Acknowledgements

This handbook would not have been possible without the invaluable input of many bright and enthusiastic people. First and foremost, we are deeply indebted to the 32 contributors, who dedicated their time and expertise to this handbook. Without them, compiling and reviewing 25 chapters on all aspects of tax politics would have been impossible. In this regard, Julian Limberg deserves an honourable mention for repeatedly providing thorough and constructive reviews at very short notice. Given that this project began with a section on “Taxation in the twenty-first century” at the ECPR’s 2018 meeting in Hamburg, we also thank Despina Alexiadou, Per Andersson, Vincent Arel-Bundock, Loriana Crasnic, Richard Eccleston, Philipp Genschel, Christian von Haldenwang, Achim Kemmerling, Thomas Rixen, Nan Zhang, and Paula Zuluaga for the impressive jobs they did as panel chairs and discussants. The first milestone for the handbook was an inspiring discussion at the University of Bamberg, which would not have been possible without the invaluable organizational support provided by Claudia Genslein and Lea Maurer, and funding from the impact budget of the Horizon 2020 project “Combatting Fiscal Fraud and Empowering Regulators” generously made available by Duncan Wigan and smoothly administered by Svetlana Wolkov. Last but not least, we are grateful to Anna Damerow, Stefan Hee, Felicia Riethmüller, and Maxim Zubok, whose assistance greatly facilitated our editorial work.

Lukas Hakelberg acknowledges funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 research and innovation program 2014–18 under grant number 727145 – “Combatting Fiscal Fraud and Empowering Regulators.”

Laura Seelkopf acknowledges funding from the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (German Research Foundation) – Projektnummer 374666841 – SFB 1342.