

Contents

Contributors	vii
Foreword	ix
Lucia Serena Rossi
Preface and acknowledgments	xii
Table of cases	xiii
Table of legislation	xxi
1. Negotiating and implementing EU free trade agreements in an uncertain environment	1
Isabelle Bosse-Platière and Cécile Rapoport
PART I THE CONCLUSION OF EU FREE TRADE AGREEMENTS
2. The Opinion on the free trade agreement with Singapore and its aftermath: some personal reflections	23
Fernando Castillo de la Torre
3. Mixity in the EU's post-Lisbon free trade agreements	39
Merijn Chamon
4. Autonomy and EU competences in the context of free trade and investment agreements	58
Eleftheria Neframi and Mauro Gatti
5. Like a bridge over troubled water: the 2/15 Opinion through the lens of EU loyalty	85
Federico Casolari
6. EU law and diplomacy regarding negotiations during Brexit and in the transition period: the case of UK/North America trade	104
Nanette Neuwahl

vi	The conclusion and implementation of EU free trade agreements
7.	The role of national parliaments in the negotiation and conclusion of EU free trade agreements Carlo Tovo	125
8.	The European Parliament and the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership Josiane Auvret-Finck	143
9.	The role of the European Citizens' Initiative in the negotiation and implementation of FTAs Louis-Marie Chauvel	159
PART II THE IMPLEMENTATION OF EU FREE TRADE AGREEMENTS
10.	The provisional application of the EU's mixed trade and investment agreements Andrei Suse and Jan Wouters	176
11.	The joint committees established by free trade agreements and their impact on EU law Emanuel Castellarin	203
12.	Joint organs in EU free trade agreements as a threat to democracy Wolfgang Weiß	222
13.	The internationalization of the judicial control of EU free trade agreements: when better is the enemy of good Jean Félix Delile	240
14.	Settlement of disputes in new EU free trade agreements: 'democratizing' international adjudication? Arnaud de Nanteuil	255
15.	An international court system for a transformative Europe? Giorgia Sanguolo	271
	Index	289