When we first asked colleagues if they would be interested in helping to write a book about teaching in a Business School we were overwhelmed with the response. There was huge enthusiasm to capture in writing some of the excellent teaching practices at Aston Business School.

We are proud to work alongside some of the finest teachers of business and law related topics in the university sector, and we have read the chapters with admiration as they have been produced.

Thank you to all our colleagues who have contributed. Thanks are also due to Angie Daniels – writing a book with so many authors requires a lot of coordination. Angie, we couldn't have done it without you.
