

Index

---

- abductive reasoning 163–5
  see also inference, rules of actio popularis right 26 actions for annulment before EU courts see European Union (EU), actions for annulment
adoption arrangements, informal child trafficking concerns 110–11, 120
  see also child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and archival analysis)
  kafalah arrangements 85
Allain, Jean 123
anthropology, legal see ethnographic
  research
arbitration, investor-state 66, 76, 159, 161, 166, 178–9, 186, 188–9
  see also international economic law archival research 13, 57–8, 191
  archives concept 112–13
  digitization of 114–15
  bias risk 60
  on child trafficking law see child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and archival analysis)
  see also non-dochtrinal research
  methods
‘argument’ definition 154
  see also inference, rules of ATA Airlines v. Federal Express Corp.
  (US 7th Cir., 2011) 5
audi alteram partem principle 35 automated content analysis of treaties 176–7, 183–4
  see also data-driven approach
Barnett, Michael 49
Bassiouni, Mahmoud Cherif 34
Beaucillon, Charlotte 131, 132
Behn, Daniel 166
Benda-Beckmann, Keebet von 94
bias risk
  in archival research 60
  in doctrinal research 61–2
  in quantitative analysis 12, 133, 162, 164, 165, 169–70, 192
big data
  analysis of see data-driven approach definition 179–80
Bos, Maarten 2
Brems, Eva 97
Brewer, Scott 157
Brunnée, Jutta 46, 51–2, 53, 55
case citations
  cross-citations between courts 184–5 network analysis of 177–8, 182–3
  see also data-driven approach
causal analysis
  causal inferences 166–7, 181
  see also inference, rules of ethnographic research, causal analysis eschewed 79
Cheng, Bin 21
child adoption arrangements, informal
  see adoption arrangements, informal child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and archival analysis)
  15–16, 104–6
  League of Nations archives 105, 106–7, 113–15
  discourse analysis of 108–12, 118–23
  ‘immoral purpose’ discourse, contemporary relevance 111, 124
  League of Nations overview
  107–8

- state questionnaire responses 111, 122–3
- methodology 117–18
- quantifying references to ‘child trafficking’ 118–21, 123
- quantifying references to ‘white slavery’ 118, 120
- value of approach 108–12, 116–17, 122–6
- previous research 123
- Trafficking Protocol (Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children 2000) 16, 104, 111
- ‘white slavery’
- International Convention for the Suppression of Traffic in Women and Children 1921, term absent from 106, 110, 115–16, 117, 118, 123, 125
- moral panic over 108–9, 116, 120
- references to term in archives 118, 120
- White Slavery Conventions (early 20th century) 108, 109, 110, 116
- citations of cases see case citations
- Cohen, Felix 149
- Cohen, Morris 2
- complementary relationship of
- doctrinal and non-doctrinal research methods 3–4, 12–13, 186–8, 190–95
- bridging the gap in international economic law research 188–9
- data-driven approach and doctrinal methods 181
- plurality of methods, value of 109, 193–5
- qualitative studies and doctrinal methods 80–83, 101–2, 191–2, 194
- quantitative studies
- complementary to doctrinal methods 162, 171, 194
- weakened by neglect of theory 13–14, 161–2, 185–6
- see also* doctrinal research methods; non-doctrinal research methods
- content analysis of treaties, automated 176–7, 183–4
- see also* data-driven approach
- Convention on the Law of Treaties 1969 54, 161–2, 188
- Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989 121
- Coomaraswamy, Radhika 125
- correlation and causation distinction 166–7, 181
- see also* inference, rules of
- Crawford, Neta 58
- critical legal studies 45
- Cryer, Robert 2–3
- cultural diversity, ECtHR’s approach to see under European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)
- D’Amato, Anthony 110
- d’Aspremont, Jean 20–21, 34–5
- data-driven approach 17, 173–6, 189
- ‘big data’ definition 179–80
- doctrinal methods complementary to 181
- limitations of 179–84
- flawed measurement in international economic law analysis 184–6
- network analysis 177–8, 182–3
- text-as-data analysis 176–7, 183–4
- see also* non-doctrinal research methods; quantitative analysis
- Declaration on the Rights of the Child 1924 (League of Nations) 119, 121
- deductive arguments 156–7, 175
- see also* inference, rules of
- Dembour, Marie-Bénédicte 90, 91–2
- Deplano, Rossana 3
- Desmet, Ellen 97
- diplomatic protection principle 41–3
- discourse analysis 11, 13, 14, 56–60, 191
- of League of Nation archives on child trafficking law 108–12, 118–23
- see also* child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and archival analysis)
- see also* social constructivism

- doctrinal research methods
    - bias risk 61–2
    - characteristics of 60, 86, 87
    - non-doctrinal methods
      - complementary to see complementary relationship of doctrinal and non-doctrinal research methods
      - opposition to 173–4, 193
      - three categories of 130–33
      - treaty interpretation, doctrinal approach 54, 57, 161–2, 186, 188
      - see also* research methods of international law; theory and theorizing about international law
  - domestic governance effects of IIL
    - see* international investment law (IIL), domestic governance effects (ethnographic study)
  - Dresch, Paul 72–3
  - Dunn, Kevin C. 58
  - ECJ (European Court of Justice)
    - case citations, network analysis of 177
    - judicial review see EU sanctions, appeals against (quantitative study); European Union (EU), actions for annulment
  - ECtHR see European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)
  - education on non-doctrinal research methods 150, 152, 167–8
  - effectiveness principle 35
  - Einstein, Albert 43
  - empirical legal studies 150–51, 152–4
  - empirical research methods see non-doctrinal research methods
  - Epstein, Charlotte 56, 57, 59
  - Epstein, Lee 151, 153–4, 156, 164–5, 169
  - ethnographic research 11, 13, 14–15, 64, 68
    - causal analysis eschewed 79
    - doctrinal methods complementary to 80–83, 191–2, 194
    - on ECtHR users see European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), Court users' experiences (ethnographic study)
  - on IIL see international investment law (IIL), domestic governance effects (ethnographic study)
  - law and litigation, anthropological perspectives on 86–7
  - participant observation method 69–70, 71
  - 'purposeful sampling' for 102–3
  - researcher's positionality 77–8
  - value of approach 80–83, 90–93, 95–102
  - see also* non-doctrinal research methods; qualitative research
- EU sanctions, appeals against (quantitative study) 16, 128–30, 148, 192–3
  - data on appeals
    - appeals concluded 2009–17
      - 140–41, 143, 146
    - average duration of appeals 142, 143, 145, 146
    - correlation between formation of the ECJ and length of proceedings 145–6, 147–8
    - number of judges, correlated to annulment decisions 144, 147
    - outcomes of appeals 142, 143, 145, 147
    - reversed judgments by court formation 143, 145, 147
    - conclusions from 146–8
  - methodology 137–9
    - limitations of approach 134–6, 139
    - value of approach 133–4, 136
  - previous research (doctrinal studies) 130–33
- European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)
    - case citations, network analysis of 177
    - Court users' experiences (ethnographic study) 15, 84–6, 87–8, 191
    - see also* ethnographic research law and litigation, anthropological perspectives on 86–7

- limitations of approach 102–3
  - post-trial experiences 93–6
  - previous research 91–2, 94–5, 97–9
  - value of approach 90–93, 95–102
- cultural and religious diversity,
  - Court's approach to 84–5, 87–8
  - kafalah* arrangements 85
  - marriage types 11–12, 85, 92–3, 99
  - methodology of research 89–90
  - legitimacy concerns 99–101
- European Court of Justice (ECJ)
  - case citations, network analysis of 177
  - judicial review see EU sanctions, appeals against (quantitative study); European Union (EU), actions for annulment
- European Union (EU)
  - actions for annulment
    - inductive analysis of 159–60
    - procedure for 129
  - sanctions of
    - adoption procedure 129
    - appeals against see EU sanctions, appeals against (quantitative study)
    - regimes in force 139, 142, 143
- falsification theory (Popper) 5, 8, 133–4
  - see also* quantitative analysis
- Fauchald, Ole Kristian 188
- feminist theory 45
- Finkelstein, Michael O. 6
- Finnemore, Martha 51, 52
- Florescu, Simona 96
- fragmentation of international law 185
- Franck, Thomas 7–8
- general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ identification of
  - ICJ Statute 1945 Article 38(1)(c) 7, 18–19, 23
  - drafting history 22–3
  - inductive-empirical analysis 20, 29–30, 43–4, 190–91
  - Court decisions referring to general principles (1922–2018) 30
  - methodology 23–8
  - number of general principles ascertained 30–31
  - recurrence of general principles 32, 33–4
  - results, 'scientific' and visual presentation of 36, 38–43
  - types of general principles 34–6, 37
  - underpinning of general principles 31–2, 37
  - type-underpinning analysis 36, 37
  - methodological limitations of Court's approach 10, 13, 14, 19–20, 20–22
  - see also* norms of international law
- Ginsburg, Tom 150
- Gold, Andrew 131
- Goldhaber, Michael D. 98–9
- Goold, Patrick 131
- Griffiths, Anne 95
- Guillaume, Gilbert 183
- Hathaway, Oona A. 168
- historical accounts of international law 61–2
  - archival research see archival research
  - European colonial foundations 108, 111–12
- Hodson, Loveday 91
- Holmes, Oliver Wendell 149
- Hueck, Ingo J. 62
- human trafficking
  - evolution of law on 106–7
  - child trafficking see child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and archival analysis)
  - Trafficking Protocol (Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children 2000) 16, 104, 111
- hypothesis formation and testing 4–6
  - inference, rules of see inference, rules of

- null hypothesis significance testing 5–6, 158–9
- ICJ see International Court of Justice (ICJ)
- IIL, domestic governance effects see international investment law (IIL), domestic governance effects (ethnographic study)
- inductive analysis 13, 27
  - of ICJ/PCIJ's identification of general principles see general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ identification of
  - inductive arguments 157–63 see also inference, rules of see also non-doctrinal research methods
- inference, rules of 154–5
  - arguments and inferences 155–6
    - abduction (inference to the best explanation) 163–5
    - causal inferences 166–7, 181
    - deductive arguments 156–7, 175
    - inductive arguments 157–63 see also quantitative analysis
- informal adoption arrangements see adoption arrangements, informal
- International Convention for the Suppression of Traffic in Women and Children 1921 106, 110, 115–16, 117, 118, 123, 125 see also child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and archival analysis)
- International Court of Justice (ICJ)
  - case citations, network analysis of 177–8, 182–3
  - general principles, identification of see general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ identification of
  - scholarship, use of 162
- international economic law
  - data-driven approach 17, 173–6, 189
  - flawed measurement in quantitative analysis 184–6
  - limitations of approach generally 179–84
  - scholarship on 176–9, 182
- doctrinal and non-doctrinal research on, proposal to bridge gap 188–9
- international investment law (IIL)
  - domestic governance effects see international investment law (IIL), domestic governance effects (ethnographic study)
  - investor-state dispute settlement (ISDS) 66, 76, 159, 161, 166, 178–9, 186, 188–9
- international investment law (IIL), domestic governance effects (ethnographic study) 12, 14–15, 64–5, 80–83, 191–2
- challenges encountered 71–3
  - conceptual aspects of research governance sites 74–5, 79, 81–2
  - 'IIL-argument' creation 75–6
  - multi-sitedness 73
  - reactivity and respondent bias 76–7
  - researcher's positionality 77–8
- further research possibilities 75, 79–80
- hypotheses and research questions 65–9
- methodology 69–71 see also ethnographic research; international economic law
- international law
  - as belief system 7–8
  - on child trafficking see child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and archival analysis)
- fragmentation of 185
- historical accounts of 61–2
  - archival research see archival research
  - European colonial foundations 108, 111–12
- international economic law see international economic law
- law status contested 109–10
- League of Nations see League of Nations
- norms and general principles see general principles of

- international law, ICJ/PCIJ
 identification of; norms of
 international law
 research methods see research methods of international law as social process see norms of international law, evolution of (social constructivist perspective)
 state concept 81–2, 86
see also non-state actors theory and theorizing about see theory and theorizing about
 international law
 treaties see treaties
- international relations scholarship interdisciplinary studies 45–6
 social constructivism see social constructivism
- interpretative general principles 35, 37
see also general principles of
 international law, ICJ/PCIJ
 identification of; norms of
 international law
- investor-state dispute settlement
 (ISDS) 66, 76, 159, 161, 166, 178–9, 186, 188–9
see also international economic law
- Johnson, Paul 91, 95, 96
jura novit curia principle 35
- Jus Mundi (international law research search engine) 24
- kafalah* arrangements 85
- Kant, Immanuel 110
- King, Gary 151, 153–4, 164–5, 169
- Klotz, Audie 59–60
- Knepper, Paul 123
- kompetenz-kompetenz* principle 35
- Koskenniemi, Martti 61
- Laffey, Mark 55
- Langford, Malcolm 166
- Lasswell, Harold 8–9
- Latin maxims 26, 35
- law and litigation, anthropological perspectives on 86–7
see also ethnographic research
- law journals on non-doctrinal research
 methods 150–51, 152–4
 peer review processes 167–70
- League of Nations 107–8 child trafficking law, archives on see under child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and
 archival analysis)
 Declaration on the Rights of the Child 1924 119, 121 ‘experiment narrative’ explaining League’s failure 109, 112
- legal anthropology see ethnographic
 research
- legal theory see theory and theorizing
 about international law
- legal training on non-doctrinal research
 methods 150, 152, 167–8
- Leinweber, David J. 181
- Lempert, Richard 169
- limitations of non-doctrinal research
 data-driven approach 179–84
 flawed measurement in international economic law
 analysis 184–6
 quantitative analysis see quantitative analysis, limitations of
- ‘logic’ definition 154
see also inference, rules of
- Lynch, Cecilia 59–60
- McDougal, Myres 8
- marriage types, ECtHR jurisprudence on 11–12, 85, 92–3, 99
- Martin, Andrew D. 156
- Merry, Sally Engle 171
- misinterpretation of statistics 5, 135–6, 158–9, 162–3
- ‘more scientific’ approach, nondoctrinal research as 10–11, 18, 121, 190–91, 192
- Muñoz Díaz v. Spain* (49151/07)
 (ECtHR, 2009) 92–3, 99
- ne bis in idem* principle 26
- network analysis 177–8, 182–3
see also data-driven approach
- Neulinger and Shuruk v. Switzerland*
 (41615/07) (ECtHR, 2010)
 96

- New Haven School of international law 8–9
- NGOs see non-state actors
- non-doctrinal research methods 9–10
- archival research see archival research
  - common themes of chapters on 10–14, 190–93
  - data-driven approach see data-driven approach
  - discourse analysis see discourse analysis
  - doctrinal methods complementary to see complementary relationship of doctrinal and non-doctrinal research methods
  - ethnographic research see ethnographic research
  - inductive analysis see inductive analysis
  - inference, rules of see inference, rules of
  - law journals and scholarship on 150–51, 152–4
    - peer review processes 167–70
  - legal training on 150, 152, 167–8
  - limitations of see limitations of non-doctrinal research
  - as ‘more scientific’ approach 10–11, 18, 121, 190–91, 192
  - opposition to 6–7, 193
  - qualitative research see qualitative research
  - quantitative analysis see quantitative analysis
  - social constructivism see social constructivism
  - technological advancements facilitating 1
  - value of 9, 194
    - see also under* individual research case studies
    - see also* research methods of international law
- non-state actors
- ethnographic research on 81–2
  - social constructivism on 51–2, 55–6, 59
- normative research methods see doctrinal research methods
- norms of international law 110
- domestic application 12
  - evolution of (social constructivist perspective) 14, 50–51, 52–6, 61, 194
    - see also* social constructivism
  - ICJ/PCIJ identification of see general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ identification of
  - opposition to non-doctrinal research methods on account of 6–8
  - types of 34–6, 37
    - see also* international law
- Nouwen, Sarah 160, 171
- null hypothesis significance testing 5–6, 158–9
- Nussbaum, Martha 153
- Nuzzo, Regina 170
- Okyere, Samuel 105
- Oppenheim, Lassa 18
- Orford, Anne 109
- pathologies of non-doctrinal research see limitations of non-doctrinal research
- PCIJ (Permanent Court of International Justice)
- general principles, identification of see general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ identification of
- peer review of quantitative studies 167–70
- Pellet, Alain 21
- Permanent Court of International Justice (PCIJ)
- general principles, identification of see general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ identification of
- plurality of research methods, value of 109, 193–5
- see also* research methods of international law
- policy-oriented approach to international law 8–9
- Popper, Karl 5, 134
- Price, Richard 55

- principles of international law see general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ identification of;
 norms of international law
- procedural general principles 35, 37
see also general principles of
 international law, ICJ/PCIJ
 identification of; norms of
 international law
- Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children
 2000 16, 104, 111
see also child trafficking law,
 evolution of (socio-legal and
 archival analysis)
- qualitative research 11–12
 definition 152
 doctrinal methods complementary to 80–83, 101–2, 191–2, 194 ethnographic research see
 ethnographic research
see also non-doctrinal research
 methods
- quantitative analysis 13, 16–17
 data-driven approach see data-
 driven approach
 doctrinal methods complementary
 to 162, 171, 194
 of EU sanctions appeals cases see EU sanctions, appeals against (quantitative study)
- falsification theory (Popper) 5, 8, 133–4
- inference, rules of see inference, rules of
- law journals and scholarship on 150–51, 152–4
 peer review processes 167–70
- legal training on 150, 152, 167–8
- limitations of 149–52, 170–72
 bias risk 12, 133, 162, 164, 165, 169–70, 192
 data inaccuracies 135, 162
 legal theory neglected 13–14, 161–2, 185–6
 statistics misinterpreted 5, 135–6, 158–9, 162–3
 statistics unquestioned 121, 167–70, 171–2
 unsuitable research questions 5, 12, 14, 134–5, 160
see also non-doctrinal research
 methods; statistics
- Raimondo, Fabian 19, 21–2
- regression analysis 5, 163, 166
- religious diversity, ECtHR's approach to see under European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)
- research methods of international law complementary nature of see complementary relationship of doctrinal and non-doctrinal
 research methods
- data-driven approach see data-
 driven approach
- doctrinal see doctrinal research
 methods
- historical studies 61–2
- interdisciplinary studies 45–6
- non-doctrinal see non-doctrinal
 research methods
- plurality of methods, value of 109, 193–5
- scholarship on see scholarship on
 research methods
- theory and theorizing, relationship with 4–8, 43, 127–8, 175–6, 184
see also theory and theorizing
 about international law
see also international law
- Roberts, Anthea 3
- Rosenne, Shabtai 2
- Ruiz Vieyetz, Eduardo J. 92–3
- rules of inference see inference, rules of
- Ryles, Annalise 102
- sanctions, EU see EU sanctions, appeals against (quantitative study); European Union (EU),
 sanctions
- Sander, Richard 168, 169
- Sandholtz, Wayne 51
- Sattorova, Mavluda 66–7
- Scheele, Judith 72–3
- Scheppele, Kim Lane 89–90

- scholarship on research methods 2–3
- data-driven approach (applied to international economic law) 176–9, 182
  - empirical legal studies 150–51, 152–4
  - international relations
    - interdisciplinary studies 45–6
    - social constructivism see social constructivism
  - peer review of quantitative studies 167–70
  - ‘scientific’ character of non-doctrinal research methods 10–11, 18, 121, 190–91, 192
- Shaffer, Gregory 150
- Sikkink, Kathryn 51
- Skyrms, Brian 154
- social constructivism 11, 12–13, 14, 47–52
- discourse analysis see discourse analysis
  - norm evolution, social constructivist perspective 14, 50–51, 52–6, 61, 194
  - see also* norms of international law
  - strengths and weaknesses of 60–63
  - see also* non-doctrinal research methods; theory and theorizing about international law
- social sciences research 4–5, 11
- state concept 81–2, 86
- see also* non-state actors
- statistics
- big data
    - analysis of see data-driven approach
    - definition 179–80
    - manipulation of 12
    - misinterpretation of 5, 135–6, 158–9, 162–3
    - null hypothesis significance testing 5–6, 158–9
    - regression analysis 5, 163, 166
    - statistical inference 157–9
    - see also* inference, rules of
    - unquestioned status afforded to 121, 167–70, 171–2
    - see also* quantitative analysis
- Statute of the International Court of Justice 1945 Article 38(1)(c) 7, 18–19, 23
- drafting history 22–3
  - see also* general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ
  - identification of
  - substantive general principles 35, 37
  - see also* general principles of international law, ICJ/PCIJ
  - identification of; norms of international law
- Talmon, Stefan 27
- technological advancements in research 1
  - text-as-data analysis 176–7, 183–4
  - see also* data-driven approach
  - theory and theorizing about international law
  - critical international law theories 45
  - doctrinal research methods see doctrinal research methods
  - ‘duty’ of 109
  - Kant’s definition of theory 110
  - New Haven School 8–9
  - norms of international law see norms of international law
  - quantitative analysis, neglect of theory 13–14, 161–2, 185–6
  - research methods, relationship with 4–8, 43, 127–8, 175–6, 184
  - see also* research methods of international law
  - social constructivism see social constructivism
  - see also* international law
- Third World Approaches to International Law 45
- Toope, Stephen J. 46, 51–2, 53, 55
- trafficking in human beings see human trafficking
- training on non-doctrinal research methods 150, 152, 167–8
- treaties
- automated content analysis of 176–7, 183–4
  - see also* data-driven approach

- international trade and investment agreements data-driven analysis of 176–7, 185–6
 domestic governance effects see international investment law (IIL), domestic governance effects (ethnographic study) interpretation of 54, 57, 161–2, 186, 188
 overlapping content 185
 Tzagourias, Nicholas 3
- United Nations
 League of Nations (predecessor) see League of Nations
 sanctions 128
- Universal Declaration on the Rights of the Child 1924 (League of Nations) 119, 121
- ut res magis valeat quam pereat* principle 35
- Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties 1969 54, 161–2, 188
- Weldes, Jutta 55
- ‘white slavery’ see under child trafficking law, evolution of (socio-legal and archival analysis)
- Wilson, Woodrow 107
- World Trade Organization (WTO) dispute settlement by 177, 178, 179 preferential trade agreements, effect on 177
see also international economic law
- Yotova, Rumiana 21
- Zeiler, Kathryn 163, 168

