

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Preface and acknowledgements	xii
1 Introduction: globalizing welfare – an evolving Asian-European dialogue Stein Kuhnle, Per Selle and Sven E.O. Hort	1
PART I DEVELOPING EAST ASIAN WELFARE STATES: INTERNAL FORCES AND OUTSIDE INFLUENCES
2 Korea's transition from the developmental to the universal welfare state Huck-ju Kwon	16
3 China's welfare state building Yuan Ren	32
4 The welfare regime in China: towards moderate universalism Yi Pan and Ziyu Wang	50
5 Welfare development amid crises: what Hong Kong can learn from the Nordic experiences Raymond K.H. Chan	68
6 Japan as a developmental state: the need for a new approach Masato Kamikubo	86
7 Who are caregivers for the elderly? The role of women in the welfare state in the Nordic and the East Asian countries Yoko Otsuka and Lingyan Chen	106
8 Have Japanese social welfare NPOs failed? Emerging social enterprises and major transformation Masanari Sakurai	125

PART II DEVELOPED NORTH EUROPEAN WELFARE STATES:
STATE AND SOCIETY IN A GLOBALIZING WORLD

- 9 The concept of society in the making of the Nordic welfare state 143
Pauli Kettunen
- 10 Globalization and the Nordic welfare states 162
Jørgen Goul Andersen
- 11 Normative foundations of Nordic family and gender equality policies: developments and challenges 184
Åsa Lundqvist
- 12 Conflicting ideas on Danish day care during the golden age of the Danish welfare state 199
Klaus Petersen
- 13 Changing normative principles of social justice in the Norwegian pension system 216
Rune Ervik, Nanna Kildal, Stein Kuhnle and Tord Skogedal Lindén
- 14 The future role of civil society in a welfare state: perspectives from Germany 234
Helmut K. Anheier
- 15 The challenging position of civil society service production within the Norwegian welfare state 250
Per Selle and Kristin Strømsnes

PART III GLOBAL ISSUES AND PERSPECTIVES

- 16 Learning from feminist scholarship on the welfare state 269
Marie Laperrière and Ann Shola Orloff
- 17 An authoritarian-populist welfare state? Reassessing the 'Belarusian model' in comparative perspective 286
Sven E.O. Hort and Nikolay Zakharov
- 18 Framing inequality and related policy responses 302
Claus Offe
- 19 Entangled inequalities, a disbalanced welfare state, and populist challenges for democracy 315
Stephan Leibfried, Kerstin Martens and Uwe Schimank

Index 333