

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface	viii
1 Introduction Jorge Luis Fabra-Zamora	1
PART I SETTING THE SCENE
2 Jurisprudence and globalisation William Twining	14
PART II METHODOLOGICAL QUESTIONS
3 Legal encounters with alterity in post-monist mode Horatia Muir Watt	26
4 “Global/transnational law” challenges to theorizing about law Miodrag Jovanović	54
5 Normative legal pluralism: a critique Klaus Günther	84
6 Global historical jurisprudence: relating law and power in a global context Maksymilian Del Mar	100
PART III CONCEPTS AND CONCEPTUAL TOOLS
7 Globalisation and the concept of legal order Hans Lindahl	128
8 Reining in pluralist jurisprudence with the rule of law Matthew Grellette	155
9 Redrawing the legal relation George Pavlakos	174

PART IV NORMATIVE ISSUES: LEGITIMACY AND DEMOCRACY
10	Cosmopolitan legitimacy Pavlos Eleftheriadis	196
11	Global constitutionalism without global democracy? Human rights and human dignity in a corporate world Cristina Lafont	222
12	Neither democratic nor constitutional but legitimate: fragmentation and the legitimation of international law Kevin W. Gray	247
	Index	268