

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Foreword: Bicameralism in an age of populism Meg Russell	ix
1 The challenge of reforming bicameralism Richard Albert, Antonia Baraggia and Cristina Fasone	1
PART I THEORIES AND CHALLENGES TO BICAMERALISM: MULTI-TIERED GOVERNMENT SYSTEMS AND THE EU
2 Bicameralism. Multiple theoretical roots in diverging practices Maria Romaniello	16
3 ‘Visible’ and ‘invisible’ second chambers in unitary States: ‘Territorializing’ national legislatures in Italy and the United Kingdom Barbara Guastafarro	37
4 How does the European Union challenge bicameralism? Lessons from the Italian case Pietro Faraguna	58
5 The scrutiny of EU documents in bicameral systems: Opportunity or weakness? Wouter Wolfs and Caterina Cigala	76
6 The House of Lords faces up to Brexit Peter Leyland	96
7 Concluding chapter – Bicameralism in multi-tiered systems Patricia Popelier	107

PART II CHALLENGING UNICAMERALISM

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 8 | The shadow of bicameralism in a unicameral state:
Dispersed functional bicameralism in Bulgaria?
Mihail Vatsov and Polina Vakleva | 120 |
| 9 | Defending bicameralism and equalising powers: The case of Peru
Diego Serra | 142 |
| 10 | The failed referendum to abolish the Ireland's Senate:
Rejecting unicameralism in a small and relatively homogenous country
David Kenny | 163 |
| 11 | Concluding chapter – Unicameralism and 'masked'
bicameralism
Cristina Fasone | 183 |

PART III REFORMING OR ABOLISHING THE UPPER HOUSE?

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 12 | The Sénat Français of the Fifth Republic: The permanent paradox
Priscilla Jensel Monge | 194 |
| 13 | The future of Poland's second chamber: Is the Senate still needed?
Katarzyna Granat | 212 |
| 14 | Reshaping the National Council of the Republic of Slovenia
Dušan Štrus | 230 |
| 15 | Bicameralism(s) in the age of ethnicity: Prospects for reform of legislatures in Bosnia and Herzegovina
Nedim Kulenović | 248 |
| 16 | Concluding chapter – Bicameralism as a normative
choice in the tension between its reform and its passing
Giovanni Piccirilli | 267 |
| 17 | Conclusion – What are we to make of bicameralism in the twenty-first century? The reform trap
Cristina Fasone | 275 |
| | Index | 285 |