

Index

- academic careers
 - balancing change 431–2
 - postdoctoral 298–301
 - publishing as route into 399, 414–16, 419
 - see also* employment; first job after PhD
- academic job market, preparing for 411–12
- academic journals
 - benefits of publication 388–99
 - co-writing 254, 388, 390–91
 - conversation 393–4, 396
 - electronic 67–8
 - as networking source 368–9
 - postdoctoral fellowships 298–9
 - reading 74–5
 - requirements 15–16
 - revisiting 74–5
 - sources for literature searches 58
 - student experiences of submitting to 49–50, 239–40
 - thesis with publication 253
 - transparency 101
 - women writing for 204
 - see also* publishing research
- academics, finding appropriate 368–9, 375
- access, gaining
 - approvals for 193–8
 - coverage 138
 - to elites 229–30
 - fieldwork experience 200–208
 - governance lessons for 198
 - to participants 25, 26, 29, 130–31, 133
 - technology aiding 229
 - unsuccessful meeting
 - example of 210–11
 - lessons learned 211–12
 - working with minors 217–18
- accountability 104, 105, 170, 266, 326–7, 402
- advice
 - access, gaining 210–12
 - battery life 220–21
 - ‘by the book’ protocol 215–16
 - careers 410–27
 - conference attendance 378–86
 - CVs 414, 419, 429–30
 - developing meaningful dissertation proposal 34–5
 - lack of participants 214–15
 - lack of talk by participants 224
 - losing research material 224–5
 - publishing research 387–96, 398–407, 408–9
 - qualitative study 107–15
 - quantitative methods and statistics 117–24
 - quantitative study 97–105
 - research philosophy clarification 87–94
 - sample size 219–20
 - for staying on track during doctoral journey 272–80, 283–4, 337, 342, 386
 - student/supervisor interaction time 52–4
 - studying abroad 281–2
 - supervisor feedback
 - student perspective 159–66
 - supervisor perspective 167–8
 - via Google Docs 169–71
 - surveys 222–3
 - training and completion, tradeoffs between 135–6
 - transcription taking too long 226–7

- working with minors 217–18
 - see also* help and support
- agential realism 83–4
- alerting services 67–8, 71
- analytical process strategy
 - for qualitative study
 - building argument 113
 - qualitative rigour 114
 - quality of material 109–10
 - sorting and reducing 111–12
 - starting 108–9
 - strategy design 110–11
 - tips for 115
 - for quantitative studies
 - data analytic plan 99–101
 - statistics 118–19, 121–3
- assertiveness 383
- Australia
 - approvals required 196
 - assessing application 14
 - doctoral process 365–6
 - doctorate programme 6
 - research positions 301
- authoritative power 236
- autobiography experience 22–3, 25–6, 29
- axiology 88, 91, 92
- balance
 - changing careers 431–2
 - finding 260–61
 - work–life–study 257, 263, 283–4, 431–2
- battery life 220–21
- campus visits 417–18, 419
- careers see academic careers; employment; first job after PhD
- casual employment 300–301
- change, managing
 - careers 431–2
 - identity 23–5, 27–8, 29
 - research philosophy 95–6
 - supervisors 50
 - thesis advisors 285–92
 - topics 19–20, 21, 303–4, 342
- universities
 - during candidature 295–8
 - to commence doctorate 294–5
 - and director of studies 286–8, 290–92
 - moving on as doctor 298–302
 - numerous potential reasons for 293
 - student perspective 303–4
- chaos, dealing with 41, 42
- citation tracking 368, 375
- citations, problems with 149–50, 154
- co-management of time 241–6
- cognitive walk-through 174, 180
- collaboration
 - with community partners 216, 227
 - publishing 254, 374, 388, 390–91, 396, 402–3, 409
 - with supervisors 313–14
- commitment
 - philosophical 78–81, 84, 85
 - topic as 17–18, 20, 279
- Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) 391–2
- completion
 - as dynamic process 3
 - finding motivation for 338–40, 380
 - goal as 135
 - timeframes for 241, 263, 337
 - trade-offs with training 135–6
- conference papers 72, 95, 387, 388, 391–2, 401, 415
- conferences
 - advocacy for attending 385–6
 - coverage 306
 - early memories of 377–8
 - feedback from 46, 379, 386
 - for finding appropriate academics 348, 369
 - gaining value from 378–9, 386
 - maximizing experience of 380–82, 386
 - networking opportunities 252, 298, 369, 372, 375, 381–3, 385, 386, 400, 402, 412, 419
 - pre-planning and assertiveness 382–3, 386
 - reflecting on experience 383–5, 386

- research philosophy 91, 127
- selecting appropriate 379–80, 386
- confirmation
 - alternative phrases for 88–9
 - as approval to proceed with research 250, 283
 - components 191
 - when changing thesis advisor 286, 287, 289–90, 291
- continuous learning 102–3
- conversations
 - aiding topic choice 25–7
 - journal 393–4, 396
 - during networking 370–71, 373, 375, 383
 - viva process as similar to 360, 364
- corrections block situation 352–4
- critical feedback see feedback
- critical literature review see literature review
- critical realism 89–91, 92, 93, 96
- curious, being 3, 147–8, 157, 426, 427
- CVs 414, 419, 429–30
- data analytic plan 99–101
- data collection
 - battery life
 - advice 220–21
 - problem 220
 - coverage 139
 - disruption to 132
 - gaining access 229–37
 - gaining ethical approval 179, 191–8
 - methods of 129–30
 - plan
 - adaptation of 131–2
 - detailing 99
 - importance of 227
 - practical concerns and advice 227
 - qualitative
 - approaches to 316
 - reflecting on purpose of 317
 - researching elites 231–2, 237
 - in quantitative study 119–21
 - researching elites 228–37
 - supervisors during 249–52, 254
- surveys
 - advice 222–3
 - problem 221–2
- data management
 - lack of talk by participants
 - advice 224
 - problem 223
 - losing research material
 - advice 224–5
 - problem 224
 - transcription taking too long
 - advice 226–7
 - problem 225–6
- deadlines 226, 238–42, 262–3, 266–8, 275, 310–11
- design
 - PhD
 - data collection 220–23, 227
 - data management 223–7
 - recruitment and project design 213–20, 227
 - quantitative research 117–24
 - quantitative study 97–105
 - research
 - importance of good 232–3, 237
 - supervisors during 250–52
 - strategy, for qualitative study 110–11
 - topic, elements of 16–17
- diaries/journals
 - effective use of 258–9
 - for keeping notes 131, 203–4
 - realistic 260
 - reflective 160–63, 166, 271, 405–6
 - research 184, 186
- director of studies
 - finding 285–6, 292
 - keeping 290–92
 - losing 286–90, 292
- disciplinary knowledge, emphasis on
 - gaining 6
- discursive power 235–6, 237
- displacement activities 244, 247, 336
- dissertation process
 - continuous learning throughout 102–3
 - planning for 105
 - relationships for 104, 269

- as solitary 104, 269
 - see also* thesis writing
- dissertation proposal see proposals
- distance learning
 - balancing act 431–2
 - changing thesis advisor 285–92
 - supervision 296
 - supervisor feedback 159–66
- distractions 40, 261, 262, 410
- Doctor of Business Administration (DBA)
 - focus, training and assessment 5
 - as increasingly common option 6
 - involving firm deadlines for specific outputs 262
- doctoral awards
 - debate about merits of various models 5
 - differences and commonalities 6–7
 - expansion in common 5–6
 - focus, training and assessment 5
 - increase in awarded 4
 - new models 4
 - summary of common modern 5
- doctoral journey
 - advice for staying on track during 272–80, 283–4, 337, 342, 386
 - changing universities 303–4
 - learning along 133–4
 - motivation and commitment for 18
 - orchestral metaphor 43–51
 - philosophy for 95–6
 - requiring different levels of supervisory support during 253–4
- doctoral process
 - in Australia 365–6
 - background and context 264–5
 - beginning of 2
 - commonalities and variation 1, 3, 6–7
 - as daunting venture 7
 - developmental 2–3
 - dynamic tension
 - between expertise and inexperience 270
 - between social and solitary aspects 268–9
 - between structure and flexibility 266–8
 - lessons for 271
 - mis-aligned perceptions of 8
 - progression through 3
 - requirements 52
 - sharing lived experiences 1, 7, 8
 - within social sciences 2
- Doctorate in Education (EdD)
 - composition 65
 - critical literature review 65–73
 - focus, training and assessment 5
 - as increasingly common option 6
- Durkheim, E. 14, 15
- duty of care 191–2
- electronic dissertations 391
- electronic journals 67–8
- elites, researching
 - access, gaining 229–30
 - data corroboration 235–6
 - finding main informants 233–4
 - gathering data 231–2
 - identifying gatekeepers 234–5
 - importance of good research design 232–3
 - interviewing 202, 204, 206, 208
 - lessons learned 236–7
 - power differentials 228
- employment
 - changing universities
 - during candidature 297–8
 - to commence doctorate 295
 - postdoctoral 298–302
 - see also* academic careers; first job after PhD
- epistemology 76, 87–8, 92, 117, 128–9
- ethical approval
 - benefits of securing 178–9
 - coverage 138
 - health service 194
 - as major stage of research process 171
 - managing referral or rejection 177–8
 - questions concerning 182

- for research project
 - cross-cultural, with participatory methods 182–3
 - hints and tips 189
 - origin of study and research questions 184–5
 - participatory methods through dissemination 185–7
 - support and guidance 187–9
- steps involved in seeking
 - hints and tips 180
 - institutional ethics process 173
 - preparing ethics application 176–7
 - three-dimensional chess analogy 173–6, 178
 - time taken for 244
 - see also* research ethics
- ethics committee 99, 171, 187–9, 194, 197, 198, 225
- examiners (nightmare) situation 345–8
- expectations of examination process
 - situation 350–52
- expertise
 - technical 253
 - tension with inexperience 270
 - in tripartite model 423–4
- face validity 57–8
- family, friends and colleagues,
 - importance of 104, 105
- feedback
 - as about relationships 144–5, 157
 - asking for
 - being discerning 154
 - being mindful of 151, 157
 - on content and process 153
 - helping reviewer to help you 152
 - informal 332–3, 412
 - not delaying 153
 - providing introduction and clear request 152
 - re-evaluating communication 154
 - recognition of time and effort 152–3
 - thanking reviewer 153
 - unreasonable requests 154
- coverage 137
- critical
 - first encounter with 143
 - lessons learned 157–8
 - negative connotation 142
 - tenets of 144–6, 157
 - tips for navigating stages of 146–57
- on CVs 429
- disjointed 303, 405
- engagement with 269
- giving
 - experimenting with different ways of 155
 - seeking to understand and be understood 155
 - as tenet of critical feedback 145–6, 157
 - trust, respect, shared expectations and sense of community 155, 157
- interpreting 144
- on interview content and process 224
- IRB approval process 187
- on protocol development 216
- purpose of 364
- receiving
 - being curious 147–8, 157
 - in different forms 148
 - feeling inadequate 159–61
 - hints and tips 164–6
 - knowing yourself 146
 - letting feelings go 147
 - student/supervisor relationship 161–4
 - taking the pearl and leaving the shell 148–9
 - as tenet of critical feedback 145–6, 157
 - use of deep breath 146–7, 157
 - via Google Docs 169–70
- reflecting on process of sharing
 - being mindful of boundaries 156–7
 - considering what worked/didn't work 156
 - dialogue 156

- lessons for 157–8
 - varying approaches 156
 - responding to
 - effectively 333–4
 - fully revising work 149
 - keeping track of feedback and responses 150–51
 - letting go of ideas and text 150
 - understanding requirements 150
 - writing, language and grammar 149–50, 157
 - reviewer 39, 60, 254, 270, 395, 405–6
 - supervisor as not sole resource of 167–8
 - through publishing process 405–6
 - working constructively with 39, 42, 158
- feedback loops 187, 189
- fellowships 298–9
- fieldwork experience
- fieldtrip
 - Russia 207
 - United States 202–3
 - learning points 208
 - preparation for 202, 205–6
 - reflection on 203–4
 - transformational nature of 200–201, 207–8
 - writing up research findings 204–5
- first job after PhD
- campus visit 417–18, 419
 - context 410–11
 - coverage 307
 - creating online presence 413–14, 419
 - emerging scholarly identity 413, 419
 - fit versus quantity 416, 419
 - job documents 414, 419
 - job offer 418
 - making wrong choice
 - mitigation strategies 422, 427
 - problem 421–2
 - phone/videoconference interview 417
 - planning for 420
 - preparing for academic job market 411–12
 - publications and teaching 414–16, 419
 - purpose (telos) 411
 - unawareness of lingo
 - mitigation strategies 426–7
 - problem 425–6
 - unawareness of options
 - mitigation strategies 423–5, 427
 - problem 422–3
 - see also* academic careers; employment
- flattery 230
- flexibility
- dynamic tension with structure 266–8, 271
 - versus planning 268
 - as rewarding aspect of doctoral life 274
 - within vivas 349
 - when getting first job 427
- focus
- issues impacting on 260–62, 276
 - research 184–5, 189, 301
 - of reviewer 152
 - tips for maintaining 263, 342
- focus groups
- challenges 130–31, 132
 - for qualitative studies 129, 228, 316
 - role of 81–2, 83
 - withdrawal from 174
- forensic reading 74–5
- gatekeepers 172, 196, 197, 212, 234–5, 237
- gender 32–3, 200, 203–5, 208
- Goldilocks* zone 29
- Google Docs, feedback via 169–70
- Google Scholar 56–7, 68, 368, 375, 414
- governance approvals 193–8
- guidance see advice
- health services research
- access advice 210–12
 - access approvals 196–8

- ethical approval 194
- ethics committee 197, 198
- governance approvals 193, 195, 197–8
- site-specific assessments 194–6, 198
- help and support
 - changing universities to commence doctorate 294–5
 - circles of 276–7, 279–80
 - helping reviewer to help you 152
 - with research philosophy 91–2, 94
 - for rewriting and writer's block 340, 342
 - by sharing insights 1, 3–4
 - supervisors
 - different levels of 253–4
 - as essential 253
 - example of 48–50
 - how students can gain from 36–42
 - learning to work with 43–51
 - mutual 37–8
 - recording 54
 - through chaos 41
 - through peer networks 252, 254
 - with time issues, seeking 245–6, 247
 - universities 246, 272, 294–5, 386
 - viva voce* examination
 - doctor's perspective 348–54
 - student perspective 356–64
 - writing up qualitative findings 316–22
 - see also* advice
- ideas for PhD see topics
- identity
 - changing 23–5, 27–8
 - emerging scholarly 413, 419
 - knowing who you are 29
 - as researcher and as woman 200–208
- imposter syndrome 23, 26, 27, 32, 148, 273–5, 280, 341, 412–13
- inexperience 270
- informal feedback 332–3, 412
- informants 233–4, 235, 237
- informational power 233–4, 237
- institutional ethics process 173
- Institutional Review Board (IRB) 99, 171, 187–9
- interactions
 - for networking, selecting appropriate 371–2, 375
 - student/supervisor 52–4
- IRB see Institutional Review Board (IRB)
- job documents see CVs
- jobs see academic careers; first job after PhD
- journals see academic journals; diaries/journals
- language
 - lingo, unawareness of 425–7
 - use in thesis writing 312–13
 - writing and grammar 149–50, 157
- librarians 36, 58, 60
- life management
 - busy doing nothing 275
 - circles of support 276–7, 279–80
 - finding own routine 274–5, 279
 - imposter syndrome 273–4, 279
 - lessons for 279–80
 - spoon theory 272–3
 - spreading yourself too thin 278, 280
 - well-being 275–6
 - what is it you do again? question 277
 - work–life–study balance 257, 263, 283–4, 431–2
 - writing dissertation 398–9
 - during writing process 341–2
- Listening Guide* method 78–81, 83–4
- literature review
 - being organised
 - and having one fool-proof system 73
 - and picking up where you left off 71–2
 - critical 11–12, 65–73
 - getting started 66–8, 73

- identifying influence of supervisor's research 69, 73
 - as important part of doctorate 102
 - journal focussing on 401
 - lessons learned 72
 - methodology 56–7
 - presentation of findings 62–3
 - raising presence in literary argument 70–71, 73
 - reading
 - knowing when to stop 71
 - selection of 60–62
 - search terms and parameters for limiting/framing searches 58–60
 - sources used for searches 57–8
 - views
 - mountains and valley 55–6, 63–4
 - past, present and future 65–72
 - writing, discarding, rewriting 68–9, 73
- mature students 31–3, 75, 248–54
 - meetings
 - director of studies 288–9
 - face-to-face 296, 371, 375
 - feedback 153, 165, 333
 - and maintaining regular contact 36–7, 41
 - transcribing 109, 148
 - treating formally 53–4
 - unsuccessful 210–11
 - lessons learned 211–12
 - methods
 - adapting 130–32, 133
 - articulating epistemological position in relation to 128–9
 - best fit for research question, selecting 117, 120, 121, 123, 127, 129, 216
 - choosing and justifying 12–13, 125, 126–8, 133
 - as dependent on research question 182–3
 - discovery that philosophies are built into 81–2
 - of engaging participants, identifying 129–30
 - failure to translate philosophical commitments into methodological practices 80–81
 - methodological approach to topic design 17
 - and philosophical commitments, tension between 78–9
 - as philosophical practices 85
 - pursuing right tension for 35
 - rigid frameworks 34
 - as ways of doing philosophy 82
 - methods chapter
 - ethics application as material for 179
 - for quantitative study 98–101
 - mind going blank situation 348–50
 - mind mapping 319
 - mixed method doctorate 135–6
 - Monte Carlo simulation 100
 - motivation
 - for completing dissertation 338–40, 380
 - inventory 422
 - tip for maintaining 280
 - topic as 17–18, 20, 279
 - mountain view metaphor 55–6, 63–4
 - multi-method doctorate 135–6
 - narrative power 230, 236–7
 - networking
 - breaking down internal barriers to 372–3, 375
 - at conferences 252, 298, 369, 372, 375, 381–3, 385, 386, 400, 402, 412, 419
 - context 367–8
 - finding appropriate academics 368–9, 375
 - fostering relationships 374–5, 376
 - gaining value from 376
 - obtaining value from 373
 - perseverance 376
 - preparation for conversations 370–71, 375

- selecting appropriate interactions 371–2, 375
- networks
 - building 40, 292
 - coverage 306
 - peer 252, 254
 - professional 281
 - of relations 206
 - support 31, 274, 276–8
- non-academic positions 301–2
- online presence, creating 413–14, 419
- ontology 76, 87–8, 92, 117, 128–9
- oral defence see viva voce
 - examination
- orchestral analogy
 - first movement 44–6
 - prelude 43–4
 - second movement 46–8
 - summary 50–51
 - third movement 48–50
- organisation of self 275
- organisational power 234, 237
- organizational governance 193–8
- part-time PhD
 - changing thesis advisor during 285–92
 - embarking on 31–3
 - navigating student/supervisor relationship 248–54
 - personal statement 31
 - questions and doubts 31–2
 - work–life–study balance 283–4
- participants
 - access to 25, 26, 29, 130–31, 133
 - adapting to needs and requirements of 132
 - conveying stories 360, 361
 - engaging in research 129–30
 - IRB process 187–8
 - lack of
 - problem 213–14
 - solution 214–15
 - not speaking/too talkative 223–4, 226
 - relevancy of research for 183–5, 189
 - relying stories of 358
 - representation 185–7
 - research ethics 172, 174–5, 177–9
- participatory power 230, 236–7
- perseverance 123, 196, 345, 363, 376
- persistence 229, 399
- personal statement 31
- PhD by Publication 6, 93
- PhD design see design
- PhD journey see doctoral journey
- PhD process see doctoral process
- PhD programmes 4–7
- philosophy see research philosophy
- pilot studies 99–101, 120, 122–3
- planning
 - for conferences 382–3, 386
 - counteracting uncertainty 133
 - data analytic plan 99–101
 - for data collection 99, 131–2, 227
 - for dissertation process 105
 - for first job after PhD 420
 - versus flexibility 268
 - for part-time PhD 283–4
 - for publishing articles 396
 - routines 274–5
 - scenario 132
 - time-plans 240–42, 246–7
- Pomodoro technique 312, 314
- positional power 233, 235
- postdoctoral careers
 - academic positions 299–300
 - casual employment 300–301
 - fellowships 298–9
 - non-academic positions 301–2
 - research-only positions 301
- power
 - authoritative 236
 - discursive 235–6, 237
 - imbalances 202–3, 228
 - informational 233–4, 237
 - narrative 230, 236–7
 - organisational 234, 237
 - participatory 230, 236–7
 - positional 233, 235
- power posing 350
- POWER writing services 323–4

- presence
 - online, creating 413–14, 419
 - raising in literary argument 70–71, 73
- presentation
 - conference 252–3, 378–80, 382, 386, 400, 414
 - job interview 417–18
 - literature review findings 62–3
 - talking and listening 25–7, 30
- professional doctorate 5–6, 241
- professional role
 - change to academic 23–5, 27–8, 29
 - conferences 381–2, 386
 - language of 425–7
 - studying whilst maintaining 265, 341
 - tension between expertise and inexperience 270
- proposals
 - advice for developing meaningful 34–5
 - alignment with topics 19
 - coming later than the beginning 23, 26, 29
 - defending 98–9, 103
 - dissertation linked to project 97–8
 - formulation of 28–9
 - as guidance tool 98
 - as major part of application process 22
 - multiple drafts 28, 30
 - promoting 104
 - submission 14, 28
 - time needed for 30, 31, 98, 256
 - writing 102–3
- publication bias 58
- publishing research
 - to aid student/supervisor relationship 40–41, 42
 - benefits of 388–9
 - collaborating 254, 374, 388, 390–91, 396, 402–3, 409
 - coverage 307
 - decreasing numbers 388
 - going solo 389–90, 402–3
 - plan, prepare, polish and promote 396
- process
 - getting started 392–4
 - revising 394–5, 396
 - summary 396
 - writing 394
- realistic timeline 403–4, 407
- rejection experience 408–9
- reviewer feedback 39, 60, 254, 270, 395, 405–6
- as route into academic position 399, 414–16, 419
- selecting journals for 401–2, 406
- self-plagiarism 391–2, 401
- student experience
 - feedback through process 405–6
 - lessons learned 406–7
 - life happens 398–9
 - path into 399–401
 - questions arising 401–4
 - setbacks and successes 404–5
- qualitative data
 - collecting
 - approaches to 316
 - reflecting on purpose of 317
 - corroboration 235–6
 - gathering valuable 231–2, 237
 - importance of good research design 232–3
 - power differentials 228
 - strategies for analysing 107–15
 - writing up
 - approaches to 319–21
 - challenges 316–17
 - false starts 317–19
 - lessons learned 321–2
- qualitative study
 - building argument 113
 - design of strategy 110–11
 - importance of writing regularly 107, 115
 - lessons learned 115
 - qualitative rigour 114, 115
 - quality of material 109–10
 - reducing amount of material 112

- saturation point and beyond 115
- sorting of material 111–12, 115
- starting 108–9
- quantitative research design
 - applying understanding 118–23
 - awakening to statistics 118
 - data collection 119–21
 - establishing validity, reliability and representativeness 122–3
 - initial difficulties with 117
 - lessons learned 123–4
 - sample, deciding on 121–2
 - selection of statistical tests 121
- quantitative study
 - background and context 97–8
 - lessons learned 102–4
 - literature review chapter 102
 - main learning points 105
 - methods chapter 98–101
 - results chapter 101–2
- reading
 - academic papers 74–5
 - literature review
 - knowing when to stop 71
 - selection of 60–62
 - reading widely 39–40, 42
 - recruitment and project design
 - ‘by the book’ protocol
 - advice 215–16
 - problem 215
 - lack of participants
 - advice 214–15
 - problem 213–14
 - sample size
 - advice 219–20
 - problem 218
 - working with minors
 - advice 217–18
 - problem 217
 - reducing amount of material 112–13, 150
 - referral, dealing with 177–8
 - reflexivity 80, 88, 131, 178–9, 208
 - rejection
 - ethical approval 177–8
 - publishing 391, 393, 395, 403–5, 407, 408–9
 - relationships
 - with advisers 265, 412
 - building 189, 415, 419
 - collaborative publishing 390–91
 - collegial 269
 - feedback as all about 144–5, 157
 - mentoring 388, 390
 - networking, fostering 374–5, 376
 - see also* student/supervisor relationship
 - relevancy 184–5, 189
 - reliability of data 119, 122–3, 235–6, 237
 - representation 183, 185–7
 - representativeness 101, 119, 122–3, 219
 - research approvals 193–8
 - see also* ethical approval
 - research ethics
 - considerations 183–9
 - lessons for keeping on track 180
 - participants 172, 174–5, 177–9
 - researcher perspective 175–6
 - risk assessment 173–6
 - scoping 172–3
 - and student safety 191–2
 - see also* ethical approval
 - research-only positions 301
 - research philosophy
 - as built into methods, discovering 81–2
 - changing 95–6
 - clarifying 87–94
 - commitments
 - failure to translate into methodological practices 80–81
 - possibility of change 84
 - tension with methods 78–9, 85
 - coverage 12
 - critical realist stance 89–91, 92, 93
 - definition 76
 - difficulty of 88–9
 - embracing own 92–3
 - impact on work 93
 - main learning points 84–5, 94

- need to consider 87–8
- obtaining help with 91–2, 94
- recommended book for
 - understanding 82–4
- of science 76–7
- research proposal see proposals
- research question
 - as element of topic design 16–17
 - incorporation of participants in
 - process of determining 189
 - methods as dependent on 182–3
 - norms or guidelines for 219
 - position in analytical process
 - strategy 110–11
 - pursuit of answering 34–5
 - relevancy 184–5
 - researcher bias presence in 184
 - role in choosing and justifying
 - research methods 125, 133
 - selecting methods that best fit 117, 120, 121, 123, 127, 129, 216
- research topic see topics
- researcher identity see identity
- results chapter
 - for quantitative study 101–2
 - relation to methods chapter 99, 101
- revising
 - academic journal articles 39, 394–5, 396
 - managing feedback 39, 333–4
 - thesis writing 329–35
 - viva voce* 358, 362–3, 364
- rewriting
 - cheerleaders 340, 342
 - find what works for you 340–41
 - finding motivation 338–40
 - keeping end in mind 342
 - lessons for 342
 - life realities 341–2
 - literature review 68–9
 - location 338
 - as time-consuming but predictable 311–12
- routines
 - doctoral experiences 239, 309–10
 - finding own 274–5, 279
 - and rituals 243, 247
- Rumi 148
- samples
 - deciding on 121–2, 123
 - question of size 100, 121, 218–20
 - quota 121–2
 - subsamples 100
- scenario planning 132
- scheduling
 - conference 382–3, 385
 - disorganised 170, 309
 - flexibility 268
 - realistic 310–11, 314
 - of tables 103
- science
 - fellowships 299
 - history, philosophy and sociology of 77–8
 - research teams common in 293, 298
- search committees 417–18
- searches
 - alerting services 67–8
 - conducting 56–7
 - irrelevant results 60–61
 - for jobs 424–5, 427
 - sources used 57–8
 - terms used and parameters for
 - limiting/framing 58–60
- self-awareness 421–2, 427
- self-help books 67
- self-plagiarism 391–2, 401
- self-regulation 168, 337
- self-starters (taking initiative) 36, 41
- site-specific assessments (SSAs) 194–6, 198
- social aspects of doctoral process 268–9
- social sciences
 - journals for publishing 401–2
 - research philosophies 76–85
 - usual process 2
- Sociology PhD
 - dissipating confidence 34
 - finding the tension 34–5
 - initial overarching questions 34
 - prioritizing relationships 35
 - pursuing right tension 35
- solitary aspects of doctoral process 268–9
- sorting material 111–13

- space, productive 261–2, 263, 338
- spoon theory 272–3
- statistics
 - awakening to 118
 - collecting data on variables 119–21
 - descriptive 102
 - establishing validity, reliability and representativeness 122–3
 - initial difficulties with 117
 - lessons learned 123–4
 - sample, deciding on 121–2
 - selection of statistical tests 121
 - understanding, application of 118–23
- structure
 - dynamic tension with flexibility 266–8, 271
 - necessary for keeping on track 274
 - time management 262–3
- student safety 191–2
- student/supervisor relationship
 - alignment of interests 14, 18, 19, 21, 202, 340
 - being unafraid to say ‘I don’t understand’ 38, 42
 - chaos, dealing with 41, 42
 - coverage 11
 - delivering on time 38–9, 42
 - getting involved 40, 42
 - managing feedback 39, 42, 161–4
 - meetings 36–7, 41
 - ownership of thesis 41, 167
 - publishing research results 40–41, 42
 - reading widely 39–40, 42
 - regular contact 37, 41
 - self-starters and taking initiative 36, 41
 - student perspective
 - context and background 43–4
 - ensuing harmony 48–50
 - lessons learned 50–51, 253–4
 - many different voices 46–8
 - misunderstandings 44–6
 - navigating 248–54
 - supervisors
 - changing 50
 - disappearing 249–51, 254
 - learning to work with 43–51
 - managing 42
 - recognition as human 38
 - see also* supervision
 - studying abroad 281–2
 - subject matter 16–17
 - submission anxiety 344
 - supervision
 - on changing universities
 - during candidature 296–7
 - commencing doctorate 295
 - supervisor perspective on
 - maximising experience 52–4
 - supervisor help
 - different levels of 253–4
 - as essential 253
 - example of 48–50
 - how students can gain from 36–42
 - learning to work with 43–51
 - mutual 37–8
 - recording 54
 - through chaos 41
 - supervisor problems
 - solutions to 48–51
 - student experience of 43–8
 - supervisory process, role in
 - justification of methods 126–8
 - and thesis submission 253
 - thesis writing collaboration 313–14
 - see also* student/supervisor relationship
 - supervisor feedback see feedback
 - supervisor’s research, identifying
 - influence of 69, 73
 - support see advice; help and support
 - support networks 31, 252, 274, 276, 278
 - surveys, problems and advice 221–3
 - talking, listening and presenting 25–7, 30
 - target setting and rewards 242, 246
 - task prioritisation 258–9, 263
 - teaching
 - method of optimising 22
 - part-time opportunities 295, 302

- as route into academic position 414–16, 419, 429
- as standard academic position 299, 301
- teleconferences 372, 375
- tensions
 - of doctoral process, dynamic 264–71
 - finding and pursuing 34–5
 - between philosophical commitments and methods 78–9
 - between realism and social constructionism 79–81
- theoretical framework 17
- thesis advisors, changing 285–92
- thesis writing
 - background and context 308–9
 - drafting 311–12
 - hints and tips for 314
 - language, use of 312–13
 - lessons from literature 310
 - as process 309
 - realism and honesty 309–10
 - scheduling 310–11, 314
 - simple steps approach
 - finish writing and pass it on 334–5
 - listing summary sentences as after-the-fact outline 331–2
 - outline chapter based on exemplar 329
 - read prose out loud 334
 - record time spent writing 326–7
 - respond effectively to feedback 333–4
 - revising 329–35
 - seek informal feedback 332–3
 - share records daily 326–7
 - specificity of 325
 - write daily for short periods 326, 340–41
 - write informally 328
 - write summary sentences for each paragraph 329–31
 - supervisor collaboration 313–14
 - things to avoid 313
 - thinking about 311
 - voice 313
 - see also* writing
- time
 - co-management 241–6
 - delivering work on time 38–9, 42
 - displacement activities 244, 247
 - needed for proposals 30, 31, 98, 256
 - re-estimating 244–5
 - recording time spent writing 326–7
 - reflections on doctoral experience relating to 239–40
 - seeking help 245–6, 247
 - student/supervisor 52–4
 - target setting and rewards 242, 246
 - time-related lessons 246–7
 - timeline for publications, realistic 403–4, 407
 - transcription management 225–7
 - working patterns 242–4, 246–7
- time management
 - as common challenge 256–7
 - coverage 139
 - fear of saying ‘no’ 259–60, 263
 - focus, lack of 260–62
 - managing distractions 262, 263
 - prioritizing tasks 258–9
 - productive space 261–2, 263
 - structure and deadlines 262–3
 - work–life–study balance 257, 263
- time-plans
 - building unallocated time into 247
 - keeping to 240
 - realistic 241–2
 - updating 246
- topics
 - alignment with proposals 19
 - changing 19–20, 21, 303–4, 342
 - choosing 10, 14–21, 105
 - conference attendance 384, 385, 386
 - design, three elements of 16–17
 - essence of 14–16
 - explaining 277
 - “finding the tension” 34–5
 - Goldilocks* analogy 29
 - identity 23, 29
 - mistakes made in identifying 24–5

- as motivation and commitment 17–18, 20, 279
- previous experiences informing 22–3, 24, 91
- reading widely 39–40, 42
- reframing 338–9
- significant investments connected with 19
- supervisors
 - alignment of interests 14, 18, 19, 21, 202, 340
 - attracting potential 16, 19
 - talking, listening and presenting 25–7, 30
 - understanding of 56–7, 60
 - writing, impact on developing ideas 27–9, 30
- training
 - academic writing 323
 - purpose 127
 - research methods 118, 133, 287, 294
 - statistical methods 118
 - trade-offs with completion 135–6
 - types 126–7
 - on viva exam 352
- transcription time management 225–7
- transparency 101–2, 114
- tripartite model for job hunting 423–5
- universities
 - applications 22
 - changing
 - during candidature 295–8
 - to commence doctorate 294–5
 - coverage 140–41
 - and director of studies 286–8, 290–92
 - moving on as doctor 298–302
 - numerous potential reasons for 293
 - student perspective 303–4
 - differences in PhD programmes 6
 - duty of care 191–2
 - IRB approval process 187–9
 - structured approaches 262–93
 - student support 246, 272, 294–5, 386
 - time required by processes of 244–5
 - validity
 - ecological 183
 - establishing 122–3
 - face 57–8
 - survey responses 222
 - valleys metaphor 55–6, 63–4
 - verbal defence see viva voce examination
 - videoconferences 372, 375, 417
 - viva voce* examination
 - as celebration in Catalonia 304
 - corrections block
 - dealing with situation 353
 - preventing situation 354
 - story 352–3
 - coverage 306
 - examiners (nightmare)
 - dealing with situation 347
 - preventing situation 347–8
 - story 345–7
 - expectations of process
 - dealing with situation 351
 - preventing situation 351–2
 - story 350–51
 - mind going blank
 - dealing with situation 349
 - preventing situation 349–50
 - story 348–9
 - non-existent in Australia 365–6
 - student corrections stage 362–3
 - student experience of 359–62
 - student preparation for 357–8
 - student reflection on
 - final 363–4
 - worthiness of 356–7
 - tips for surviving and enjoying 354, 364
 - well-being 259, 260, 269, 275–6
 - work–life–study balance 257, 263, 283–4, 431–2
 - working patterns 242–4, 246–7

- writer's block
 - as common problem 107
 - coverage 306
 - displacement activities 336
 - feelings engendered by 308
 - 'generate first and edit later' as
 - strategy for 324
 - overcoming, tips for 344, 353
 - support for 340, 342
- writing
 - academic 103
 - coverage 305–6
 - impact on developing ideas 27–9, 30
 - importance of regular 107, 115, 159, 165, 324, 342
 - literature review 68–9, 73
 - POWER writing services 323–4
 - proposals 102–3
 - qualitative findings
 - approaches to 319–21
 - challenges 316–17
 - developing narrative 317–19
 - illustrative narrative 319–20
 - integrating evidence 321
 - lessons for 321–2
 - mind mapping 319
 - outlining narrative 319
 - and refining 308–14
 - research articles for publication 394
 - rewriting 68–9, 311–12, 336–42
 - schedule of tables 103
 - thesis
 - background and context 308–9
 - drafting 311–12
 - hints and tips for 313
 - language, use of 312–13
 - lessons from literature 310
 - as process 309
 - realism and honesty 309–10
 - scheduling 310–11, 314
 - simple steps approach 325–35
 - supervisor collaboration 313–14
 - things to avoid 313
 - thinking about 311
 - voice 313