, 52, 54
- zero lower bound (ZLB) 58, 61–2, 196

