

Index

- abuse of employment relationships
European Pillar of Social Rights xii, 12–13
European Union xii, 3, 12–13
fixed term contracts 110, 134, 139
Poland xv, 134, 139–40, 145–6
Protection against Precarious Work Directive, proposal for 20
Slovenia xv, 115, 121, 123, 125, 132
temporary work agencies 125, 145–6
- access to courts 57, 59, 63, 66–9, 71–2 access to job opportunities/labour market xvi, 11–14, 20, 36, 109, 172, 213, 240
- Adams, Zoe 58
Adlercreutz, Axel 102
Airtasker 237
Alston, Philip 225
Amazon Mechanical Turk 176, 179–80, 226, 231 apps 176–80, 189, 199–200, 209–10, 223–4, 231, 240–1
Aslam, Yaseen 198, 204 assembly lines 44
assignment workers 100–1
Australian Unions New South Wales (UNSW) 237
Austria 232 availability for work xvi, 197–9, 203, 205–6, 209–11, 215, 220
- Bauman, Zygmunt 27–8
Belgium 185, 189–90
Beltran de Heredia Ruiz, Ignasi 76
Beveridgean approach 48–9
Bezos, Jeff 178
Biewald, Lukas 178
Bismarckian approach 48–9
Bogg, Alan 214–15
bogus self-employment see disguised/bogus employment relationships
Bologna, Silvio 50
boundaries between types of employment 4, 44–5, 56, 141
- capital xiii, 23, 26–7
cartels 130
casual labour xvi, 137 certainty 6, 10, 22–7, 31, 37
Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU 14, 18, 20, 239–40
Cherry, Mary 231
children, employees with
Czech Republic 158, 164
European Pillar of Social Rights 12
maternity leave 149–50, 164
parental leave 158, 164
paternity leave 149–50
Poland, parental rights in xv, 135, 149–50 pregnant women 158, 160 rights of the child 12
social protection 43
work-life balance 149
- civil law contracts
Poland 32, 36, 134–5, 139–42, 145–8, 150

- Slovenia xv, 114–16, 120, 126, 129–30, 132
- trade unions 147–8
- violence 36
- civil society 153
- class, precariat as a 29
- classification
 - boundaries between types of employment 4, 45
 - crowdwork/platforms 181–6, 198, 218, 226–7
 - Czech Republic 171
 - European Union 6
 - ex post* and ex ante solutions 45–6
 - flexicurity 41–3
 - France 185, 186
 - freelancer organisations 191
 - independent contractors 181, 202
 - Poland 30–1, 33
 - reclassification 41–3, 171, 181, 184–5, 195, 218
 - self-employed 193, 198
 - social protection 220–1
 - Spain 77, 81–2
 - typical employment 4, 6
 - Uber 182–4, 198, 218
 - under-protected workers 38, 40
 - wages 14
- cloud computing xvi
- collaborative economy 99, 177–8
- collective action see collective disputes
- collective agreements
 - crowdwork/platforms 236–8
 - disapplication of collective agreements 92
 - fixed term contracts 110–12, 120
 - information and consultation procedures with multinationals 238
 - self-employment 103–5
 - Slovenia 115–16, 125, 128–9
 - Sweden xiv, 100, 102, 105, 110–13
 - trade unions 103–5, 147, 148–9
- collective bargaining
 - crowdwork/platforms xvi, 195, 224, 226, 234–8, 240
 - definition 234–8
 - employer, functional concept of 234
 - ILO conventions 234–5
 - trade unions 235, 238
 - Uber 219, 226
 - workers' representatives 226–32, 235–6, 240
- collective disputes
 - Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU 239–40
 - crowdwork/platforms xvi, 224, 239–40
 - European Convention on Human Rights 239
 - ILO conventions 239
 - social media 240
 - strikes 239–40
 - trade unions 186, 239–40
- collective labour law see also collective agreements; collective bargaining; strikes and industrial action
 - bargaining power of employer, increasing power of 92–3
 - crowdwork/platforms xvi, 224–6 240–1
 - disempowerment of workers 91
 - Poland xv, 135, 146–9
 - redundancy, consultation on 92–3
 - Slovenia xv, 128–31
 - Spain 81–2, 91–8
- commodification of labour xvi, 178, 187, 199, 224
- Community Charter of the Fundamental Social Rights of Workers 14
- competition law
 - cartels 130
 - crowdwork/platforms 230–1
 - Czech Republic 156, 164

- deregulatory competition between national laws xii
- European Pillar of Social Rights 11, 16
- European Union 11, 16, 182–5, 196, 212–13
- non compete clauses 156
- Slovenia 114, 130
- social protection 42, 49
- Spain 76
- Sweden 104–5
- trade unions 230–1
- conflict of interests between employee and employer 23
- contingent work xi, 191
- continuity of employment 203–4, 218
- control test 208–9, 218, 219, 228–9
- Copenhagen Action Programme 1995 225
- copyrighted work, contracts for 118
- Couriers and Logistics Branch of the Independent Workers of GB union (IWGB) 231–2, 235
- crowdwork/platforms xi, 176–96, 222–41
 - see also* Uber
 - apps, work on demand via 176–80, 223–4, 231, 240–1
 - collective actions xvi, 224, 239–40
 - collective agreements 236–8
 - collective bargaining xvi, 195, 224, 226–32, 234–8, 240
 - collective labour law xvi, 195, 224–32, 234–8, 240–1
 - commodification of labour xvi, 178, 224
 - competition law 182–5, 196, 230–1
 - control test 203
 - crowdwork, definition of 179–80
 - Czech Republic 173
 - Deliveroo* collective action 185–6
 - demand, work on 176–80
 - employer, functional concept of 232–4
 - EU law xii, xvi, 12, 181–6, 229–30, 238
 - exclusion from statutory protection 180–6
 - feedback systems 179–80, 237
 - flexibility 177, 193, 223–4, 240
 - freedom to organise xvi, 230–1
 - health and safety 236–7
 - human intelligence tasks (HITs) 226
 - ICT-based work 223–4, 240
 - ILO 178, 225–6, 230
 - independent contractor clauses 180–6
 - instability 240
 - international organisations, norms created by 224–5
 - Italy, Foodora case in 185–6, 193–5, 196
 - litigation 180–6, 196
 - models 226–7
 - new mutualism 187–92, 195–6
 - new relationships 178–80
 - participation agreements, disclaimers in 227
 - precariat, nature of the 26–7
 - principles and programme norms 225
 - private activism 187–92
 - quasi-subordination 184
 - self-employment xvi, 118, 180–1, 194, 198–201, 207, 214–19, 227, 231–2
 - service approach, humans as a 224
 - services, direct provision of 188
 - social dialogue 226
 - social media xvi, 223
 - social protection 42–3
 - Standard Employment Relationship (SER) 223
 - strikes 186, 195, 224

- Sweden 99
- temporary agency work 227
- trade unions 148–9, 186–7, 195, 228–31, 238, 241
- transparency in ratings 237
- transport 179
- underemployment 200
- unitary phenomenon, as 176–7
- United Kingdom 199–203
- wages 237, 240
- workers' representatives 226–32, 240
- Czech Republic 155–74
 - children, employees with 158, 164
 - concept of atypical work 157–9
 - competition 156, 164
 - crowdwork/platforms 173
 - dependent work 170–1
 - disabilities, persons with 164
 - disguised/bogus self-employment 158
 - EU/EEA, employees from outside the 171–2
 - fines 167–8, 170–3
 - fixed term employment xv, 157, 163–4
 - flexibility xv, 155–74
 - flexibilization 155–6
 - flexicurity 155–6, 174
 - gender equality 158–60
 - global financial crisis 2008 156
 - home working 164–6
 - illegal work issues and related proceedings xv, 169–72
 - inspections 171
 - Labour Code 155–7, 163–6, 171, 173
 - labour law 156–7
 - liberalization 156
 - maternity leave 164
 - migrant workers 170–2
 - night work 169–70
 - non compete clauses 156
 - parental leave 158, 164
 - part time employment xv, 158–62, 172–3
 - pregnant workers 158, 160
 - regulation xv, 155, 159, 163–6
 - remote working xv, 164–6, 172–3
 - severance 164
 - specific agreements on performance outside working relationships xv, 161–2
 - Standard Employment Relationship (SER) 158, 173
 - standby agreements 170
 - students 162
 - temporary work agencies xv, 166–9, 173
 - trade unions 158, 163, 166
 - transition to a market economy 155–6
 - wages 155–6, 158–9, 170
 - weekend work 169
 - working time 159, 161, 164–5, 170
 - work-life balance 166
- data protection 237
- Davies, ACL 203, 209
- deactivation from platforms 205, 206, 209–10
- Deakin, Simon 58
- decent work agenda xiii, 226
- Degryse, Christophe 223
- Delfino, Massimiliano 217
- Deliveroo 179, 200
 - collective action 185–6, 235, 240
 - France 189–90, 196
 - independent contractor clauses 180–1
 - Smart (Société Mutuelle pour artistes) 188–90
 - substitution clauses 216
 - workers' representatives 226, 232

- delocalisation 42, 523
- demand, work on 43, 114, 176–80
- demutualisation 199
- dependent work
 - Czech Republic 170–1
 - Slovenia 115, 129
 - Sweden 103–5, 112–13
 - United Kingdom 198, 206–7, 218–19
- deregulation xii, 8–9, 27, 69–70
- deindustrialization 2
- developing countries 42–3
- digital work see crowdwork/platforms
- disabilities, persons with 123–4, 127, 170–1
- discrimination see equality
- disguised/bogus employment relationships
 - Czech Republic 158
 - inspection 122, 128, 132
 - integration principle 216–17
 - misrepresentation 202
 - self-employed 117–18, 127–8
 - Slovenia 115, 117–20, 128, 132
 - social protection 52–3
 - Sweden 104–6
 - trade unions 187
 - Uber xvi, 198–9, 216–17
- diversification 8
- dominant purpose test 207
- Donovan Commission 63
- Dullinger, Thomas 229–30

- economic assessments 117
- economic stimulus 74
- elites 55
- employees' representatives see workers' representatives
- employer, functional concept of a
 - collective bargaining 234
 - crowdwork/platforms 177, 232–4
 - enterprise-external market, managing the 233
 - enterprise-internal market, managing the 233
 - inception and termination of employment relationship 233
 - management model 232–3
 - ownership model 232
 - piercing the corporate veil 232–3
 - Polish Labour Code 232
 - receiving labour and its fruits 233
 - Uber 233
 - work and pay, providing 233
- employment regulation see regulation
- Employment Relationship Act (ERA-1) (Slovenia) 119, 120–5, 128–9, 131
- entrepreneurs 12, 100, 105, 200, 201, 228
- equality
 - Czech Republic 158–60
 - equal opportunities 11
 - equal treatment 13
 - European Pillar of Social Rights xii, 11, 13
 - gender equality 11–12, 158–60
 - part-time employment 158–60
 - pay gap 158–9
 - Poland 32, 153–4
 - precariat, nature of the 24
 - social exclusion 11
 - Spain 89, 93–4
 - temporary work agencies 124
 - worker, definition of 217
- ergonomics 236–7
- Eurofound 223
- European Agency for Health and Safety at Work (OSHA) 236
- European Pillar of Social Rights 3, 11–17
 - abuse of employment relationships xii, 12–13
 - competition 11, 16
 - equal opportunities 11
 - equal treatment xii, 13

- flexibility 12–13
- gender equality 11–12
- generations, solidarity between 12
- institutional ethos 11
- management and labour, dialogue between 12
- normative rights against policy discretion 11–17
- part-time work 12
- policy discretion 11–17
- principles 11–16
- probation period be of reasonable duration, requirement that 13
- secure and adaptable employment 12–16
- social protection 13–16
- Sweden 113
- third country nationals 11
- transition to secure employment 16–17
- transparent and predictable working conditions, proposal for directive on 15–16
- United Kingdom 56–7
- wages, right to fair 14
- working conditions 13, 15–16
- European Union see also European Pillar of Social Rights
 - Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU 14, 18, 20, 239–40
 - CJEU xvi, 17–19, 103, 135, 137, 186–7, 199, 212–13, 216–17
 - Commission xv, 8–9, 17, 135, 137, 217–18
 - competition 11, 16, 182–5, 196, 212–13
 - Council of the EU 10–11, 17
 - crowdwork/platforms xvi, 3, 19, 181–6, 199, 212–13, 216–17, 229–30
 - Europe 2020 targets 10–11
 - European Parliament 9–10, 17
 - European social model xii, 3
 - European Unemployment Benefit Scheme (EUBS), proposal for 50
 - financial crises in member states 9–10
 - Fixed Term Directive 5, 17, 19, 107
 - flexibility 5–6, 11
 - free movement of workers 18–19
 - global financial crisis 2008 8–9
 - harmonisation 50, 156
 - legal certainty 6, 10
 - Lisbon Treaty 18
 - Part Time Employment Directive 5–6, 19
 - Poland xv, 135, 137
 - policy orientation xiii, 8–11
 - poverty xii, 21
 - Protection against Precarious Work Directive, proposal for 20
 - regulation xi–xii, 2–21
 - security 9, 11, 20
 - self-employment 103
 - Services Directive 212–13
 - Slovenia 123
 - social exclusion xii
 - social policy 8, 17, 20–1
 - social protection 50
 - Spain 199, 212–13
 - Sweden 112–13
 - targets for policies 10–11
 - temporary work agencies 6, 125, 143
 - trade unions 186–7
 - transparent and predictable working conditions, proposal for directive on 15–16
 - typology of employment relations 3–8
 - Uber xvi, 199, 212–13, 216–17
 - worker, definition of 19, 217–18, 229–30

- working conditions 20
- working time 5–6, 159, 161
- Written Statement Directive 17, 113, 229–30
- European Works Council 238
- FairCrowdWork platform 231
- fake tax 47–8
- false employment see disguised/bogus employment relationships
- Farrar, James 198, 204
- feedback systems 179–80, 205, 213, 237
- fees see tribunal fees in United Kingdom
- finances 167–8, 170–3
- Fisher, Ron 34
- fixed term contracts
 - 33/3 rule 137–9
 - abuse of employment relationships 110, 134, 139
 - collective agreements 110–12, 120
 - Czech Republic xv, 157, 163–4
 - destabilization of labour market 135–9
 - extensions 163
 - Fixed-Term Work Directive 107
 - flexibility 136–7
 - instability 107
 - maternity or parental leave 163
 - maximum period 135
 - mental illness and physical injuries, risk of 107
 - notice 136–7
 - Poland 134, 135–9, 153
 - reasons, objectively justified 139
 - redundancy 108, 111–12
 - seasonal work 163
 - severance pay 121–2
 - Slovenia 115, 119, 120–2
 - social protection 101
 - Spain 79–81, 87–91, 93
 - Sweden xiv, 99–101, 107–13
- flexibility xii–xv see also flexicurity
 - crowdwork/platforms 177, 193, 223–4, 240
 - Czech Republic 155–74
 - European Pillar of Social Rights 12–13
 - European Union 5–6, 12–13
 - fixed term contracts 136–7
 - flexibilization xiii, 42, 70, 115, 152, 155–6
 - freedom of association 70
 - ICT-based work 224
 - Poland 136–7, 150–4
 - Slovenia 114, 126
 - social protection xiii, 42
 - Spain xiv, 76, 78–81, 87–98
 - spatial flexibility 177
 - temporal flexibility 177
 - United Kingdom 69–73, 203
 - working time 5–6
- flexicurity 7, 38–43
 - Czech Republic 155–6, 174
 - incompressibility of rights xiii, 38
 - need, measurement of 41–3
 - Poland 30–1
 - Slovenia 115
 - social protection xiii, 38–43
 - Social Security or Fake Pigouvian Tax (SSFT) 39
 - Spain 79, 87–91
 - Standard Employment Relationship (SER) and non-SER, balance between 38–40
 - United Kingdom 56
- Foodora 179, 185, 232
- Fordism 44–5, 52, 177
- formalisation, abandonment of 44–8
- France
 - collective action, right to take 186
 - crowdwork/platforms 229
 - Deliveroo 196
 - organizations, right to form 186
 - public intervention 186

- reclassification 186
- self-employment 186
- Smart (Société Mutuelle pour artistes) 188–90
- strike, right to 186
- subordination 186
- trade unions 229
- Freedland, Mark 214
- freedom of assembly 130
- freedom of association
 - ballots, turnout threshold for 59–60
 - European Convention on Human Rights 239
 - flexibility 70
 - ILO 230, 235–6
 - industrial action 59
 - Poland xv, 135, 146–9, 153, 229
 - Slovenia 128–31
 - trade unions xv, 57, 135, 146–9, 153, 229
 - United Kingdom 57–60, 70
- freedom of expression 57–9, 60–3, 70
- freedom to organise xvi, 230–1
- freedom to provide services in public transportation 182–3
- Freelancers Union 191–2
 - fair work conditions and timely payments 192
 - New York, campaign in 192
- Galtung, Johan 36
- Garben, Sacha 20
- gender equality 11–12, 158–60
 - generations, solidarity between 12
 - Germany 185
- gig economy see crowdwork/platforms
- global financial crisis xi, 156
- globalisation xi, 22, 27, 30, 53, 114, 156
- good work, concept of 218
- harmonisation 50, 156
- health and safety
 - blurring of frontiers between private and working life 236
 - crowdwork/platforms 236–7
 - ergonomics 236–7
 - European Agency for Health and Safety at Work 236
 - Poland 31–2
 - precariat, nature of the 28
 - radiation 236–7
 - Spain 79
 - techno addiction 236
 - technostress 236
 - workers' representatives 240
- Helping 179
- hetero-organised work 193–5
- home working 164–6
- Horowitz, Sara 191
- human health 12
- human rights see also freedom of association
 - Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU 14, 18, 20, 239–40
 - crowdwork/platforms 225
 - European Convention on Human Rights 239
 - freedom of assembly 130
 - freedom of expression 57–9, 60–3, 70
 - Human Rights Act 1998 70
 - Uber 214–17
- ICT-based work 223–4, 240
- identity, lack of work-related 28–9
- illegal work xv, 81, 169–72
- incompressibility of rights xiii, 38, 50
- indefinite contracts, promotion of 79
- independent contractors
 - disguised/bogus employment 52–3
 - challenges 181–6, 196
 - crowdwork/platforms 180–6
 - effectiveness 181–2
 - Slovenia 118

- social protection 42–5, 49, 52–3
- Uber 180–1, 184, 198, 208–9, 211, 219
- worker, definition of 208–9
- Independent Drivers Guild 235
- industrial action see strikes and industrial action
- industrial relations, changes to xvi
- informal economy 42–5, 49, 81
- information and consultation procedures
 - with multinationals 238
- information society services 182–3
- insiders/outsideers 2, 8, 134–5
- insolvency 97
- inspections 122, 128, 132, 137–8, 140, 171
- instability
 - crowdwork/platforms 240
 - fixed term contracts 107, 135–9
 - Poland 139–42
 - precariat, nature of the 25, 27, 37
 - promotion of atypical work as
 - flexible work, increase in
 - instability due to 87–91
 - Spain 80, 82, 87–91, 97
 - United Kingdom 201
- insurance 52–3 see also social protection
- integration principle 214–17
- intermediate category of worker xvi, 184, 204, 206–7
- International Labour Organization (ILO)
 - collective action 239
 - collective bargaining 234–5
 - commodification of labour 178, 187
 - conventions 225, 234–5
 - Copenhagen Action Programme 1995 225
 - crowdwork/platforms 178, 225–6, 230
 - decent work agenda 226
- Declaration on basic principles and rights at work and complementary activities 225
- disguised/bogus employment 119–20
- freedom of association 230, 235–6
- presumption of employee status 220
- primacy of fact principle 219
- self-employment 230
- Slovenia 119–20
- social protection 49–50
- standards 225–6, 230
- Uber 219, 220
- United Kingdom 57–8, 71, 219, 220
- violence 35–6
- international organisations, norms
 - created by 224–5
- involuntary work 90–1, 153
- Irani, Lilly 231
- irreducible minimum of obligations 203
- Italy
 - Code of Civil Procedure 193
 - collective bargaining 187
 - Constitutional Court 50
 - European Union 50
 - flexibility 193
 - Foodora* case xvi, 185–6, 193–5, 196
 - hetero-organised work 193–5
 - incompressibility of rights 50
 - intermediate regulation 44
 - Jobs Act reforms in Italy xvi
 - proclamation that labour is not a technology 187
 - self-employment 194
 - Social Security or Fake Pigouvian Tax (SSFT) 48
 - trade unions 187
- itinerant or mobile workers 19
- journalism 118, 129
- just in time workforce 203

- Kahn-Freund, Otto 202
- Katsaroumpas, Ioannis 19
- Kilpatrick, Claire 20
- Koukiadaki, Aristeia 19
- labour law reforms xiv, xvi, 75–86
- lumpenproletariat* 29
- Lunning, Lars 104
- Lyft 179, 226
- macroeconomics 31
- Magna Carta 66–7
- managerialism 71
- management
 - employer, functional concept of 232–3
 - labour, dialogue with 12
 - model 232–3
- manual employment 55
- Mankiw, N Gregory 47
- McGaughey, Ewan 202, 219
- marginal workers 43, 46
- marginalization and social exclusion xii, 11, 22, 24–7, 35, 79–80, 87
- maternity leave 149–50, 164
- meritocracy 59
- migrant workers 170–2
- mobile web services xvi
- mobile workers 19
- Muir, Elise 20
- mutuality of obligation 203, 219–20
- Myant, Martin 9
- nature of the precariat 22–37
 - capital xiii, 23, 26–7
 - certainty, lack of 22–3, 27, 37
 - characteristics 27–9
 - class, as a social 29
 - conflict of interests between employee and employer 23
 - crowdwork/platforms 26–7
 - definition 25–6
 - globalisation 22, 27
 - identity, lack of work-related 28–9
 - income security 28
 - instability 25, 27, 37
 - lumpenproletariat* 29
 - marginalization 22, 24–7
 - Poland xiii, 23–4, 29–33
 - qualification, level below 29
 - risk 24–7
 - safety at work 28
 - security 22, 25, 28, 37
 - self-employed 29
 - segmentation of the labour market 22
 - social conditions 26
 - social protection 29
 - technological change 25
 - uncertainty 24–7
 - young people 29
- Netherlands 185
- new mutualism 187–92
 - associated digitized unionism 191–2
 - private activism 187–92
 - temporary protection 187–92
 - umbrella companies 187–90
- New York Taxi Workers Alliance (NYTWA) 235
- night work 169–70
- non compete clauses 156
- Öberg, Ulf 4
- offshoring 30
- on call workers 99
- operating models 226–7
- Österreichische Gewerkschaftsbund (ÖGB) 231
- outsourcing 30, 97, 99, 127
- overtime 81, 85–6
- ownership model 232
- parental leave 158, 164
- part-time employment

- children, employees with 160
- Czech Republic xv, 158–62, 172–3
- directive 5–6, 19
- disability discrimination 161
- disability insurance 123–4
- European Pillar of Social Rights 12
- flexibility 5–6, 160–1
- flexible hours, requests for 160–1
- gender equality 158–60
- involuntary employment 90–1
- Part-Time Work Directive 107
- pensions 124
- pregnant workers 160
- proportionality 122
- shortened working hours, distinguished 159
- Slovenia 122–4
- Spain 79–81, 88–91
- specific agreements on performance
 - outside working relationships 161–2
 - working time 5–6, 159, 161
 - work-life balance 160
- participation agreements, disclaimers in 227
- paternity leave 149–50
- pay see wages
- pensions 123–4, 127
- Piasna, Agnieszka 9
- piercing the corporate veil 232–3
- Pigouvian tax 46–8
- Pimlico Plumbers* Supreme Court case 199, 216–17
- platforms see crowdwork/platforms
- Poland 23–4, 29–33, 133–54
 - abuse of employment relationships xv, 134, 139–40, 145–6
 - balance in employment relationship 33–6
 - casual or seasonal work 137
 - causative and non-causative contracts 138
 - civil law contracts 32, 36, 134–5, 139–42, 145–8, 150
 - collective rights xv, 135, 146–9
 - Commission xv, 135, 137
 - common platform of working rights, establishment of 31
 - communism, end of 133
 - dual division of labour market 140
 - economic activity, low levels of 30
 - employer, functional concept of 232
 - equality 32, 153–4
 - EU law xv, 23–4, 135, 137
 - fertility rate 149
 - fixed term contracts 134, 135–9, 153
 - flexibility 136–7, 150–4
 - flexicurity 30–1
 - freedom of association in trade unions xv, 135, 146–9, 153, 229
 - globalisation 30
 - health and safety 31–2
 - information and communications technology (ICT) 30
 - insiders/outside 134–5
 - inspections 137–8, 140
 - instability 139–42
 - involuntary work 153
 - Labour Code xv, 30–1, 33, 133, 135–44, 149–50, 229, 232
 - objective reasons, contracts concluded for 137
 - offshoring 30
 - outsourcing 30
 - parental rights xv, 135, 149–50
 - Polish Social Insurance Institution 134
 - precariat, nature of the xiii, 23–4, 29–33
 - qualifications 30
 - replacement contracts 137
 - risk assessment 135
 - security 30, 32, 152–3

- segmentation of the labour market xv, 30–2, 138–9, 141
- self-employment xv, 134–5, 139–42, 152–3
- social insurance 142
- Standard Employment Relationship (SER) 133
- subordination 33–5
- temporary contracts 32, 135
- temporary work agencies xv, 135, 142–6, 153
- term of office, contracts for 137
- trade unions and freedom of association xv, 135, 146–9, 153, 229
- training 30
- unemployment of young people 29
- unfair dismissal 138
- violence 33–6
- wages xv, 134–5, 140–1
- worker, definition of 229
- working conditions 133
- young people 29, 30
- poverty xii, 14, 49
- Prassl, Jeremias 200, 233, 237
- precariat, nature of the see nature of the precariat
- precarious, definition of 55–6
- precarious employment, definition of 77
- pregnant workers 145, 158, 160
- principles 11–16, 225
- probation periods, length of 13
- Protection against Precarious Work Directive, proposal for 20
- qualifications 4, 23, 27–30
- qualitative analysis 77–97
- quality of jobs 75, 82–3, 89–90
- quantitative analysis 77–86
- radiation 236–7
- redistributive justice 49–50
- redundancies 80, 92–3, 96–7, 108, 111–12
- regulation
 - Czech Republic xv, 155, 159, 163–6
 - deregulation xii, 8–9, 27, 69–70
 - European Union xi–xii, 2–21
 - intermediate regulation xiv, 44–6
 - Slovenia 124
 - social protection xiv, 39, 41, 44–5, 49
 - Spain 75–6, 80
 - Sweden xiv, 110–11
 - temporary work agencies xv, 143–5
 - Uber 212–13
 - United Kingdom 55, 71, 73–4, 212–13
- remote working xv, 164–6, 172–3
- remuneration see wages
- reputation of businesses 60–3
- Restaurant Collective Agreement 110–11
- Risak, Martin 229–30
- risk
 - precariat, nature of the 24–7
 - transfer of risk to employees xi, 27, 152–3, 199
 - Uber 228
- rule of law 57–8, 63–9, 74
- safety see health and safety
- Sala Franco, Tomás 76
- salariats 55–6
- salary see wages
- Schauman, Magnus 4
- seasonal work 137, 144
- Seattle City Council 237
- security see also flexicurity
 - European Pillar of Social Rights 12–17
 - European Union 9, 11, 12–17, 20
 - flexibility xii
 - precariat, nature of the 22, 25, 28, 37

- secure and adaptable employment
 - 12–16
- social pollution 39
- social protection 38–42, 48–9
- transition to secure employment
 - 16–17
- wages 28
- widespread minimal security 48
- segmentation of labour market 17, 22, 56, 116, 132
- self-employment
 - coercion by employers 29
 - collective agreements 103–5
 - competition 104–5
 - crowdwork/platforms xvi, 118, 180–1, 194, 198–201, 207, 214–19, 227, 231–2
 - dependent contractors 103–5, 112–13
 - disguised/bogus employment 104–6, 117–18, 127–8
 - employees distinguished 101–6
 - European Pillar of Social Rights 12
 - European Union 12, 103, 230
 - ILO 230
 - limited companies, owners of 100, 103
 - outsourcing 127
 - Part-Time Work Directive 107
 - precariat, nature of the 29
 - promotion of self-employment
 - through legislation 105–6
 - public intervention 186–7
 - same client, working for the 117–18
 - Slovenia 117–18, 127–8, 130
 - small companies 105
 - social protection 43, 52–3, 102–3, 106
 - sole traders 100, 103, 127–8
 - Spain 80, 81, 88, 90
 - Sweden 99–106
 - tax 102–3
 - trade unions 148
 - Uber xvi, 198, 207, 214–19, 227
 - United Kingdom 199–201, 207, 214–19
 - wages 100
 - worker, definition of 102–3, 207, 214–19, 230
- service approach, humans as a 200, 224
- services, contracts for 118
- Services Directive 212–13
- severance 121–2, 164
- sham employment see disguised/bogus employment relationships
- Silberman, Michael 231
- Slovenia 114–32
 - abuse of atypical work xv, 115, 121, 123, 125, 132
 - changes in labour market 116–19
 - civil law contracts xv, 114–16, 120, 126, 129–30, 132
 - collective agreements 115–16, 125, 128–9
 - collective labour rights xv, 115–16, 125, 128–31
 - competition 114, 130
 - Constitution 130–1
 - copyrighted work, contracts for 118
 - disability insurance 123–4, 127
 - disguised/bogus employment 115, 117–20, 128, 132
 - economic assessments 117
 - economically dependent work 115, 129
 - Employment Relationship Act (ERA-1) 119, 120–5, 128–9, 131
 - fixed term contracts 115, 120–2
 - flexibility 114–15, 126
 - flexibilization 115
 - flexicurity 115
 - freedom of assembly 130
 - freedom of association 128–31

- globalisation 114
- independent contractors 118
- ILO 119–20
- journalists, collective agreement
 - for 129
- labour law courts 128
- liberal professions 117–18
- on demand employment 114
- outsourcing 127
- part-time employment contracts
 - 122–4
- participatory rights 131
- pensions 123–4, 127
- platform work 118
- regulation 124
- segmentation 116, 132
- self-employed 117–18, 127–8, 130
- service sector, growth in 114
- services, contracts for 118
- severance pay 121–2
- single member private limited
 - liability companies 118
- social insurance 118–19, 132
- sole traders 127–8
- Standard Employment Relationship (SER) 114, 119
- strike, right to 130–1
- student work 118, 125–7
- temporary agency work 115,
 - 116–17, 124–5, 131
- temporary student work 118, 125–7
- termination of contracts 121–2
- trade unions 129, 132
- unemployment rate 118–19
- workers, definition of 132
- young workers 114, 116, 122
- Smart (Société Mutuelle pour artistes)
 - 188–90
- social dialogue 226
- Social Europe 70
- social exclusion and marginalization xii,
 - 11, 22, 24–7, 35, 79–80, 87
- social insurance see social protection
- social justice 11
- social media xvi, 223, 240
 - demotion 60–1
 - discipline 60–3
 - dismissal 61–3
 - freedom of expression 57, 60–3
 - policies 60–2
 - reputation of businesses 60–3
 - United Kingdom xiv, 57, 60–3
- social policy 8, 17, 20–1, 50, 78–81
- social pollution
 - negative externalities 38, 43, 45, 47
 - Pigouvian tax 46–8
 - security, lack of 39
 - social protection xiii, 38–9, 41–3,
 - 45–9
 - taxation 38
- social problem, precariousness as 11
- social protection 38–53
 - automation 52
 - Beveridgean approach 49
 - Bismarckian approach 49
 - children 43
 - classification 40, 41–6
 - competitiveness 42, 49
 - constitutional level, sources at xiii
 - crowdwork/platforms 42–3
 - definition 15
 - delocalisation 42, 523
 - developing countries 42–3
 - disguised/bogus employment
 - relationships 52–3
 - employees/self-employed 52–3
 - employment contract, enlarging the
 - area of xiii
 - European Pillar of Social Rights 3,
 - 13–16
 - European Union 8–9, 13–16, 50
 - ex ante* solutions 45–6
 - ex post* solutions 45–6

- extension of social protection to
 - under-protected workers 41
- fixed term contracts 101
- flexibilisation xiii, 42
- flexicurity xiii, 38–43
- formal labour, scheme of 48–9
- formalisation, abandonment of 44–8
- functional analysis 38
- funding 39, 49–50
- harmonisation 50, 156
- ILO 49–50
- incompressability of rights xiii, 38, 50
- independent contractors 42–5, 49, 52–3
- informal economy 42–5, 49
- information and communications
 - technology (ICT) 41
- intermediate way of regulation xiv, 44–6
- internalisation of externalities xiii, 39
- international level, sources at xiii
- intervention, legal bases of 49–50
- latent protection 48
- marginal workers 43, 46
- new regulation 44–6
- non-SER, lack/shortage of social protection in 48–9
- non-wage Social Security (virtual or) Fake (Pigouvian) Tax (SSFT) 39, 47–51
- Pigouvian tax 46–8
- Poland 134
- precariat, nature of the 29
- reclassification 41–3
- redistributive justice 49–50
- regulation xiv, 39, 41, 44–5, 49
- responsible counterpart 48–9
- security 38–42, 48–9
- self-employment 43, 100–2, 109–10, 112
- Slovenia 118–19, 132
- social insurance/private insurance 52–3
- Spain 79, 87
- Standard Employment Relationship (SER) 38–42, 45–6, 48–50, 53
- structural obligations 48–9
- Sweden 101–3, 106
- Uber xvi, 199, 220–1
- undeclared work relationships 41–3, 47
- under-protected workers neologism 38, 40–8
- United Kingdom 201, 190, 220–1
- value 44–8
- widespread minimal security 48
- social rights 43, 45
- social security see social protection
- Social Security or Fake Pigouvian Tax (SSFT) 39, 47–51
- sole traders 100, 103, 127–8
- Spain 75–98
 - anticrisis measures 77–86
 - causality principle 88
 - collective labour law 81–2, 91–8
 - competitiveness 76
 - Constitutional Court 76
 - dangerous activities 89
 - defencelessness with regard to dismissals and redundancies, increase in workers' 96–7
 - destruction of jobs 75–6
 - discrimination 97
 - disempowerment of workers 91–3
 - dismissals 80, 96–7
 - equality 89, 93–4
 - exclusion, workers at risk of 79
 - fixed term contracts 79–81, 88–91, 93
 - flexibility xiv, 76, 78–81, 87–98
 - flexicurity 79, 87–91

- fixed term contracts 87–8
- formal precarious employment,
 - impact of labour reforms on 85
- global financial crisis 75, 88
- increase in precarious employment,
 - qualitative analysis of 86–97
- indefinite contracts, promotion of 79
- informal or illegal work 81
- insolvency 97
- instability 80, 82, 87–91, 97
- institutions, reform of 79–80
- job creation, fostering xiv, 77–8, 87–8, 97
- labour standards 77, 81–2, 86, 97
- modify labour conditions,
 - employers' capacity to 91–3
- new forms of permanent contract 87
- overtime 81, 85–6
- part-time work 79–81, 88–91
- precarious employment, definition of 77
- promotion of atypical work 87–91
- qualitative analysis 86–97
- quality of jobs 75, 82–3, 89–90
- quantitative analysis 77–86
- redundancies 80, 92, 96–7
- reforms of labour law xiv, 75–86
- regulation 75–6, 80
- self-employment 80, 81, 88, 90
- severance pay 80, 96
- social exclusion 80, 87
- social policies, reform of 78–81
- suspension of employment contract 80
- temporary employment agencies 80–1, 88–9
- termination 79, 84, 96–7
- trade unions 95
- training 81, 88–90
- transfer of undertakings 97
- Uber 199, 212–13
- unemployment 75, 78, 84, 87–9
- unfair dismissal 79, 84, 96
- wages system, modification of 95–6
- Workers' Statute 77
- working conditions 79–82, 93, 95, 97
- working time 81, 85–6, 92–5, 98
- work-life balance measures 85, 89, 93–5, 98
- youth unemployment 88–90
- stability see instability
- Standard Employment Relationship (SER)
 - crowdwork/platforms 223
 - Czech Republic 158, 173
 - definition 2
 - European Union 2, 4
 - general protection based on liability of counterpart (quasi SER dependent) 48
 - non-SER, balance with 38–42
 - Poland 133
 - primacy 5
 - social protection 38–42, 45–6, 48–50, 53
- standby agreements 170
- Standing, Guy 28–9, 55–6, 58–9
- state owned enterprises (SOEs) 148
- strikes and industrial action
 - crowdwork/platforms 186, 195, 224, 239–40
 - freedom of association 59
 - Slovenia 130–1
 - trade unions 186
- student work 118, 125–7, 162
- subordination 33–5, 183–6, 202, 218
- substitution clauses 215–16, 219
- Sweden 99–114
 - assignment workers 100–1
 - binary legal system, consequences of xiv, 100, 102
 - Co-Determination Act 103–5

- collective agreements xiv, 100, 102, 105, 110–13
- companies 105–6
- crowdwork/platforms 99
- dependent contractors 103–5, 112–13
- employee, definition of 102
- entrepreneurs 100, 105
- European Pillar of Social Rights 113
- fixed-term employment xiv, 99–101, 107–13
- Labour Court 108–9, 112
- limited companies, owners of 100, 103
- necessity entrepreneurs
(nödvändighetsföretagarna) 100
- new jobs 100–1, 109
- on call workers 99
- permanent employment as the solution 111–12
- redundancy 108, 111–12
- regulation xiv, 110–11
- Restaurant Collective Agreement 110–11
- self-employed xiv, 99–108
- short fixed-term employees xiv, 101
- social protection 100–2, 109–10, 112
- sole traders 100, 103
- Supreme Court 104
- tax 101–3, 112
- temporary employment 109–10
- trade unions 104, 110, 112
- umbrella companies 99
- wages xiv, 103
- White-Collar Employee Agreement 110
- working conditions, regulation of xiv, 108–9
- Written Statement Directive 113
- Swedish Unionen 231
- Take Eat Easy 189–90
- Taskrabbit 179, 226
- tax
 - corporate tax 101
 - Pigouvian tax 46–8
 - social pollution 38
 - Social Security or Fake Pigouvian Tax (SSFT) 39, 47–51
 - Sweden 101–3, 112
 - Uber xvi, 199, 219, 220–1
- taxonomy xi
- Taylor Review 199, 218, 220
- technology see also social media
 - automation 52
 - change 25
 - information and communications technology (ICT) 41
 - Italian proclamation that labour is not a technology 187
 - labour as technology 200
 - Poland 30
 - techno addiction 236
 - technostress 236
- temporary agency work
 - abuse 125, 145–6
 - benefits, equal treatment of 167–8
 - civil law contracts 145–6
 - criminal offences 145
 - crowdwork/platforms 227
 - Czech Republic xv, 166–9, 173
 - equal treatment 124, 167–8
 - European Union 143
 - extension of period 168–9
 - fixed term employment 168
 - insurance 167
 - liability 167–8
 - licences 166–7
 - participatory works 131
 - Poland xv, 32, 135, 142–6, 153
 - pregnant employees 145
 - regulation xv, 143–5
 - seasonal work 144

- severance 168
- Slovenia 115, 116–17, 124–5, 131
- Spain 80–1, 88–9
- students 118, 125–7
- successive assignments 125
- Sweden 109–10
- Temporary Agency Work Directive 6, 125
- tripartite relationships 143–4
- unity, criterion of 6
- wages 167
- termination of employment
 - European Union 6–7
 - redundancies 80, 92–3, 96–7, 108, 111–12
 - Slovenia 121–2
 - social media 61–3
 - Spain 80, 84, 96–7
 - unfair dismissal 79, 84, 96, 138
- Thatcher, Margaret 71
- Toijer, Gudmund 104
- trade unions
 - associated digitized unionism 191–2
 - associational unionism 188
 - civil law contracts 147–8
 - collective agreements 104, 147, 148–9
 - collective bargaining 235, 238
 - competition law 230–1
 - crowdwork/platforms 148, 186–7, 195, 198, 216, 219, 227–31, 238–41
 - Czech Republic 158, 163, 166
 - disguised/bogus self-employment 187
 - EU law 186–7
 - freedom of association xv, 57, 135, 146–9, 153, 229
 - Italy 187
 - Poland xv, 135, 146–9, 153, 229
 - representation and advocacy 188
 - self-employment 148
 - Slovenia 129, 132
 - Spain 95
 - state owned enterprises and public institutions 148
 - Sweden 104, 110, 112
 - Uber 198, 216, 219, 227–8
 - United Kingdom xiv, 57–60, 198, 216, 219
- training 30, 81, 88–90
- transfer of undertakings 97
- transparency 15–16, 237
- tribunal fees in United Kingdom 63–9, 71–2, 214
 - access to courts 63, 66–9, 71–2
 - common law right of access to courts 66–9, 71–2
 - conciliation 64–5
 - constitutional principles 67
 - County Court fees 72
 - economic growth 64
 - enforcement 64
 - historical context 63–5
 - intervention 63–4
 - proportionality 68, 72–3
 - rule of law 63–9, 74
 - small businesses, exemption for 73
 - threshold 72–3
 - Unison* Supreme Court decision xiv, 58, 63–9, 71–4, 214
- true agreement test 215
- Turkopticon 231
- typical work 4, 157
- typology of new forms of labour 223
- Uber 179–85 see also Uber drivers in UK's gig economy
 - collective bargaining 226
 - competition 182–5, 196
 - entrepreneurial freedom 228
 - freedom to provide services in transportation 182–3

- independent contractor clauses
 - 180–1, 184, 198, 208–9, 211, 219
- information society services 182–3
- risk function 228
- San Francisco, class action suit in 227
- self-employment 227
- Spain 199, 212–13, 228
- strikes 240
- subordination 183–5
- Uberisation of work xvi
- worker, intermediate category as 184
- Uber drivers in UK's gig economy 197–221
 - annual leave 209–10
 - app 197, 204–11
 - availability for work xvi, 197–9, 203, 205–6, 209–11, 215, 220
 - cars by drivers, provision of 204–5
 - CJEU xvi, 199, 212–13, 216–17
 - collective bargaining 219
 - common law xvi, 214–17, 219
 - continuity of employment 218
 - deactivation from platforms 205, 206, 209–10
 - dependency, status of 198
 - disguised/bogus self-employment xvi, 198–9, 216–17
 - Driver Addendum Agreement 206
 - Driver Offence Process 206
 - employer, concept of the 233
 - Employment Appeal Tribunal (EAT), judgment of 210–12, 214–16
 - Employment Tribunal, judgment of the 206–10, 213, 214–15
 - feedback system 205, 213
 - fees 198
 - fundamental rights 214–17
 - ILO 219, 220
 - independent contractors 198, 208–9, 211, 219
 - inequality of bargaining positions 209–10, 214, 219
 - integration principle 214–17
 - intermediary, Uber as an 205
 - intermediate worker status xvi, 204, 206–7
 - judicial decisions, importance of xvi
 - labour market, effect on xvi
 - London Uber case xvi, 199, 204–16
 - monitoring, consent to 205–6
 - municipalities, powers of xvi
 - mutuality of obligation 219–20
 - Partner Terms 205–6, 208
 - Pimlico Plumbers* Supreme Court case 199, 216–17
 - purposive approach 215
 - regulation 212–13
 - Rider Terms 205, 208
 - self-employment xvi, 198, 207, 214–19
 - Services Agreement 206
 - social protection xvi, 199, 220–1
 - tax xvi, 199, 219, 220–1
 - Taylor Review 199, 218, 220
 - test cases 227–8
 - trade unions 198, 216, 219, 227–8
 - wages 198, 208–10, 218–20, 228
 - warnings 206
 - whistleblowing 204
 - worker status xvi, 198, 201–2, 204–12, 214–19, 228–9
 - working time xvi, 199, 209–11
- UberEats 185, 232
- UILTuCS (Unione Italiana Lavoratori Turismo Commercio Servizi) 231
- umbrella companies 99, 187–90, 203, 208
- uncertainty/certainty 6, 10, 22–7, 31, 37
- undeclared work relationships 41–3, 47
- underemployment in gig work 200

- under-protected workers neologism 38, 40–8
- unemployment
 - European Unemployment Benefit Scheme (EUBS), proposal for 50
 - Poland 30
 - Slovenia 118–19
 - Spain 75, 78, 84, 87–9
 - United Kingdom 55, 58
 - young people 30, 88–90
- unions see trade unions
- Unison* Supreme Court decision (UK) xiv, 58, 63–9, 71–4, 214
- United Kingdom 55–74 see also Uber
 - drivers in UK's gig economy
 - access to courts 57, 59
 - apps, use of 199–200
 - collective industrial action 57–8
 - continuous employment 203–4
 - crowdworks/platforms 199–203
 - Deliveroo* collective action 185
 - demutualisation 199
 - deregulation 69–70
 - direct measures 70
 - disguised/bogus employment 202
 - employee status as gateway to rights 202–3
 - European Social Pillar of Rights 56–7
 - flexibilisation 70
 - flexibility 69–73, 203
 - flexicurity 56
 - freedom of association 57–60, 70
 - freedom of expression 57–9, 60–3, 70
 - ILO 57–8, 71
 - independent contractors 202–3
 - indirect measures 70
 - inequality of bargaining power 202
 - irreducible minimum of obligations 203
 - managerialism 71
 - manual employment 55
 - meritocracy 59
 - mutuality of obligations 203
 - precarious, definition of 55–6
 - proficians 55
 - regulation 55, 71, 73–4
 - risk to employees, transfer of 199
 - rule of law 57–8
 - secure workers and precariat
 - workers, boundaries between 56
 - segmentation 56
 - self-employment 199–201
 - service, humans as 200
 - sharing economy 200
 - Social Europe 70
 - social media xiv, 57, 60–3
 - state non-intervention 59
 - socially ill misfits 55
 - technology, labour as 200
 - Trade Union Act 2016 xiv, 57–60
 - transaction costs 71
 - tribunal fees 63–9, 71–4, 214
 - underemployment in gig work 200
 - unemployed 55, 58
 - weakening of rights 57–8
 - working time 71, 199
 - young people 200
 - zero hours contracts 199
- United States
 - New York, Freelancers' Union
 - campaign in 192
 - San Francisco, Uber class action suit in 227
 - Uber 213, 227
- Vida 232
- violence 33–7
 - collective violence 35–6
 - interpersonal violence 35

- physical, psychological, economic and institutional 34
 - Poland 33–6
 - private violence 35
 - public violence 35
 - self-directed violence 35
 - sexual violence 35
 - structural violence 36
 - universality 34
 - victim-perpetrator relationship 35
 - WHO recognition as a health problem 35–6
- wages
- Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU 14
 - Community Charter of the Fundamental Social Rights of Workers 14
 - crowdwork/platforms 198, 201–2, 208–10, 218–20, 237, 240
 - Czech Republic 155–6, 158–9, 170
 - employer, functional concept of 233
 - fair wages, right to 14
 - fixed term contracts 121–2
 - gender pay gap 158–9
 - illegal work 170
 - living standards 14
 - minimum wage xv, 134–5, 140–1, 155–6, 208–10, 218, 228
 - Poland xv, 134–5, 140–1
 - security 28
 - severance pay 121–2
 - Spain 95–6
 - Sweden xiv, 103
 - timely payments 192
 - Uber 198, 208–10, 218–20
 - United Kingdom 198, 201–2, 208–10, 218–20
- weekend work 169
- whistleblowing 204
- Wonolo 226
- worker, definition of
- continuity of work 218
 - control test 208–9, 218, 219
 - dependent contractors 206–7, 218–19
 - dominant purpose test 207
 - effective and genuine activities 217
 - equality 217
 - European Union 19, 217–18, 229–30
 - independent contractors 208–9
 - integration test 214–17
 - intermediate category of worker xvi, 184, 204, 206–7
 - interpretive approach 214–15
 - marginal and accessory services 217
 - Poland 229
 - self-employment 207, 214–19, 230
 - Slovenia 132
 - subordination 218
 - substitution clauses 215–16, 219
 - Sweden 102
 - true agreement test 215
 - Uber xvi, 198, 201–2, 204–12, 214–19, 228–9
 - umbrella contracts 208
 - Written Statement Directive 229–30
- work-life balance
- blurring of frontiers between private and working life 236
 - Czech Republic 166
 - health and safety 236
 - parental rights 149
 - Poland 149
 - Spain 85, 89, 93–5, 98
- workers' representatives
- collective bargaining 226–32, 235–6, 240–1
 - crowdwork/platforms 226–32, 240
 - health and safety 240
 - teleworking 240
- working conditions

- employers' capacity to modify conditions 91–3
- European Pillar of Social Rights 13, 15–16
- European Union 13, 15–16, 20
- fairness 192
- Poland 133
- Spain 81, 85–6, 92–5, 98
- Sweden xiv, 108–9
- transparent and predictable working conditions, proposal for directive on 15–16
- working time
 - Czech Republic 159, 161, 164–5, 170
 - European Union 5–6, 159, 161
 - flexibility 5–6
 - part time employment 5–6
 - Spain 81, 85–6, 92–5, 98
 - Uber xvi, 199, 209–11
 - United Kingdom 71, 199, 209–11
 - Working Time Directive 159, 161
 - Written Statement Directive 17, 113, 229–30
- young people
 - Poland 29
 - Slovenia 114, 116, 122
 - Spain 88–90
 - temporary employment in EU 29
 - United Kingdom 200
- zero hours contracts
 - collective bargaining 110, 226
 - commodification of labour 199
 - Czech Republic 162
 - European social model xii
 - instability 222
 - Lumpenproletariat* 29
 - marginalization 24
 - Sweden 111
 - United Kingdom 199