

Index

- Academy of Management Journal* 14, 154
- Achtnich, L. 108
- action research 93, 95, 97–100
- activism
- engagement 92–6, 98
 - gaining trust 100
 - and self-reflection 100, 101
- Advanced Discount Model 29–30
- treatment of shares 30–31
- Akyüz, Y. 38
- Alvesson, Mats et al. 4, 5
- Amazon Launchpad 20
- Armstrong, G. 122
- Audretsch, D. B. 73
- Bahrami, S. 70, 72, 75
- Baker, T. 40–41, 70, 75, 83
- Basbøll, T. 14
- Baumol, W. 11
- Bazeley, P. 108
- Behnam, M. 144
- Bello, B. et al. 71
- Bello-Pintado, A. et al. 72, 74
- Berghman, L. et al. 144
- Blomquist, T. et al. 61
- Borrego, A. 132
- Boyd, L. H. 84
- Brazilian Amazon 92–3
- action research 97–100
 - community 96–7
- Bretton Woods 36, 42
- Brünjes, J. 72
- Brush, C. G. et al. 119
- business events 142
- data collection and analysis 145, 149, 150
 - and engaged scholarship 142–50
 - linking science and practice 148
 - rigour-relevance gap 144
 - role of scientists 149
 - value 143–7, 149–52
- business models 17–19
- Cappelli, P. 157
- case studies
- ethnographic approach 54–8
 - family business research 109
 - theoretical approaches 52
- cluster analysis 82, 86–9, 168
- Colquitt, J. A. 14, 109
- communication
- with policymakers, challenges 6
 - science-practice knowledge transfer 62, 66, 67, 104, 142, 144, 148, 150, 155–62
 - skill management 53
 - in SMEs 50–51
 - social media 131, 132, 134–8
- competition, publishing pressure 106, 108, 122–3, 126
- context 11–12
- personal 51, 53–7
 - relevance and impact 7, 11, 14–19, 167, 169, 171
- contextual entrepreneurship 35, 88–9, 155
- defining 69–70
 - environmental 72, 73
 - individual 71–2, 77
 - institutional 72–3, 76
 - integrated perspectives 73–4
 - knowledge transfer 154–62
 - organizational 72, 76–7
 - qualitative methods 86–8
 - quantitative methods 70–71, 74–6, 80–85
 - selection and influence of variables 70, 74–6, 77
 - temporal 75–6
- corporate entrepreneurship 113, 114
- counselling 53–4

- data collection and analysis 50, 51, 52
 - attending business events 145, 149, 150
 - in entrepreneurship research 77, 84, 122, 169
 - equipment 53
 - ethnographic approach 55, 57, 95, 96
 - methods 84, 86–9
 - panel data 16–20
 - publishing process 108, 111, 122, 125
 - taking a break 57–8
- Davidsson, P. 83
- Desai, S. 83
- Desalegn, H. 42
- de Vaan, M. et al. 18
- Developing and Emerging Economies (DEEs) 35
 - foreign exchange shortages 36–8, 39, 41, 43
- Diaspora Business Forum 41
- Diez, J. R. 72
- distribution of research 136
 - social media 130, 131, 133, 134, 136–7, 138
 - see also* publishing
- early career research 3
 - be curious 112
 - bridging literature 16
 - as an employee of the researched firm 52
 - equipment 53
 - finding a research question 50–51
 - and knowledge transfer 155, 158, 162
 - life cycle 109–12
 - and novelty 13
 - peer support, mentoring and counselling 53–4, 58, 126
 - project and time management 54
 - publishing challenges 106–7, 110, 111–16, 122–3
 - and quantitative methods 81
 - recommendations for practice 66–7
 - and reputation 106–7, 119, 123
 - skill development 53
 - topic and context 15–16
 - training 126–7
 - use of panel data 16–17
 - use of social media 130–132, 132–3, 134, 138
 - value of business events 146–7, 148, 150–152
- economic crises 37–40, 43
- Eddleston, K. A. 113
- Eichengreen, B. et al. 36
- Eisenstein, C. (Sacred Economics) 100
- engaged scholarship, and business events 142–50
- entrepreneurship research
 - business models 17–19
 - data collection and analysis 77, 84, 122, 169
 - entrepreneurial identity 80
 - environment analysis model 121–3
 - and foreign exchange shortage 40–41
 - future insights 171–2
 - importance of publications 120
 - knowledge transfer 155–62
 - legitimacy, market signals 19
 - measurement approaches 18, 19
 - micro and macro-economics 34–5
 - relevance and impact 5, 32, 127, 167–73
 - use of panel data 18, 19, 20
 - see also* contextual
 - entrepreneurship; family business; SMEs
- environmental consciousness 172
- environmental context
 - entrepreneurship research 72, 73, 76, 80
 - influence on publications 119, 121–7
- equipment 52, 53–4
- Ethiopia, foreign exchange shortage 41–3
- ethnographic approach 54
 - achieving trust 55
 - data collection 55, 57, 94–5, 96
 - generalizability 57
 - struggles within 55–6
 - subjectivity 56–7
 - taking a break 57–8
- exploratory factor analysis 82, 86–7, 89
- family business 23, 167
 - Advanced Discount 29–31

- definition 24, 30–31
- events 148
- forums 148
- publications 113
- research on innovation 107, 109, 113
- tax exemptions 25, 27
- Felicio, J. A. 73
- Feyerabend, P. 93
- Filser, M. et al. 113
- foreign exchange shortage 35, 43–4
 - causes 36–8
 - currency hierarchy 35–6
 - and entrepreneurship 40–41
 - Ethiopian case 41–3
 - impediments for development 38–40
- Frank, H. 5
- Frankenberger, K. 17
- Freire, P. 92, 93, 100, 101
- funding 7, 106, 108, 122, 126, 137, 149
- Gadotti, M. 92
- 'gap-spotting' 3, 15, 50, 52, 111
- Gassmann, O. 17
- generalizability 57, 156
 - and contextual research 81, 82–3, 85, 88, 89
- George, G. 14, 109
- Gerst, A. 7
- Ghoshal, S. 3
- Golder, P. N. 113
- Gramsci, A. 93
- grounded theory 52, 55
- Guidotti-Greenspan rule 37
- Harari, Y. N. 96
- Hibbert, P. et al. 159–60
- hierarchical linear modelling (HLM) 83–5, 89
- Hox, Joop J. 83
- Huang, H. 72–3
- Huff, A. S. 48
- Huisman, J. et al. 107–8
- Huse, M. 119, 125
- IMF (International Monetary Fund) 39–40
- imports, and foreign exchange shortage 37, 38, 40–43
- Iversen, G. R. 84
- Jerome, J. K. 13
- Johns, G. 69
- Johnstone, C. 100
- jokes 13
- Journal of Management Education* 154
- Journal of Management Studies* 114
- journal publishing 7–8, 158
 - bridging literature 16
 - and engagement 111
 - German tax law 32
 - ranking and value 123–5, 127–8
 - and reputation 106–7, 119, 138, 155
 - social networking 131, 136
 - and topic relevance 108–9, 113, 120
- Keepa.com 20
- Kellermanns, F. W. 113
- Kieser, A. 144
- knowledge transfer
 - brokers 148, 159–61
 - at business events 142, 144–5, 146, 148–50
 - contextual entrepreneurship 154–62
- Kotler, P. 122
- Landström, H. 5, 119, 125
- Lane, P.J. 158
- learning 110
 - at business events 143–4, 146, 148–9
 - from knowledge brokers 159–60
- Leiner, L. 144
- Lifan Motors 41
- Life Cycle of Academic Publishing (LCAP) 107, 112–14, 115
- Linton, J. D. 107
- literature bridging 16, 18–19
- literature reviews 150
 - academic life cycle 111, 114, 115, 116
 - contextual entrepreneurship 70, 107
 - joining conversations 48
- Lodge, D. 106
- Lubatkin, M. 158
- Luhmann, N. 144
- Macy, J. 100

- MAXQDA 134, 169
- McGahan, Anita M. 3
- measurements 169
 - altmetric, and social networking 133
 - bibliometric 169
 - quantitative 18, 19, 86–7
- Meek, W. R. et al. 73
- Melting Model 27
- mentors 11, 53–4
- Meyer, M. 159
- MICE (meetings, incentives, conferencing and exhibitions) 143
- micro-macro environmental model 121–7
- multilevel modelling 82, 83–5, 86, 88, 168
- Naldi, L. et al. 113
- Nández, G. 132
- networking 99
 - academic 110, 111, 112, 116, 130–131
 - business 77, 143–50
 - role of brokers 159, 161
 - see also* social media
- new public management (NPM) 119
- novelty, and research relevance 13, 109
- Optional Relief Model 26–8
- Palmer, D. 5
- panel data 16–20
- Papanek, G. F. 93
- participation
 - and academic activism 100
 - in knowledge transfer 161–2
 - of practitioners 67
- Participatory Action Research (PAR) 93
- Participatory Design 93–4
- passion 5, 7, 63, 105
- Paula, L. F. de et al. 35
- peer support, mentoring and counselling 53–4, 56, 131, 134, 137, 138
- personal experiences 169, 172
 - ethnographic approach 53–7
 - identifying context 11–12
 - research question and relevance 51–2, 150
- Pinho, J. C. 73–4
- Podsakoff, Philip M. et al. 3, 4
- policy spaces, and foreign exchange shortage 35, 38–40
- Porfirio, J. A. et al. 72
- Powell, E. E. 40–41
- practice
 - engagement with 110–112, 142
 - and research relevance 12, 61–7, 154
 - and theory, role of business events 142–52
- practitioners
 - and action research 93–4
 - interaction and knowledge transfer 6–7, 12, 48–9, 50–58, 110–111, 116, 142–52, 154–62
 - and research relevance 3, 61, 64–7, 125, 127
- Prebish-Singer hypothesis 37
- product life cycle (PLC) 112–14
- project management
 - equipment 53
 - time 54
- publishing 106
 - data collection and analysis 108, 111, 122, 125
 - entrepreneurship research 120–123
 - Life Cycle of Academic Publishing (LCAP) 107, 112–14
 - and tenure 119–20
 - time and methods 111–12, 114–16
- ‘publish or perish’ 106, 107, 108, 119
- limitations and advantages 125
- models of entrepreneurship research 121–3
- and reputation 106–7, 119, 123
- researcher perceptions 123–7
- qualitative research 51, 53, 120
 - on entrepreneurship 70, 81, 85–9, 169
 - and generalizability 57
 - on science-to-business events 142, 146
 - use of social media 133–4
- quantitative research 51, 72, 88–9
 - classical regression models 81–6
 - cluster analysis 86–8
 - and context 70–71, 74–7, 80–81
 - factor analysis 86–7

- measurements 18, 73
- multilevel modelling 83–5
- Rasche, A. 144
- regression modelling 81–6, 89
- Regular Exemption model 26–8
- remittance payments 38, 41, 42
- reputation
 - gaining trust 100
 - and publishing 106–7, 119, 123
 - use of social media 132
- research gap
 - knowledge transfer 142, 155–62
 - and novelty 13, 15
 - and social networking 133
- research question 4, 50–51, 150
 - and research relevance 112, 127, 146–7
 - theoretical approaches 51–2
- research relevance and impact 2–3, 4, 58
 - and academic activism 101
 - and academic management 3
 - and academic organisation 4–5
 - challenges 6–8
 - and context 7, 11, 14–19, 167, 169, 171
 - entrepreneurship research 5, 32, 127, 167–73
 - and knowledge transfer 104–5
 - literature bridging 18–19
 - on practice 12, 61–7, 154
 - and publishing 125
 - research as a conversation 48–9
 - and topic efficacy 13, 109
 - use of social media 133
 - value of business events 143–7, 149–52
 - views of women in STEM 64–5
- research topic 11
 - effectiveness 109
 - novelty 13, 15, 109
 - product life cycle (PLC) 112–14
- Ribeiro, D. 97
- Rooks, G. et al. 71
- Rosemann, M. 61
- Rosenberg, T. 145
- Sá, E. S. de 73–4
- Said, E. 34
- Scapens, R. W. 119
- shareholders, tax exemptions 26, 29, 30–31
- Sharma, P. et al. 113
- Sherer, P.D. 157
- Siegel, D.S. et al. 154, 159, 160
- skill development 53, 108, 125, 154
- SMEs (small and medium-sized enterprises) 23, 168
 - business events 148
 - knowledge transfer 155, 156, 160
 - research on innovation and communication 50–51
 - tax exemption 24–8
 - see also* family business
- social media
 - distribution of research 130, 131, 133, 134, 136–7, 138
 - fighting for attention 137–8
 - impact 132–3, 135–6
 - motives for use 136–7
 - and reputation 132
- society
 - development and needs 168, 171, 172
 - and participation 48–9
 - research relevance and impact 4–6, 7, 168
 - and scientific communication 137–8
- Spivak, G. 93
- STEM, women in 61–2
 - attitudes and expectations 65–6
 - self-reflection in interviews 62–3
 - views on research relevance 64–5
- Strelecky, J. P. 5
- Structural Adjustment Programmes 36
- supervisors 3, 52, 108, 126
- taking a break 57–8
- tax exemptions 23–4
 - eligibility 25
 - for family businesses 25, 27, 29–31
 - models 26–8
 - for SMEs 24–5
- Tax Relief Assessment Procedure 27
- Tellis, G. J. 113
- tenure 7, 123
 - and fundraising 126
 - and publishing pressure 119–20, 123, 124, 127

- Ter Bogt, H. J. 119
'third task' efforts 4
Thomas, K.W. 144
time management 54
 and publishing 114–16
Traikova, D. et al. 73
training 53, 126–7
triangulation 57, 76
Tushman, M. 3
Tymon, W.G. 144
- van de Ven, A.H. 145
Vessey, I. 61
visibility, social networking 130, 131,
 132, 133, 136, 138, 139
- Walsh, J.P. 72–3
Webb, N. 84
Welter, F. 69–70, 75, 83, 88, 157, 160,
 167
Wiklund, J. 6, 83
Wilson, W. 154
Wolf, J. 145
women entrepreneurship 104
 and context 70, 72, 75
women in STEM 61–2
 attitudes and expectations 65–6
 self-reflection in interviews 62–3
 views on research relevance 64–5
- Zeidan, S. 70, 72, 75
Zuckerman, E. 14

