

---

Tables

---

1.1	Formal and informal/assigned and non-assigned place leadership with illustrative examples from Finland based on empirical studies	8
3.1	Overview of historical strands of leadership research	48
4.1	Studying place leadership as a driver/enabler and/or as a consequence – an agenda for empirical research	65
6.1	Factors distinguishing formal and informal place leadership	95
9.1	The IIN typology simplified	163
11.1	Summary of supporting and hampering PLs in IDs in different phases of transitions	198
12.1	The four types of institutional change	208
12.2	The case study regions in brief	210
12.3	The patterns of place leadership in relation to institutional change, case Eastern Lapland	216
12.4	The patterns of place leadership in relation to institutional change, case Jakobstad	219
12.5	Comparison of place leadership in the two case sub-regions	221
13.1	University institutional architecture elements in regional engagement/leadership	231
17.1	Challenges and possible solutions in studies of agency in regional development	318
18.1	Main features of positivism, interpretivism and critical social science	328
18.2	Relationship between the cogenerative framework and territorial leadership	339